Charles Kinzel Dead.

Charles W. Kinzel, aged forty-five years died Wednesday norning at three o'clock on the Boothman farm, four miles southeast of town, near the Palatine township line. He had been ill with la grippe. The Boothman family were friends and when he was taken ill at their home while visiting them, they cared for him until death. He was a man about whom little is known; he had worked in this vicinity as farm laborer for about eighteen years, but is said to have been a butcher by trade. Nothing is known of his people beyond the fact that he came here from Joiles.

The body is awaiting burial at the Blocks undertaking establishment and Mr. Blocks is endeavoring to find relatives. Burial will probably be in the local cemetery here on Monday. TOWN OF BARRINGTON
