TO THE AGRE. NATURE AND A WOMAN'S WORK

Typia E. Pinkham

Nature and woman's work combined have produced the grandest remedy for work of the world has ever known like that the world has ever known for the felt to our disease and mitigate suffering. The Indians on our Western Plains to-day can produce roots and herbs of the every aliment, and cure diseases that baffle the most skilled physicians who have spent years in the study of drugs.

From the roots and herbs of the, physicians who have spent years in the study of drugs.

From the roots and herbs of the field Lydia E. Pinkham more than thirty years ago gave to the women of the world a remedy for their peculiar ills, more potent and efficacious than any combination of drugs.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is now recognized as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

Mrs. Bertha Muff, of 516 N.C. St., Louisians, Mo., writes:

"Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other swifering women I am willing of other swifering women I am willing.

"For twelve years I had been swifering with the worst forms of female ills. During that time I had eleven different physicians without help. No tongue could hardly walk. About twee ago I wrote Mrs. Pinkham's Vegetable Company of the property of the stored health and strength. It is stored health and strength. It is stored health and strength.

women."
What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Muff, it will do for other suffering women.
