

Barrington Local Happenings Told in Short Paragraphs

Like Immortal George.

When Weary Walker split the wood He feared that he would catch it.
But when the other hoboes howled,
"Who worked de ax?" he only growled.

"I did it wit' me hatchet!"

TIED TRADDES.

former's sister, were of the snow bound party of Wauconda's people who got up at the Commercial hotel here.

M. C. McIntosh was indicted before the Cook county grand jury last Friday on the charge of forgery. Wm. H.
Sandman and others were the complainants.

John Robertson is reported as improving as far as his injured ribs are concerned, but still has a very bad cough, although he expects to be out next week.

Laney & Company received a carload of Dundee brick yesterday.
These bricks are especially fine for chimneys, cisterns and all work that requires a brick of first quality.

Anna Bellinski Grisdley, wife of George N. Grisdley, former Lake county treasurer, has an interesting story, "His Code of Honor," in the current issue of The People's Magazine.

who died in Mexico this week, a pioneer and prominent Methodist divine of the Rock river conference, was known to local members of the M. E. church, having preached here on several occasions; his last visit being only a few years ago.

Labor conditions in Elgin are said to be the worst in years. Idle men by the hundreds are seen roaming the streets daily in search of something to do. Many have taken to the ice fields during the past few weeks, but there are still many who are willing to do almost anything just to get to work.

According to a plan that will soon be put into effect, every district school teacher in Lake county will ask her pupils each to write a history of the district, telling names of old settlers, of historic spots, of queer events and things. The entire outfit of papers it is probable will be turned over to the Lake County Historical Society.

Tomorrow is a national holiday, Washington's birthday, February 22nd.
W. L. Hicks, of Palatine, was here Thursday to call on his brother-in-law, John Robertson.

The party last Friday night at the Elfrink home on Grove avenue given by the Misses Mildred Elfrink and Helen Riley for eleven young women and men friends was a heart affair with trimmings of games concerning hearts. One of the hilarious amusements was the auctioning off of the girls to the highest bidders. Each girl was disguised with a sheet wrapped around her.

The Village Snow Plow.
The most popular and watched-for man in town Wednesday morning was Henry Pingel with the official village snow plow.

However, he seems to have been unpopular in certain neighborhoods where he failed to clear the walks and inquiries were made at this office yesterday as to whether he is expected to remove the snow from all the walks in the village.

We are informed that his instructions are to clear the snow from the crosswalks and incidentally to remove the walks neglected by property owners. We can see no reason, however, why he should not clear all the walks if they are cleaned.

Keeping Open House.
Everybody is welcome when we feel good; and we feel that way only when our digestive organs are working properly. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the action of stomach, liver and bowels so perfectly one can't help feeling good when he uses these pills.
