TRIP TO CALIFORNIA

"The Sweet By and By."

The sollowing article concerning a familiar song will be of interest and the fact that our village Clerk, Attorney L. H. Bennett, M. E. Bennett of Grove avenue and M. A. Bennett of Man Street are nephews of the writer of the song, and that the late J. W. Bennett of Alloysh street, who recently digld, was to Colorado was written by Mrs. Sarah Bowarth, a lady of over seventy years who shows remarkable abilities for her years in taking such a trip and penning such a good description of it. The immortal poem 'Sweet By and By 'is held in reverence by Christian-depot, Chicago, July 16th, for Denver, Colorado. We were two days and one hight on the way, crossing the Bowarth, a lady and one hight on the way, crossing the most beautiful declaration of the faith in mankind in the boundary of the state of the soul. At the Union depot in Denver, where all the trains arrive, there was an arch on which the word "Welcome" was illuminated with 2000 electric lights at night. Denver is a nice clean city and good for those who go there for their health. The Oaks home is a nice place for invalids, they are there from many countries. The Ellech Park in Denver was given by Mrs. Ellech and her home is in the center of the park surrounded by beautiful flowers. The national flower of Colorado is the Columbine.

The most wonderful mountain trip is the Georgetown loop; the cars wind in and out around the mountains until you get up to the mines at the top of the mountains; most of the miners there dig up their gold, then come down to Denver and stay util it is all gone; this trip is $4.00. The Moffat line is the most skillful entire exclusion left. Manitou a few minutes apart, that trip is $4.00.

We were at Colorado Springs for a few days, Williams Canyon, Cave of the Winds and the iron and, social springs, not bad to drink. The trip to Pike's Peak was grand; three sections left. When I had completed it I handed it to Webster. As he read he brightened up, and asked a friend who had come in, Mr. Bright, to loan him his violin. In a few minutes he envolved the melody and in thirty minutes from the time I had written the words we were singing it. Within two hours a quarette was singing it, in frost of the store. Within two weeks everyone was singing it."

The war was just giver and it seemed to bear the comfort to striken souls.

Do You Want to Make The Women Happy?

Shopping by Mail is vastly unsatisfactory to the Female.

There isn't a woman Christendom—or in Islam-who doesn't pre-fer ten times over the trip through a store to trip to the postoffice. Why, Lord bless their hearts, the ladies love to shop! It's just as unsatisfying and artificial to shop by mail as to make love by mail—and that's the limit.

But, while the wome

The page with the big gest shopping ads. Sure thing! Won't fail one time in ten. Test it and see.

In communities where the merchants don't advertise big enough to tempt the women, what happens! The Mail Order Catalogue comes along, full of attractive ads, with prices put down in black and white. The women read the catalogue; they are tempted by the bargains offered; they send their money by mail.

Thus they miss nine-tenths of the glory and joy of shopping. But what else can the poor ladies do?

Now, Mr. Merchant of Our Town, be good to the ladies. Give them some interesting reading matter. Print some of your bargains in your home paper. Put the prices there in black and white.

Isn't it really a pity to deprive the ladies of one of their supreme delights—shopping, soeing things, inspecting before taking!

BE GOOD TO THE LADIES AND YOU'LL BE PROSPEROUS.

Although a hymn to be sung M funerals it has a litting air to it that is half joyful. It is the funeral hymn of the free masons. Mr. Bennett was a Mason of high degree. Semi-Annual Gathering.

Semi-Annual Gathering.

On Tuesday evening, the members and employes of the C. F. Hall Co. held their semi-annual gathering and partook of a supper furnished by Brey & Johns on new firm of caterers. Hitherto this meeting has always occurred at the time of declaring the semi-annual employes' dividend, but it was this year deferred until all employes had returned from their summer vacations. In order to give full opportunity for the enjoyment of the repast, the store was closed an hour earlier than usual and the guests, some thirty in number, immediately adjourned to the room in which the supper was served. Following the supper was supper was
