

BARRINGTON REVIEW.

VOL. 23. NO. 13.

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS, FRIDAY, JUNE 7, 1907

$1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

NO SUNDAY GAMES

President Spunner Announces
That No More Sunday Ball Game Will Be Allowed.

The village board meeting held Monday evening was largely devoted to Sunday base ball. Large delegations representing the promoters of the National game and other citizens were in attendance when President Spunner called the meeting to order. The roll call showed all members present with the exception of Clerk L. H. Bennett. Trustee Plagge was chosen as clerk pro-tem.

After the reading of the minutes of the preceding meeting and the report of Treasurer Jenkins' monthly report all but the president were allowed with the exception of those presented by S. J. Parker, which was referred to committee for approval.

The president then announced the following appointments. Village Attorney Wm. H. Holly of Chicago; Superintendent of water works, Wm. Hager. The appointments were confirmed. Mr. Holly is unknown to members of the board but is highly recommended by President Spunner.

Trustee Lageschulte, chairman of committee on streets and sidewalks, stated that new cross walks were needed on Main, Station and South Hawley streets between Hough and Cemetery and asked advice as to location of these crossings. After some discussion the matter was left in the hands of the committee.

Trustee Peters, chairman of committee on license, reported that it was agreed by committee to reduce the license on bowling alleys to $15 and pool and billiard tables to $10. They also voted favorable to the permitting of one or two fish and drink shop without charge as something is collected for the use of these tables. An ordinance is to be prepared in accordance with report of committee.

Trustee Lageschulte wanted to know if anything was to be done to enforce Section 5 of ordinance regarding ball games on Sunday should be enforced and invited anyone present to take up later during the meeting.

President Spunner then asked the board as to whether ordinance prohibiting ball games on Sunday should be enforced and invited anyone present to air their views upon the matter.

J. E. Heise was the first speaker and said in part that he was a property owner, tax payer and interested in the welfare of the village. He thought it his moral duty to say that he believed the ordinances should be enforced as they are and wanted to live in a town that lived up to them. He further stated that violation of these ordinances you live in a low moral grade of people to locate here.

Edward Martin was the spokesman for the ball clubs, which was well represented at the meeting and said that he and many others were obliged to work six days a week and that Sunday was the only day they had for recreation. Could not see any harm in a baseball game as long as it was orderly and played as it is in a remote section of the village. He also spoke on other violations of the ordinances such as keeping hogs and cattle within the village limits and maintaining barbed wire fences.

C. O. Winter said that he thought ball playing on Sunday was annoying to those who wished to keep the Sabbath day and that if they must play ball on Sunday it should be outside of the village limits.

Bev. Gagnier, pastor of the Baptist church, said that he was not a citizen but expected to become one and felt it his duty to say something on the subject while he had the opportunity. He said no one would expect him to utter such a favorable game that would draw away from society of decent and good people to which these players run back and forth.

Former Village Attorney McIntosh expressed the opinion that if any citizen desired an ordinance enforced he did not necessarily have to present the matter to the village board. It is within the power of the citizen to see that ordinances are lived up to without the consent of the village board and said that if violations were annoying to him that he would see that they were enforced.

H. A. Hardeen thought that when a man accepted office and took the oath of office he promised to see that all ordinances were enforced. He asked the opinion of the president on the subject. President Spunner said to a reasonable extent, yes. He thought however, it was a delicate matter to cause the arrest of sons of members of the board in other editions. He said that he believed it better for the boys to play ball at home than to go to Lake Zurich and other points where they got "full."

Mr. Hardeen further said he was ashamed of the influence that ball games have had and thought too much money had to be paid to overcome the evil. If it were to be allowed you might as well close up the churches. He said he was willing to join with any good citizen to down the sport.

W. W. Holmes, who owns the property just east of the ball grounds in question, thought his property rights were being interfered with. He did not want to be imposed upon by a mob or crowd yelling on Sundays.

Trustee Lageschulte said that he was a friend of the boys and liked to see them have their fun, but thought the boys would think them in the future if Sunday games were not permitted.

Trustee Plagge said that this village had been known as being quiet and orderly on Sunday, and that if the ball games were annoying to anyone they should be stopped.

Trustee Dickey was of the opinion that if any citizen wished to take the matter up it was their privilege.

President Spunner, who earlier in the meeting talked favorable to the allowing of ball games on Sunday, then instructed the clerk to notify the Base Ball club that the Sunday games must cease. He also said that saloons must be closed on Sunday and other ordinances enforced.

The Chicago Telephone company presented a proposition to furnish telephones for a fire alarm system to members of the fire department at a reduction of 25 per cent. No action was taken and their proposition was placed upon file.

Edward Magee was allowed five dollars per month as public benefit for publishing interests during the season. He is required to pay the regular license fee of ten dollars for the season. Board then adjourned.

Will Build Hospital.

Following a plan inaugurated two years ago, The Tribune this year again will conduct a summer hospital for the care and treatment of convalescent women and children of the congested districts, and will mark the transition of its summer charity work from the experimental stage to an indispensable phase of the charity work of the city by the erection of a permanent hospital building. A wooded ridge, overlooking Fox river and lying halfway between Algonquin and Cary, has been selected as the site for The Tribune's permanent summer hospital. Next week the builders will begin erecting a building which, when completed, will represent the highest type of modern, sanitary hospital construction.

The costs for the temporary accommodations of the patients will be paid for occupancy on June 15, when The Tribune again will take up its work of affording relief to the feeble, maimed and poorly nourished infants of the river wards. They will be given uninterrupted care by trained nurses and competent physicians until they have regained their health and strength.

After hunting for a site offering only natural attractions, but every facility for proper drainage and sanitation, the twenty new tract lying midway between Algonquin and Cary was selected.

The site had been selected by a Chicago physician for a sanitarium. At first it seemed to be unavailable, the physician was called to another city to accept a hospital appointment and surrendered his option. At once the bureau of charities purchased the land. It is on the part of the masons and carpenters to begin the work of building the permanent Tribune hospital early next week.

John M. Ewer, builder of many of Chicago's most noteworthy buildings, has consented to build the hospital. His generous offer of cooperation means that nothing will be left undone to make The Tribune hospital a model.

The hospital will occupy the crest of a great hill, 55 feet above the level of the water and will be 100 feet square and surrounded on all sides by broad porches for rainy days.

A trained head housekeeper, an experienced head nurse, and a staff of trained nurses will be organized as soon as the medical staff has been organized. This location is almost directly west of Barrington on the west side of the river a distance of about seven miles.

Lady Cystine can you tell me if there is any Saxon work in this church? Old 'Mtn.-Loc' bless you, mum, I be the Saxon-Punch.

S. J. Fulton, principal, salary $1,200
Cora B. Ellis " 650
Mattie L. Hodgkins " 600
Allen L. Cudahy " 600
Bernice A. Hawley " 450
John C. Smith " 550
Grace L. Burrows " 550

The position of science teacher for the High school is yet to be filled.

Do You Love This Old Town?

If you do, of course you want to see the town grow. You want to see the storekeepers prosper, and the banks bulge with deposits, and the townspeople wearing glad clothes, and the farmers falling over each other to come in and buy new hay rakes and patent plows. Of course you do. Because, likewise of course, when things are that way you get your share of the general prosperity.

But what are you doing to contribute to the general prosperity? Are you patronizing home industries in preference to outside industries? Do you buy your clothes and groceries and garden tools and so forth here at home?

Well, you admit, you do send away for a good many things you happen to see advertised. Aha! And are they advertised in this paper? No, indeed—in the mail order journals and catalogues. Quite true. And you would just as soon buy them here if they were advertised by the local merchants, wouldn't you? Why, yes.

Well, now, there's a neat hint to some of our local storekeepers and dealers who perhaps haven't discovered why they are losing a lot of home trade which they ought to keep.

It's a wise business man that knows his own opportunities.

Bridal Shower.

The bridal shower given last Friday evening by Misses Cora Jahnke and Elvira Arps at Miss Jahnke's home on the north side for Miss Mabel Banks, was attended by eleven young ladies all anxious to play joker on the young bride-to-be and also to present her with articles of household linen for the new home in Austin. The girls made quite a display and will for every weekly baseball game remind Miss Banks of her girl friends who were besides the hostesses, the Misses Waiters, Oils, Jenkins, Mrs. Tuttle, M. Wagner, E. Wagner and Mrs. Howard Heron.

The parents were certainly amusing and one contest tried must have been quite a spectacle. Each girl in turn experimented in trying to write the size of a person while balancing herself on one hand and seated on a jag. Miss Beulah Oils received the honor for "striking a balance" and by her success will be the next girl of the crowd to be married.

Another game was the guessing of hidden titles in various articles scattered around the room and Miss Mabel Wagner thought out the most of the confusing ideas. A third trial was a feat of memory. A list was read of what a bride might ask her husband to order the first time he went marketing for her, and each girl had to write the list from memory. Miss Oils drew the prize. Several girls were in her in the list.

The site had been selected by a Chicago physician for a sanitarium. At first it seemed to be unavailable, the physician was called to another city to accept a hospital appointment and surrendered his option. At once the bureau of charities purchased the land. It is on the part of the masons and carpenters to begin the work of building the permanent Tribune hospital early next week.

John M. Ewer, builder of many of Chicago's most noteworthy buildings, has consented to build the hospital. His generous offer of cooperation means that nothing will be left undone to make The Tribune hospital a model.

The hospital will occupy the crest of a great hill, 55 feet above the level of the water and will be 100 feet square and surrounded on all sides by broad porches for rainy days.

A trained head housekeeper, an experienced head nurse, and a staff of trained nurses will be organized as soon as the medical staff has been organized. This location is almost directly west of Barrington on the west side of the river a distance of about seven miles.

Lady Cystine can you tell me if there is any Saxon work in this church? Old 'Mtn.-Loc' bless you, mum, I be the Saxon-Punch.

S. J. Fulton, principal, salary $1,200
Cora B. Ellis " 650
Mattie L. Hodgkins " 600
Allen L. Cudahy " 600
Bernice A. Hawley " 450
John C. Smith " 550
Grace L. Burrows " 550

The position of science teacher for the High school is yet to be filled.

A. G. HOUGHTALING.

Card of Thanks.

The family of the late Wm. Babcock desire to thank the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted in their late bereavement especially the Barrington Post.

MR. AND MRS. CHAS. BABCOCK.

MR. AND MRS. UMBREDSTOCK.

MR. AND MRS. CHRISTOPHERSTON.

Buy your paints, oils, varnishes, brushes, etc., of LAMEY & COMPANY.

Celebrates Birthday Anniversary.

Mrs. Carrie Kendall celebrated her forty-ninth birthday last Saturday afternoon with a card party for lady friends. Those present were the sixteen ladies of the Friday Card club as it was originally organized and the twelve members of the club as it now exists; others were Madames Arts and Devos of Palatine, Mr. and Mrs. Spangler of Elgin, Madames Morrison, Julia, Mrs. Hawley, Emily Hawley, Peck, Johnson and Colby.

Seven tables played progressive cinch and Mrs. Peck received first prize, a chinc plaque; Mrs. Hannah Powers took second place, a handkerchief and Mrs. F. O. Williams, third, a glass sugar and creamer. A pair of the ladies presented Mrs. Kendall a silver teaspoon engraved with their names, and others joined in giving her a cut glass bowl.

The party was a very pleasant affair and a supper was served with the following menu:

Carrots and Peas Gouache
Enclosed Corn
Bread and Butter Pickles
Individual Short Cakes
Wafers
Coffee

Tell of the Good Points.

A lady, a member of an educated family, who moved to Barrington a few years ago, recently said that when they came here, everyone seemed to vie with others in telling the family all the nice things they had about Barrington people, and she says that the family were much impressed by an article that appeared in the Review last August, saying it might be well to publish the article every week until our townsperson learned the art of "speaking a good word." We again present the article by request. "Did you ever stop to think how much kinder, more Christian-like and diplomatic it would be to tell strangers settling here of all the good points concerning the town and our people and to refrain from presenting all the evil to their minds? Everyone who comes here to stay is seized upon by those who have lived here longer and hold all the scandals, sorrows and troubles of our family in town, so that long before the stranger knows people by sight, he knows much of their private affairs, which which are supposed to be personal and private but which are public property."

Perhaps the stranger would rather not listen, and only does so, not to offend you. Perhaps he would prefer knowing people as he finds them, instead of by their past lives. "Charity, covereth a multitude of sins," so have charity in your hearts for the shortcomings of acquaintances and old friends, and make it a point to say good and kind things about people, especially to strangers. Life is hard enough for many without you helping to add a little heavier burden."

Large Surprise Party.

About the largest party given in a private home here this year was the surprise on Samuel Landwehr Wednesday evening. He received a surprise, for Mr. Landwehr on his birthday from the tall game was astonished to find eighty-nine friends gathered at his home, including those young and old, Mrs. Landwehr and brother, Edward and Charles Thies, planned the party in honor of Mr. Landwehr's thirty-third birthday and his recent recovery from a serious illness.

The Barrington Band serenaded the guests and remained to play during the evening. The entire time was a great pleasure and much good fun was current with games and talk. When the bounteous supper of all kinds of appetizing foods was served, the young men present were delighted to find a birthday cake surrounded by candles indicating the host's age, for he has always kept the matter a secret. The boys all counted about the number of candles as they were lighted, much to the confusion of "Sam".

Woman's Club Meets.

The Woman's club met Thursday with Mrs. Fred Stoddard. The afternoon was filled with studies of philanthropic movements, especially in prison work. Mrs. F. N. Lapham read a paper on general charity work, Mrs. Ida Benett read of the work of Maud Ballinger, Post Booth of the Volunteer Army and Madames M. E. Bennett, Simmons and Schwemmen read short articles. The ladies voted to donate $5 to the Lincoln Park Sanitarium. This meeting closes the year's work. A picnic will be given later in the summer.

Leave your orders for ice at Roy Myers' confectionery store and same will receive prompt attention. GEO. O. PRUSIA & COMPANY.

UNITE TO DECORATE

Four Fraternal Societies Join in Observing a Memorial Day, Sunday.

Sunday morning, June 2nd, the Modern Woodmen of America, Camp No. 809 of Barrington, attended church in a body in accordance with their annual custom. Fifty members gathered at the hall and at nine thirty o'clock went to Main street cemetery, wearing their lodge badges, gloves and insignia headed by Philip A. Hawley, carrying a large American flag. After the ceremony of decorating two graves, the lodge entered St. Paul's church and Rev. Stanger conducted the regular morning service with a sermon addressed especially to the Woodmen. The church choir sang appropriate hymns during the service with Miss Emma Miller as leading soprano.

Rev. Stanger greeted the lodge cordially and expressed his pleasure in being selected to address them on their Memorial day. He commended their custom of taking a few hours each year together. The day marked the time all over the country for Woodmen to let their thoughts dwell on sacred memories and duties. This civic society wishes to proclaim in fitting manner the standpoint taken by it in doing works of love, charity and devotion to those in need. The Woodmen's axe symbolizes the clearing away of trouble from the paths of those in distress, and may that axe ever split and hew down the trees of hatred, envy, bad influence and disloyalty to friends. May the Woodmen grow in strength and increase in their personal blessing to himself and to his order, by the sign of the axe, clearing the way to harmony and peace among brothers.

Sunshine and warmth which the inclement spring has taught us to appreciate so highly, was granted for the afternoon meeting of the four lodges which joined this year, for the first time in a "Fraternal Memorial Day." The procession started finally from the Woodmen hall and was the longest one on record. Philip Hawley, as flag bearer marched at the head; next followed the Barrington Cornet band with their fine uniforms and their band caps trimmed with a bouquet of flowers; ladies of the Royal Neighbors, Mayflower camp, marched third, with lodge banners embroidered in words telling their lodge principles and last the Woodmen, Odd Fellows, Knights of the Goblet and Court of Honor.

At the cemetery sixteen graves were visited in all. Several of these passed away belonged to more than one of the societies, so that the Woodmen had nine members lying there, the Odd Fellows three, the Court of Honor four and the Knights of the Goblet three. Lyman Powers was in charge of the program and James Melvin, head Forester of the Woodmen, directed the line of march. The band and its leader, Prof. Horn, played several selections that were very excellent music, and during one of them sang in good harmony. A gentlemen's quartette also sang several hymns well.

Attorney A. J. Redmond of Oak Park, formerly our village attorney, also spoke of the occasion. His talk was delivered in a clear, pleasing voice. He recalled to mind the sacred memory of brother's gone beyond the shades to a spiritual home, saying that the love of God and the love of his brotherhood are the best of all. He exhorted the young to be true to their God and to their brotherhood. We have the same origin and the same end, why then should not the principles of all lodges—charity and loyalty, be practiced among men? Neither creed, nationality nor calling should be considered, but efforts should be expended to make all lives happy and worthy. The living and dead soldiers of the Civil War, present examples to our mind of what we in our day should desire to be. Mr. Redmond paid high homage to the ladies taking part in the day exercises, telling of the great influence towards all that is noble, exerted by the true American mother. To men is given the responsibility of earning a living, and to women is given the burden of bearing and rearing.

Rev. Stanger offered the invoking prayer and later spoke briefly, saying "that his silence was golden on such an occasion, for it indicated a heart full of feeling too strong for words and he asked God's blessing for all."

Subscribe for THE REVIEW.

In order to balk the muckrakers, the man who gave $1,000,000 to Princeton university has said his name.

Paris cab horses work only every other day and are fed on the days they work only, not on the days they "rest."

A New York woman has been paralyzed while listening at the telephone. Some one must have cut loose at central for sure.

It has been computed that there are $12,000,000,000 in gold and jewels at the bottom of the sea on the route between England and India.

A marriage epidemic in a Pennsylvania town threatens to close the schools for lack of teachers who have succumbed to the plague. It is an aspect of the theory, educational system of legislation which will keep Cupid from interfering with the best laid plans of school boards and pedagogical experts.

A Frenchman has invented a process of subjecting oats, wheat, rye and other cereals to currents of hot air, which preserves them from mold. French scientists claim that the invention has great practical value in wheat producing countries, where mold causes immense loss during transportation.

The cold weather which prevailed all over Europe last winter is making a tremendous demand for fuel. It is not merely in Russia and North Germany, says the London Statist, that the cold has been intense. In southern Italy, southern Russia and at Constantinople the frost has been unusually severe.

Consul W. H. Bradley of Manchester sends a statement signed by the officials of the British United Textile Factory Workers' association, warning laborers not to flock to that city for employment, as every department in the seven miles around is to its fullest capacity, and there is no scarcity of adult mill labor.

According to the report of the minister of mines and forests, the yield of gold in Victoria for the year 1905 amounted to $10,050 ounces gross, or 747,165 ounces fine, representing a value of approximately $15,900,000. The total output since the first discovery to the end of 1905 amounts to $8,367,403 ounces gross, with an estimated value of $137,000,000.

The only English woman admitted by royal decree in recent years to any of the ancient orders of chivalry is Queen Alexandra, who is a Lady of the Garter. As such her majesty wears the broad ribbon of the Garter over her left shoulder on state occasions, the star upon the left shoulder, and when the Garter is worn at all it is clasped on the left arm.

Not only does Henry Vane of Rockville, Conn., enjoy the distinction of being the only negro railroad conductor in the country, but he has also the honor of being one of the men who have been longest in continuous railroad service in the country, having been employed as a conductor for 42 years. He is the brother of a man who has been employed on the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad since it was opened to traffic in 1863.

The telegraph does not reach everywhere. News arrived in London early in April that there had been a fight last December between British soldiers and natives on the west coast of Lake Chad, in central Africa, during which 11 men were killed and 42 wounded. It took more than three months for the particulars of the struggle to reach civilization and a telegraph line.

Salvador has sent a sensible man to represent it in Washington. The new minister said the other day that the Salvadorean and the citizens of the other Central American countries are getting tired of the old regime, he said, and that if all the money spent for slaughter and the gratification of selfish ambitions of some individuals had been turned to the building of good roads, schools and other instrumentalities of civilization, Central America would comprise one united, prosperous and happy nation to-day.

Though she is not yet a social "it," Miss Helen Tatt has been nickname "the 'dixie girl' of Maryland." The title had its origin in her fondness for a certain style of dressing. The daughter of the secretary of war is almost 17 and will "come out" in the last winter of the Roosevelt administration. She is a classmate of Miss Ethel Roosevelt in the cathedral school. Miss Tatt has been in the orient and can rattle off Filipino phrases.

Perhaps the most famous of all the skippers on the Atlantic to-day is Capt. Kari Kaempf, commander of the great Hamburg-American speed record-breaker Deutschland. Capt. Kaempf, or, as his friends prefer to call him, Commodore Kaempf, has been following the sea for nearly 40 years, and yet he is only a little over 52 years of age.

The Massachusetts statesman who says that everybody ought to take a month's rest doesn't provide for the numerous people who cannot be persuaded to do a month's work.

TESTIMONY IS BEGUN

EIGHT WITNESSES EXAMINED IN HAYWOOD TRIAL.

ALL ARE FROM CALDWELL

Steunenberg's Son Among Those Heard — Prosecution's Opening Statement Accuses "Inner Circle" of Many Murders.

Boise, Idaho.—Through James H. Hawley, senior of the group of prosecutors, the state of Idaho Tuesday made the opening statement against William D. Haywood, whom it charges with the murder of Frank Steunenberg, and then began the presentation of testimony by which it hopes to prove the indictment laid against him.

The opening statement was a sweeping arraignment of the leaders of the Federation of Miners, whom it charged with plotting wholesale and secret hitmen assassins, all in a giant conspiracy of vengeance upon those who obstructed their sway to destroy opposition by terrorism, to control the political destinies of the communities covered by their organization, and to perpetuate their own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy dating in inception from the North Idaho disturbance 15 years ago,

which it accused of having

murdered hitmen assassins, all in a

giant conspiracy of vengeance upon

those who obstructed their sway to

destroy opposition by terrorism,

to control the political destinies of

the communities covered by their

organization, and to perpetuate their

own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy

dating in inception from the North

Idaho disturbance 15 years ago,

which it accused of having

murdered hitmen assassins, all in a

giant conspiracy of vengeance upon

those who obstructed their sway to

destroy opposition by terrorism,

to control the political destinies of

the communities covered by their

organization, and to perpetuate their

own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy

dating in inception from the North

Idaho disturbance 15 years ago,

which it accused of having

murdered hitmen assassins, all in a

giant conspiracy of vengeance upon

those who obstructed their sway to

destroy opposition by terrorism,

to control the political destinies of

the communities covered by their

organization, and to perpetuate their

own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy

dating in inception from the North

Idaho disturbance 15 years ago,

which it accused of having

murdered hitmen assassins, all in a

giant conspiracy of vengeance upon

those who obstructed their sway to

destroy opposition by terrorism,

to control the political destinies of

the communities covered by their

organization, and to perpetuate their

own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy

dating in inception from the North

Idaho disturbance 15 years ago,

which it accused of having

murdered hitmen assassins, all in a

giant conspiracy of vengeance upon

those who obstructed their sway to

destroy opposition by terrorism,

to control the political destinies of

the communities covered by their

organization, and to perpetuate their

own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy

dating in inception from the North

Idaho disturbance 15 years ago,

which it accused of having

murdered hitmen assassins, all in a

giant conspiracy of vengeance upon

those who obstructed their sway to

destroy opposition by terrorism,

to control the political destinies of

the communities covered by their

organization, and to perpetuate their

own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy

dating in inception from the North

Idaho disturbance 15 years ago,

which it accused of having

murdered hitmen assassins, all in a

giant conspiracy of vengeance upon

those who obstructed their sway to

destroy opposition by terrorism,

to control the political destinies of

the communities covered by their

organization, and to perpetuate their

own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy

dating in inception from the North

Idaho disturbance 15 years ago,

which it accused of having

murdered hitmen assassins, all in a

giant conspiracy of vengeance upon

those who obstructed their sway to

destroy opposition by terrorism,

to control the political destinies of

the communities covered by their

organization, and to perpetuate their

own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy

dating in inception from the North

Idaho disturbance 15 years ago,

which it accused of having

murdered hitmen assassins, all in a

giant conspiracy of vengeance upon

those who obstructed their sway to

destroy opposition by terrorism,

to control the political destinies of

the communities covered by their

organization, and to perpetuate their

own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy

dating in inception from the North

Idaho disturbance 15 years ago,

which it accused of having

murdered hitmen assassins, all in a

giant conspiracy of vengeance upon

those who obstructed their sway to

destroy opposition by terrorism,

to control the political destinies of

the communities covered by their

organization, and to perpetuate their

own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy

dating in inception from the North

Idaho disturbance 15 years ago,

which it accused of having

murdered hitmen assassins, all in a

giant conspiracy of vengeance upon

those who obstructed their sway to

destroy opposition by terrorism,

to control the political destinies of

the communities covered by their

organization, and to perpetuate their

own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy

dating in inception from the North

Idaho disturbance 15 years ago,

which it accused of having

murdered hitmen assassins, all in a

giant conspiracy of vengeance upon

those who obstructed their sway to

destroy opposition by terrorism,

to control the political destinies of

the communities covered by their

organization, and to perpetuate their

own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy

dating in inception from the North

Idaho disturbance 15 years ago,

which it accused of having

murdered hitmen assassins, all in a

giant conspiracy of vengeance upon

those who obstructed their sway to

destroy opposition by terrorism,

to control the political destinies of

the communities covered by their

organization, and to perpetuate their

own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy

dating in inception from the North

Idaho disturbance 15 years ago,

which it accused of having

murdered hitmen assassins, all in a

giant conspiracy of vengeance upon

those who obstructed their sway to

destroy opposition by terrorism,

to control the political destinies of

the communities covered by their

organization, and to perpetuate their

own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy

dating in inception from the North

Idaho disturbance 15 years ago,

which it accused of having

murdered hitmen assassins, all in a

giant conspiracy of vengeance upon

those who obstructed their sway to

destroy opposition by terrorism,

to control the political destinies of

the communities covered by their

organization, and to perpetuate their

own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy

dating in inception from the North

Idaho disturbance 15 years ago,

which it accused of having

murdered hitmen assassins, all in a

giant conspiracy of vengeance upon

those who obstructed their sway to

destroy opposition by terrorism,

to control the political destinies of

the communities covered by their

organization, and to perpetuate their

own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy

dating in inception from the North

Idaho disturbance 15 years ago,

which it accused of having

murdered hitmen assassins, all in a

giant conspiracy of vengeance upon

those who obstructed their sway to

destroy opposition by terrorism,

to control the political destinies of

the communities covered by their

organization, and to perpetuate their

own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy

dating in inception from the North

Idaho disturbance 15 years ago,

which it accused of having

murdered hitmen assassins, all in a

giant conspiracy of vengeance upon

those who obstructed their sway to

destroy opposition by terrorism,

to control the political destinies of

the communities covered by their

organization, and to perpetuate their

own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy

dating in inception from the North

Idaho disturbance 15 years ago,

which it accused of having

murdered hitmen assassins, all in a

giant conspiracy of vengeance upon

those who obstructed their sway to

destroy opposition by terrorism,

THE DELUGE

By DAVID GRAHAM PHILLIPS, Author of "THE CASTLE"

Copyright 1905 by the BOBBS-MERRILL COMPANY

CHAPTER XXXII.—Continued.

I issued a clear statement of the situation; I showed in minute detail how the people standing together under the leadership of the honest men of property could easily force the black bands to consent to an honest, just, rock-founded, iron-built, reconstruction. My statement appeared in all the morning papers throughout the land. Turn back to it; read it. You will say that I was right. Well—

Toward two o'clock Inspector Crawford came into my private office, escorted by Joe. I saw in Joe's seamed, green-gray face that some new damage had been done. "You've got to get out of this," said he, "and you're in front of our place fill the three streets. It's made up of crowds turned away from the suspended banks."

I remembered the sullen faces and the hisses as I entered the office that morning earlier than usual. My windows were closed and kept closed to street noises, and now at my mind was up from the work in which I had been absorbed. I could hear the sounds of many voices, even through the thick plate glass.

"We've got 200 policemen here," said the inspector. "Five hundred more are on the way. But—really, Mr. Blacklock, unless we can get out of this, there'll be serious trouble." The other newspapers, even one of them denounced you this morning, and the people are in a fury against you."

I went toward the door.

"Hold on, Matt," cried Joe, springing at me and seizing me. "Where are you going?"

"To tell them what I think of them," replied Joe, and I saw him smile. For my blood was up, and I was enraged against the poor cowardly fools.

"For God's sake don't show yourself!" he begged. "If you don't care for your own life, think of the rest of us. We've fixed a route through buildings, and under streets up to Broadway. Your electric is waiting for you."

"It won't do," I said. "I'll face 'em—it's the only way."

I went to the window, and was about to throw up one of the sunblinds for a look at them; Crawford stopped me. "They'll stone the building and then storm it," he said. "You must go at once, by the route we've arranged."

"Even if you tell them I'm gone, they won't believe it," replied I.

"We can look out for that," said Joe, eager to save me, and caring nothing about consequences to himself. But I had unsettled the inspector.

"Send for my electric to come down here," said I. "I'll go out alone and get it and bring it back."

"I'll never do it," cried Joe.

But the inspector said: "You're right, Mr. Blacklock. It's a bare chance. You may take 'em by surprise. Again, some fellow may yell and throw a stone and—." He did not need to finish.

Joe looked wildly at me. "You mustn't do it, Matt!" he exclaimed. "You'll precipitate a riot, Crawford. If you permit this—"

But the inspector was telephoning for my electric. Then he went into the adjoining room, where he commanded a view of the entrance. Silence between Joe and me until he returned.

"The electric is coming down the street," said he.

"I rose," said I. "I'm ready."

"Wait until the other police get here," advised Crawford.

"If the mob is in the temper you describe," said I, "the less that's done to irritate it the better. I must go out as if I hadn't a suspicion of danger."

The inspector eyed me with an expression that was highly flattering to my vanity.

"I'll go with you," said Joe, starting up from his stool.

"No," I replied. "You and the other fellows can take the underground route, if it's necessary."

"It won't be necessary," put in the inspector. "As soon as I'm rid of you and have my additional force, I'll clear the streets." He went to the door. "Wait," he said. "I've had time to get out to my men."

Perhaps ten seconds after he disappeared I, without further words, put on my hat, lit a cigar, shook Joe's wet, trembling hand, left it in my private keys and the memorandum of the combination of my private vault. Then I sallied forth.

I had always had a ravenous appetite for excitement, and I had been in a mighty tight place; but for the first time there seemed to me to be an equilibrium between my internal energy and the outside situation. As I stepped from my street door and glanced about me, I had no feeling of danger. The whole situation seemed so simple. There stood the electric, just across the narrow stretch of sidewalk, there were the 200 police, under Crawford's orders, scattered everywhere through the crowd; and good-naturedly jostling and pushing to create distraction. With taxes than ever, and a waster and more expensive and more luxurious army, than ever.

The people had risen for financial and industrial freedom; they had paid its fearful price; then, in senseless panic and terror, they flung it away. I have read that one of the inscriptions on Apollo's temple at Delphi was: "Man, the fool of the farce." Truly, the gods must have created us to be the tools of the gods. The Olympus palls, they ring up the curtain on some such screaming comedy as was that. It "makes the fancy chuckle, whilst the heart doth ache."

CHAPTER XXXIV.

"BLACK MATT'S" TRIUMPH.

"My enemies caused it to a wide body of people to keep me in a deliberate contrivance for the sole purpose of entrapping myself. Thus they got me a reputation for almost superhuman daring, for satanic astuteness at cold-blooded calculation. I do not deserve the admiration and respect that my success-worshipping fellow countrymen lay at my feet. True, I did not mean to enrich myself, but until the Money Week."

Not until I had pondered on men and events with the assistance of the newspapers my detective protectors and jailers permitted to be brought aboard—not until the last hope of turning Wild Week to the immediate public advantage had sputtered out did I, the lone man, last of all, begin to think of bettering myself, of seizing the opportunity to strengthen myself for the future. On Monday morning I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression has not overtaken me until now. He was a man who had the unmistakable but indescribable marks of the plain-clothes policeman. "Where are you going?" I shouted.

"I settled myself and waited—what else was there to do? Soon I guessed we were headed for the pier of which I had been told. I saw that it was filled with police, both in uniform and in plain clothes. I descended. A detective sergeant stepped up to me. "We are here to help you to your yacht," he explained. "You wouldn't be safe anywhere in New York—"

I said to Sergt. Mulholland: "I want to go ashore at once and send some telegrams."

The sergeant is one of the detective bureau's "dress-suit men." He is by nature phlegmatic and cynical. His expression

THE REVIEW

Entered as Second-Class Matter
W. V. LANEY, Editor and Publisher.

FRIDAY, JUNE 7, 1907.

Remarks.

Thus it has been ordained, whether you are pleased or not, that shall be no more. Sunsets play 'fore your doors, the sanctity of homes is harmed, the village board became alarmed.

As a whole our men are not a reading class of citizens, but the way they are now reading and studying the books of village ordinances indicates a growing literary taste.

The National Game of Base Ball is in disuse in Barrington.

A large crowd assembled early Tuesday morning on Main street in violation of village ordinances.

One ordinance reads "All persons who are without employment, idle, loitering or rambling about the streets or staying in grocery stores, etc., etc., shall be fined not less than $2.00, etc."

Will the women of Barrington kindly procure copies of the village ordinances for study, that they may take objections to the non-enforcement of some of the laws?

Remarkable Rescue.

That truth is stranger than fiction, has once more been demonstrated in the little town of Fedora, Tenn., the residence of C. V. Pepper. He writes: "I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat. Doctors failed to help me, and all hope had fled when I began taking Dr. E. H. Esmerelda's Discovery. The instant I began to take it, the coughing soon ceased; bleeding diminished rapidly, and in three weeks I was able to go to work." Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds, 50¢ and $1.00, at Barrington Pharmacy. Trial bottle free.

Niagara Falls Excursion.

The Publishing fraternity of Chicago, under the auspices of the Chicago and Suburban Publishers Association, will make a trip to Niagara Falls this summer. The Wabash Railroad has granted special rates; tickets for the trip, including a special train, will be the best of services, are $12.50. A trip to Toronto, Can., on the river will also be on the program. The trip will be under the direction of a competent guide, who is thoroughly familiar with the great falls, and special rates on the Gorge railroad, the steamers and other conveyances, as well as the hotels at Buffalo and the Falls, have been secured. The train will leave Chicago at midnight on Friday the 15th of July, and returning will arrive in Chicago Tuesday morning, July 15th. Everybody who desires to make the trip is welcome. Tickets and complete information can be obtained from Theo. A. Kobl, Secy., 741-743 Unity Bldg., Chicago. Telephone Central 3354.

The Magic No. 3.

Number three is a wonderful mascot for Geo. H. Parrie, Cedar Grove, Me., according to a letter which reads: "After suffering much with liver and kidney trouble, and becoming greatly disengaged by the failure to find relief, tried Electric Blitters, and as a result I am a well man today. The first bottle relieved and three bottles completed the cure." Guaranteed the best on earth for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by Barrington Pharmacy, 50¢.

Notice of Awarding Contract.

To the owners and persons interested in the property intended for the construction of a cement sidewalk five feet in width on the east side of Grove avenue in front of Lot two and the north eighteen feet of Lot one in Block thirteen in the Village of Barrington in accordance with Barrington Special No. 2, Cook County, Illinois.

Notice is hereby given, that the Board of Local Improvements has awarded the contract for said improvement to Wiseman & Brandt and that the estimated bid therefor is fifty dollars ($50) and that said owners or persons interested in said property may take the construction of said improvement at ten per cent less than said contract price in manner and form as prescribed by statute, and that the time for taking over said work will expire on the 17th day of June A. D. 1907.

Dated, May 29th, 1907.

G. W. SPINNER,
President of the Board of Local Improvements.

M. C. MCINTOSH, Village Attorney.

Buy a Lac in any quantity you desire at Lamey and Co.

A Revolution In Chilombia.

By GEORGE KENNEDY.

Copyright, 1907, by P. C. Eastman.

The D'Estes family was of the highest in Chilombia. Papa D'Estes was a retired statesman, not yet entered into that semi-retirement which the cemetery affords to most Spanish-American patriots at or before the end of their official careers. His best energies were now engrossed in eradicating the certain evil traits of his character with a vengeance. Mamma D'Estes does not count in this story save as the parent of seven sons and one daughter enumerated below.

There were Brother Alfonso, who was a general in the army, and Brother Juan, for the archbishopric, and so on through the list to little Brother Cristobal, who was to be some other brother's place, when he was born. But D'Estes had his son predestinated. They spoke casually of Lochinvar's well known skill with pistol and ride. Finally the dictator started on the trail of the young man.

In the middle of the afternoon they came in sight of Lochinvar and Esmeralda, hastening along a narrow road just above the rocky wall of a deep canyon. Just above a bridge, Lochinvar stopped his steed, and the river suddenly murmuring 2000 feet below. On the other side of the gorge the road ran north to Bogota, south to La Paz. Once across, if the fugitives could destroy the bridge they would be safe.

Caballero shouted triumphantly and spurred his horse forward. Lochinvar hastened across the span with Esmeralda. Ere they reached the middle the dictator had dismounted and set for the side the swinging structure. The soldier looked back in amazement at the situation.

He drew his revolver and pointed it at the situation. One quick shot and the left cable sprang asunder. The bridge hung quivering. Helpless of fury of horror behind, he dropped his knife, gathered up Esmeralda in his arms and staggered across to safety.

The situation looked grim, but the situation was grim. The snake of his cigar furnishing great discomfiture.

The situation looked Caballero's soul. True, he might plot or kill his enemies, but he was returning some pleasure which he had received from the Spaniard. But he knew the situation would not be so simple. He turned to his horse and directed toward him and his chase the cry of winning Esmeralda forever destroyed.

He might challenge his foe to a duel, but Lochinvar was a better shot than he. Decidedly things could not be better. He turned to his horse again. A long drawn-out cry of triumph. He turned to the refuge of his race—a revolution.

Caballero sat himself down to think, a thing he did only on special occasions.

The lines of revolutionary courage were such that he and his wife, D'Estes should have been on one side and Lochinvar on the other. The snake of his cigar furnished inspiration.

Only two kinds of tobacco are smoked in Chilombia—Bogota and La Paz. Caballero and Papa D'Estes were of the former, and the La Paz of the latter, save to those who called it La Paz. There was 60 per cent duty on Bogota, only 40 on La Paz. There was revolutionary tinder with a vengeance.

Caballero quietly kindled the flame. Soon the populace were boiling like a pot of chocolate por.

The hot blood of the descendants of the Indians must be let.

Then came the explosion. There were bells, bullets, bayonets, brickbats and bluff ad libitum. By day they slew one another at the barricades; by night they frenziedly lit the cities over Arimino's lagoons of aguadiente. A delicate mutual courtesy prevented any shooting.

The subtreys of Bogota won. Lochinvar fled to the mountains to remain in retirement until the next revolution.

In a fever of patriotic excitement the duty on Bogota was abated, and the tax on La Paz utterly forgotten.

Behind at last a just and stable government. There would never be any more revolutions. Everybody was puffing Bogota. La Paz was synonymous with high treason. But they still tried to make it a republic, and nothing could prevent that.

Caballero's comet was at its zenith. The dictatorship lay with his grasp. He called Papa D'Estes into consultation and formally requested the hand of Señora Esmeralda. He promised his entire fortunes in law and military positions in the Chilombian state.

His daughter, the wife of the dictator! His sons leading members of the government! Papa D'Estes' feelings overcame him. The seven red bloods of his house, him and their son, a sacrifice for the country never ever. But Esmeralda remained tearfully true to her absent lover, and, despite parental urging, steadfastly repelled the advances of Caballero.

Meanwhile, Lochinvar was creating no time. He passed on a morsel of gold and purchased 100,000 La Paz cigarettes and 10,000 decks of aguadiente.

These were brought over the passes on llamas and cached in a convenient cave.

At midnight he passed, and still Esmeralda held out against Caballero. Popular enthusiasm for the new government had begun to cool.

One day a messenger brought a note to Papa D'Estes. He read it, frowning, but not much. A black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

"I am to be the bride of La Paz. Among them nestled a woolly number of peculiarly shaped bottles.

At midnight a double funeral, and both a black and a black coffee was placed on tressels. Papa D'Estes stood at his feet, and little Brother Cristobal at his foot, while the other brethren were ranged three on either side. The note was from the Dictator.

Barrington Local Happenings Told in Short Paragraphs

A hard time not to have A good time
On Friday night
June 28, 1907.

Ball club dance, Saturday, June 29th. Will see you at the dance Saturday evening.

Special rates to graduates. Mosser's studio, Palatine.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Peters of Chicago visited at Henry Peper's Sunday.

Buy your paints, oils, varnishes, brushes, etc., at LEMLEY & COMPANY.

Katherine and Mary Wilmot of Chicago were visitors of relatives here Sunday.

High school entertainment. A week from next Saturday night, June 30th, at the school auditorium.

The Elgin defeated the Bell Ball club team Sunday by a score of 3 to 1. Ten innings were played.

Misses Esther and Mallinda Wiesman of Elgin visited their mother, Mrs. V. Wiesman, the latter part of last week.

Henry Nordmeyer of north Ela street has transferred 100 acres in Fremont township to his son, Charles Nordmeyer, valued at $5,000.

The dance tomorrow evening, June 29th at the village hall given by the Ball club will be the last of the series. Everybody is invited.

A baseball game was played Wednesday at twilight between the Bowman's and the V. M. C. A. Score 15 to 2, in favor of the association.

Mr. C. E. Els entertained Mr. and Mrs. D. Murphy of Los Angeles, California, and Mr. and Mrs. William Howarth at dinner Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Banks of Williams street announce the marriage of their daughter, Mabel Samson, to Cheesy Leyman Burns, on Sunday, June 23rd, at one o'clock at their home.

A grand grand and moving picture entertainment will begin at Odd Fellow Hall, Wednesday evening, June 26th, for its first presentation and will show every Wednesday evening, Admission 15 cents.

Mr. Charles Heineberger of Munising, Michigan, visited Miss Margaret Lamay and Miss Eva Castle from Decoration Day to Monday. Mrs. and Miss Castle went to Elgin Sunday to see friends.

The annual Belpointe camp meeting basket picnic and race day, Monday, June 10th, Rev. A. C. Dixon, who is the pastor of the Chicago Ave. Moody church, will speak at ten a.m. Everybody is invited to bring their lunches and have a delightful time.

George Lytle will offer for sale at public auction, Thursday, June 13th, at his residence on west Main street, one single top buggy, one double buggy, single harness and a lot of household furniture. See small bills for description.

The springing wagon, the one thing that has been needed so much in this village, has at last become a reality. Edward Magee has purchased a wagon at his own expense and commenced springing last Friday. Those deserving service should see Mr. Magee at once.

The regular monthly business meeting of B. P. Y. P. U. of the Baptist church will be held at the home of Miss Edith Wagner in Cemetery street, on Wednesday evening, June 12th. All interested in the work of the society are cordially invited to attend.

Special inducements to members at Mosser's studio, Palatine.

H. G. Hahn donated to the road commissioners of Cuba and Barrington townships a sum of $30 for straightening the road on the county line near Randall's lake. This is an improvement that should have been made years ago. Mr. Hahn has shown his liberality in contributing to such a work, as he is also required to pay his share in the road tax.

C. C. Kramer of Chicago has purchased the studio of William Mosser in Palatine and will continue to do business at that location. Mr. Kramer is backed by years of experience and has been connected with some of the best studios in Chicago and elsewhere, so is capable of catching you at your best and making pictures of the finest quality.

Everything confidential. Nothing tends towards education at the school on the night of June 15th.

Wm. Hopley, employed by the Chicago Telephone company, departed yesterday for his home near New York city for a visit. The young lady who telephoned in this local last evening said many tears were shed.

NEWS OF WAUCONDA

Personal Paragraphs Submitted

By Our Very Able Correspondents.

Joseph Collins of Waukegan was a recent visitor here.

Mrs. V. G. Davlin visited Chicago relatives Wednesday.

Mrs. G. Smith was a guest at the D. Brown home the first of the week. Basket social at the Bennett school, Saturday evening, June 8th.

Mrs. W. Johnson and son, Earl, were Elgin visitors last Wednesday.

Born, Sunday, June 2nd, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baedley, a baby boy.

W. Fuller of Libertyville is spending the week with his son, J. M. Fuller.

Miss Orrissa Brown was returned from a visit with Irving Park friends.

Mary Sowles visited with Mrs. J. Bennett at Barrington Monday.

Mrs. Tillie Wagner of Waukegan was the guest of Mrs. J. E. Gainer the first of the week.

Miss Nina Pratt left Monday for the return trip to her claim near Galena, Colorado.

Commencement exercises in the Baptist church, Wednesday evening, June 12th.

Mrs. C. A. Hopkins and daughters, Doris and Hilda, of McHenry were Tuesday callers.

Mrs. R. R. Kitzmiller and daughter Ruth and Miss Florence Grace were Chicago visitors Saturday.

Mrs. B. L. Smith, of Des Moines, Ia., was a recent visitor at the home of her brother, G. D. Strode.

Mrs. Maude Wrapp returned to Chicago Sunday, her mother remaining for a week's visit with relatives.

Mrs. Rita Neill and son, Ray and daughter, LeMoyne, of Munster visited relatives here a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller and son, Clifford, of Chicago, are spending the week with Miss Miller's mother, Mrs. Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bassett and daughter, Belinda, returned to Chicago Sunday after a few days' stay with relatives and Sunday.

Mrs. Rose Scholz of Lake Bluff spent Sunday with her parents.

At A. W. Meyer's you will find a nice line of summer dress goods, in linings and white goods, etc.

George Spanner of Barrington was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. G. Behrens of Chicago called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ernst, Wednesday.

We are glad to hear Miss Emma Schaefer who has been at the Joliet hospital for some time is able to be around again, she is now with her father at Joliet.

Mrs. Floyd Sunderland, of Waukegan, spent a few days last week at the home of her parents. She was accompanied on her return by her mother, Mrs. M. C. Smith, who will remain for a short visit.

Mrs. Winnie Pratt closed her school in the Murray district last Friday after a very successful year. Miss Bertha Meyer has been engaged to resume teaching there the next fall, Miss Welch having decided upon a change of scene.

Among those visiting this vicinity Memorial Day were Joseph Stotz of Chicago; Edward Sosner and son, Walter of Waukegan; Mr. and Mrs. N. Wynkoop and son, Fred of Woodstock, and Mrs. J. W. Bennett and son, Robert and Lowell of Barrington.

At a meeting of the village board Monday evening, the trustees voted to erect a new city hall on the park site, and the matter was put in the hands of the committee to complete arrangements for the building. A more detailed report will be published later.

Oscar Maynard is shingling Mr. Kimball's house and making other repairs.

Mrs. Donnelly, Mrs. Prindiville and daughter, Miss Reta Prindiville spent a few days at Honey Lake last week.

Several rare fine sport spearing carp at Grassy lake. Some taking as many as 40 in a day.

Miss Jessie Newkirk visited Honey Lake Saturday.

About 20 of the goats on the Grace farm died after being sheared, on account of the cold weather.

The Kelsey school will close June 18th.

Charles Gruber went to Chicago Saturday on business.

Eina Gossel of Algonquin visited around Flint creek a few days.

A new auto mobile house is the latest improvement at Grace's, but improvements are still going on.

Ben Clings and family were in Chicago a part of the week.

About twenty will go from the Peterson school to the Bennett school, Saturday evening, June 18th.

Let us figure on your job printing.

Lower Burdick, aged 33 years, died at the home of Morris Hill yesterday morning, June 6th. The funeral will be held next Sunday.

The May Crowning services were held in the Catholic church Sunday evening, the inclemency of the weather on the previous Sunday having necessitated a postponement. The procession numbered about six hundred children.

Prof. J. L. Sears, of Barrington, and pupils will give a concert in the M. E. church, Monday evening, June 24th. The program will consist of readings and of vocal and instrumental music. The program will be a highly pleasing treat to lovers of music and education. Admission 15 and 25c.

Dr. Sowles brought to our office three interesting relics of by gone days. Two of them are in the form of invitations to be sold to his grandmother, one in 1820, and the other in 1822. It is noticeable about them that the safety started early in those times "promptly at 6 o'clock, p.m." and "at four o'clock this evening." The third specimen is an itemized statement rendered by a Dr. W. P. Hale to one of his patients, and several of the items are figured so closely that it is common to see "tonic 3c" or "pills 12c" listed. The papers were brought to him by a casual glance through a family relic box.

Miss Nina Pratt left Monday for the return trip to her claim near Galena, Colorado.

Commencement exercises in the Baptist church, Wednesday evening, June 12th.

Mrs. C. A. Hopkins and daughters, Doris and Hilda, of McHenry were Tuesday callers.

Mrs. R. R. Kitzmiller and daughter Ruth and Miss Florence Grace were Chicago visitors Saturday.

Mrs. B. L. Smith, of Des Moines, Ia., was a recent visitor at the home of her brother, G. D. Strode.

Mrs. Maude Wrapp returned to Chicago Sunday, her mother remaining for a week's visit with relatives.

Mrs. Rita Neill and son, Ray and daughter, LeMoyne, of Munster visited relatives here a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller and son, Clifford, of Chicago, are spending the week with Miss Miller's mother, Mrs. Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bassett and daughter, Belinda, returned to Chicago Sunday after a few days' stay with relatives and Sunday.

Mrs. Rose Scholz of Lake Bluff spent Sunday with her parents.

At A. W. Meyer's you will find a nice line of summer dress goods, in linings and white goods, etc.

George Spanner of Barrington was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. G. Behrens of Chicago called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ernst, Wednesday.

We are glad to hear Miss Emma Schaefer who has been at the Joliet hospital for some time is able to be around again, she is now with her father at Joliet.

Mrs. Floyd Sunderland, of Waukegan, spent a few days last week at the home of her parents. She was accompanied on her return by her mother, Mrs. M. C. Smith, who will remain for a short visit.

Mrs. Winnie Pratt closed her school in the Murray district last Friday after a very successful year. Miss Bertha Meyer has been engaged to resume teaching there the next fall, Miss Welch having decided upon a change of scene.

Among those visiting this vicinity Memorial Day were Joseph Stotz of Chicago; Edward Sosner and son, Walter of Waukegan; Mr. and Mrs. N. Wynkoop and son, Fred of Woodstock, and Mrs. J. W. Bennett and son, Robert and Lowell of Barrington.

At a meeting of the village board Monday evening, the trustees voted to erect a new city hall on the park site, and the matter was put in the hands of the committee to complete arrangements for the building. A more detailed report will be published later.

Oscar Maynard is shingling Mr. Kimball's house and making other repairs.

Mrs. Donnelly, Mrs. Prindiville and daughter, Miss Reta Prindiville spent a few days at Honey Lake last week.

Several rare fine sport spearing carp at Grassy lake. Some taking as many as 40 in a day.

Miss Jessie Newkirk visited Honey Lake Saturday.

About 20 of the goats on the Grace farm died after being sheared, on account of the cold weather.

The Kelsey school will close June 18th.

Charles Gruber went to Chicago Saturday on business.

Eina Gossel of Algonquin visited around Flint creek a few days.

A new auto mobile house is the latest improvement at Grace's, but improvements are still going on.

Ben Clings and family were in Chicago a part of the week.

About twenty will go from the Peterson school to the Bennett school, Saturday evening, June 18th.

Let us figure on your job printing.

Lower Burdick, aged 33 years, died at the home of Morris Hill yesterday morning, June 6th. The funeral will be held next Sunday.

The May Crowning services were held in the Catholic church Sunday evening, the inclemency of the weather on the previous Sunday having necessitated a postponement. The procession numbered about six hundred children.

Prof. J. L. Sears, of Barrington, and pupils will give a concert in the M. E. church, Monday evening, June 24th. The program will consist of readings and of vocal and instrumental music. The program will be a highly pleasing treat to lovers of music and education. Admission 15 and 25c.

Dr. Sowles brought to our office three interesting relics of by gone days. Two of them are in the form of invitations to be sold to his grandmother, one in 1820, and the other in 1822. It is noticeable about them that the safety started early in those times "promptly at 6 o'clock, p.m." and "at four o'clock this evening." The third specimen is an itemized statement rendered by a Dr. W. P. Hale to one of his patients, and several of the items are figured so closely that it is common to see "tonic 3c" or "pills 12c" listed. The papers were brought to him by a casual glance through a family relic box.

Miss Nina Pratt left Monday for the return trip to her claim near Galena, Colorado.

Commencement exercises in the Baptist church, Wednesday evening, June 12th.

Mrs. C. A. Hopkins and daughters, Doris and Hilda, of McHenry were Tuesday callers.

Mrs. R. R. Kitzmiller and daughter Ruth and Miss Florence Grace were Chicago visitors Saturday.

Mrs. B. L. Smith, of Des Moines, Ia., was a recent visitor at the home of her brother, G. D. Strode.

Mrs. Maude Wrapp returned to Chicago Sunday, her mother remaining for a week's visit with relatives.

Mrs. Rita Neill and son, Ray and daughter, LeMoyne, of Munster visited relatives here a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller and son, Clifford, of Chicago, are spending the week with Miss Miller's mother, Mrs. Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bassett and daughter, Belinda, returned to Chicago Sunday after a few days' stay with relatives and Sunday.

Mrs. Rose Scholz of Lake Bluff spent Sunday with her parents.

At A. W. Meyer's you will find a nice line of summer dress goods, in linings and white goods, etc.

George Spanner of Barrington was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. G. Behrens of Chicago called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ernst, Wednesday.

We are glad to hear Miss Emma Schaefer who has been at the Joliet hospital for some time is able to be around again, she is now with her father at Joliet.

Mrs. Floyd Sunderland, of Waukegan, spent a few days last week at the home of her parents. She was accompanied on her return by her mother, Mrs. M. C. Smith, who will remain for a short visit.

Mrs. Winnie Pratt closed her school in the Murray district last Friday after a very successful year. Miss Bertha Meyer has been engaged to resume teaching there the next fall, Miss Welch having decided upon a change of scene.

Among those visiting this vicinity Memorial Day were Joseph Stotz of Chicago; Edward Sosner and son, Walter of Waukegan; Mr. and Mrs. N. Wynkoop and son, Fred of Woodstock, and Mrs. J. W. Bennett and son, Robert and Lowell of Barrington.

At a meeting of the village board Monday evening, the trustees voted to erect a new city hall on the park site, and the matter was put in the hands of the committee to complete arrangements for the building. A more detailed report will be published later.

Oscar Maynard is shingling Mr. Kimball's house and making other repairs.

Mrs. Donnelly, Mrs. Prindiville and daughter, Miss Reta Prindiville spent a few days at Honey Lake last week.

Several rare fine sport spearing carp at Grassy lake. Some taking as many as 40 in a day.

Miss Jessie Newkirk visited Honey Lake Saturday.

About 20 of the goats on the Grace farm died after being sheared, on account of the cold weather.

The Kelsey school will close June 18th.

Charles Gruber went to Chicago Saturday on business.

Eina Gossel of Algonquin visited around Flint creek a few days.

A new auto mobile house is the latest improvement at Grace's, but improvements are still going on.

Ben Clings and family were in Chicago a part of the week.

About twenty will go from the Peterson school to the Bennett school, Saturday evening, June 18th.

Let us figure on your job printing.

Lower Burdick, aged 33 years, died at the home of Morris Hill yesterday morning, June 6th. The funeral will be held next Sunday.

The May Crowning services were held in the Catholic church Sunday evening, the inclemency of the weather on the previous Sunday having necessitated a postponement. The procession numbered about six hundred children.

Prof. J. L. Sears, of Barrington, and pupils will give a concert in the M. E. church, Monday evening, June 24th. The program will consist of readings and of vocal and instrumental music. The program will be a highly pleasing treat to lovers of music and education. Admission 15 and 25c.

Dr. Sowles brought to our office three interesting relics of by gone days. Two of them are in the form of invitations to be sold to his grandmother, one in 1820, and the other in 1822. It is noticeable about them that the safety started early in those times "promptly at 6 o'clock, p.m." and "at four o'clock this evening." The third specimen is an itemized statement rendered by a Dr. W. P. Hale to one of his patients, and several of the items are figured so closely that it is common to see "tonic 3c" or "pills 12c" listed. The papers were brought to him by a casual glance through a family relic box.

Miss Nina Pratt left Monday for the return trip to her claim near Galena, Colorado.

Commencement exercises in the Baptist church, Wednesday evening, June 12th.

Mrs. C. A. Hopkins and daughters, Doris and Hilda, of McHenry were Tuesday callers.

Mrs. R. R. Kitzmiller and daughter Ruth and Miss Florence Grace were Chicago visitors Saturday.

Mrs. B. L. Smith, of Des Moines, Ia., was a recent visitor at the home of her brother, G. D. Strode.

Mrs. Maude Wrapp returned to Chicago Sunday, her mother remaining for a week's visit with relatives.

Mrs. Rita Neill and son, Ray and daughter, LeMoyne, of Munster visited relatives here a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller and son, Clifford, of Chicago, are spending the week with Miss Miller's mother, Mrs. Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bassett and daughter, Belinda, returned to Chicago Sunday after a few days' stay with relatives and Sunday.

Mrs. Rose Scholz of Lake Bluff spent Sunday with her parents.

At A. W. Meyer's you will find a nice line of summer dress goods, in linings and white goods, etc.

George Spanner of Barrington was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. G. Behrens of Chicago called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ernst, Wednesday.

We are glad to hear Miss Emma Schaefer who has been at the Joliet hospital for some time is able to be around again, she is now with her father at Joliet.

Mrs. Floyd Sunderland, of Waukegan, spent a few days last week at the home of her parents. She was accompanied on her return by her mother, Mrs. M. C. Smith, who will remain for a short visit.

Mrs. Winnie Pratt closed her school in the Murray district last Friday after a very successful year. Miss Bertha Meyer has been engaged to resume teaching there the next fall, Miss Welch having decided upon a change of scene.

Among those visiting this vicinity Memorial Day were Joseph Stotz of Chicago; Edward Sosner and son, Walter of Waukegan; Mr. and Mrs. N. Wynkoop and son, Fred of Woodstock, and Mrs. J. W. Bennett and son, Robert and Lowell of Barrington.

At a meeting of the village board Monday evening, the trustees voted to erect a new city hall on the park site, and the matter was put in the hands of the committee to complete arrangements for the building. A more detailed report will be published later.

Oscar Maynard is shingling Mr. Kimball's house and making other repairs.

Mrs. Donnelly, Mrs. Prindiville and daughter, Miss Reta Prindiville spent a few days at Honey Lake last week.

Several rare fine sport spearing carp at Grassy lake. Some taking as many as 40 in a day.

Miss Jessie Newkirk visited Honey Lake Saturday.

About 20 of the goats on the Grace farm died after being sheared, on account of the cold weather.

The Kelsey school will close June 18th.

Charles Gruber went to Chicago Saturday on business.

Eina Gossel of Algonquin visited around Flint creek a few days.

A new auto mobile house is the latest improvement at Grace's, but improvements are still going on.

Ben Clings and family were in Chicago a part of the week.

About twenty will go from the Peterson school to the Bennett school, Saturday evening, June 18th.

Let us figure on your job printing.

Lower Burdick, aged 33 years, died at the home of Morris Hill yesterday morning, June 6th. The funeral will be held next Sunday.

The May Crowning services were held in the Catholic church Sunday evening, the inclemency of the weather on the previous Sunday having necessitated a postponement. The procession numbered about six hundred children.

Prof. J. L. Sears, of Barrington, and pupils will give a concert in the M. E. church, Monday evening, June 24th. The program will consist of readings and of vocal and instrumental music. The program will be a highly pleasing treat to lovers of music and education. Admission 15 and 25c.

Dr. Sowles brought to our office three interesting relics of by gone days. Two of them are in the form of invitations to be sold to his grandmother, one in 1820, and the other in 1822. It is noticeable about them that the safety started early in those times "promptly at 6 o'clock, p.m." and "at four o'clock this evening." The third specimen is an itemized statement rendered by a Dr. W. P. Hale to one of his patients, and several of the items are figured so closely that it is common to see "tonic 3c" or "pills 12c" listed. The papers were brought to him by a casual glance through a family relic box.

Miss Nina Pratt left Monday for the return trip to her claim near Galena, Colorado.

Commencement exercises in the Baptist church, Wednesday evening, June 12th.

Mrs. C. A. Hopkins and daughters, Doris and Hilda, of McHenry were Tuesday callers.

Mrs. R. R. Kitzmiller and daughter Ruth and Miss Florence Grace were Chicago visitors Saturday.

Mrs. B. L. Smith, of Des Moines, Ia., was a recent visitor at the home of her brother, G. D. Strode.

Mrs. Maude Wrapp returned to Chicago Sunday, her mother remaining for a week's visit with relatives.

Mrs. Rita Neill and son, Ray and daughter, LeMoyne, of Munster visited relatives here a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller and son, Clifford, of Chicago, are spending the week with Miss Miller's mother, Mrs. Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bassett and daughter, Belinda, returned to Chicago Sunday after a few days' stay with relatives and Sunday.

Mrs. Rose Scholz of Lake Bluff spent Sunday with her parents.

At A. W. Meyer's you will find a nice line of summer dress goods, in linings and white goods, etc.

George Spanner of Barrington was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. G. Behrens of Chicago called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ernst, Wednesday.

We are glad to hear Miss Emma Schaefer who has been at the Joliet hospital for some time is able to be around again, she is now with her father at Joliet.

Mrs. Floyd Sunderland, of Waukegan, spent a few days last week at the home of her parents. She was accompanied on her return by her mother, Mrs. M. C. Smith, who will remain for a short visit.

Mrs. Winnie Pratt closed her school in the Murray district last Friday after a very successful year. Miss Bertha Meyer has been engaged to resume teaching there the next fall, Miss Welch having decided upon a change of scene.

Among those visiting this vicinity Memorial Day were Joseph Stotz of Chicago; Edward Sosner and son, Walter of Waukegan; Mr. and Mrs. N. Wynkoop and son, Fred of Woodstock, and Mrs. J. W. Bennett and son, Robert and Lowell of Barrington.

At a meeting of the village board Monday evening, the trustees voted to erect a new city hall on the park site, and the matter was put in the hands of the committee to complete arrangements for the building. A more detailed report will be published later.

Oscar Maynard is shingling Mr. Kimball's house and making other repairs.

Mrs. Donnelly, Mrs. Prindiville and daughter, Miss Reta Prindiville spent a few days at Honey Lake last week.

Several rare fine sport spearing carp at Grassy lake. Some taking as many as 40 in a day.

Miss Jessie Newkirk visited Honey Lake Saturday.

About 20 of the goats on the Grace farm died after being sheared, on account of the cold weather.

The Kelsey school will close June 18th.

Charles Gruber went to Chicago Saturday on business.

Eina Gossel of Algonquin visited around Flint creek a few days.

A new auto mobile house is the latest improvement at Grace's, but improvements are still going on.

Ben Clings and family were in Chicago a part of the week.

About twenty will go from the Peterson school to the Bennett school, Saturday evening, June 18th.

Let us figure on your job printing.

Lower Burdick, aged 33 years, died at the home of Morris Hill yesterday morning, June 6th. The funeral will be held next Sunday.

The May Crowning services were held in the Catholic church Sunday evening, the inclemency of the weather on the previous Sunday having necessitated a postponement. The procession numbered about six hundred children.

Prof. J. L. Sears, of Barrington, and pupils will give a concert in the M. E. church, Monday evening, June 24th. The program will consist of readings and of vocal and instrumental music. The program will be a highly pleasing treat to lovers of music and education. Admission 15 and 25c.

Dr. Sowles brought to our office three interesting relics of by gone days. Two of them are in the form of invitations to be sold to his grandmother, one in 1820, and the other in 1822. It is noticeable about them that the safety started early in those times "promptly at 6 o'clock, p.m." and "at four o'clock this evening." The third specimen is an itemized statement rendered by a Dr. W. P. Hale to one of his patients, and several of the items are figured so closely that it is common to see "tonic 3c" or "pills 12c" listed. The papers were brought to him by a casual glance through a family relic box.

Miss Nina Pratt left Monday for the return trip to her claim near Galena, Colorado.

Commencement exercises in the Baptist church, Wednesday evening, June 12th.

Mrs. C. A. Hopkins and daughters, Doris and Hilda, of McHenry were Tuesday callers.

Mrs. R. R. Kitzmiller and daughter Ruth and Miss Florence Grace were Chicago visitors Saturday.

Mrs. B. L. Smith, of Des Moines, Ia., was a recent visitor at the home of her brother, G. D. Strode.

Mrs. Maude Wrapp returned to Chicago Sunday, her mother remaining for a week's visit with relatives.

Mrs. Rita Neill and son, Ray and daughter, LeMoyne, of Munster visited relatives here a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller and son, Clifford, of Chicago, are spending the week with Miss Miller's mother, Mrs. Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bassett and daughter, Belinda, returned to Chicago Sunday after a few days' stay with relatives and Sunday.

Mrs. Rose Scholz of Lake Bluff spent Sunday with her parents.

At A. W. Meyer's you will find a nice line of summer dress goods, in linings and white goods, etc.

George Spanner of Barrington was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. G. Behrens of Chicago called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ernst, Wednesday.

We are glad to hear Miss Emma Schaefer who has been at the Joliet hospital for some time is able to be around again, she is now with her father at Joliet.

Mrs. Floyd Sunderland, of Waukegan, spent a few days last week at the home of her parents. She was accompanied on her return by her mother, Mrs. M. C. Smith, who will remain for a short visit.

Mrs. Winnie Pratt closed her school in the Murray district last Friday after a very successful year. Miss Bertha Meyer has been engaged to resume teaching there the next fall, Miss Welch having decided upon a change of scene.

Among those visiting this vicinity Memorial Day were Joseph Stotz of Chicago; Edward Sosner and son, Walter of Waukegan; Mr. and Mrs. N. Wynkoop and son, Fred of Woodstock, and Mrs. J. W. Bennett and son, Robert and Lowell of Barrington.

At a meeting of the village board Monday evening, the trustees voted to erect a new city hall on the park site, and the matter was put in the hands of the committee to complete arrangements for the building. A more detailed report will be published later.

Oscar Maynard is shingling Mr. Kimball's house and making other repairs.

Mrs. Donnelly, Mrs. Prindiville and daughter, Miss Reta Prindiville spent a few days at Honey Lake last week.

Several rare fine sport spearing carp at Grassy lake. Some taking as many as 40 in a day.

Miss Jessie Newkirk visited Honey Lake Saturday.

About 20 of the goats on the Grace farm died after being sheared, on account of the cold weather.

The Kelsey school will close June 18th.

Charles Gruber went to Chicago Saturday on business.

Eina Gossel of Algonquin visited around Flint creek a few days.

A new auto mobile house is the latest improvement at Grace's, but improvements are still going on.

Ben Clings and family were in Chicago a part of the week.

About twenty will go from the Peterson school to the Bennett school, Saturday evening, June 18th.

Let us figure on your job printing.

Lower Burdick, aged 33 years, died at the home of Morris Hill yesterday morning, June 6th. The funeral will be held next Sunday.

The May Crowning services were held in the Catholic church Sunday evening, the inclemency of the weather on the previous Sunday having necessitated a postponement. The procession numbered about six hundred children.

Prof. J. L. Sears, of Barrington, and pupils will give a concert in the M. E. church, Monday evening, June 24th. The program will consist of readings and of vocal and instrumental music. The program will be a highly pleasing treat to lovers of music and education. Admission 15 and 25c.

Dr. Sowles brought to our office three interesting relics of by gone days. Two of them are in the form of invitations to be sold to his grandmother, one in 1820, and the other in 1822. It is noticeable about them that the safety started early in those times "promptly at 6 o'clock, p.m." and "at four o'clock this evening." The third specimen is an itemized statement rendered by a Dr. W. P. Hale to one of his patients, and several of the items are figured so closely that it is common to see "tonic 3c" or "pills 12c" listed. The papers were brought to him by a casual glance through a family relic box.

Miss Nina Pratt left Monday for the return trip to her claim near Galena, Colorado.

Commencement exercises in the Baptist church, Wednesday evening, June 12th.

Mrs. C. A. Hopkins and daughters, Doris and Hilda, of Mc

IT PROVES IT'S WORTH

The HOLSMAN Automobile

PERFECT in CONSTRUCTION, CHEAP in PRICE and COST of OPERATING

When you see the HOLSMAN machine it will make you its friend at once for these reasons:

1. Solid tires, admitting of no punctures.
2. All steel body. No water to contend with, or broken jackets which occur in iron body buggies.
3. No live gears.
4. No transmission gears.
5. No drive gears.
6. No speed gears, in fact, not any gears to contend with. No catches. The machine rides as easy as the best made carriage and is controlled by two simple hand levers. Is started, guided, stopped, speeded, reversed and fully controlled by these two simple levers.

Should you have a breakdown, repairs are quickly secured. However, the chances of a breakdown are slim in a Holsman.

Write me for catalog and descriptive matter.

J. W. Burkitt, Arlington Heights, Ill.

N. B. I'll be pleased to give you a spin in my car and show you the advantages of a Holsman. It won't cost you anything. I also have the agency for the Rotary Shuttle Standard Sewing Machine, the best thing in this line on the market. Let the ladies come in my place and let me show them.

GAS Brightest, Best and Cheapest. Quickest, Cleanest and Most Convenient. Now is the time to order Gas Ranges and House Piping. Lowest Rates, Cash or Payments.

GAS Northwestern Gas Light & Coke Co. Evanston 63 or Park Ridge 12

Drop Post or Telephone.

We Furnish the Table

Meats, Vegetables, Canned Goods

BOUGHT AT OUR ATTRACTIVE MARKET IN THE NEW GROFF BUILDING ARE FRESH AND PURE.

CALL AT THE NEW LOCATION

WE ARE READY FOR BUSINESS AND INVITE INSPECTION.

Fancy Apples and Oranges

Alverson & Groff

PHONE 463
BARRINGTON, ILL.

"The Barrington" GAS AND GASOLINE ENGINE

The latest Improved and Best Gas or Gasoline Engine on the market.

Simple Construction. Guaranteed. Lowest Prices.

Made in all sizes from 3 to 100 Horse Power, by

A. SCHAUBLE & CO.
Barrington, ILL.

Manufacturers of Shafting, Pulleys and Belting, Cisterns and Tanks.
Repairing of All Kinds of Machinery a Specialty.

GOOD SUITS $15 to $18
PANTS $4 to $5

Perfectly tailored clothes that FIT WELL, LOOK WELL, WEAR WELL, at no more than you will pay for good ready made. Come in and see my samples.

Special Attention Paid to Repairing and Cleaning Ladies' and Gent's Garments.

MATH PECAK, Merchant Tailor
Barrington - - - Illinois

PALATINE LOCAL NEWS

What the People are Doing in

Palatine and the Vicinity.

A picked up team defeated a nine from the Clarendon department of the North-Western Saturday afternoon by a score of 15 to 7.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Amanda Hartz to Louis W. Garms next Wednesday.

Miss Lena Luene visited her aunt at Lake Zurich over Sunday.

Miss Frank Wright returned from Belvidere Wednesday evening where she went to see her mother who has been very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Babcock drove to Deerfield Thursday.

Charles Patten returned from a trip to Louisville, Ky., the last of the week. He says it was a fine sight to see the blue and gray all in one line on Decoration Day.

Andrew Lytle and family of Deerfield attended the funeral of their uncle, William Babcock, Friday.

G. H. Arps entertained the speaker of the day Thursday, J. H. Barbour.

Mrs. Ed. Lincoln of Nunda called on friends here Wednesday.

Mr. Jenster bought and shipped to Boston a fine horse from Charles Dean Wednesday of last week.

Many from here attended the ball game at Barrington Decoration Day.

Several from here attended the dance at Lake Zurich Saturday night; a few went to Half Day.

Mrs. Charles Hartung has returned from the South and is visiting with her cousin, Mrs. Lena Anderson.

Miss Emma Selp of Lake Zurich visited her brother Charles and family Saturday.

Miss Florence McKay of Chicago visited with her cousin, Miss Emma Arps, Sunday.

Miss Anna Covey visited with her cousin, Mrs. R. Bennett, Sunday.

Mrs. James McCauley and son visited the former's parents here Sunday.

Mrs. H. S. Heise returned from the hospital in Chicago where she was operated on Sunday.

Mrs. and Mrs. H. C. Matthiel entered their cousin Decoration Day.

Several from here attended the Mision feast at Elmhurst Sunday.

Mrs. Arps and Devos attended the birthday party of Mrs. Carrie A. Kendall in Barrington last Saturday.

Mrs. Hattie Horton and two daughters visited their mother, Mrs. Tucker several days last week returning to her home in the city Sunday.

The evening card game gave a surprise to Mrs. Emma Rebbeck Saturday evening. About twenty participated in the affair and report a fine time. It must have been so judging the time they left for home.

Among those from out of town seen on our streets Decoration Day were: Mr. C. Nichols and Herman Stroker of Chicago; Ray Fox and family, Mrs. Mary Myers and daughter, Mrs. Goldbeck and daughter, of Irving Park; Miss Lillie Carr and the Munn children, of Mayfield; Mr. and Mrs. M. Clay of Evanston; May and Cora Johnson, of Pullman; Misses Nellie Campbell, Grace Henry and Grace Brey, of Ravenswood.

Monday night's meeting of the village board was an important one. Among the things done we note the following: an ordinance for additional boiler and pump will be presented at next meeting. Two petitions against Sunday ball playing were laid on the table. Water extension ordinance, No. 207, for laying mains in Broadway street to the subdivision was passed. Gas ordinance was presented but no action was taken, pending the acceptance by the company of the 2 per cent clause after five years.

The Decoration Day exercises were very good and well attended. The band led followed by the veterans and school children. They marched to the church where the suburban orchestra furnished music and the school sang. The address by J. H. Barbour, assistant state attorney, of Chicago, was fine, and instructive as well as entertaining. Anyone who failed to hear it missed one of the good things in life. At the close of exercises they marched to the cemetery and proceeded to decorate the comrades graves, there being two cemeteries thirty-nine. Henry Hartz, one of our own citizens, spoke at the cemetery in behalf of the unknown. His remarks were very good and all that heard him more than appreciated it. After the exercises at the two cemeteries were completed they marched to the town and disbanded when the band favored the crowd with a couple of fine selections.

Dr. and Mrs. Ray Gibbs last Friday, a daughter.

Dr. Floyd Gibbs, left this week for Colorado, but was recalled on account of serious illness of his brother, Ray's wife.

Mr. Dr. Schindling entertained some of Miss Blanche Schindling's friends at a dinner shower. Miss Schindling will be married in the near future to Louis Reuse.

We had one of the best ball games seen in these parts for many a day. Decoration Day when the Roach's of Chicago played our boys. They played 16 innings getting 5 to 2 in our boys' favor at last. The score stood 1 to 1 until the last inning when the Roach's got 1 and our boys 2, making the score 3 to 2. The Sunday game was of a decided difference when the Armor Packers played the boys, in the first inning the Packers got 1 run and our boys 3, then it ran up to the eighth inning when the boys got three more runs, making the score 8 to 1 in favor of the Roach's.

William Hassen Babcock was born in Woodstock, Madison County, New York, May 5th, 1833 and died until his entombment May 29th, 1907. He came to Illinois and settled in the township of Barrington in 1847, moved to Palatine in May 1857 and has resided there ever since, a period of fifty years in the same house in which he passed away.

He was born in 1833 and married to Mary Jane Lytle who was summoned by Angel of Death recently, years ago. Four children were born to them, the oldest dying in infancy. The surviving are Mrs. Belle Christensen of Chicago; Charles Babcock and Mr. Hattie Umbelsteeds of Palatine and five grandchildren, four boys and one girl. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of Barrington Post, G. A. R. in which he always took a great interest. Being an old and respected citizen he will be greatly missed by a host of friends and especially by his neighbors who will recall many a kind word and an ever ready helping hand in times of need. The funeral services were held last Friday, Rev. Hofmeister officiating and a large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Hillside cemetery where he was laid to rest by the side of his wife. The Barrington Post took charge of the last rites over their beloved member.

CHARLES H. ARPS

Angels of Death recently, years ago. Four children were born to them, the oldest dying in infancy. The surviving are Mrs. Belle Christensen of Chicago; Charles Babcock and Mr. Hattie Umbelsteeds of Palatine and five grandchildren, four boys and one girl. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of Barrington Post, G. A. R. in which he always took a great interest. Being an old and respected citizen he will be greatly missed by a host of friends and especially by his neighbors who will recall many a kind word and an ever ready ready helping hand in times of need. The funeral services were held last Friday, Rev. Hofmeister officiating and a large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Hillside cemetery where he was laid to rest by the side of his wife. The Barrington Post took charge of the last rites over their beloved member.

CHARLES H. ARPS

Angels of Death recently, years ago. Four children were born to them, the oldest dying in infancy. The surviving are Mrs. Belle Christensen of Chicago; Charles Babcock and Mr. Hattie Umbelsteeds of Palatine and five grandchildren, four boys and one girl. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of Barrington Post, G. A. R. in which he always took a great interest. Being an old and respected citizen he will be greatly missed by a host of friends and especially by his neighbors who will recall many a kind word and an ever ready ready helping hand in times of need. The funeral services were held last Friday, Rev. Hofmeister officiating and a large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Hillside cemetery where he was laid to rest by the side of his wife. The Barrington Post took charge of the last rites over their beloved member.

CHARLES H. ARPS

Angels of Death recently, years ago. Four children were born to them, the oldest dying in infancy. The surviving are Mrs. Belle Christensen of Chicago; Charles Babcock and Mr. Hattie Umbelsteeds of Palatine and five grandchildren, four boys and one girl. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of Barrington Post, G. A. R. in which he always took a great interest. Being an old and respected citizen he will be greatly missed by a host of friends and especially by his neighbors who will recall many a kind word and an ever ready ready helping hand in times of need. The funeral services were held last Friday, Rev. Hofmeister officiating and a large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Hillside cemetery where he was laid to rest by the side of his wife. The Barrington Post took charge of the last rites over their beloved member.

CHARLES H. ARPS

Angels of Death recently, years ago. Four children were born to them, the oldest dying in infancy. The surviving are Mrs. Belle Christensen of Chicago; Charles Babcock and Mr. Hattie Umbelsteeds of Palatine and five grandchildren, four boys and one girl. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of Barrington Post, G. A. R. in which he always took a great interest. Being an old and respected citizen he will be greatly missed by a host of friends and especially by his neighbors who will recall many a kind word and an ever ready ready helping hand in times of need. The funeral services were held last Friday, Rev. Hofmeister officiating and a large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Hillside cemetery where he was laid to rest by the side of his wife. The Barrington Post took charge of the last rites over their beloved member.

CHARLES H. ARPS

Angels of Death recently, years ago. Four children were born to them, the oldest dying in infancy. The surviving are Mrs. Belle Christensen of Chicago; Charles Babcock and Mr. Hattie Umbelsteeds of Palatine and five grandchildren, four boys and one girl. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of Barrington Post, G. A. R. in which he always took a great interest. Being an old and respected citizen he will be greatly missed by a host of friends and especially by his neighbors who will recall many a kind word and an ever ready ready helping hand in times of need. The funeral services were held last Friday, Rev. Hofmeister officiating and a large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Hillside cemetery where he was laid to rest by the side of his wife. The Barrington Post took charge of the last rites over their beloved member.

CHARLES H. ARPS

Angels of Death recently, years ago. Four children were born to them, the oldest dying in infancy. The surviving are Mrs. Belle Christensen of Chicago; Charles Babcock and Mr. Hattie Umbelsteeds of Palatine and five grandchildren, four boys and one girl. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of Barrington Post, G. A. R. in which he always took a great interest. Being an old and respected citizen he will be greatly missed by a host of friends and especially by his neighbors who will recall many a kind word and an ever ready ready helping hand in times of need. The funeral services were held last Friday, Rev. Hofmeister officiating and a large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Hillside cemetery where he was laid to rest by the side of his wife. The Barrington Post took charge of the last rites over their beloved member.

CHARLES H. ARPS

Angels of Death recently, years ago. Four children were born to them, the oldest dying in infancy. The surviving are Mrs. Belle Christensen of Chicago; Charles Babcock and Mr. Hattie Umbelsteeds of Palatine and five grandchildren, four boys and one girl. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of Barrington Post, G. A. R. in which he always took a great interest. Being an old and respected citizen he will be greatly missed by a host of friends and especially by his neighbors who will recall many a kind word and an ever ready ready helping hand in times of need. The funeral services were held last Friday, Rev. Hofmeister officiating and a large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Hillside cemetery where he was laid to rest by the side of his wife. The Barrington Post took charge of the last rites over their beloved member.

CHARLES H. ARPS

Angels of Death recently, years ago. Four children were born to them, the oldest dying in infancy. The surviving are Mrs. Belle Christensen of Chicago; Charles Babcock and Mr. Hattie Umbelsteeds of Palatine and five grandchildren, four boys and one girl. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of Barrington Post, G. A. R. in which he always took a great interest. Being an old and respected citizen he will be greatly missed by a host of friends and especially by his neighbors who will recall many a kind word and an ever ready ready helping hand in times of need. The funeral services were held last Friday, Rev. Hofmeister officiating and a large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Hillside cemetery where he was laid to rest by the side of his wife. The Barrington Post took charge of the last rites over their beloved member.

CHARLES H. ARPS

Angels of Death recently, years ago. Four children were born to them, the oldest dying in infancy. The surviving are Mrs. Belle Christensen of Chicago; Charles Babcock and Mr. Hattie Umbelsteeds of Palatine and five grandchildren, four boys and one girl. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of Barrington Post, G. A. R. in which he always took a great interest. Being an old and respected citizen he will be greatly missed by a host of friends and especially by his neighbors who will recall many a kind word and an ever ready ready helping hand in times of need. The funeral services were held last Friday, Rev. Hofmeister officiating and a large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Hillside cemetery where he was laid to rest by the side of his wife. The Barrington Post took charge of the last rites over their beloved member.

CHARLES H. ARPS

Angels of Death recently, years ago. Four children were born to them, the oldest dying in infancy. The surviving are Mrs. Belle Christensen of Chicago; Charles Babcock and Mr. Hattie Umbelsteeds of Palatine and five grandchildren, four boys and one girl. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of Barrington Post, G. A. R. in which he always took a great interest. Being an old and respected citizen he will be greatly missed by a host of friends and especially by his neighbors who will recall many a kind word and an ever ready ready helping hand in times of need. The funeral services were held last Friday, Rev. Hofmeister officiating and a large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Hillside cemetery where he was laid to rest by the side of his wife. The Barrington Post took charge of the last rites over their beloved member.

CHARLES H. ARPS

Angels of Death recently, years ago. Four children were born to them, the oldest dying in infancy. The surviving are Mrs. Belle Christensen of Chicago; Charles Babcock and Mr. Hattie Umbelsteeds of Palatine and five grandchildren, four boys and one girl. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of Barrington Post, G. A. R. in which he always took a great interest. Being an old and respected citizen he will be greatly missed by a host of friends and especially by his neighbors who will recall many a kind word and an ever ready ready helping hand in times of need. The funeral services were held last Friday, Rev. Hofmeister officiating and a large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Hillside cemetery where he was laid to rest by the side of his wife. The Barrington Post took charge of the last rites over their beloved member.

CHARLES H. ARPS

Angels of Death recently, years ago. Four children were born to them, the oldest dying in infancy. The surviving are Mrs. Belle Christensen of Chicago; Charles Babcock and Mr. Hattie Umbelsteeds of Palatine and five grandchildren, four boys and one girl. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of Barrington Post, G. A. R. in which he always took a great interest. Being an old and respected citizen he will be greatly missed by a host of friends and especially by his neighbors who will recall many a kind word and an ever ready ready helping hand in times of need. The funeral services were held last Friday, Rev. Hofmeister officiating and a large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Hillside cemetery where he was laid to rest by the side of his wife. The Barrington Post took charge of the last rites over their beloved member.

CHARLES H. ARPS

Angels of Death recently, years ago. Four children were born to them, the oldest dying in infancy. The surviving are Mrs. Belle Christensen of Chicago; Charles Babcock and Mr. Hattie Umbelsteeds of Palatine and five grandchildren, four boys and one girl. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of Barrington Post, G. A. R. in which he always took a great interest. Being an old and respected citizen he will be greatly missed by a host of friends and especially by his neighbors who will recall many a kind word and an ever ready ready helping hand in times of need. The funeral services were held last Friday, Rev. Hofmeister officiating and a large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Hillside cemetery where he was laid to rest by the side of his wife. The Barrington Post took charge of the last rites over their beloved member.

CHARLES H. ARPS

Angels of Death recently, years ago. Four children were born to them, the oldest dying in infancy. The surviving are Mrs. Belle Christensen of Chicago; Charles Babcock and Mr. Hattie Umbelsteeds of Palatine and five grandchildren, four boys and one girl. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of Barrington Post, G. A. R. in which he always took a great interest. Being an old and respected citizen he will be greatly missed by a host of friends and especially by his neighbors who will recall many a kind word and an ever ready ready helping hand in times of need. The funeral services were held last Friday, Rev. Hofmeister officiating and a large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Hillside cemetery where he was laid to rest by the side of his wife. The Barrington Post took charge of the last rites over their beloved member.

CHARLES H. ARPS

Angels of Death recently, years ago. Four children were born to them, the oldest dying in infancy. The surviving are Mrs. Belle Christensen of Chicago; Charles Babcock and Mr. Hattie Umbelsteeds of Palatine and five grandchildren, four boys and one girl. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of Barrington Post, G. A. R. in which he always took a great interest. Being an old and respected citizen he will be greatly missed by a host of friends and especially by his neighbors who will recall many a kind word and an ever ready ready helping hand in times of need. The funeral services were held last Friday, Rev. Hofmeister officiating and a large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Hillside cemetery where he was laid to rest by the side of his wife. The Barrington Post took charge of the last rites over their beloved member.

CHARLES H. ARPS

New Stock Dress Goods

We bought some special values in spring and summer dress goods. Pretty Organizes, Dawns, White Goods and Linens, that range in price from $1.00 to $10.00. We also picked up some good values in figured dress goods at prices of 50c, 75c, 90c, $1.00.

You will find our store gives you a choice selection and is the place to buy dress goods.

Corsets

Every lady should wear our Paris new model Corsets. $1.00 and $1.25 a pair.

New stock spring and summer Underwear.

Wear it.

It is easy to buy one.

Wall Paper

A big lot of new Wall Paper at special prices for this sale. 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30 cents per roll upwards.

Carpets

We sell good bed room carpets at 25c per yard. Other patterns in cotton and wool carpets 45, 50, 55, 60, 65 cents per yard. Matting 20, 25, 28, 30 cents.

Window Shades for any size window.

Best Stove Gasoline 15c per gal. Good Dairy Butter 25c per pound. Oatmeal Flour is the best flour. Just a little better than other flours.

DANIEL F. LAMEY BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS

WE INVITE YOU

To break the record at our new up-to-date BOWLING ALLEY.

Bowling is a high class sport. Let your boys patronize our alley for exercise and amusement.

HOURS FOR LADIES—Any afternoon excepting Saturday.

OUR BARBER SHOP

Is equipped with all improvements. Sanitary Tools.

Speedy Work.

THIES BROTHERS

GROFF BUILDING

BARRINGTON

W. H. GORMAN MARKET

THE PLACE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY

My Specials:-

High Grade Meats and Poultry.

The Fresh Green Vegetables of Spring.

My line of Canned Goods the finest that can be produced.

Prompt Delivery

Telephone No. 424

SEEDS

TIMOTHY, CLOVER, ALFALFA

Buy TESTED SEED CORN and get

MORE CORN TO THE ACRE.

For hogs sow RAPE, ALFALFA or CANADIAN FIELD PEAS.

For the dairy sow MEDIUM RED or ALSIKE CLOVER, ALFALFA or COW PEAS.

Careful feeding with any of these excellent crops will cut down your feed bills. Try it.

SMITH BROS.

Lake Zurich, Illinois