

Barrington Local Happenings Told In Short Paragraphs

My Enemy

I shall not fear my foe,
What'er his strength may be,
If he will let me know
Who hate he beats for me.
But how may I defend—
However weak his arm—
Myself against the "friend"
Who waits to do me harm?

They Say That:

It takes hot water to bring out the good qualities in a lobster.

Those persons who make the best use of their time have none to spare.

There's lots of beauty in the world, but the man who travels in the alley can't expect to see it.

The man who says that he works like a dog generally speaks the truth. Just watch a dog work some time.

"That success costs too dear," which is attained by a sacrifice of truth, honor or justice.

The man who boasts that he is self-made, never gives his wife credit for putting the finishing touches on a crude piece of work.

If you keep your eye on the other fellow try to discover his good qualities as well as his yellow streaks.

Too much rests given one a tired feeling.

No money is tainted worse than that which is kept in the cold storage pocket.

When God wants a man to come in ahead he frequently gives him a hand-icap.

It is hard work and not cleverness that turns opportunity into success.

You should cut your own path. Don't try to square up on the other fellow's lines. They may be slanting.

You should not watch your competitor too closely. Put in the time in hustling your own business.

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. For the present occasion he will be seen in a musical lodge-podge; he is assisted by a number of pretty girls. May Doley who achieved a success in vaudeville last season with her headliner act known as "May Doley and her Polly Girls" will be another attraction in her show girl and saleslady monologue specialty. The act will be embellished with original costume novelties and will be interspersed with new songs. John C. "Cause I have a dandy new new miter and mackintosh," replied the eternal womanly.—Judge.

Did you ever think of the field of opportunity that advertising opens to you? There is almost no limit to the possibilities of your business if you study how to turn trade into your store. If you are not getting your share of the business of your community there's a reason. People go where they are attracted—where they know what they can get, and how much it is sold for. If you make direct statements in your advertising see to it that you are able to fulfill every promise you make. You will add to your business reputation and hold your customers. It is the persistent advertiser who gets there. Have something in this paper every issue, no matter how small. It will not cost as much as you think. If you do not employ an ad writer and do not wish to write your own copy, we will get up your ads in a manner which will satisfy you, and at no additional charge. We will be pleased to quote you prices.
