A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equalled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by Barrington Pharmacy. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

At the Majestic

Continuing its policy of offering only the best in vaudeville, the Majestic theatre, Chicago, has arranged for the week of November 11th another of its remarkable bills. Eva Tanquary, the cyclone comedienne, will be one of the star attractions, she captivates her audiences with her personal magnetism. Another big act which will be seen here for the first time is the Song Birds with a company of thirty people, originally produced at one of the gambols of the Lamb's Club in New York. It met with so great a success that it was immediately staged. It is a timely travesty on the New York Grand Opera War. The principal "birds" are Oscar Hammerstein and Con the Concor. Adele Oswald, a Chicago girl who was in a number of the Chicago Opera House musical productions, is a member of the company, playing the part of Emma Screamers. One of the comedy elements of the bill will be provided by Charles Evans and company who present a one-act farce called "His Up to You, William". Mr. Evans is the Evans of Evans and Hoy. A startling musical novelty will be The Immensaphone, introducing as a special feature an America battle scene. Violet Dale, America's greatest mimic, with imitations of such famous stage favorites as Anna Held, Eddie Foy, Marie Dressler, Fay Templeton, Mrs. Carter and numerous others. Aside from these stars there are a dozen equally entertaining acts.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weakness. Great alternative and body builder; best of all for lame back and weak kidneys. "Guaranteed by Barrington Pharmacy, 50c."

At McVickers.

George M. Cohan's successful music play, "Forty-Five Minutes from Broadway" is playing a month's engagement in McVicker's theatre, Chicago, and is filling that playhouse to its capacity. This attraction has the honor of celebrating the golden jubilee of this historic theatre, that event occurring Tuesday night, Nov. 5th. J. H. McVicker opened the theatre Thursday, Nov. 5th, 1871, with a comedy by Tobin, "The Honeymoon" and an after piece "The Rough Diamond", and now fifty years after Cohan's fine play rounds out the half century. Emma Carus, one of the comedienne of the day, and a woman of delightful personality and rich contralto voice, is playing Mary Jenkins, the housemaid heroine of the piece, and Scott Welsh, a young singer and comedian, is the "Kid" Burns of the cast. Attention to detail is one of the marked features of the performance. For the accommodation of visitors from out of town, arrangements have been made to give three performances Thanksgiving Day. One at 11 o'clock A. M., one at 2:30 P. M. and the final at 8:15 P. M. The engagement will close Saturday night Nov. 30.

The doctors have finally agreed upon the cause of Markley's illness. "Ah, they had another consultation!" No. Postmortem - Exchange.

Boom Your Business

Did you ever think of the field of opportunity that advertising opens to you? There is almost no limit to the possibilities of your business if you study how to turn trade into your store. If you are not getting your share of the business of your community there's a reason. People go where they are attracted—where they know what they can get and how much it is sold for. If you make direct statements in your advertising see to it that you are able to fulfill every promise you make. You will add to your business reputation and hold your customers. It is the persistent advertiser who gets there. Have something in this paper every issue, no matter how small. It will not cost as much as you think. If you do not employ an ad writer and do not wish to write your own copy we will get up your ads in a manner which will satisfy you, and at no additional charge. We will be pleased to quote you prices.
