

BARRINGTON REVIEW.

VOL. 23. NO. 37.

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1907

$1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

JOSEPH P. BROWN

Died Tuesday Forenoon at His Home on West Main Street.

Tuesday morning at half past five o'clock, Joseph P. Brown of Main street, died at the age of eighty-three years, after a long illness of several years' time, during which he was subject to frequent attacks. He was one of our oldest residents and a man who has watched the development of Barrington for thirty years.

He was born January 21st, in Moultenboro, New Hampshire, and came west in 1875, settling on a farm a mile and a half west of Barrington. In 1881 he moved to the village and has since occupied the octagonal house on Main street that has attracted attention. When a young man he was married to Miss Elizabeth Hawley, a daughter of the late Austin Hawley and sister of Mrs. Arletta Sizer of Williams street. She died many years and Mr. Brown was married to Miss Hawley, daughter of the late Fred Hawley and sister of the late Fred Hawley. She survives with her two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Northup of Minnesota and Mrs. L. L. Porter who resides northwest of town.

The funeral was held this afternoon at half past one at the home and was in charge of Lounsbury Lodge, A. F. and M. of which Mr. Brown had been a member since 1876. Mr. Taylor of Palatine lead the service and burial was in Evergreen cemetery.

Was Pleasant Affair.

The so-called "Skidoo Dance" of last Saturday night held in the village hall and promoted by three of the younger fellows while not large, was a pleasant dance and well enjoyed by those taking part in it. Nearly thirty dancing couples and spectators comfortably filled the small hall. Three musicians from Woodstock were popular players. The three young men managers incurred an expense of $44, in planning the party, securing a piano from Elgin, and their efforts to present a good time were appreciated. Another dance will be arranged by them after New Year's.

Contributors to Park Fund.

Those who have contributed to the Lincoln Home fund to date in Barrington are—George Comstock, Lyman Powers, S. J. Fulton, Barrington Cornet Band, William Howarth, Mrs. F. Willmarth, Mrs. M. T. Lamey, Dr. D. H. Richardson, Dr. A. Weichelt, F. H. Plagge, G. W. Robinson, Robie Brockway, Mrs. H. K. Brockway, Mrs. Minnie Hawley, Mrs. Anna Otis, Mrs. Eva Tuttle, Mrs. S. Benton, Mrs. W. Lawson, Mrs. Margaret DeJan, Mrs. Ellen Haines, E. Prouty, E. Bauman, Howard Powers, A. G. Boughtaling, A. W. Meyer, George Topping, Mrs. Charles Lytle, Rose Volker, G. F. Stiefenhofer, L. F. Schroeder, F. J. Landwer, Schwenn Bros. H. D. A. Grebe, Barrington Review, Mrs. Fulton, Irving Landwer, Walter Landwer, Fred Grabenkort, E. J. Kampert, J. C. Whitney, Robert Purcell, Newton Plagge, Alfred Church, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Allen, Irene Holmes, J. F. Gieske, Mrs. Gieske, J. H. Kampert, Elmer Gieske, John Riecke, Ed. Riecke, George Walker, H. H. Hubbard, Mrs. Hubbard, Mrs. M. J. Colekims, F. A. Lageschulte, Samuel Landwer, Edward Groff, Samuel Clark, Charles Senn, Herman Gieske, Virginia Allen, Alma Stierenhoefer, Carrie Kingsley, Mrs. C. E. Gray, Mrs. Emily Hawley, Mrs. W. Abbott, Beulah Otis, Nancy Jencks, Mrs. Fred Stott, Nettie Lombard, Robert Knaggs, L. A. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cook.

Farmers Institute Meeting.

The Cook County Farmers' Institute will hold their regular annual meeting for the Seventh Congressional district at Barrington, Friday, December 20th. There will be three sessions, morning, afternoon and evening. Practical farmers and stock raisers will give the public the benefit of their experience. The evening session will be devoted to matters of interest to ladies—Domestic Science and Cooking.

G. A. P. Election.

The annual election of officers of General T. W. Sweeney Post, G. A. R., No. 275, Department of Illinois, will take place on Friday evening, December 13th. All comrades are requested to be present. H. H. HUBBARD, Commander.

Buy your paints, oils, varnishes, brushes, etc., of LAMBEY & COMPANY.

PALATINE LOCAL NEWS

What the People are Doing in Palatine and the Vicinity.

C. E. Dean is in New York on business this week.

The Ladies' Aid Society cleared over $200 on the Bazaar last week.

Mrs. Louie Rense spent Tuesday at Des Plaines with Mrs. Alma Smith.

Mrs. Wierdt entertained some of her friends at her home Sunday afternoon.

Frances Daniels was quite ill last week but is able to be back in school again.

John Umbenstock and family entertained his brother and family from Glimmer Sunday.

W. H. Brockway, wife and daughter spent Sunday at Albany, Wisconsin, with his relatives.

Mrs. George Griggs has moved into the Castle flat. W. C. Davenport will move to the Griggs place.

Mrs. D. J. Holmes and daughter, Miss Alice, spent Thanksgiving and a few days at Ottawa, Illinois.

J. A. Young is very comfortable at present writing. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

Mrs. Louie Schloppe entertained the teachers and a few friends Monday night as a farewell to her home.

Mr. Van Poole has returned to his home in Richmond Center, Wisconsin, after working this summer at the Dean farm.

Mrs. Frank Bieger (nee Emma Paulson) died at her home in Chicago last Friday. She lived north of Palatine some years ago.

Henry Langhorst has bought the Louie Schloppe place. He will take possession at once. Mr. Schloppe will move back over the store.

Mrs. Sophia French was given a surprise Monday when her daughter invited in Madeline Hart, Lambert and Frye to her eighty-third birthday dinner.

The Republican club held their annual election Tuesday night in the Masonic banquet hall. The following were elected: President, Milan Reynolds; Treasurer, H. C. Matthei; Secretary, C. D. Taylor.

Untruthful Stories Cause Trouble.

Untruthful stories often cause trouble and so it is in our case, a few fault finders, commonly called "knockers" seem to look upon our amusement parlor as a disreputable place, for the simple reason that we have installed two new pool tables and a few other things of amusement. If these "knockers" would call and investigate for themselves, instead of sending spies, they would see for themselves just what kind of a place we are conducting. In our opinion—and it is the opinion of others who have visited our place—that we have just what any up-to-date town ought to have, a respectable up-to-date place for the young men to spend their evenings after toiling all day. Is it not more elevating for a young man to be found amusing himself with games than to be sitting on some crooked box in some grocery store or congregating at some livery stable, telling filthy stories and idling away his time? Now, knockers, have some foundation for your stories about this place, before you form them. Investigate and be wise. FRED W. STOTT, Proprietor, Stott's Amusement Parlor.

Mrs. Charlotte Ward.

Mrs. Charlotte Ward died at her home in St. Charles, Illinois, last Friday, November 22nd, of chronic asthma and complications. She was the sister of Mrs. Ann Donlea of Main street and has visited here frequently, knowing many friends. She was in Barrington in August this summer. Mrs. Donlea and Mrs. Elizabeth Kirby went to St. Charles Saturday and remained three days, while Thomas and Henry Donlea and Mr. and Mrs. John Welch attended the funeral on Sunday.

Frank Foreman and Charles Able returned Tuesday after a three weeks stay on a farm near Canyon City, Tex. They passed the time in hunting and viewing surrounding country and report having had a very pleasant trip although Mr. Foreman's pleasure was marred somewhat on account of his contracting a severe cold while en route which laid him up for a few days.

Rocketteller, Junior's, Views.

John D. Rocketteller, Jr., returned to his bible class at the Fifth Avenue Baptist church, New York, Sunday there having been a noticeable falling off since he withdrew from the work. "Jesus' Attitude Towards Pleasures" was the young millionaire's topic. Men need pleasures, he said, and should take them in a way they preferred, so long as they were of the right kind. Dancing and card-playing he did not think wrong when properly indulged in. "Card-playing gave a mental stimulus that was not harmful, but when it came to playing cards for gain, that was a sin. Theater going he approved of, so long as the plays visited were straight and pure. Such plays he thought often stimulated one to noble thoughts and great deeds."

Auction

John Laufenberger will offer for sale, Monday, December 2nd, on the old Lageschulte farm, two and one half miles southwest of Barrington on Goose Lake road, one mile east of the lake, commencing at ten o'clock, 19 cows, hay and grain, milk cans and chickens. William Peters, auctioneer.

Jap a Lac in any quantity you desire a Lamey and Co's.

NEWS OF WAUCONDA

Personal Paragraphs Submitted By Our Very Able Correspondents.

Leo Maiman was a Sunday visitor here.

John Knox of Melleny spent Sunday with friends here.

Emil Dahms was a Chicago visitor the first of the week.

Mrs. Henry Tekampe and daughter were callers Friday.

Dr. Golding of Libertyville made a visit in this place Sunday.

Henry Maiman Jr. is visiting his brother at Waukegan this week.

B. S. Hammond transacted business in Chicago the first of the week.

James Hutchinson of Barrington is visiting his sisters here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hicks visited relatives at Libertyville over Sunday.

Mr. Wayman and Theron Oaks of Arlington Heights were Wauconda visitors Sunday.

Mrs. James Neville returned Saturday evening from a week's visit with his daughter at Libertyville.

The M. S. Euchre club were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Fuller Monday evening. Eight tables were filled, refreshments served and a general good time is reported. Harry Granham and Mrs. George Stroker won prizes and the consolation went to Mrs. Clayton Werden.

P. N. Carr, wife and little son who were guests of F. L. Carr and family last week have returned to Deadwood, South Dakota, but promises to see Wauconda Lake again. Mr. Carr has traveled much, has seen many lakes and streams, and has fished in the Pacific Ocean; but he says he has never seen a more beautiful sheet of water than Wauconda Lake, Wauconda.

Bazaar in Baptist Church

The young ladies of the Baptist Young People's Union, assisted by the Dorcas Society, are preparing many articles, both useful and ornamental, for a bazaar to be held in the parlor of the church on the afternoon and evening of Friday, December 6th. Supper will be served from five to eight. One of the attractions will be a Japanese booth in which tea will be served by young ladies in costume and the serving cups given as souvenirs.

The Proper Garment Styles for Fall and Winter AT THE BIG STORE

This season the styles are varied. Dame Fashion kindly allows each woman to choose the style that best becomes her. In selecting our stock of outer garments we picked them from a collection that is ALWAYS RIGHT.

The "Palmer Garment"

is made in the most approved styles, and is also correct in material, fit and quality.

All the words we could use would give you as good an idea of these coats as you'd get by seeing them.

We ask you to look at them

IN THE CENTER is a coat for $16.50. We will put this coat up against any coat costing $20 or $22. The price does not spell its full value. See how elaborately it is braided! The fabric is black, blue, red and brown broadcloth. Black velvet standing collar, edged with fancy black braid. Body and sleeves lined with black venetian. This is a fifty inch coat that represents great value.

Women's Coats

In Black Broadcloth, Kersey and Fancy Plaids, 50 and 52 inches long. Prices from $4.25 to $16.50.

Children's Cloaks

Red, Blue, Brown and Mixtures $1.25 to $6.50

If you are in need of A New Cloak

for your children or yourself it will pay you to call on us and see our line before purchasing elsewhere.

A. W. MEYER, Barrington, Illinois.

We Invite Inspection.

Fresh Hams 9 1-2c
Smoked Hams 12 1-2c
Fresh Shoulders 7c
Smoked Shoulders 10c
Pork Chops 10 and 12 1-2c
Bacon 14 and 16c

All cuts of meats are very cheap for A-1 goods. No riff raff stock or old crows are found in this market.

Yours for business

Alverson & Groff PHONE 483 BARRINGTON, ILL.

Barrington Review.

M. T. LANEY, Ed. and Pub.
BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS

Genies has the wisdom of age in its youth.

Peace has her victories no less than war—and then there's football.

Ballooning lacks one thrilling phase. There are no speed ordinances to be violated.

Will the couple who were married in the Lake Erie Lighthouse do light—no, say it yourself.

The brave, gay, generous and light-hearted bear the strokes of fate with equanimity and indomitable courage.

It is probably no more true that tin soldiers make fighters of boys than it is that Teddy bears make growlers of girls.

The claim that prunes cause baldness was started by some doctor who was trying to make trouble for his landlady.

A Harvard professor says aversion to work is really illness. Here is where an indefinite lay-off is going to be asked.

An association has been organized in New York to build airships. But notwithstanding its object, it will not use inflated capital.

Balloon travel is rapidly becoming more safe and scientific. We may all fly yet, even if some of us never get a chance to wear wings.

Earthly fame, wealth and glory are as evanescent as the cardinal rays of the setting sun that drops into dark storms and eternal night.

A swarm of bees lit on a Philadelphia policeman. The fact that one man woke up made a nice little piece of news for the local papers.

Dogence was not like a modern muckraker or investigator. He did not go around looking for dishonesty. He knew it was always there.

Several men have been convicted and sent to prison in New York for stealing electricity. This naturally came under the head of shocking crimes.

They are putting monkeys in jail in New Jersey. This looks as though the law of that state was making war-human efforts to getting itself enforced.

Maroon has harnessed that air, but whether he can drive it as he pleases remains to be seen. He is, however, one of the dreamers that Boyce O'Reilly says live forever.

The body is quickly buried and lost in the dust of centuries, but the spirit of thought, that moves us every moment for good or ill, has immortal lineage and cannot be destroyed.

A wicked conscience is the most devilish companion a mortal can harbor, for even in the success of its villainy it is tortured with uncertainty, anxiety, dread and plutonic remorse.

The women's literary clubs of Michigan have started a novel contest as to which club shall add the most children to the earth's population next year. Race suicide will have to take the count.

A Wisconsin court has decided that a cigarette with a tobacco wrapper is not a cigarette, and does not violate the anti-cigarette law. This is an easy road to liberty. Thirty tobacco wrappers are better than the paper ones, any way.

Now a vessel is to be built to outclass the Lusitania. Perhaps in the future seagoing vessels of any kind will be dispensed with entirely and speed-seekers will be simply buried across the ocean through pneumatic tubes at telegraphic velocity.

English experts who have been investigating report that the gold still to be dug out of the mines in the Rand district of South Africa may be estimated at $5,000,000,000. With that much gold in circulation the world would have quantity as well as quality.

Brazil, distinguished in the merry comedy, "Charley's Aunt," as the place "where the aunt comes from," is also distinguished as a place where ideas grow. Thirty Brazilian men, scientists and professional men are visiting this country, in obedience to the advice which Secretary Root gave to all the Americans to "get acquainted."

Mrs. Russell Sage, having lately learned that a debt of $2,000, contracted by her little son, who has never been paid, has forwarded a check for the amount to the heirs of the creditor. If she had paid interest on the sum for the 43 years the check would have been a good deal larger. But she is a woman, and probably the heirs are thankful to get the principal.

When a man has done his work shall he stop and play? Rev. Dr. Scott of Worcester, Mass., who has resigned from his pulpit after 30 years of service in order to devote himself to golf, thinks he has struck this place, and is doubtless happy. The trouble is that when a man works for 30 years without giving any time to pleasure he commonly does not know how to play. The amount of diversion at intervals along the road is the safer and more satisfactory plan. It would tend to postpone the day when a man must retire from active work.

CEAR NICK—"I WISH I COULD INDUCE YOU TO STAY!"

ODD LOT BUYING IS HEAVY

TRANSFER BOOKS CONTAIN MORE STOCKHOLDERS THAN EVER.

Numerous Currency Projects Submitted to President and Cortelyou—Interest in Central Bank Idea.

New York.—Investment buying in small lots of railroad and industrial securities in Wall street still continues in unprecedented volume, and stock transfer officers are overwhelmed with work transferring the names of new security holders. This enormous odd lot buying, bringing in tens of thousands of dollars into circulation, has been in progress for several weeks and is doing more than anything else, perhaps, to effect a relaxation in the stringent currency conditions.

Washington.—Details of many new projects for improving the currency are being submitted to the president and Secretary Cortelyou and are receiving such attention as the other exigencies of the financial situation permit. Secretary Cortelyou is a good listener and usually digests quickly essential points of the various plans which are submitted to him.

Measures relating directly to the currency which are being discussed among bankers and incoming members of congress may be roughly grouped under four heads—a central bank of issue, a central organization of the existing national banks, the issue of additional circulation against various classes of bonds other than United States bonds, and the issue of circulation upon general warrants with the security of a guaranty fund.

The project of a central bank, based upon the general outlines of the Bank of France or the Imperial Bank of Germany, has apparently been attracting more attention of late than at any previous time in recent years. Senator Hansbrough of North Dakota, who is a member of the finance committee, has announced that he will introduce a bill for such an institution.

Mr. Westler, vice president of the Whitney-Central National Bank of New Orleans, is openly in favor of a central bank and says that the New Orleans press, taught by the strain of the cotton situation, is with him.

BOROUGH BANK MEN INDICTED.

President, Cashier and Controlling Stockholder in the Toils.

New York.—The Kings county grand jury, which is investigating the recent management of the suspended Borough Bank of Brooklyn, returned indictments Thursday charging larceny and other offenses against Howard Maxwell, who was president of the institution when its doors were closed; Arthur D. Campbell, the deposed cashier, and William Gow, a director who holds controlling share of the bank's stock.

The three men were arrested and arraigned. All pleaded not guilty and were held for a hearing. Campbell, Maxwell and Gow were each required to furnish a $30,000 bond required of him and went to jail for the night.

President Not Endangered.

Calro, Ill.—Exonerated from the charge of reckless navigation, which endangered the life of the president of the United States during the river trip from Calro to Memphis October 3, was obtained Thursday for the officers and crew of the steamer Dick Fowler, who were found not guilty by United States inspectors Waltz and Hodge, of Memphis, after a trial.

Dishonest Banker Sentenced. Birmingham, Ala.—Louis M. Dyke, president of the former Atlanta National bank, charged with misappropriation of funds of a national bank, entered a plea of guilty Friday. The court sentenced him to five years in the Atlanta penitentiary.

Crushed to Death in Elevator. Pittsburg, Pa.—O. K. McCutcheon, 50 years old, a wealthy merchant of Turtle Creek near here, was crushed to death in an elevator in a downtown skyscraper Friday.

THAW CASE TO BE POSTPONED.

Second Trial Not Likely to Begin Until Late in January.

New York.—The second trial of Harry Kendall Thaw, set for Monday of next week, will again be postponed, and there is little chance that it will be called until some date well along in January. The decision to ask for a postponement has been agreed to by both sides. It is due partly to the fact that the task of selecting a jury would be doubly hard by the approach of the holidays and the prospect before the representatives of spending both Christmas and New Year's day locked up under the care of court bailiffs, and also to the fact that Thaw's counsel has applied to the court for permission to inspect the secret evidence presented before the lunacy commission during the progress of the first trial.

As an added cause for delay there is a rumor that the attorneys now representing Thaw may apply for a change of venue, declaring a fair trial for their client in New York county is impossible. Such a move, if made, would be based upon the alleged friendly attitude of many of the local papers and the extent to which the evidence was printed and read in this county upon a critical phase which will oppose the granting of a change.

CRISIS SOON IN PORTUGAL.

Signs that the Country is on Eve of Revolution.

Paris.—Reports representing that Portugal is on the eve of a revolution are received here with caution, as dispatches coming directly from the country declare that the king and queen have been crowned and those indirectly across the frontier are held more or less under suspicion.

Both the reports of the banishment of the crown prince and the mutiny of the fleet are denied by the Portuguese embassy here; nevertheless, the making of arrests, the suspension of a number of other officers and the measures which have been taken by what Premier Franco terms an administrative dictatorship, seem conclusive evidence that matters in Portugal have entered upon a critical phase.

Senor Lima, proprietor of the newspaper Vanguardia, of Lisbon, which was suppressed, is now in Paris and considers that a republic is inevitable and that the issue will be decided before January 1. He declares that the people are hostile to a dynasty and that the army is disaffected.

"Sufragettes" Silence Gladstone. Leeds, England.—The woman suffragists Friday virtually compelled Herbert Gladstone, secretary of state for home affairs, to abandon his attempt to address a meeting here. The interruptions from the "sufragettes" became so persistent that Mr. Gladstone declared he would no longer struggle against such tactics. One of the suffragettes thereupon tried to take possession of the meeting. While she was speaking a free fight broke out between the men and women of the audience.

HUNT INSPECTING TRACKS.

Lynch, Neb.—Railway Commissioner Joseph A. Williams and H. G. Powell, rate expert in the office of the state engineer, were seriously injured late Thursday night when they struck an inspection of the Missouri Pacific tracks near Elmwood.

The men were using a gasoline motor, and were running at considerable speed in the darkness when the car struck an obstacle on the track and was thrown from the rails.

Philippines Needs Teachers. Washington.—The bureau of insular affairs has received a cablegram from the governor general of the Philippine islands indicating that probably 200 teachers will be required at the beginning of the next school.

Royalty to Give Horse Show Cups. London.—King Edward, Queen Alexandra and the prince of Wales have each promised to present a gold cup valued at $2,000, in connection with the International horse show in London in 1904.

ROB CLINTON BANK

TWO BANDITS LOCK OFFICIALS IN THE BIG VAULT.

TAKE $2,200 TO HOTEL

Seized by Police, They Escape Through Window, Leaving Behind Them $1,500 in Silver Coin.

Bloomington, Ill.—The State bank at Clinton was held up and robbed of $2,200 in silver coin, before five o'clock Monday afternoon by two men, who made their escape.

It was just a few minutes after closing time, when the men appeared in the bank and with drawn revolvers forced Cashier Murphy, Assistant Cashier Argo and Bookkeeper John Young to enter the big vault, in which they locked them. The bulk of the money had already been placed in the currency safe in the vault and the time lock set, but $2,200 in gold and silver remained on the counter. This the robbers shoved into a bag and took with them to Hotel Hamilton, where they had previously engaged a room. They had arranged the money in rolls so that it could be easily carried, and were just about to leave the bank when the officers learned of their presence and attempted to break in the door.

Before they succeeded the robbers jumped from a window onto an adjoining roof, calling out the $700 in gold and leaving $1,500 in silver in the room. It was dark when the men escaped and all trace of them was lost.

Before the highwaymen left the bank building they called up the telephone operator and requested her to send some one to the bank and replace the three bank officials imprisoned in the vault. Charles Parker, collector for the bank, was the only person who knew the combination to the vault and after a short search he was found and hurried to the assistance of the bank officers. When Parker opened the vault door the three men were almost suffocated.

ARABS MAKE FIERCE ATTACK.

Ten Thousand Repulsed with Heavy Loss by the French.

Maghnia, Algeria.—Ten thousand of the fiercest Beni Nassen tribesmen swooped down on the French camp Sunday and were beaten off with a loss of 1,200 killed. The fighting continued for four hours and the French were forced to retreat. The tribesmen apparently with total disregard for their lives. The French loss was eight killed.

The Arabs were not discouraged by this severe repulse, but reformed their forces and in addition directed their efforts to rousing other tribes. The fighting was resumed Monday and the tribesmen intended to use the day throughout the afternoon.

INSANE MAN RUNS AMUCK.

Fires Hotel, Kills Man, Stabs Others and is Blain.

Alamosa, Col.—After setting fire to the Palace hotel early Monday and killing four persons, including a woman, a government reserve agent from Espanola, N. M., stabbed C. B. Anderson, of Coldwater, Mich., to death, seriously stabbed and assaulted other men and finally attempted to kill City Marshal John Baumacher, who was trying to arrest him. The marshal then shot and killed the Mexican. It is believed that he was insane.

PREFERS DEATH TO PRISON.

New York Broker Takes Poison When Detectives Arrest Him.

New York.—Louis Straus, senior member of the firm of Louis Straus & Co., took his life Monday night by swallowing poison, in the presence of Central office detectives, who had come to his home to arrest him.

Straus was accused of obtaining $5,000 on a forged bill of lading.

AGED MERCHANT MURDERED.

Robbed Killer, Edward Landman, of Kansas City.

Kansas City, Mo.—Edward Landman, aged 77 years, who for 30 years had been a stock raiser in Montana, was murdered Monday night by a negro, who entered the store and struck the aged merchant with a coupling pin. The negro then robbed the store and escaped.

Ma, Ill., Girl is Dead. Memphis, Tenn.—A private dispatch from Los Angeles, Cal., states that Ma, Ill., girl, widely known in railroad circles throughout the south and west by her real name, suddenly died. Ma, Ill., girl formerly lived in Memphis.

Thirteen Killed in Gotham Fire. New York.—Thirteen persons lost their lives in a fire at the corner of Broadway and 11th street Monday night in a tenement house fire at One Hundred and Ninth street and second avenue. All the dead were Italian. Seven of the 13 were children. The bodies were found huddled together in rooms on the top floor of the four-story buildings where the terror-stricken people had been driven by the flames. The fire broke out at the work of incendiaries who sought revenge is the opinion of the police and firemen.

Illinois State News

Recent Happenings of Interest in the Various Cities and Towns.

WISDOM COMES AT LAST.

Aged Couple After Many Troubles Decide to End Days Together.

Clinton.—An aged couple, almost childless in their way, divorced 25 years ago, and married a number of times, appeared here and secured a marriage license. They were wedded two hours later. They were Moses Eglington, 73 years old, and Mary M. Grude, 61 years. They gave their place of residence at Chestnut. The matrimonial seas traveled by this pair have been tempestuous. Their alliances invariably were unsuccessful and separations and divorces followed in rapid order after each marriage venture. The groom of to-day has been married five times, and the bride four.

The application for a license was pathetic. Tears came to their eyes as the request was made. "Mary and I have been before you before but separated. Now we find we were made for one another and want to spend our last days together," was the simple tale told between sobs by the aged man.

ROOSEVELT WAS WRONG.

Calro River Men Accused of Recklessness Found Not Guilty.

Calro.—United States Inspectors Waltz and Hodge, of Memphis, who began the trial of the case of the officers and crew of the steamer Dick Fowler, charged with reckless navigation on the occasion of President Roosevelt's trip down the Mississippi river on October 3, have returned a verdict of not guilty.

The charge was preferred by Capt. Vanduser, of the government steamer Lily, one of the boats which escorted the president down the river. The Calro delegation to Memphis had charged and was on the Dick Fowler when the offense was alleged to have been committed.

WHISKY DUEL CAUSES DEATH.

Man Forfeits Life on Wager to Drink Half Gallon.

Urbana.—After drinking half a gallon of whiskey in one hour, Clyde Duffield, a farm hand near Iredale, died in the night. Duffield wagered money on his capacity, and a coroner's jury decided that the bet was lost. County temperance board members intend to use the death as a local option argument in the spring.

Husband Leaves Bride.

Bloomington.—A man who received here from Denver, Colo., stating that Mrs. Albert Buescher is lying at the point of death at Mercy hospital in that city, recalls vividly the happenings of three months ago, when his newly-wedded husband was "sprung away from him by his relatives and brought to Bloomington, put into hiding and has never been heard of since, even by his nearest friends."

Mrs. Buescher, deserted in Denver by her rich husband, and suspecting that he was brought to Bloomington, immediately came to this city and attempted to gain entrance to the Buescher residence, but was denied admittance. After remaining here several weeks the deserted wife went back to Denver.

Fights to Kill His Employer. Bloomington.—Edgar N. Jennings, for 12 years a coachman in the employ of John C. Stevenson, a capitalist of this city, attempted to shoot Mr. Stevenson. The latter seized the revolver aimed at his head and fought his assailant until help arrived. Jennings was finally overpowered and locked up. It is believed that he became suddenly deranged. Mr. Stevenson is a brother of former Vice President Adlai E. Stevenson.

Drinks Whisky on Boat; Dies.

Urbana.—After drinking four pints of whisky in an hour, Clyde Duffield, a farm hand near Iredale, died. Duffield had boasted of his capacity and tossed off one-half pint in a single draught. A jury decided the cause of death was acute alcoholism. County temperance workers intend to use the death as an anti-union argument in the spring.

Rich Man Takes Life.

Rockford.—Oscar Nelson, a wealthy hardware merchant, committed suicide by inhaling gas from the gas stove. He was worried by the financial stringency.

Quincy Attorney Is Stricken.

Quincy.—Judge J. C. Steady, an attorney of this city, died for several years judge of the Adams county circuit court, was stricken by paralysis, and it is feared the result may be fatal.

Horticultural Society Elects.

Knoxville.—At the thirty-fifth annual meeting of the Central Illinois Horticultural society, Henry Augustine, of Normal, was elected president, and J. B. Burroughs, of Decatur, secretary.

CHARGE MAYOR WITH TREASON.

New Move Threatened in Fight in East St. Louis.

East St. Louis.—At the closing session of the Anti-Slavery League of Illinois the suggestion was made that Mayor Cook of this city be prosecuted for treason. Lawyers in attendance told Mr. Harmon, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, that if he could prove that Mayor Cook had conspired with the saloon keepers to evade the law he could be arrested for treason and that action could be brought against his bondsmen for damages.

Mr. Harmon said that the fact that 327 saloons in East St. Louis were violating the law was sufficient evidence, and he said it was reported to him that Mayor Cook had promised the saloon keepers he would not close their saloons if they would vote for him.

It was decided that the efforts of the state body would be used for the enforcement of law methods in Chicago and East St. Louis.

BOY SWALLOWS CORN; DIES.

Hurried Trip to Chicago Falls to Save Life of Canton Youth.

Canton.—A kernel of corn which six-year-old Glen Rowley of Canton coughed into his windpipe while feeding chickens in his father's barnyard resulted in his death at the Presbyterian hospital in Chicago.

The little sufferer had put half a dozen kernels into his mouth while scattering the corn for his feathered pets. It was as he was suddenly coughed and a kernel lodged in his throat.

Physicians in Canton had tried in vain to remove the obstruction, and as a last resort his parents brought him to Chicago. He was hurried to the hospital as soon as the train arrived here, but he died just as he was being placed on the operating table.

Alton Pioneer Expires.

Alton.—Z. B. Job died at his home here at the age of 92 years. He was born in Federal county, Va., in 1815, and removed to Madison county in 1832, settling where the town of Alton now stands. In 1849 he caught the gold fever and went to California, but returned to his home in 1850. Mr. Job represented Madison county four terms in the legislature, and was a friend of Lincoln, Douglas, the elder Yates, and other men who made Illinois history. He was the largest land owner in Madison county. He gave Alton his first public park, and was the founder and donor of Upper Alton university. Surviving are four children, Z. B. Job, Jr., Mrs. Mary P. Miller of Springfield, Mrs. Carrie Skager of Harrisburg, and Mrs. John P. Skager of Alton. Mr. Job represented Madison county four terms in the legislature, and was a friend of Lincoln, Douglas, the elder Yates, and other men who made Illinois history.

Daughters of Rebekah Elect Officers.

Springfield.—The grand assembly of the Daughters of Rebekah, composed of Mrs. Mary P. Miller of Springfield and Mrs. Carrie Skager of Harrisburg, was held at the residence of Mrs. Skager. The officers elected were: President, Mrs. Lillie E. Stewart of Chicago, the retiring president. The assembly voted to increase the appropriation for the erection of a monument for the Old Fellow home at Mattoon and the orphan's home at Lincoln from $2,500, the figures for last year, to $5,000.

William Lathrop Is Dead.

Rockford.—William Lathrop, one of the founders of the Republican party in Illinois, died at his home here from injuries received when he was run over by a horse and buggy in the city park. He was 82 years old. He was Rockford's first city clerk, and was president of the Rockford hospital. He defeated Gen. Stephen A. Hurlbut for congress in the Second district, in 1876, serving one term. Miss Julia Lathrop, member of the state board of charities, is his daughter.

Fatal Wreck Near Peoria.

Peoria.—A Chicago & Alton passenger train and a Vandell freight train together beat-on at Farmdale, six miles east of here. One train was killed and the list of injured numbered seven. Both roads are tenant lines of the T. & W. on which the wreck occurred. Earl Wiebert, of Terre Haute, Ind., was killed. The Vandell train, which was bound for the Peoria, died at Proctor hospital in this city.

Widow Is Awarded $5,000.

Penn.—The case of Mrs. Theresa Wullner vs. the Penwell Coal company was ended when the jury returned a verdict of $5,000 in favor of the plaintiff. This was the amount asked. Mrs. Wullner's husband was killed in the Penwell mine.

Havana Girls Lose Game.

Havana.—The Havana high school girls' basketball team went to Miami City, where they met defeat at the hands of the Miami City girls by a score of 27 to 10.

The Castle of Lies

BY ARTHUR HENRY VESSEY
COPYRIGHT, 1904, BY L. B. LANE & COMPANY

CHAPTER XXXV.—Continued.

That is not necessary," assured Starsva. "Let all these candles be snuffed except those in the candelabra that stands at the head of the staircase. Bring your man, Jacques, to that point and no farther. We shall see him; but he will not be able to see us."

Fortune was favoring us indeed. Locke and I silently bestirred ourselves. Now at last had come the moment for action. But another grumbled; and still fortune favored us.

"That is all very well," objected I myself. "And perhaps a traitor may strike a blow in the dark. I for one refuse to gratify the curiosity of Kuhn in this matter."

"But Starsva was determined to have his way."

"To prevent that," he answered, "each of us will lay his weapons on the table at the end of the hall."

There were cries of fierce dissent. Starsva silenced them with an angry gesture.

"One moment, friends," he purred. "You do not quite understand. When we first came into this room I suggested that lots should be drawn, and he who was favored with the lucky number should fire, concealed in the gloom, that none might be sure who had been chosen to snuff out Ferdinand's little soul. But since our friend Kuhn's loyalty has been questioned, and it is he who shall have that honor, and with Gornal's dagger he shall do the work. And let me add that should happen, or lest his courage should fail him, Bratinnau and I will keep our revolvers. I think there is none to question our loyalty."

Kuhn had grown frightfully pale; he trembled. But he spoke no word.

"By this arrangement," continued Starsva, "the loyalty of Kuhn of Macedonia will be established. And if," he was glaring at Gornal and Count Pitschli, "there are any mad enough to dream of disloyalty at this late hour, and harbor treachery, they will be powerless."

Starsva's ruse was hailed with shouts of approval. Gornal, Ignatieff, and Gortschakoff strode to the table at the end of the hall and flung down their weapons defiantly. Gornal reluctantly followed suit. But since our friend Kuhn's loyalty has been questioned, and it is he who shall have that honor, and with Gornal's dagger he shall do the work. And let me add that should happen, or lest his courage should fail him, Bratinnau and I will keep our revolvers. I think there is none to question our loyalty."

Kuhn had grown frightfully pale; he trembled. But he spoke no word.

"By this arrangement," continued Starsva, "the loyalty of Kuhn of Macedonia will be established. And if," he was glaring at Gornal and Count Pitschli, "there are any mad enough to dream of disloyalty at this late hour, and harbor treachery, they will be powerless."

Starsva's ruse was hailed with shouts of approval. Gornal, Ignatieff, and Gortschakoff strode to the table at the end of the hall and flung down their weapons defiantly. Gornal reluctantly followed suit. But since our friend Kuhn's loyalty has been questioned, and it is he who shall have that honor, and with Gornal's dagger he shall do the work. And let me add that should happen, or lest his courage should fail him, Bratinnau and I will keep our revolvers. I think there is none to question our loyalty."

Kuhn had grown frightfully pale; he trembled. But he spoke no word.

"By this arrangement," continued Starsva, "the loyalty of Kuhn of Macedonia will be established. And if," he was glaring at Gornal and Count Pitschli, "there are any mad enough to dream of disloyalty at this late hour, and harbor treachery, they will be powerless."

Starsva's ruse was hailed with shouts of approval. Gornal, Ignatieff, and Gortschakoff strode to the table at the end of the hall and flung down their weapons defiantly. Gornal reluctantly followed suit. But since our friend Kuhn's loyalty has been questioned, and it is he who shall have that honor, and with Gornal's dagger he shall do the work. And let me add that should happen, or lest his courage should fail him, Bratinnau and I will keep our revolvers. I think there is none to question our loyalty."

Kuhn had grown frightfully pale; he trembled. But he spoke no word.

"By this arrangement," continued Starsva, "the loyalty of Kuhn of Macedonia will be established. And if," he was glaring at Gornal and Count Pitschli, "there are any mad enough to dream of disloyalty at this late hour, and harbor treachery, they will be powerless."

Starsva's ruse was hailed with shouts of approval. Gornal, Ignatieff, and Gortschakoff strode to the table at the end of the hall and flung down their weapons defiantly. Gornal reluctantly followed suit. But since our friend Kuhn's loyalty has been questioned, and it is he who shall have that honor, and with Gornal's dagger he shall do the work. And let me add that should happen, or lest his courage should fail him, Bratinnau and I will keep our revolvers. I think there is none to question our loyalty."

Kuhn had grown frightfully pale; he trembled. But he spoke no word.

"By this arrangement," continued Starsva, "the loyalty of Kuhn of Macedonia will be established. And if," he was glaring at Gornal and Count Pitschli, "there are any mad enough to dream of disloyalty at this late hour, and harbor treachery, they will be powerless."

Starsva's ruse was hailed with shouts of approval. Gornal, Ignatieff, and Gortschakoff strode to the table at the end of the hall and flung down their weapons defiantly. Gornal reluctantly followed suit. But since our friend Kuhn's loyalty has been questioned, and it is he who shall have that honor, and with Gornal's dagger he shall do the work. And let me add that should happen, or lest his courage should fail him, Bratinnau and I will keep our revolvers. I think there is none to question our loyalty."

Kuhn had grown frightfully pale; he trembled. But he spoke no word.

"By this arrangement," continued Starsva, "the loyalty of Kuhn of Macedonia will be established. And if," he was glaring at Gornal and Count Pitschli, "there are any mad enough to dream of disloyalty at this late hour, and harbor treachery, they will be powerless."

Starsva's ruse was hailed with shouts of approval. Gornal, Ignatieff, and Gortschakoff strode to the table at the end of the hall and flung down their weapons defiantly. Gornal reluctantly followed suit. But since our friend Kuhn's loyalty has been questioned, and it is he who shall have that honor, and with Gornal's dagger he shall do the work. And let me add that should happen, or lest his courage should fail him, Bratinnau and I will keep our revolvers. I think there is none to question our loyalty."

Kuhn had grown frightfully pale; he trembled. But he spoke no word.

"By this arrangement," continued Starsva, "the loyalty of Kuhn of Macedonia will be established. And if," he was glaring at Gornal and Count Pitschli, "there are any mad enough to dream of disloyalty at this late hour, and harbor treachery, they will be powerless."

Starsva's ruse was hailed with shouts of approval. Gornal, Ignatieff, and Gortschakoff strode to the table at the end of the hall and flung down their weapons defiantly. Gornal reluctantly followed suit. But since our friend Kuhn's loyalty has been questioned, and it is he who shall have that honor, and with Gornal's dagger he shall do the work. And let me add that should happen, or lest his courage should fail him, Bratinnau and I will keep our revolvers. I think there is none to question our loyalty."

Kuhn had grown frightfully pale; he trembled. But he spoke no word.

"By this arrangement," continued Starsva, "the loyalty of Kuhn of Macedonia will be established. And if," he was glaring at Gornal and Count Pitschli, "there are any mad enough to dream of disloyalty at this late hour, and harbor treachery, they will be powerless."

"Don't!" she cried in pain. "How can you speak of love at such an hour?"

"Forgive me. What a selfish brute I am. But by the by—when time has softened your bitter pain—in happier days may I come to you?"

"Happier days!" She clasped her hands in quick despair, looking before her as if in a future that must be always dark for her.

"Yes," I said, passionately, "there shall yet be happier days for you and for me. Do you remember on the terrace the little besom light in the far-off mountains? That was my star. It comforted me then; it bids me hope now; it tells me, Helena, you love me."

"Never!" She withdrew the hand I held almost fiercely. Her vehemence brought me rudely to my senses. I had been mad to hope. I turned slowly from her, groping my way toward the door; for my head was still throbbing furiously.

She stopped me with a cry of distress. She clung to me in her eagerness.

"You don't understand," she pleaded. "You have saved my brother's honor as far as the world can know. But this shame that comes to me in this disgrace, can I forget it?"

"I would help you bear it."

"Mr. Haddon, you Bratinnau have been a proud race. Our happiness we share with others. But disgrace we bear alone."

"Don't say that; you are bitter now, but—"

"If you had known me better," said Helena, quietly, "you would understand that I do not grieve to-morrow what I must deny to-day."

"When I told her of Willoughby's tragic death, I had thought it pathetic that a woman should be so strong; it was her calm courage that had first awakened my love for her. I must not complain now if she was not to be moved by my entreaties. But this question I did ask: 'If I could have proved that your

"Princess Ferdinand insisted that she must go at once to Sofia. He has sent her on some secret mission. I think she must be one of his spies."

"And she held no message for me?"

"I don't know," replied Helena, looking at me in wonder. "Why do you ask?"

I did not tell her of Madame de Varner's promise. I knew now that it had been given me quite readily to spur me to action. I was mad to expect mercy and gratitude from such a woman. She was too determined on her revenge. I remembered bitterly how she had told me in the tower that she sacrificed friends and enemies if they proved obstacles to her plan.

"I had hoped," I answered, vaguely, "now that Ferdinand was saved, that she might in some way be able to show us that your brother's dishonor is not so great as it appears."

"But if it could—she explain away his writing?" asked Helena mournfully. "No; even if she feels remorse for her cruelty in torturing me, it is too late. I have seen of the tree of knowledge. I know now that I have been deceived. Heaven has revealed my fate and yours. It is I who now have lost my self-respect, while you have gained—"

"But if it could—she explain away his writing?" asked Helena mournfully. "No; even if she feels remorse for her cruelty in torturing me, it is too late. I have seen of the tree of knowledge. I know now that I have been deceived. Heaven has revealed my fate and yours. It is I who now have lost my self-respect, while you have gained—"

"Princess Ferdinand insisted that she must go at once to Sofia. He has sent her on some secret mission. I think she must be one of his spies."

"And she held no message for me?"

"I don't know," replied Helena, looking at me in wonder. "Why do you ask?"

I did not tell her of Madame de Varner's promise. I knew now that it had been given me quite readily to spur me to action. I was mad to expect mercy and gratitude from such a woman. She was too determined on her revenge. I remembered bitterly how she had told me in the tower that she sacrificed friends and enemies if they proved obstacles to her plan.

"I had hoped," I answered, vaguely, "now that Ferdinand was saved, that she might in some way be able to show us that your brother's dishonor is not so great as it appears."

"But if it could—she explain away his writing?" asked Helena mournfully. "No; even if she feels remorse for her cruelty in torturing me, it is too late. I have seen of the tree of knowledge. I know now that I have been deceived. Heaven has revealed my fate and yours. It is I who now have lost my self-respect, while you have gained—"

"Princess Ferdinand insisted that she must go at once to Sofia. He has sent her on some secret mission. I think she must be one of his spies."

"And she held no message for me?"

"I don't know," replied Helena, looking at me in wonder. "Why do you ask?"

I did not tell her of Madame de Varner's promise. I knew now that it had been given me quite readily to spur me to action. I was mad to expect mercy and gratitude from such a woman. She was too determined on her revenge. I remembered bitterly how she had told me in the tower that she sacrificed friends and enemies if they proved obstacles to her plan.

"I had hoped," I answered, vaguely, "now that Ferdinand was saved, that she might in some way be able to show us that your brother's dishonor is not so great as it appears."

"But if it could—she explain away his writing?" asked Helena mournfully. "No; even if she feels remorse for her cruelty in torturing me, it is too late. I have seen of the tree of knowledge. I know now that I have been deceived. Heaven has revealed my fate and yours. It is I who now have lost my self-respect, while you have gained—"

"Princess Ferdinand insisted that she must go at once to Sofia. He has sent her on some secret mission. I think she must be one of his spies."

"And she held no message for me?"

"I don't know," replied Helena, looking at me in wonder. "Why do you ask?"

I did not tell her of Madame de Varner's promise. I knew now that it had been given me quite readily to spur me to action. I was mad to expect mercy and gratitude from such a woman. She was too determined on her revenge. I remembered bitterly how she had told me in the tower that she sacrificed friends and enemies if they proved obstacles to her plan.

"I had hoped," I answered, vaguely, "now that Ferdinand was saved, that she might in some way be able to show us that your brother's dishonor is not so great as it appears."

"But if it could—she explain away his writing?" asked Helena mournfully. "No; even if she feels remorse for her cruelty in torturing me, it is too late. I have seen of the tree of knowledge. I know now that I have been deceived. Heaven has revealed my fate and yours. It is I who now have lost my self-respect, while you have gained—"

"Princess Ferdinand insisted that she must go at once to Sofia. He has sent her on some secret mission. I think she must be one of his spies."

"And she held no message for me?"

"I don't know," replied Helena, looking at me in wonder. "Why do you ask?"

I did not tell her of Madame de Varner's promise. I knew now that it had been given me quite readily to spur me to action. I was mad to expect mercy and gratitude from such a woman. She was too determined on her revenge. I remembered bitterly how she had told me in the tower that she sacrificed friends and enemies if they proved obstacles to her plan.

"I had hoped," I answered, vaguely, "now that Ferdinand was saved, that she might in some way be able to show us that your brother's dishonor is not so great as it appears."

"But if it could—she explain away his writing?" asked Helena mournfully. "No; even if she feels remorse for her cruelty in torturing me, it is too late. I have seen of the tree of knowledge. I know now that I have been deceived. Heaven has revealed my fate and yours. It is I who now have lost my self-respect, while you have gained—"

"Princess Ferdinand insisted that she must go at once to Sofia. He has sent her on some secret mission. I think she must be one of his spies."

"And she held no message for me?"

"I don't know," replied Helena, looking at me in wonder. "Why do you ask?"

I did not tell her of Madame de Varner's promise. I knew now that it had been given me quite readily to spur me to action. I was mad to expect mercy and gratitude from such a woman. She was too determined on her revenge. I remembered bitterly how she had told me in the tower that she sacrificed friends and enemies if they proved obstacles to her plan.

"I had hoped," I answered, vaguely, "now that Ferdinand was saved, that she might in some way be able to show us that your brother's dishonor is not so great as it appears."

"But if it could—she explain away his writing?" asked Helena mournfully. "No; even if she feels remorse for her cruelty in torturing me, it is too late. I have seen of the tree of knowledge. I know now that I have been deceived. Heaven has revealed my fate and yours. It is I who now have lost my self-respect, while you have gained—"

"Princess Ferdinand insisted that she must go at once to Sofia. He has sent her on some secret mission. I think she must be one of his spies."

"And she held no message for me?"

"I don't know," replied Helena, looking at me in wonder. "Why do you ask?"

I did not tell her of Madame de Varner's promise. I knew now that it had been given me quite readily to spur me to action. I was mad to expect mercy and gratitude from such a woman. She was too determined on her revenge. I remembered bitterly how she had told me in the tower that she sacrificed friends and enemies if they proved obstacles to her plan.

"I had hoped," I answered, vaguely, "now that Ferdinand was saved, that she might in some way be able to show us that your brother's dishonor is not so great as it appears."

"But if it could—she explain away his writing?" asked Helena mournfully. "No; even if she feels remorse for her cruelty in torturing me, it is too late. I have seen of the tree of knowledge. I know now that I have been deceived. Heaven has revealed my fate and yours. It is I who now have lost my self-respect, while you have gained—"

"Princess Ferdinand insisted that she must go at once to Sofia. He has sent her on some secret mission. I think she must be one of his spies."

"And she held no message for me?"

"I don't know," replied Helena, looking at me in wonder. "Why do you ask?"

I did not tell her of Madame de Varner's promise. I knew now that it had been given me quite readily to spur me to action. I was mad to expect mercy and gratitude from such a woman. She was too determined on her revenge. I remembered bitterly how she had told me in the tower that she sacrificed friends and enemies if they proved obstacles to her plan.

"I had hoped," I answered, vaguely, "now that Ferdinand was saved, that she might in some way be able to show us that your brother's dishonor is not so great as it appears."

"But if it could—she explain away his writing?" asked Helena mournfully. "No; even if she feels remorse for her cruelty in torturing me, it is too late. I have seen of the tree of knowledge. I know now that I have been deceived. Heaven has revealed my fate and yours. It is I who now have lost my self-respect, while you have gained—"

ROOT-GRANT WEDDING

YOUNG SOLDIER WEDS DAUGHTER OF SECRETARY OF STATE.

IS A BRILLIANT AFFAIR

President, Vice President and Other Distinguished Guests Present—Union is Purity! Love is Match.

Washington.—In the presence of President and Mrs. Roosevelt, the Vice-President and Mrs. Fairbanks, the justices of the supreme court and their wives, several senators, representatives and other distinguished guests, Miss Edith Root on Wednesday became the wife of Ulysses Simpson Grant, 34, Lieutenant United States Engineer corps.

The wedding was generally recognized as the capital as being the second in social and official importance that has taken place during the Roosevelt administration, there being only less interest in the marriage than in that which centered about the marriage of Miss Roosevelt to Mr. Longworth.

The bride is the only daughter of Secretary of State and Mrs. Elihu Root, while the groom, as everyone knows from his name, is the grandson of General Grant, his father being General Frederick Dent Grant of the army.

Miss Root had no bridesmaids. Several of Lieutenant Grant's classmates and other army officer friends, were present at the wedding. As his cousin, Potter Palmer, Jr., of Chicago, was his best man.

After the wedding Lieutenant Grant and his bride left for a honeymoon trip. They will go to Oyster Bay, N. Y., to be present, December 7, at the wedding of the bride's brother and Miss Stryker. From there Lieutenant Grant will take his bride directly to Boston, where in the suburb of Brookline there is a pretty little house awaiting their occupancy.

The house was selected by the bride whose mother recently has interested herself in furnishing it completely for housekeeping. Lieutenant Grant was ordered a short time ago from Washington to Boston to carry on his engineering duties under the direction of Major Edward Burr, who has charge of the river and harbor work along the Massachusetts coast.

Miss Root made her debut in New York several weeks ago. And has twice been in a cabaret, although she was extremely young when her father was secretary of war in President McKinley's second administration. She is a gifted linguist, an accomplished musician, and is devoted to outdoor sports. She is an expert horsewoman, and her smart trap is familiar to all the uptown sections of Washington.

Lieut. Grant has served as military aid at the white house during the last two seasons, acting with Capt. Fitzhugh Lee, Jr., and Lieut. Philip Sheridan.

She is a nephew of Mrs. Potter Palmer of Chicago, his mother being Miss Louise Honore, sister of Mrs. Palmer. He is a brother of Princess Cantacuzene of Russia, who was Miss Grant's first cousin, and the only child of the Grant family born in the white house.

Lieut. Grant's early education, was obtained in Europe while his father was minister to Austria-Hungary and

Present at the wedding were Elihu Root, Jr., and Miss Alida Stryker, daughter of Dr. M. Woolsey Stryker, president of Hamilton college. Mr. Root, who is the oldest son of the secretary of state, will marry Miss Stryker just ten days from the day that saw his sister married to Lieutenant Grant.

The invitations to the wedding were restricted as far as Washington concerned to the persons who "must be invited." The local invitations were about 250 in number and they included only the closest family friends and those persons who hold such official positions that they had to of necessity be invited to be present.

The out-of-town invitations greatly outnumbered those given in Washington, but were comparatively few of the out-of-town guests present. The

A Wireless Addenda.

Mr. Bacon—I see a Japanese electrician has invented a wireless system which is asserted to be superior to anything now in use.

Mr. Bacon—Questions me! Are business comin' in style once more, really?—Yonkers Statesman.

World's Submarine Cables.

This world contains altogether 1,750 submarine cables, totaling 200,000 miles in length and dropped into their watery bed at a cost of $776,000,000.

Plagues of Nerve Sufferers.

There is a class of well-defined "phobias," as they are called, which nerve sufferers are plagued with. "Acrophobia" or fear of being alone; "claustrophobia" or fear of closed-in crowds or of broad open spaces; "in-somnias" or "hypnophobia," or fear of sleep; and many others. The one great remedy for all these and similar mental miseries, writes Dr. Samuel McComb in Good Housekeeping, is auto-suggestion.

Present at the wedding were Elihu Root, Jr., and Miss Alida Stryker, daughter of Dr. M. Woolsey Stryker, president of Hamilton college. Mr. Root, who is the oldest son of the secretary of state, will marry Miss Stryker just ten days from the day that saw his sister married to Lieutenant Grant.

The invitations to the wedding were restricted as far as Washington concerned to the persons who "must be invited." The local invitations were about 250 in number and they included only the closest family friends and those persons who hold such official positions that they had to of necessity be invited to be present.

The out-of-town invitations greatly outnumbered those given in Washington, but were comparatively few of the out-of-town guests present. The Present at the wedding were Elihu Root, Jr., and Miss Alida Stryker, daughter of Dr. M. Woolsey Stryker, president of Hamilton college. Mr. Root, who is the oldest son of the secretary of state, will marry Miss Stryker just ten days from the day that saw his sister married to Lieutenant Grant.

The invitations to the wedding were restricted as far as Washington concerned to the persons who "must be invited." The local invitations were about 250 in number and they included only the closest family friends and those persons who hold such official positions that they had to of necessity be invited to be present.

The out-of-town invitations greatly outnumbered those given in Washington, but were comparatively few of the out-of-town guests present. The

He Fell Headlong Without a Groan.

he has left the chateau. Capt. Forbes will tell you everything presently. 'I have been unconscious so long? Am I wounded? I feel no pain, only this headache and dizziness.'

"A bullet grazed your temple—an eighth of an inch more—' She shuddered. 'It wounded you only slightly, but you have been unconscious nearly an hour.'

"My usual luck," I cried, bitterly. "It was to have been my chance; I hoped to retrieve myself, and I am winged the first shot. Fate is determined, it seems, that I shall stick to my role of coward."

"Don't, don't ever say that horrible word again!" cried Helen, passionately. "It was your shot that killed Starsva. It is you who have saved Ferdinand! It is you who have saved for me the honor of my poor brother so far as the world can know. How can I ever be grateful enough?"

"Helena," I cried, passionately, "you remember at Lucerne, on the terrace, when I told you of Willoughby's death, how he had died killing me cowardly, it was you that pointed out to me a way of escape—you told me how I could regain the self-respect I thought I had lost forever. It was to be a life for a life, you said. When I had saved a life for the life that was lost through my cowardice, I was to stand once more upright among men. Tell me, you despise me no longer?"

"Despise you?" she murmured. "If you knew how I honored you!"

"Ah, it is worth while to hear you say that. But you must say more, insist more than that now, dear, to satisfy me. Helena, I thought only a week ago that if I could win your respect I should be happy. But now I want your love."

brother had not, after all, shown himself false to the motto of our house. 'Honor, my sword,' would you still have refused to listen to me?"

"Ah, if, Mr. Haddon!"

For almost the first time since I had known her she smiled; and that faint smile opened the gates of paradise to me. She would not be moved to declare her love for me, but she did love me; I was sure of it.

And then suddenly I thought of the words of the Countess Gersbach when I made my escape by the ladder of stones: "Go, and I swear by the cause I hold sacred, that if you can save Ferdinand, the shame of Sir Mortimer shall be saved." That promise might mean little. It might mean that she would show her gratitude by refusing to make public Sir Mortimer's disgrace. Or had her words a deeper significance?

"But," I cried eagerly, "nothing is quite impossible. I repeat now what I said to you when in your grief you asked me to meet the banner. I cannot conceive how a man whose integrity has been undoubtedly during a brilliant career should suddenly stoop to the shame of taking bribes. A dash of hope arose in Helena's pale face, only to be followed by the deepest dejection. 'But there are the proofs,' she said, mournfully. 'I cannot, would that I could, deny my brother's writing.'

"I must see Madame de Varner. A few hours ago she held us at her mercy. But now we have the upper hand; then, she was many things she must explain. Where is she?"

"She left the chateau with Ferdinand half an hour ago."

"Left the chateau?" I cried, aghast. "Why was she not held?"

MRS. U. S. GRANT.

LIEUT. U. S. GRANT 3D.

(TO BE CONTINUED)

THE REVIEW

Entered as Second-Class Matter

W. T. LANEY, Editor and Publisher.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1901.

CHURCH DIRECTORY

METHODIST CHURCH

First Tuesday evening of each month—
meeting Women's Foreign Missionary society.
Last Tuesday evening of each month—Epworth League business, literary and social meeting.
Sunday morning, 10:30 a. m.
Sunday school, 11:45
Sunday League, 4 p. m.
Epworth League, 8 p. m.
Sunday evening, 7:30
Tuesday-Midweek Prayer Meeting, 7:30
Corner Cook and South Hawley streets, Telephone 21. Everybody is welcome.
O. F. MATTHEW, Pastor.

SALEM UNITED EVANGELICAL CHURCH

Sunday services:
Sunday school, 9:15 a. m.
Prayer service (German), 10:30
Keynote League, 4:45 p. m.
Prayer service, 7:30
Week Night Services:
Monday—Sunday League, 7:15
Tuesday—English Prayermeeting, 7:30
Wednesday—German, 7:30
Friday—Teachers meeting, 7:30
Choir meeting, 8:15
Monthly meeting, 10:30
Mission Band—1st Sunday, 1:30 p. m.
Y. P. M.—1st Tuesday, 7:30 p. m.
Church Missionary Meeting—1st Wednesday, 1:30 p. m.
W. M. M.—1st Thursday, 1:30 p. m.
Strangers are cordially welcomed at all the services of the church.
Phone No. 251. A. HAFEE, Pastor.

EVANGELICAL ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

Sunday school, 9:30 a. m.
Sunday morning service, 10:30
Evening service with a month later.
The Journal of Labor Statistics, 7:30
Phone 274. REV. G. H. STANGER, Pastor.
ST. ANN'S CATHOLIC CHURCH
Sunday Mass, 9 a. m.
Vespers and Benediction, 7:30 p. m.
Observation of Holy Days and Morning
Mass, subject to change.
ST. ANN'S SERVICE CHURCH, Tuesday, 1:30 p. m.
Phone 201. REV. FATHER K. J. POA.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Saturday evening, prayer and praise service, 7:30 p. m.
Sunday, 10:30 a. m., 7:30 p. m.
Prayer meeting, Wednesday, 7:30 p. m.
Young People's Meeting at 6:15 p. m.
Dorcas society, Tuesday, 4 p. m.
You are all cordially invited to worship
with us.
JAMES H. GARDNER.

ZION CHURCH

Sunday school 9:30 a. m.
Morning service, 10:30
Evening service, 7:30 p. m.
Prayer meeting, Wednesday, 7:30 p. m.
Y. P. A. business meeting first Tuesday of each month, 7:30 p. m.
A cordial welcome for all.
W. WIDMER, Pastor.

Additional Locals

The village board meets in regular session, Monday evening, December 2nd.

Timothy Howe of Lake Forest, and granddaughter, Miss Alice Barry of Jefferson visited at the home of Henry C. Schendorf today.

Dr. J. H. Boyd, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Evanston, who delivered the commencement address here in June for the class of '97, has accepted a call to the largest Presbyterian church in Detroit which has a thousand members and is valued at $22,000.

When this clean and wholesome
weekly paper does not please you, do not weary the postmaster and his clerks with your criticisms. Come to us.
One man here who has accepted the paper since 1895 without payment has been rather critical lately. Perhaps the gentleman could give us valuable suggestions.

A Significant Prayer.

"May the Lord help you make Bucklen's Arnica Salve known to all,"
writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time." Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c at Barrington Pharmacy.

Will Elect Officers

The annual election of officers in Barrington Camp No. 809, M. W. A. will be held in their hall at their regular meeting, Tuesday, December 3rd.
All members are requested to attend.
WILLIAM GRENAU, Clerk.

Town Drummers.

In Scotland the town drummer was an important personage and performed many duties. When beggars or suspicious characters could not give a satisfactory account of themselves on being brought before the bailies and were ordered to be placed in the pillory or in the stocks they were after drummed out of town. The drummer would also make known if any beating was done to attract attention to the offender. In some places drummers were used to attract attention to the town's affairs, etc.—
LONDON NOTES AND QUERIES.
"The ye one of the cleverest men I ever knew."

"Clever! In what way?"
"When he gets a letter from a lady he can always easily find out how she feels again after he has reached the end of the first page."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Newspaper—I have noticed that babies
always have very open countenances.
Oldpaw—Yes, especially about midnight.—Brooklyn Life.

PRODUCTION OF COAL

Illinois Bureau of Labor Statistics Reveals Some Inter- esting Facts.

GREATER CHANGE IN TEN YEARS

Annual Production of Coal in State
Has Increased Over 18,000, 000 Tons During That Time.
—Needs of the Bureau

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 29.—In its twenty-fifth annual report the Illinois Bureau of Labor Statistics makes a suggestion which may become the basis of future legislative action in the way of extending the work of the bureau. Attention is called to the fact that, because of insufficient funds, it has not been possible to keep a continuous and complete record of the productive interest of the state, and it is urged that this be done.

The bureau has, for twenty-five years, kept a record of the coal industry, and its thoroughness and value is unquestionably a strong argument in favor of recording, with similar details, the statistics of other industries.
This record is also an index to the great amount of work done in one of the modest departments of the state government, concerning which the general public has heard very little. The record is interesting as well as valuable.

There has been a wonderful growth in the production of coal in Illinois since the first report was issued by the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Then it was 11,047,025 tons annually; now it is 28,217,841 tons. Then 20,290 men were given employment in the industry; now the number of men employed is 62,282.

Great Change in Ten Years.

The record of the bureau shows that the greatest progress in the business of coal mining has been made since the year 1897. During these ten years
the annual production has increased 18,222,823 tons, or 91 per cent. With this growth there has been a wonderful change in the industry, both material and social. New methods have been adopted in mining and the men are surrounded with conditions which were not dreamed of twenty-five years ago.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics has played an important part in the changes which have come about. Many of the new methods employed are the result of investigation and information secured through the department.
It has been active, too, in securing better things for the men employed for the industry, and the mining law
for the protection of life and property are either its work or the result of information and statistics collected by the department.

It is now twenty years since the present administration of the bureau took hold. During the intervening period
the uniform work day of eight hours
has been established in the industry;
wages have been increased; the
in some instances 100 per cent; the so-called truck system has been abolished; the gross weight plan of paying miners has gone into effect, and an unusually abundant cause of friction between the miners and operators have been obliterated. These things, for the most part, have been brought about by the organization, both of miners and operators, but those things connected with the state bureau claim a share of the credit for initiating and assisting in bringing about many reforms.

Careless Use of Powder.

An example of what the bureau is accomplishing along this line is given in the comment made in the annual report on a single item of the state's expenditures. This has to do with the amount of powder used by the mines and as showing the practical character of the department's work it is valuable. After showing figures of the state's expenditure on powder in the detailed report,
the following observations are made:

"The table shows that 1,027,771 kegs of powder were used, producing an average of 22.25 tons per keg. Where the mining is done exclusively by machines the product was 101 tons. In the powder-using mines where machines are not employed the product was 27 tons to the keg."
"These figures cannot be construed
in any other light than a criticism either of the qualification of the men employed, or of the manner in which they use the powder. It would be unfair to confine our judgment of the ultimate effects of the law's operation
to the results shown by the present
year, for the reason that many of
those accepting the position of shot-
driller had no previous experience in
such work; besides, the greater number of lives were lost and the most property destroyed in consequence of
drilling shots drilled in the solid in
entries or other narrow work."

"This practice was in open violation of the spirit and spirit of the law,
which prohibits any drilling or firing
shots drilled in the solid in a dead
hole. Had this provision of the law
been observed the lives of many of
the shot-drillers who were killed would have been spared. Unfortunately, in the case of a few, their deaths were
due either to ignorance of their duties
or gross and inexcusable negligence.
There is, to expect, partly from a better knowledge of the work and
the exercise of greater care, that
the number of accidents from carelessness in the use of powder will be reduced to a minimum."

"Accidents, particularly in an occupation as hazardous as that of coal
mining, seems to sustain a certain
relation to the volume of work done
and the number of men employed.
Both as to men and tons the number
employed and the output this year exceeded that of any similar period, while
comparatively few of the incidents of
the last few years there has been a substantial reduction in the number of fatal-
ties resulting from the use of powder."

mean quotes from its statistics to prove that the system suggested is feasible and says:

Saving of Life Important.

"This system would leave to the so-called miners the work chiefly of loading coal, a task for which only a few of them are adapted. Nothing short of a plan of this kind will solve the
problems which the situation presents.
It is a useless waste of valuable time
and money to employ men who are
of a plan of this kind will solve the
problems which the situation presents.
It is a useless waste of valuable time
and money to employ men who are

"The fact that only those who are educated in the business understand, and but very few of that class are now in the mines. Such regulations might be effective if made for the guidance of intelligent men specially fitted for that work, but not otherwise. Objections to the plan here suggested, which is in fact but an extension and completion of the present system of shot firing, may be urged on the ground of expense, and that whether the operator, the miner, or both contribute to meet it."

"A sufficient reply to such an argument if founded on facts would be that the saving of life is a considerably more important than the saving of money. The work of cutting holes and preparing shots would add considerably to the present duties of the shot-driller and consequently require the employment of more men. It takes three times the number now employed in that connection."

"Would this necessarily mean more expense? The purpose of the plan is not to apply to the miner, but to the more careful and intelligent preparation of shots, but also to avoid the loss consequent upon the burning of so much powder. The figures of the report shows that 1,027,771 kegs of
powder, equal to 22,000 tons, were burned in the mines this year, being an increase of nearly 90,000 kegs over 1900."

Trained Shot-Drillers.

"Powder at prevailing prices sells for $1.75 per keg of twenty-five pounds. According to this calculation
the miners paid in 1901 for powder about $1,800,000. Much of this property, representing great value,
was practically wasted in the hands of incompetent men. It is entirely reasonable to fully consider that the report shows that 1,027,771 kegs of
powder, equal to 22,000 tons, were
burned in the mines this year, being
an increase of nearly 90,000 kegs over 1900."

"If the use of powder in the hands of trained men could perform double the work, as we think it would, then under the present practice the direct money loss to the miners was equal to $300,000; saying nothing of the loss sustained by the mining plant, and the consuming public, deriving from the production of an inferior quality of coal. Instead of an additional expense under the plan proposed the saving of $300,000 would be realized.
Financial investment in the mining industry could make."

The statistics collected by the bureau concerning the loss of life in mines are an interesting feature of the report. Figures are given from fourteen coal-producing states, including Great Britain, and Illinois stands twelfth in the number of lives lost,
based upon the number of coal produced. Considering that Illinois stands next to Pennsylvania as a coal-producing state, this is regarded as a creditable position. The increase in the number of deaths in the coal industry suggests that proper regulations further reduce the loss of life. Considering the effect of the new shot-driller law passed in 1900 the report says:

"While the experience of this first year under the shot-driller law sustains the contention that its adoption would diminish the number of fatalties due to the use of powder, it would be unfair to confine our judgment of the ultimate effects of the law's operation
to the results shown by the present
year, for the reason that many of
those accepting the position of shot-
driller had no previous experience in
such work; besides, the greater number of lives were lost and the most
property destroyed in consequence of
drilling shots drilled in the solid in
entries or other narrow work."

"This practice was in open violation of the spirit and spirit of the law,
which prohibits any drilling or firing
shots drilled in the solid in a dead
hole. Had this provision of the law
been observed the lives of many of
the shot-drillers who were killed would
have been spared. Unfortunately, in
the case of a few, their deaths were
due either to ignorance of their duties
or gross and inexcusable negligence.
There is, to expect, partly from a
better knowledge of the work and
the exercise of greater care, that
the number of accidents from carelessness in the use of powder will be
reduced to a minimum."

"Accidents, particularly in an occupation as hazardous as that of coal
mining, seems to sustain a certain
relation to the volume of work done
and the number of men employed.
Both as to men and tons the number
employed and the output this year exceeded that of any similar period, while
comparatively few of the incidents of
the last few years there has been a substantial reduction in the number of fatal-
ties resulting from the use of powder."

Summary for the Year 1900.

The report shows that coal was mined in 24 counties, where 118 mines were operated. The number of new or old mines opened during the year was 131. The total output of all mines in 1900 was 28,217,841 tons, valued at $11,581,311. The total number of employees engaged in these mines was 62,282. The average price paid per ton for hand mining was $0.572 and for machine mining $0.442. The number of men accidentally killed during the year was 125, of which number 147 were killed inside and 8 outside the mines.

EMPLOYMENT OFFICES

Four Free Agencies Are Now in Operation in the State of Illinois.

BENEFIT TO THE UNEMPLOYED

Thousands of People Have Secured Work During the Past Three Years Through the Medium of the Offices.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 29.—Some interesting information is disclosed in the recent report made to Governor I.
E. Cullen regarding the work of the Illinois free employment offices. This report has to do with the number of positions secured during the last three years and gives an indication of the value of these offices to men out of work.

There are four offices now in operation in Illinois, three in Chicago and one in Peoria. A recent appropriation by the legislature provides for the opening and maintenance of a fifth office in East St. Louis, which is the headquarters for men in search of employment.

Figures for Three Years.

Following are the figures for the three years:
North Side Chicago office: Positions
secured in 1900, 8,625; 1901, 9,370;
1902 to date of report, 9,672.
South Side Chicago office: Positions
secured in 1900, 12,049; 1901, 17,149;
1902 to date of report, 17,578.
South Side Chicago office: Positions
secured in 1900, 12,049; 1901, 17,149;
1902 to date of report, 17,578.
Peoria office: Positions secured in 1900, 6,800; 1901, 10,500; 1902 to date
of report, 10,200.

The figures in 1902 in each case are for ten months, indicating that by the end of the fiscal year the number of positions secured will be far in excess of last year.
The South Side Chicago office has the lead in the number of applications and in positions secured. While these figures are impressive enough in themselves they do not represent the entire scope of the work performed through the free employment offices. Hundreds of applications for information which could not be properly placed in positions for unemployed men have been made every year. As there is no means of ascertaining the results obtained through this information there is reason to believe that the scope of the work understood its value. As the general public gets better acquainted with the employment offices applications for information seems to be increasing and the work is extending.

Big Increase in Applications.

In the last annual report made to the governor it was shown that in a year the number of applications for employment had increased by 12.19
in the number of persons registered for employment. The number of positions secured was 53,617. The year previous the number was 33,558, showing an increase of 59.5 per cent. In 1901 the number of applications was 54,000. While this marked increase appeared for these seeking employment it was shown there had been a greater increase in the demand from employers for positions. The increase in applications from employers was 14,331. In commenting upon the figures the report
says:

"These numbers of course represent only the persons whose names are enrolled on the books, while in addition there are perhaps many times the number who call at these offices and ask information. The figures will be evident that the persons in charge of these offices are kept busy during all of the office hours of each day."

The report says that the number of persons applying for employment at the state free offices are not of a skilled class. This is declared to be evident from the attention in the classification of occupations which are shown in a complete tabulation of the office records. An examination of the tables discloses the fact that consequently the majority of the men only persons securing assistance from the free employment agencies. It is shown in one table that of the males registered during the year for positions in such occupations as clerical, clerical, commercial, professional,
trades and transportation, 6,572 were secured positions. For females in the same occupations 1,219 were secured positions. The figures for the year show that the number of men and women engaged in occupations demanding more or less trained ability were:

Work for Paired Convicts.

The report gives particular attention to the employment of paired convicts in securing positions for parole convicts who desire to reform and make a new start in life. In this connection it says:

"The wholesome influence such offices are capable of exerting upon society has been demonstrated in the facilities they have furnished to certain occupations, clearing the way for the employment of men who are honest living. This is usually denied them because of a false public sentiment that such unfortunate are no longer worthy of confidence and respect."
As a result of this many offenders, instead of being encouraged in their intentions to lead better lives, are driven into criminal careers. Society is interested in the improvement of all its members, particularly the weaker ones who have surrendered to temptations. If the machinery of the state is to be employed in some instances at great expense, to secure the conviction and punishment of those who violate its laws, surely it is not expecting too much that some effort

should be made to effect their reformation. Acting upon Governor I.
E. Cullen's recommendations, the work
of securing employment for paired
convicts was assumed by the superintendents of the South side office, William
H. Cruden, under whose competent
management a notable degree of success has been achieved.

Employers Know Records.

"The responsibility attached to such work is now shared by each of the new employment offices. In securing places for this class of our people no attempt is made to conceal
anything, the facts in each case being fully explained to the employers, to
whom much credit is due for the public spirit they have shown in their
willingness to add to the list of homes
and remunerative employment have
been secured for over one hundred parole convicts within a period of
eight months."

For a time there was some prejudice against the free employment
agency on the part of the employer.
This had no substantial foundation
and was due entirely to the fact that
the state employment agency was a novelty. Recently employers have learned that excellent results can be obtained by applying to the agencies
for help, and they are now attended
freely by a class of men seeking employment. The efforts of the state
agents to secure and furnish accurate
information to the employers is recognized and appreciated. As the work is extended employers will rely
more and more upon the state offices
and they will become of greater assistance to the unemployed."

In examining the figures of the annual report for last year it is found that of these registering and desiring of securing employment, 73.10 per cent were males and 26.90 per cent females. Of the number of employment seekers 67.05 per cent were males and 32.95 per cent females. This indicates that the proportionate demand for female help is greatly in excess of the demand for male employees, especially by those desiring household
help.

Proportion for Four Offices.

The West side office shows that 81.91 per cent of the positions secured were for males; Peoria office, 75.83 per cent; South side office, 72.74 per cent; and North side office, 68.98 per cent. For positions secured for female applicants the North side office shows 41.02 per cent, which is a large number in proportion to the number of female applicants. The West side office gives the highest per cent.
The positions secured for males was 72.52 per cent, and for females 27.48 per cent.

In the record and recapitulation of the work done by the offices during the seven years they have been in operation it is found that 103,219
males have registered as applicants for employment and that during the same period 184,285 employers registered as wanting help. Of those wanting employment, 107,343 were placed in positions. The figures show that it is disclosed that 87.11 per cent of secured positions and 90.92 per cent of the employers obtained help. Among the classes of occupations in which clerical service shows the most percentage of applicants securing employment and the highest percentage of help furnished to employers.

Attention is called to the large percentage of positions secured during the series of years, to the numbers who have classed under the occupations as agricultural, comprising farm hands, gardeners, harvest hands, stock men, etc. Domestic service, such as cooks, housekeepers, porters, etc.,
and manual labor which includes laborers
of all kinds, shows a large number.
These three classes represent 63.5 per cent of the total number seeking work, 93.7 per cent of whom were given employment.

Applicants of All Nationalities.

The report shows that the 57,459 applicants at the free employment offices during the year represented the following nationalities:
American, 24,813; German and Hollanders, 8,749; Irish, 5,343; Swede, 2,850; the remainder being divided between the Austrian, Bohemian, Canadian, Danish, English, French, Italian, Norwegian, Polish, Russian, Scottish, Swiss and Welsh.

The chiefs of the employment offices are: Chicago—South side, William H.
Cruden; North side, John E. Hufmyer;
West side, Nicholas J. Cleveland;
Peoria, Joan W. Kinsey, and East St.
Louis, Michael Radel.

The cost of maintaining the offices outside of the cost of staff salaries and their assistants were: Chicago, North side $1,880.81, South side $2,655.32,
West side $1,445.03; Peoria, $1,511.31.
As the East St. Louis office has just been opened its cost of maintenance
will not be known until the explanation of a year.

Kid Gloves Saved His Life.

Charles Stange, a well-known hotel porter, in Elizabeth, N. J., just as a trolley car came along, and waiting to let it pass, he started to go around his rear end.
The porter, who had the car got entangled in the guard wire, which broke and fell to the street, striking the heavily charged fire wire. It struck Stange, knocking him off his feet and badly burning his face and neck. The trolley pushed the body of the man from him
with his kid-gloved hands and then returned his feet. His gloves saved his life.

Alleged Milk Trust.

Four agents of the state's attorney's office, Chicago, have been appointed to collect evidence in some instances at great expense, to secure the
conviction and punishment of those
who violate its laws, surely it is not
expecting too much that some effort
should be made to effect their reformation. Acting upon Governor I.
E. Cullen's recommendations, the work
of securing employment for paired
convicts was assumed by the superintendents of the South side office, William
H. Cruden, under whose competent
management a notable degree of success has been achieved.

"The responsibility attached to such
work is now shared by each of the
new employment offices. In securing places for this class of our people no attempt is made to conceal
anything, the facts in each case being
fully explained to the employers, to
whom much credit is due for the public spirit they have shown in their
willingness to add to the list of homes
and remunerative employment have
been secured for over one hundred
parole convicts within a period of
eight months."

For a time there was some prejudice against the free employment
agency on the part of the employer.
This had no substantial foundation
and was due entirely to the fact that
the state employment agency was a novelty. Recently employers have learned that excellent results can be obtained by applying to the agencies
for help, and they are now attended
freely by a class of men seeking employment. The efforts of the state
agents to secure and furnish accurate
information to the employers is recognized and appreciated. As the work is extended employers will rely
more and more upon the state offices
and they will become of greater assistance to the unemployed."

"The responsibility attached to such
work is now shared by each of the
new employment offices. In securing places for this class of our people no attempt is made to conceal
anything, the facts in each case being
fully explained to the employers, to
whom much credit is due for the public spirit they have shown in their
willingness to add to the list of homes
and remunerative employment have
been secured for over one hundred
parole convicts within a period of
eight months."

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. N. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent.
When I commenced taking New Discovery. The untimely cure, having coughed quite before the first bottle, was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equalled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by Harrington Pharmacy, 25c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Publicity in School Work.

Since there seems to have been a wish to keep self news from the newspaper, the following telegram
will be read with interest here:
Springfield, Ill., Nov. 23.—Publicity
in school work is urged by State Superintendent of Instruction Francis G.
Blair, in a circular issued today to school teachers of Illinois. Co-operation between them and newspapers is advised.

"More and more is the newspaper considered the best method of acquainting the people with the progress of events. The public dependence upon the papers to keep it informed and the greater part of current knowledge is obtained from that source."
Attention is then called to the fact that, although education work is of the highest importance, it gives less notice than any other branch of the other matter of interest.

"The cause of this lack of publicity lies with the school people rather than
with the editors

M. W. Mattison
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR
506 507 Fort Dearborn building, 134 Monroe street, Chicago.
Telephone Central 5670. Residence telephone 583. Real-estate and South Hawley streets.

Castle, Williams, Long & Castle
ATTORNEYS AT LAW
1018-21 Chamber of Commerce Bldg., Chicago. Telephone Main 2637. Howard
J. Castle at Barrington Monday evenings.

R. L. Peck
LAWYER
Residence Palatine, Illinois.
Office: 1511 First National Bank Building, Chicago.
Telephone Central 5440

A. J. Redmond
ATTORNEY AT LAW
Suite 45, 88 La Salle Street.
Telephone Main 196. Auto 6829.
Chicago, Illinois

Spunner & Rosenberg
ATTORNEYS AT LAW
Office: Suite 419 Chamber of Commerce Bldg., Telephone Main 3906. G. W.
Spunner, residence, Barrington.
Telephone 392.
Chicago, Ill.

L. H. Bennett
LAWYER
With Jackson & Bennett.
Do a general law business.
Practice in all state and federal courts. Real Estate and Loans.
Office in Grunau Bldg.
Phone 502, Barrington.

John C. Dodge
INSURANCE AGENT
Representing the Hartford Insurance Company of Hartford, Connecticut. Insures against all disaster, including cyclones and tornadoes.
324 Main St., Barrington

Dr. A. Weichelt
Office at residence, corner
Lake and Hough street, north of school. Office hours: 7
p. m. to 12 p. m. 7 to 8 p. m.
Phone 391, Barrington, Ill.

Dr. J. Howard Furby
DENTIST
Office hours 8 to 12 a. m. 1 to 5 p. m. Evenings by appointment. Phone 464.
Groff Bldg., Barrington.

Mrs. Nellie Evans
Hairdressing, Shampooing, Facial Massage and Manicuring.
2nd and 4th Tuesdays in Barrington. Will call at residence. Engagements made by Mrs. S. Benton, Phone 483

The Barrington Bank
OF ROBERTSON, FLAGG & CO.
John Robertson, President;
John C. Plagge, Vice President; A. L. Robertson, Cashier.
Barrington, Illinois

R. C. Myers
Confectionery, Cigars and Tobacco. Fruit in season. Ice Cream furnished for all occasions.
Phone 433, Barrington

E. K. Magee
Expressing and heavy teaming.
Phone 354, Barrington.

Number Mail Boxes.
Postmasters have received orders
from the postmaster general in regard to the numbering of rural mail boxes.
The rural carriers have been given instruction to make a report of the number of boxes on their routes and of the percentage which are not numbered and report to headquarters.
One of the rural carriers stated that it is almost impossible to keep the boxes numbered with any uniformity,
due to the large amount of moving every spring and fall.

Jewelry
Up-to-date jewelry is always popular in fashions eye, and without doubt my values are unequaled anywhere. Repairing of jewelry, watches and clocks a specialty.
Work Guaranteed
W. B. Burkhardt
Sobit Bldg. Barrington

Palatine Bank
of CHARLES H. PATTEN.
A General Banking
Business Transacted Interest Paid on Savings Deposits. Loans on Real Estate Insurance.

Barrington
Local Happenings Told
in Short Paragraphs

Thanksgiving Day was very quietly passed in this village. Many homes were scenes of family re-unions and many former residents were guests for the day here.

Read the display ad. of Mrs. Nellie Evans, hairdresser.

Mrs. John Schlupp visited with friends at Elgin over Sunday.

Edward Ernst and Fred Sandman
are latching a house at Cary this week.

Miss Myrtle E. Mattison of Chicago was in Barrington for a day this week
on a visit to her parents.

Miss Olive and Raymond Haelele and Miss Alma Stiefenhofer were in Highland Park Sunday with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinckman and daughter, Freda, of Chicago, were guests Saturday and Sunday at Fred Bein-hoff's, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Helmerdinger of Woodstock were here over Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Helmerdinger.

G. H. Comstock purchased Monday of William Horwath ten acres of land adjoining his farm three miles west of this village, for $800.

John Lauffenberger, who has a farm
south of Barrington, December 2nd, will move on a farm about three miles northeast of Palatine in December.

Miss Mabel Wagner was home from Chicago for the first time Friday. Two of her associate nurses at the Baptist hospital accompanied her.

Window glass in all sizes from a 7 1/2 to a 36x32 always carried in stock.
Glazing promptly attended to.
LAMBEY & COMPANY.

Nicholas Payson, who was so badly burned here last week by falling into a bonfire in the stock yards while inspected, died early Monday morning at the Cook County hospital.

The first quarterly conference of the Methodist church will be held on Friday evening, December 14th, at eight o'clock at the church. The presiding elder, Dr. M. E. Cady, will be present.

Charles Downing and family of Chicago were guests of the Ernest Dieke family the first of the week. Mr. Downing formerly lived here and was a member of the Barrington Social and Athletic club.

Mrs. Myrtle Abbott and daughter went to Hopedale, Illinois, Wednesday, to visit her husband's relatives.
Mr. Abbott was expected to reach there from Seattle, Washington, for Thanksgiving.

Temperance Sunday, November 24th, was marked at the Salem church by the signing of a temperance pledge by one hundred and fifty-nine people of the Sunday school, including officers, teachers and pupils.

Carleton H. Pendleton and family of Evanston were the guests on* Thanksgiving Day of Mrs. Pendleton's parents, Rev. and Mrs. O. E. Mattison.
Mr. Pendleton's mother and sister accompanied the family.

Mrs. Nellie Evans, the lady who has arranged to come to Barrington on the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month to do hair-dressing and manicuring for ladies, is an old school-mate of Mrs. Spear's and a friend of long acquaintance of Miss Eva Castle.

The organization of a Teachers' Training class for the Sunday school has been under consideration by the pastor of the Methodist church. The class if organized will probably meet on Sunday morning and will be open to mothers as well as teachers. Further notice will be given.

The topics for Sunday at the Methodist church will be as follows:
Ten-thirty A. M., "Fellow Citizens of the Kingdom." Seven-thirty P. M., "Causes of Failure in the Individual Life." Sunday school meets at twelve
P. M. The Epworth League at six-thirty P. M. The first fifteen minutes will be devoted to Dr. Stalker's "Life of Christ."

The following December Magazines are for sale on Wilbert C. Naeher's magazine stand.

Ainslee's	15c
American	10c
Blue Book	10c
Cosmopolitan	10c
Delator	10c
Design	10c
Everybody's	10c
Gunter's	10c
Harper's Monthly	25c
Ladies' Home Journal	15c
Ladies' World	15c
Metropolitan	10c
Metlure	10c
New Idea Women's Magazine	5c
Outing	25c
Pearson's	10c
Popular Mechanics	10c
Red Book	10c
Scrap Book (2 parts)	25c
Scribner's	25c
Success	10c
Strand	10c
Smith's	10c
Technical World	10c
Women's Home Companion	10c
World To-Day	10c
Young's	10c
Munsey's Magazine	10c
Peoples' Magazine	10c
Popular	10c
Short Stories	10c
Smart Set	25c
Argosy	10c
Beauty and Health	5c
Bohemian	10c
Broadway	10c

HOURS:
DAILY
7:45 to 10:30 a. m. 12 to 8:30 p. m.
SUNDAY
7:00 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.
All orders will be promptly attended to.

STOTT'S AMUSEMENT PARLOR

Box-ball never grows old. Have you ever made a spare? Try it. A prize given with every spare for a limited time. Girls, see what you can do. There's a box of candy in it for you if you spare.

A Prize With Every Spare
Stott's Amusement Parlor

No matter what you are earning now The International Correspondence Schools of Scranton, Pa.

Can train you to earn considerably more.

Get this out and mail it to the Local Representative whose address is given elsewhere in this announcement.
International Correspondence Schools.
Gentlemen—Please explain how I can qualify for position at which I have marked X.

Mechanical Engineer	Manual Engineer
Machine Designer	Bridge Engineer
Mechanical Draftsman	Railroad Engineer
Foreman Machinist	Surveyor
Foreman Blacksmith	Shoe Engineer
Foreman Patternmaker	Shoe Surveyor
Foreman Blacksmith	Shoe Foreman
Foreman Molder	Cotton-Mill Mgt.
Gas Engineer	Woolen-Mill Mgt.
Refrigeration Engineer	Textile Designer
Traction Engineer	Architect
Electric Engineer	Contractor and Builder
Electric Machine Designer	Architectural Draftsman
Electric Lighting Supt.	Show-Card Writer
Electric Railway Supt.	Cranial
Telephone Engineer	Sheet-Metal Draftsman
Telegraph Engineer	Ornamental Designer
Wireman	Prospective Draftsman
Dynamometer	Decorator
Motorman	Bookkeeper
Steam Engineer	Commercial Law
Engine Repairer	Teacher
Marine Engineer	Retail Ad Writer
Civil Engineer	Commercial Law
Hydraulic Engineer

LANGUAGES TAUGHT WITH PHONOGRAPH
French German Spanish

Occupation
Name
Address
City State

If you desire to know what our methods are and what the conditions are under which you can obtain this
Salary Raising Education
Fill in the inquiry blank in the lower left-hand corner of this announcement.
You will in return receive full and complete information.
Address all communications to
C. E. Preelove, 1520 Lill Ave.,
Chicago, Ill.

CLEANING REPAIRING

Tailoring Means to Make Garments to Fit You.

Ready made is cut from one pattern and is expected to fit a hundred people. It is costly clothing to buy, because it is poorly made, ill fitting and you always pay what you would have to pay for it. Let merit you out with a suit made for YOU. Hundreds of patterns to select from.

MATH PECAK

Merchant Tailor
Barrington - Illinois

RE-LINING DYEING

Buy your Papers and Magazines
at Wilbert C. Naeher, news agent of Barrington. News stand in the Bank Building Basement
All kinds of good MAGA-ZINES sold there.

Ernst G. Ankele
Barrington Illinois

60 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
PATENTS
COPYRIGHTS & C.
A. J. MANN & CO.
Scientific American.
A. J. Mann & Co. 315 Broadway, New York
MUNN & Co. 315 Broadway, New York
Search Office: 1111 Washington St., Washington, D.C.

This image shows a vertical strip of a textured, light gray surface, likely a book cover or endpaper. The material has a mottled appearance with various shades of gray and some darker, irregular markings that suggest wear, aging, or perhaps a specific type of paper or fabric. The texture is slightly grainy, and there are some faint, darker lines and spots scattered across the surface. The overall tone is a light, dusty gray.

POPULATION OF CUBA

RECENT ENUMERATION PLACES
NUMBER AT 2,000,000.

FIGURES ARE DELAYED

Serious illness of Gomez May Affect the Coming Elections—New Electoral Law is Completed.

Havana. — With the completion of enumeration of the population of Cuba there has been accomplished the first step in the direction of the termination of the American intervention and the reestablishment of the Cuban republic.

While officially described as a census, this enumeration was actually an enforced registration of the service of the population of the island being of scant importance compared to that of registering all persons entitled to the electoral franchise, in order to make ready for the election of the next Cuban president. No pains have been spared to accomplish this, but pending the difficult task of tabulating the results, which will probably be completed in a few weeks. Taking precedence of all other features of the census is the preparation of the registration lists by municipalities and wards. These natural will be subject to more revision, involving considerable delay.

Two Million Islanders. An estimate by one of the most accomplished statisticians in the service of the provisional government places the population of the island at 2,000,000, of which about 400,000 are foreigners not entitled to the franchise.

It is impossible to tell the present census will show any marked difference in the figures for 1905. Havana, Santa Clara and Camaguey provinces were the liberal strongholds and probably are not. They are estimated about 180,000 voters. The indications are that there has been no great change in the political complexion of the provinces with the possible exception of Pinar del Rio, where the influence of the Pino Guerra, the military leader of the last uprising, is very great.

Gomez Dangerously Sick.

An element that may prove to be of prime importance in the coming election is the health of Jose Miguel Gomez. It is rumored that the general is afflicted with a dangerous ailment which may compel his retirement from the field, in which event reconciliation of the Miguellista and Zayista factions is not improbable.

Coincidence with the completion of the enumeration is the passing of a new electoral law on which the commission, of which Col. Crowder is the head, has been working for months. It now only awaits the approval of Gov. Macdonald before being promulgated, so that the tranquillity is maintained nothing stands in the way of carrying out the present program of government, which is to hold the municipal elections in May or June and the presidential election in the following December, thus paving the way for the inauguration of the Cuban president in May and the withdrawal of the American troops. Under conditions should then make it certain that their presence was no longer needed.

FIGHT DESPITE GOV. CUMMINGS.

Millita Captain May Be Punished for Not Stopping Mill.

Des Moines, Ia.—Adj. Gen. Thrift of the Iowa National guards will order an immediate investigation of the conduct of Capt. Kulp of Davenport, who was ordered late Thursday afternoon by Gov. Cummings to assemble his men of company B, Fifty-fourth regiment, under arms and stop the prize fight scheduled for that night.

It is the impression of Adj. Gen. Thrift that the fight at Davenport was a prize fight and in clear violation of the law, and that under the strict orders issued by the governor to Capt. Kulp, the militia should have stopped it.

The fight took place but no decision was made, though McFarland easily defeated Herman.

George P. Miller a Suicide. St. Louis. — Physically weakened, suffering from excesses, George P. Miller, aged 48 years, and a brilliant law graduate and private secretary to Samuel J. Randall of Pennsylvania, who was speaker of the national house of representatives, swallowed whisky and morphine in a Pinar del Rio house Thursday night and died Friday at the City hospital.

Two Killed in Auto Accident. Des Moines, Ia. — O. R. Nattager was killed and Frank Getchell was seriously injured in an automobile accident Friday night. Miss Ruth Wilkinson and Miss Isabelle Henry were severely hurt.

Hungarian Arrested for Swindling. Columbus, O.—On the charge that he had been trying to defraud Hungarians throughout the state by means of a sick benefit and burial association which he is alleged to have been president, secretary and treasurer, Istvan Harvath, a merchant of this city, was arrested Sunday at Newark, where he was about to address a meeting of a local Hungarian society, and taken to Akron. It is said Harvath is a well-known character at Cleveland, Harborton, Massillon and other cities.

CLEVELAND MAYOR IS HIT

TOM L. JOHNSON ACCUSED BY W. M. IVINS IN NEW YORK.

Reorganization of Nassau Company Said to Have Paid $425,000 of Water.

New York.—William M. Ivins, while investigating the affairs of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company for the public service commission Friday, declared that Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland and his friends, who formerly owned the Nassau Electric Light and power company, had watered its stock to the extent of $425,000 and then sold it to the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company.

This was alleged to have taken place in a reorganization of the Nassau company in January, 1899.

Questioning Timothy S. Williams, vice president of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company, about the reorganization of the Nassau company, Mr. Ivins said: "On that reorganization I find that they increased their bond issue, which had theretofore been $5,000,000, by $19,348,000. They made an entirely new issue of preferred stock of $4,000,000, they theretofore having no preferred stock, and to the theretofore existing $2,000,000 of common stock they added $2,500,000, making a total of new issues of $17,846,000, and your acquisition was after this increase of capitalization, so that the new issues of stock were securities were issued for."

Mr. Williams said an explanation of the transaction was given in an agreement which Mr. Ivins had, but this was not read. Mr. Williams also contended that the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company, if it had bought $4,250,000 of water, had subsequently acquired it out.

"It is incorrect to say you," said Mr. Ivins. "It looks to me like a plain case of stock watering, and the company had no right to charge that $4,250,000 on its books to the cost and equipment of the road. It was, in principle, and if it wasn't then against the law, the law ought to be amended so as to make such a transaction impossible."

WILLIAM R. HEARST HELD.

New York Editor Bound Over to Grand Jury.

New York. — Justice Wyatt in the court of special sessions Thursday held W. R. Hearst for the grand jury on a charge of criminal libel preferred by William C. Sullivan, Jr. Sullivan, who gave bail for Mr. Hearst. The amount of the bond was fixed at $500, the usual sum required in misdemeanor cases. Mr. Sullivan is now being held by Mr. Hearst's New York newspapers.

Both Mr. Hearst and his bondsmen were in court when Justice Wyatt handed down his decision. They remained in the courtroom until the case of Raymond Hitchcock, the actor. Mr. Hearst's name was mentioned in connection with the article. Several hearings were had before Justice Wyatt, during which Mr. Hearst positively denied that he had ever been at Hitchcock's house when Little Girls were there. His counsel claimed that the publication was made for the purpose of injuring politically Liza Gov. Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, a brother of the complainant against Mr. Hearst.

NOBEL PRIZE FOR CROOKES.

Achievements of the Famous London Chemist Are Recognized.

Stockholm.—The Nobel prize for chemistry will be awarded to Sir William Crookes, of London. Sir William Crookes discovered thallium, an element, in 1861, and invented the radiometer in 1874. He was knighted in 1897 and has been closely identified with many of the most important advances in science. Prof. Crookes recently discovered a process of extracting nitric acid from the atmosphere, which it was announced would soon be available for commercial, industrial and agricultural purposes and would revolutionize the nitrate industry and the world's food problem.

Rudyard Kipling will receive the Nobel prize for literature.

Noted Opera Singer a Suicide.

Berlin.—Theodore Betram, the celebrated opera singer, committed suicide Sunday at Berlin. He had been melancholy and despondent since the death of his wife, who was drowned on February 21 last, in the wreck of the steamship Berlin off the Hook of Holland. Betram's most successful roles were Wagner's Siegfried and his greatest reputation as Wotan.

Lake Steamer is Burned.

Detroit, Mich.—It is reported here that the steamer Monarch was burned to the water's edge Saturday night on Thunder Bay, Lake Huron. The crew were rescued by the Thunder Bay island life savers.

Steve Adams Jury Disagrees.

Rathdrum, Idaho.—The jury in the Steve Adams murder case was disagreed at 5:45 Sunday afternoon, because it was unable to reach a verdict. The jury was discharged at 8:30 o'clock Saturday night.

REAL CAUSE FOR GLADNESS.

How Young Lawyer Carried Comfort to Convicted Client.

An amusing story is told by Harper's Weekly at the expense of a prominent Baltimore lawyer, who, like most young attorneys, got his first case by assignment from the bench. His client had been indicted for murder, and his conviction was a foregone conclusion, as his guilt was unquestionable.

The result of the trial was a sentence to be hanged; but the man made an appeal to the governor for a pardon and was anxiously waiting a reply thereto when his lawyer visited him in his cell.

"I got good news for you—very good news!" the young lawyer said, grasping the man's hand.

"Did the governor—is it a pardon?" the man exclaimed joyously.

"Well, no. The fact is the governor refused your appeal, that uncle of yours has died and left you $200, and you will have the satisfaction of knowing that your lawyer got paid, you know," was the comforting explanation.

BABY ITCHED TERRIBLY.

Face and Neck Covered with Inflamed Skin—Doctors No Avail—Cured by Cuticura.

"My baby's face and neck were covered with itching skin similar to eczema, and she suffered terribly for over a year. I took her to a number of doctors, and also to different colleges to no avail. Then Cuticura Remedies were recommended to me by Miss G. I did not use it at first, as I had tried so many other remedies without any favorable results. At last I tried Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Resolvent Pills, and to my surprise noticed an improvement. After using three boxes of the Cuticura Ointment, together with the Soap and Pills, I am pleased to say she is altogether a different child and the picture of health. Mrs. A. C. Brestlin, 171 N. Lincoln St., Chicago, Ill., Oct. 30 and 31, 1906."

Nut Growing Industry of the South.

"Not growing is a comparatively new industry in the south Atlantic and Gulf states, but it promises to develop into one of the most important in that section," said J. Z. Reid, a prosperous planter of Florida. "The most popular nut in the south is the pecan. It is probably due to the development of systematic methods of grading it and cracking it with machinery operated by steam or electric power, which has made it profitable to raise the nut. The pecan is the most important of the nut industry of the south."

"The demand is always much greater than the supply and many planters are turning their attention to nut raising industry. It is not uncommon for a tree to bear as high as 200 pounds of nuts in one season and most of these sell from 60 to 70 cents per bushel. It is not unusual to find a mother nutting, which requires much figuring to show that the pecan orchards which abound in some sections are paying investments."

Ingenious, But Unavailing.

Wilton, the five-year-old son of Lackaye, the actor, has inherited the brilliant mind for which his father is distinguished.

Not long ago Mr. and Mrs. Lackaye, who spent the summer at Shelter Island Heights, were invited to attend a card party and the young man was anxious to accompany them. His mother insisted that he should remain at home with Mary, his governess, but Wilton persisted and as a final argument he said: "Mama, I think Mary is a Christian Scientist, and I might be taken sick in the night."

The argument was not effective.

Why Streets Are Straight.

"There is no mystery about the streets of New York," complained the aesthete stranger. "It is all straight up and down. North, south, east, west; all straight paths. No crooked streets and alleys, no zigzag turns and twists and cowpaths, as in London and Paris. Just long, straight, uninterrupted roads."

"But that way, purposely," a native explained. "When the average New Yorker has to go home, he needs a straight road."

WHAT WAS IT

The Woman Feared?

What a comfort to find it is not the awful thing feared, but only chronic indigestion, which proper food can relieve.

A woman in Ohio says: "I was troubled for years with indigestion and chronic constipation. At times I would have such a gnawing in my stomach that I actually feared I had a—I dislike to write or even think of what I feared."

"Seeing an account of Grape-Nuts I decided to try it. After a short time I was satisfied the trouble was not the awful thing I feared but was still bad enough. However, I was relieved of a bad case of dyspepsia by taking Grape-Nuts from improper food to Grape-Nuts."

"Since that time my bowels have been as regular as a clock. I had also noticed before I began to eat Grape-Nuts that I was becoming forgetful, where I put little things about the house, which was very annoying."

"But since the digestive organs have become strong from eating Grape-Nuts, my memory is good and my mind as clear as when I was young, and I am thankful." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the little booklet, "The Road to Wellville," in packages.

"There's a reason."

WESTERN CANADA

A WINNER

THE CROP OF 1907 IS AN EXCELLENT ONE.

Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta Farmers Doing Well.

The interest that Western Canada has aroused for some years past is growing in intensity. The conditions of the crop of 1907 are such that results can be spoken of with some degree of certainty. The yield of grain will be about 50,000,000 bushels and the price the farmers will realize for it will be upwards of seventy million dollars. The oat crop was good in most places, and the crop of barley will be very remunerative. Those who know of the generally unsatisfactory conditions during the seeding, sowing and ripening of the crops in the United States during the past season, will look with righteous distrust on any statement intended to give the impression that Western Canada conditions were so much different. Generally, they were not, but the conditions of a highly recuperative soil, long and continuous sunshine, are conditions possessed by Western Canada, and are possessed by any other country on the Continent. This is why it is possible to record today a fairly successful crop, when in most other places the opposite result would be obtained. The grain is less than last year, but the higher prices obtained more than offset any falling off in the yield. Take for instance the Province of Saskatchewan, the wheat crop will be worth $12,135,000. Last year the same crop was 35 per cent. larger and the quality better. The yield was worth $14,000,000. Oats and barley are very good. The crop of the central provinces. At Gladstone, Manitoba, returns from one farm were $17 per acre from the wheat land, $35 per acre from oats, and $10 per acre from barley. The yield of wheat at Gladstone, Manitoba, was 30 to 34 bushels to the acre but not of a very good grade, but the yield of barley in that section was good and so was the quality and price. At Meadow Lake, Manitoba, 15 to 20 bushels to the acre were threshed, bringing a round dollar on the market. At Oak Lake, Manitoba, on some fields where 21 bushels were expected, twelve and fifteen were the result; others again where twenty was looked for gave twenty-two to twenty-five. One special patch south of town on J. M. McFarlane's farm went as high as thirty bushels to the acre. At Shebo, Saskatchewan, oats yielded from 60 to 65 bushels to the acre. Sam Wunder threshed 550 bushels from 70 acres. The people's good and wheat well. At Lloydminster, Saskatchewan, W. Birby threshed 97 bushels of oats to the acre, and two others were but little behind. Wheat here reached 35 bushels. At Pouceville, Saskatchewan, a quarter section all in crop, Alex. McKinnon of Inglefield threshed an average of 33 bushels No. 1 Northern. J. J. Grant had 190 acres, yielding 6,000 bushels of the same grade. These illustrations taken from widely distant districts (and thousands of others could be produced) show that the year 1907 has not felt the serious effects from several winter, late spring, or unfavorable conditions during the growing season that might have been anticipated. In order to learn more about this country write to the Canadian Government Agent who will be glad to appear elsewhere, and get a copy of the new Last Best West, which he will be pleased to mail you free.

French Polynesian a Surprise.

"Well, how did you enjoy yourself in Paris?" they asked of Mrs. Maloney when she got home.

"Very well," she replied. "Very well, indeed; but there was one thing that surprised me more than anything else."

"And what was that?" they queried.

"There were a lot of policemen there and all at my time."

Little things are little things, but to be faithful in little things is to be great.—St. Augustine.

Lewis' Single Binder straight $5. Many smokers prefer them to the cigars. Your dealer or Lewis' Factory, Peoria, Ill.

Some women would rather go broke than not go at all.

Among other pipe dreams are those of the church organist.

Overwhelming Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's troubles, securing a permanent cure.

The growth of a tumor is so insidious that frequently its presence is wholly unsuspected until it may be advanced.

So called "wandering pains" may come from early stages or the presence of danger may be made manifest by excessive monthly periods accompanied by unusual pain, or by a sudden change in the character of the blood.

If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation or displacements, secure a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, right away and begin its work.

The following letters show woman of its virtue, and that it actually does conquer tumors.

Mrs. May Fry, of 816 W. Colfax Ave., South Bend, Ind., writes: "I take great pleasure in writing to thank you for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I also took the Blood Purifier in alternate doses with the Compound. Your medicine removed a cyst tumor four years' growth, which three of the best physicians declared I had. They had said that I was a hopeless case, and I am very thankful that I followed a friend's advice and took your medicine. It has made me a strong and well woman and I shall recommend it as long as I live."

Mrs. E. F. Hayes, of 16 Ruggles St., Boston, Mass., writes:

"I have been under different doctors' treatment for a long time without relief. They told me I had a fibroid tumor, and my abdomen was swollen and I suffered with great pain. I wrote to you for advice, you replied and I followed your directions carefully and to-day I am a well woman. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound expelled the tumor and strengthened my whole system."

Mrs. B. J. Barber, of Scott, N. Y., writes: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"

"Sometimes ago I wrote you for advice about a tumor which the doctors thought would have to be removed. Instead of that I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to-day I am a well woman."

Mrs. M. M. Funk, Vandergrift, Pa., writes: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"

"I had a tumor and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound removed it for me after two doctors had given me up. I was sick four years before I began to take this Compound, and now I am a well woman."

W. L. DOUGLAS $3.00 & $3.50 SHOES

THE FAMOUS "AT ALL PRICES" $25,000

THE REASON W. L. Douglas shoes are worn by more people in all walks of life than any other make, is their quality, their style, their comfort, their durability, and their price.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

If I could take you into my large factory at Brockton, Mass., you would see the reason why W. L. Douglas shoes are worn by more people in all walks of life than any other make. You would see the reason why W. L. Douglas shoes are worn by more people in all walks of life than any other make.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

Laundry work at home would be much more satisfactory if the right starch were used.

In order to get the desired stiffness, it is usually necessary to use so much starch that the beauty and fineness of the fabric is hidden behind a paste of varying thickness, which not only destroys the appearance, but also affects the wearing quality of the goods. This trouble can be entirely overcome by using Defiance Starch, as it can be applied much more thinly because of its greater strength than other makes.

Mechanically.

Judge—And what if the prisoner say when you told him that you would have him arrested? Complainant—He answered mechanically, yer honor.

Judge—Explain, Complainant—He hit me on the head with a hammer. Everybody's Magazine.

Important to Mothers. Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA, a safe and sure remedy for children, and see that it bears the Signature of J. C. Watson.

In Use For Over Half a Century. The Kind You Have Always Bought.

First Chorus Girl—Nellie also feelin' well. She's gotta see thro' Second Chorus Girl—Chee, the noise of 'er putting on airs like a primmer don't—Kansas City Post.

FITS, St. Vitus Dances and all Nervous Diseases permanently cured by Dr. Kline's Great Nervine Remedy. For Free $100 trial bottle and treatise, Dr. R. H. Kline, Ltd., 301 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Paradoxical though it may seem, the light bulbs rendered by an illuminating company are usually heavy.

Lewis' Single Binder straight $5 clear made of rich, mellow tobacco. Your dealer or Lewis' Factory, Peoria, Ill.

Among other pipe dreams are those of the church organist.

Overwhelming Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's troubles, securing a permanent cure.

The growth of a tumor is so insidious that frequently its presence is wholly unsuspected until it may be advanced.

So called "wandering pains" may come from early stages or the presence of danger may be made manifest by excessive monthly periods accompanied by unusual pain, or by a sudden change in the character of the blood.

If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation or displacements, secure a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, right away and begin its work.

The following letters show woman of its virtue, and that it actually does conquer tumors.

Mrs. May Fry, of 816 W. Colfax Ave., South Bend, Ind., writes: "I take great pleasure in writing to thank you for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I also took the Blood Purifier in alternate doses with the Compound. Your medicine removed a cyst tumor four years' growth, which three of the best physicians declared I had. They had said that I was a hopeless case, and I am very thankful that I followed a friend's advice and took your medicine. It has made me a strong and well woman and I shall recommend it as long as I live."

Mrs. E. F. Hayes, of 16 Ruggles St., Boston, Mass., writes:

"I have been under different doctors' treatment for a long time without relief. They told me I had a fibroid tumor, and my abdomen was swollen and I suffered with great pain. I wrote to you for advice, you replied and I followed your directions carefully and to-day I am a well woman. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound expelled the tumor and strengthened my whole system."

Mrs. B. J. Barber, of Scott, N. Y., writes: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"

"Sometimes ago I wrote you for advice about a tumor which the doctors thought would have to be removed. Instead of that I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to-day I am a well woman."

Mrs. M. M. Funk, Vandergrift, Pa., writes: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"

"I had a tumor and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound removed it for me after two doctors had given me up. I was sick four years before I began to take this Compound, and now I am a well woman."

W. L. DOUGLAS $3.00 & $3.50 SHOES

THE FAMOUS "AT ALL PRICES" $25,000

THE REASON W. L. Douglas shoes are worn by more people in all walks of life than any other make, is their quality, their style, their comfort, their durability, and their price.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

If I could take you into my large factory at Brockton, Mass., you would see the reason why W. L. Douglas shoes are worn by more people in all walks of life than any other make. You would see the reason why W. L. Douglas shoes are worn by more people in all walks of life than any other make.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

W. L. Douglas shoes are made of the best materials, and every detail of the making is looked after by the maker. The shoes are made in the United States, and the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and the most thorough workmanship.

CUBA TOWNSHIP

Louis Gilly of Ohio is at his uncle's, Henry Gilly.

Mark Riley is still ill from the effects of an injured leg a few weeks ago.

The Fint creek school closed Wednesday in the Thanksgiving vacation of two days.

Mrs. Layne, Miss Anna Layne and Edna Gollister were Dundee callers last Saturday.

William Hote of Niles was at his sister's, Mrs. Auz at Meyer, for Thanksgiving.

Miss Julia Wisniewski who lives at C. Kraus' has for a guest her sister, Mary, of Lake Zurich.

John and Charles Kalal of Chicago are at the home of their father, John Kalal of Langenhelm.

Born—Monday, November 25 to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hamilton residing near Wauconda a nine and one-half pound son.

Miss Lizzie Langenhelm came out from Chicago early in the week to pass Thanksgiving with her sister, Mrs. H. Schumacher.

Louis Wlencke has returned from Highland Park after a two years absence from home and is working on the Grace farm.

John Balmes returned to his home in Chicago Tuesday after a visit at his uncle's, John Balmes. Harry Balmes accompanied his cousin to the city.

Miss Elsie Klein came home from the city this week. She has been caring for her aunt, Mrs. Adolph Stern, in Chicago, who is much improved.

Ben Clinge will take possession, March 1st, of the Garrett Lageschulte farm, until recently the Willmarth farm. Henry Hillman and family of Lake Zurich spent Sunday at the Clinge home.

E. F. Harnden and family attended the quarterly meeting of the Free Methodist church at Cary Sunday. They entertained at their home during the day the Rev. William Hamner of Evanston and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Moffett and son of Crystal Lake.

Miss Elizabeth Stevens of Chicago is a guest for a few weeks at the Kuhlman farm. Mrs. Hannah Sodi and Grandpa Kuhlman of Barrington were visitors there Monday. The Kuhlman family held a family reunion Thanksgiving day and the sons, Charles and William with their families were home from Libertyville and Chicago.

The fourteen men in camp near the river on the Dundee farm expect to remain about two weeks longer. They have been working for months, under the direction of Bert Sinnett, in graveling the stretch of road between the Manon farm and Peterson's Corners, which now gives us a gravelled road from Barrington to Wauconda. This work was completed Tuesday and the next road to be improved is near Mitterbacher's hotel on the river.

LAKE ZURICH

Men's fur lined coats at A. W. Meyer's.

Johany Froelich is sick with tonsillitis.

Mrs. James Davidson is ill at the present writing.

New line of Queen Quality shoes at A. W. Meyer's.

Misses Lydia and Tillie Hokenmeyer spent Sunday afternoon at their home in Gilmer.

Dan Smith attended the Maroon and Carlsle football game in Chicago last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Cox went to Indiana last Saturday to see Mr. Cox's father, who is very ill.

Misses Lizzie Klesler, Ada and Clara Prehm spent several days visiting friends and relatives in Joliet last week.

Mrs. Joe Catlow of Barrington Center visited her sister, Mrs. George Prusia, Tuesday afternoon who is still very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bicknase and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ellison attended a dance in Sharon, Wisconsin, last Friday night.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alterative and body builder; best of all for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by Barrington Pharmacy, 50c.

Western Australia has an act in force prohibiting the landing of any one who cannot write out a given sentence in English.

C. F. HALL CO. CLOTHING DEPARTMENT CHICAGO

Want Money?

You may think so but what you really want is the things money will buy. You work hard for your money; do you work just as hard to get the worth of your money? Wouldn't it pay to think more about that end?

Cut Rate Cloak Prices.

This week, special values in Misses' Cloaks. Many samples and special garments at less than regular prices. Heavy Grey, Brown and Mixed Cloth Coats, sizes 8 to 14, wool materials and in all particulars finely made $3.87, $2.87 and.....$4.87

Sale of Fine Cloaks.

All wool Black Broadcloth Cloaks, $15.00 values, front and back handsomely trimmed, full satin lined, price.....$11.98 Ladies' Tan Melton Cloaks, extra heavy weight, $12.50 values, fine, well made, well trimmed Cloaks.....$10.98 Caracul Cloaks, half fitted, full satin lined, $15.00 grades in Black and Grey, our best offer of the season.....$9.98 Navy Blue Broadcloth Cloaks, half fitted, full 52 inch, handsomely trimmed and full satin lined for.....$13.50 Navy Blue Beaver Cloth, very heavy, half satin lined.....$9.98 We show this week our biggest values in really high grade Cloaks.

Ladies' Department Values.

Ladies' Work Waists, light weight Percales, in good, dark colors, 35c Infants' Cloaks, heavy weight flannel, in Red, Blue, Pink and White, trimmed with Angora Fur.....98c Children's full length Cloaks, Red and Blue, all wool, trimmed with heavy tennis flannel, very exceptional value at.....$13.29 Ladies' fine quality Black Satene Petticoats, flannelette lined. These are full cut skirts, with deep flounces, and at the present prices of materials could not be made for what we sell them at 75c, 98c, $1.29 Party Waists, Ladies' All Wool Nuns' Veiling Waists, colors White, Cream, Grey, Red and Green, with handsome silk embroidered fronts. Styles and qualities usually selling at much higher prices than we quote, for this week, $1.98 and.....$2.22

Special Saving Prices.

Heavy White Enamel Lined Water Pails, best quality.....37c Very large, heavy, Iron Enamelled Kettles, nothing heavier in enamel ware, price.....50c Men's heavy Canvas Leggings.....25c Boys' heavy, Duck Long Pants, flannel lined, 75c makes for.....45c Boys' Canvas Coats, neat, well made, with velvet collars and cuffs, 65c Fine quality Ribbons, from our Millinery department, 25 and 50c grades, now on sale on our main floor at 15c per yard. 2 yards for.....25c Large size, White Enamel Lined Dish Short Lengths of Tennis Flannel per yard.....75c Children's Union Suits, 45, 35 and 10c Children's heavy Black Wool Hose, all sizes 12 and.....10c Boys' heaviest weight Cotton Hose (25c grades) for 10c. 3 pair for 50c Fine Taffeta Silk Ribbons, in light colors, 4 1/2 inches wide, per yd. 10c Silks. Do not overlook the values which we are offering in yard wide Taffeta Silks and Satins, blacks and colors, at 75c and.....60c Light colored Japanese Silks, 50c grades, per yard.....20c

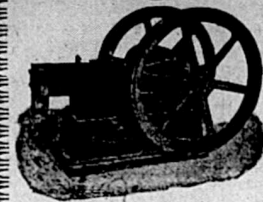

Remember.

We are headquarters for all sorts of ready made goods. We carry the largest line of strictly all solid leather Shoes in this section. We have no money in our Millinery Department.

Christmas Goods

We are planning the largest display of Christmas goods ever made in this region. Our price induc-

"The Barrington" GAS AND GASOLINE ENGINE

The Latest Improved and Best Gas or Gasoline Engine on the market. Simple Construction. Guaranteed. Lowest Prices. Made in all sizes from 2 to Horse Power, by

A. SCHAUBLE & CO. Barrington, Ill. Ill. Manufacturers of

Shafting, Pulleys and Belting, Cisterns and Tanks. Repairing of All Kinds of Machinery a Specialty.

MEATS, POULTRY, etc. The best at reasonable prices. Satisfaction guaranteed. We will buy your cattle, hogs and poultry.

Farmers Cash Meat Market

WM. HOBEIN

Dealer in Milch Cows

BARRINGTON

East of Gramer's Barber Shop

Fall and Winter Season

Fine Millinery

Prices Most Reasonable

The Latest Fall and Winter Styles

Your Inspection Invited.

Main Street, Barrington MISS H. R. JUKES

SAVES YOUR MONEY SAVES YOUR HEALTH SAVES YOUR FLOORS

BUY A CAN OF

THE MOST PERFECT OF FLOOR PAINTS

YOU CAN APPLY IT DRIES WHILE YOU SLEEP

Made in Ten Suitable Colors

Put up in 1 Gallon, Half-Gallon and Quart Cans

Made by Heath & Milligan Co.

SAMPLE CARD FOR THE ASKING

FOR SALE BY

LAMEY & CO.

DEALERS IN BUILDING MATERIAL.

Barrington, Illinois

ments will be well worth looking into. Plan to attend the display, which will soon be ready. Bring the children and have a good time.

TRADE 110 AND SHOW ROUND TRIP TICKET AND WE RETURN YOUR CAR FARE. Show Tickets or Horse Tickets if you drive.

F. J. Macnaughtan of Chicago, employed by the Chicago Telephone Co. as right-of-way agent passed Wednesday and Thursday on the farm of William Frank south of this village.

Lecturer Dead.

Marcus Hostetter, of Des Moines, Iowa, who lectured in Barrington, Thursday night, September 20th, died Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. Waller, 4434 Champlain avenue.

Mr. Hostetter was a temperance lecturer and talked from personal experience as a drinking man and was the author of "The Story of a Wasted Life." He was 51 years old and leaves a wife and three children. Burial was in Broadhead, Wisconsin.

Let us figure on your job printing.

D. F. LAMEY

Low Prices

5 gallons Best Gasoline.....60c
1 pound 75c Peaberry Coffee.....20c
1 65c Fancy Japan Tea.....50c

Big Bargains in Shoes

Ladies' $3.00 Fine Dress Shoes, only.....$2.50
Children's School Shoes.....$1.25, $1.35, $1.50 up Baby Shoes, big line.....50c up

Dress Goods

We have some special bargains in Cotton Dress Goods at.....10c, 12 1/2c, 15c, 18c up
WOOL DRESS GOODS—Big values in wool dress goods.....35c, 50c, 55c per yard up

Underwear

We carry a big line of Men's, Women's and Children's Underwear. Prices are very low on them for this season.

Talking Machines

We are offering special advantages for buying a talking machine for the next few weeks.
Call on Us.

D. F. LAMEY

W. H. GORMAN MARKET

"The place that saves you money."

We sell meats vegetables and canned goods at lowest possible prices. Following are some of our values:

Round steak	per lb.	10c
Sirloin steak	"	10c
Fore quarters 4 3-4c	Half quarters	10c
Pork chops	"	10c
Fresh pork shoulder	"	10c
Rib roast	"	10c
Bacon	"	14c
Hams	"	12c
Salt pork	"	10c
Pork sausage (our own make) per lb.	10c 3 lbs.	25c
Pot roast	per lb.	08c
Fresh dressed chickens	"	10c

5 lbs. GOOD BOILING MEAT FOR $1.00

3 cans of corn, peas or tomatoes	25c
Cranberries	per qt. 10c

Headquarters for good Butter and Eggs

All kinds of Cheese

Telephone No. 424 Prompt Delivery

GAS

Brightest, Best and Cheapest. Quickest, Cleanest and Most Convenient. Now is the time to order Gas Ranges and House Piping. Lowest Rates, Cash or Payments.

Northwestern Gas Light & Coke Co.

LIGHT FUEL

Drop Postal or Telephone.

Evansston 13 or Park Ridge 12