A Sensitive Soul.

Owen Mudge was a very sensitive man. More than once at a harsh word he had forsaken profitable work and gone home for sympathy to his wife. One morning Owen started court a her tempyuling machine and was preparing to clear a field.

Toward noon Owen came back Mrs. Mudge sighed and waited sympathetically for the explanation.

"I just couldn't stand it," said Owen, rubbing his jaw. "When I see that stumppulier twist them roots out, it reminded me so of the times I went to the dentiat to get back teeth extracted. The first thing I knew I was limp as, a rar, and I just ached all over and had to quit."—Youth's Companion.

lowed the announcement of the verdict.

The prisoner had arrived at her cell in the city hall—a dark, lil-ventilated room directly under the criminal court—an hour before court opened, and remained there with her eldest son, Arthur, until the jury filed in. She was dressed in black and with suppressed excitement watched the jury. There were tears in her eyes, but she bore up bravely and there were no indications of a collapse, as might have been expected at the crisis of such an ordeal. Immediately after the jury deliv-

The jury was then discharged and Mrs. Bradley was released from custody.

She was immediately charged and Mrs. Bradley was re-leased from custody.

She was immediately surrounded by men and women from among the spectators, who pressed upon her con-gratulations. She returned to the cell from which she had come to hear the verdict and there she received a few visitors. She thanked them for their congratulations and expressed her re-lief at the conclusion of her trial.

Detroit Woman Then Puts Builet in Her Own Brain.

Detroit, Mich.—Dr. J. A. Attridge, aged 38, and his patient, Mrs. John B. Griffith, aged 35, were taken to hospitals Tuesday night from Mrs. Griffith's room in the Roycourt apartments, 318 Randolph street, both shot through the head and in a critical condition.

through the head and in a critical condition.

Mrs. Griffith had been in Harper hospital several weeks receiving treatment and had just been removed to her rooms under the direction of Dr. Attridge when the shooting occurred. Mrs. Griffith's sister, Miss Stella Wade, of Holly, Mich, had compiled with her sister's request to leave the room when she saw Dr. Attridge rushing from the bedroom after her and saw him fall to the floor in the dhing-room as the first shot rang out. As Miss Wade ran toward the street to call for help she heard the second shot. When neighbors entered they found Mrs. Griffith lying in bed with a revolver near her and her brain plerced by a buillet. Dr. Attridge lay wounded in the disling-room.

St. Petersburg.—The American secretary of war, William H. Taft, was accorded a hearty welcome here Tuesday. He arrived in St. Petersburg in the morning from Moscow and after a round of official visits and a brief rest, visited the Duma, where he spent half an hour listening to the debate n the ministerial declaration.

In the evening Secretary Taft attended a banquet given in his honor by prominent Americans, and made a speech in which he emphatically denied that his round-the-world trip had aught to do with a special policy of the United States, whose sole policy, he said, was one of peace for all nations.

The dispute between the captain and the salor arose out of a difference as to the best way of splitting a rope.

PRODUCTIVE POWER OF WESTERN GANADA SOIL

Winnipeg Correspondence.

There has never been any who have doubted the productiveness of the soil of Western Canada, but there are sometimes found those who question the fact of its superiority. During the past season it has been shown that in grain raising qualities it possessed the very best. The late spring prevented grain being sown in many cases before the middle of May. Yet, a large percentage of that sown at that time produced excellent yields. Had it, which visited most of the north half of the continent, there, would have been a magnificent yield in every district in Western Canada. Throughout the Southern Alberta district where about 100,000 scree was sown to vinater wheat the yield will be enormously large. There are vast tracts of valuable grain growing land in Western Canada that are available for homesteads, the Canadian Government giving 100 acres free, and entry may be, the growing the south of the continuation of the south of the continuation of the cont

The Worst Was Yet to Come.

A southern pulpit orator, one Sunday morning, was describing the experience of the prodigal son. In its endeavor to impress his bearers with the shame and remorse that this young man felt and his desire to cast away his wicked doings, he spoke thus:

thus:
"Dis young man got to thinking about his meanness and his misery, and he tuk off his coat and frowed it away. And den he tuk off his west and frowed dat away. And den he tuk off his shirt and frowed dat away too. And den he come to hisself."
