Jubiles Offering Pr ri, Elkely to Be New Commander, Commander.

The Commander of the Commander From Competition is keen between Toledo, opeka, Omnha and Kansas City for he pert encampment.

Competition is even with the property of the part encampment.

Indications point to the election of Charles G. Burton, of Nevada, Mo., as commander-in-chief, to succeed Commander Brown. There are five candidates in the field. At caucuese held Tuesday night Mr. Burton was indorsed by the departments of New York, Illinois, Ohio and Wilscomin. His election would continue in power the present forces which control the Grand Aray. For senior vice commander it is probable that Lewis E. Orlifith, of Tory, N. Y., will be chosen, and for junior vice commander, C. C. Royce, of Ban Francisco, appears like by to be elected.

Had a Cheer Coming.
Years ago, when the G. A. R. annual department exampment was held in Boeton, as the veterans were marching along one of the avenues a lady, who had secured an elevated position on a wagon in a side street, became conspicuous by the enthusians she displayed, and was dissantisted with the lack off it in the by-standers. "Cheer!" said she. "Why don't you cheer! I guess you'd cheer if you'd lost two husbands in the war as I did."—Life.

Laundry work at home would be much more satisfactory if the right starch were used. In order to get the desired eiffness, it is usually neces-sary to use so much starch that the beauty and fineness of the fabric is hidden behind a paste of varying thickness, which not only destroys the appearance, but also affects the wearing quality of the goods. This trouble can be eatirely overcome by using Defiance Starch, as it can be applied much more thinly because of its greater strength than other makes.

A Hepsiese Case.

"Yes," said the business man, "I have given up trying to collect that little bill from Bilkins. You see, he is a big, muscular fellow, and he used to throw my collectors out."

"Then why didn't you employ a woman collector! inquired a writer in Spare Moments. "He couldn't do that to a vunsan."

"That's what I thought, so I got one and seet her round, but she never came back."

"Why not?"

"He married her."

A Pardenable Fault.

Dr. Edward Everett Hale, discussing a rather finicky attack that had been made on certain recent statements, smiled and said:
"But who or what is blamelessa? It is like the case of the Scottish hen. An old Scottish woman whabed to sell a hen to a neighbor.
"But tell me,' the neighbor said, is she a'thegither a guid bird? Has she got nae fauta, nae fauts at all?"
"Awell, Marget,' the other old woman admitted, 'she has got one fault. She will lay on the Lord's day."

An Irishman who wasn't much of a hunter went out to hunt one day, and the first thing he saw to shoot at was a blue jay sitting saucity on the top of a fence. He blazed away at the bird and then walked over to pick it up. What be happened to find there was a dead frog, which he raised carefully at arm's length, locking at it with a puzied air.
