THE PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL MESSAGE

GAUSES OF THE PRESENT FINAN GIAL CONDITIONS IS MADE THE CHIEF TOPIC.

SUGGESTS REMEDIES FOR ILLS

illevee This Would Solve-the Prob-lem Together with Provision for More Elastic Currency—Recom-mends Postal Banks and Asks for Legislation Along Many Lines.

Legislation Along Many Lines.

Washington. Dec. 2.— Presidest Rosewell's annual message to congress is a voluminous document of nearly state of the property of the following the first property of the first property of the first property of the property of the first property of the prop about be so framed as to give to the interatate commerce commission power to jeas upon the future issue of securities while ample means should be proceed to the securities of the securities of sees combinations. Méders industrial conditions are such that combination is so in the world of housiness just as it is so in the world of housiness just as it is so in the world of housiness just as it is so in the world of housiness just as it is so in the world of housiness just as it is so in the world of housiness just as it is so in the world of housiness in the condition of his property managed in a source of good and not writ. Whenever in either therecount; but it should receive hearty encount; but it should receive hearty encounting the control of the control of some proceedings instituted. Soot a lower processing to the state of the process of the same of the control of well-being of the water worker must every the selection of our coast line into the process of the selection of the coast line into the process of the selection of the coast line into the process of the selection of the coast line into the selection is the selection of the coast line into the selection is the selection of the se