Quite different from the meeting of the lovers was that which occurred when Old Cy reached Peaceful Valley. There were no heroics, no falling upon one another's necks, no tears. Just a Thuilo, Cyrust. "Hullo, Judson!" and the strain of the properties of the properties of the properties of the properties. Ann. Mandy, however, showed more emotion, for when Old Cy rather awardly stooped to kiss her, the long ago of Sister Abby's sorrow weiled up in her heart, and the tears came.

Good Japanese innovation.

An Austrian military organ draws attention to one of the minor details of the Japanese muskerty practice during the late war which seems to have escaped notice in Europe. In European armies the question of a rife reat for long range firing has led to many lagenious contrivances for Japanese was department solved the difficulty in a much simpler but equally effective way. They just provided the soldler with a bag of stout cotton eight inches wide and 20 inches long, which he could carry in his cartridge case on the march, and on reaching the fighting line could in a minuta stuff with earth or stones. Doubtless Prince Fushimi, of Japan, made the acquaintance of Highland pipers in the course of his visit to Scotland. It is recalled that Lord John Russell, when on a visit to Queen Victoria at Balmoral, asked her majesty's own piper to have some one play in his presence.

"What kind o' a piper do you want" asked the mas.

"Just such another as yourself," said the English bistesmas.
