CANNON FOR CEMETERY

Paper Now Being Circulated to Purchase a Cannion for Barrington.

Barrington.

At a recent meeting of the Cemetery Association the question of securing cannon for the new semestery was again discussed. This idea had frequently been considered alone and the public than ever. This is agying a great deal since the question of securing cannon for the new semestery was alone to the public than ever. This is any again discussed. This idea had frequently been considered alone and the public than ever. This is any again a great deal since the family, through United States Congressman Philip Knopf of Chicago, who is widely acquainted here and has a cottage at the camp grounds, it was learned that large cannon would be sent by the government free of charge, making the only expense that of transportation.

The cannon is now at a fort on an island off the coase of Plorida, and the cost of loading and freight has been estimated as a cottage at the camp grounds, it was been contained and freight has been estimated as a cottage at the camp to the company of the first and the cost of loading and freight has been estimated as a cottage at the camp to the company of the first in the Majestic Theatre, playing in the company of the first in the desire that the monor needed be raised by donation.

Charles Hawley is now calling upon citizens to assist in this expense and H. H. Hubbard is conducting the correspondence.

While cannon brought here, but individual members have taken upon themselves the circulating of a subscription.

Teddy Bear's New Year Resolutions. RESOLVED-

That throughout this year 1908 I will try to be good and do good; that I will try to help myself and help others; that I will stand by the old town and the home people and help to boom the

RESOLVED-That from January to December, inclu-sive, I will quit dissive, I will quit dissipating—quit dissipating my dollars by taking them out of circulation here around home and sending them to the big cities to buy the things that I can buy and ought to buy right here in

RESOLVED—That I will stop smoking—stop smoking pipe dream dope suggesting big bargains to be had, unsight unseen, from the gigantic stores in the gigantic cities, and go around among the stores here at home looking for bargains that are there to be seen with the naked eye.

RESOLVED—That I will patronize, by preference, the stores that advertise in the home paper and therefore have caterprise enough to tell the people what they've got in stock.

(Signed) TEDDY BEAR.

Br'er Rabbit: "Say, Teddy, that last resolution is the goods, all right."

The meeting for Men at the Methodist church on Monday evening was well attended considering all things. Instead of an address by some one from outside of town, the mastor of the church, Rev. O. F. Mattion read a paper on "international Arbitration," a subject that has claimed much public attention in recent years. The little statement of the movements of a subject that has claimed much public attention in recent years. The interest paper gave a history of the movement for the settling of international difficulties by arbitration rather than by war, and as conspiceous instance in which the method was successfully an explored, he gave a somewhat detailed statement of the settlement of the mistoristanding between our country and Green Britain, arising out of the settlement of the address.
