An infant weighing 20 pounds was born at Shewano, Wis., the other day. Who can think of an appropriate name for him?

A shortage of chorus girls was re-ported lately in New York, and now Oklahoma reports a shortage of 1,200 school teachers. What are the girls doing, anyhow?

The success of Maxim's noiseless device for rifes serves to correct the somewhat popular notion that Maxim's is something loud and noisy, as well as feative.

Washington dispatches say that within the next 90 days a new Pana-ma bond issue will probably be put out, amounting to about $25,000,000, but postage stamp bids won't go.

The British consul at Tamsul reports that the total exports of camphor from Formosa in 1907 amounted to 4,121,556 pounds, or which 4,625,331 pounds was sent to Havre, London and Hamburg; 1,825,300 pounds to America, and 33,333 pounds to Madras.

The New York health board has again arraigned the fly on the mur-derous charge of carring typhold mi-crobes on his feet and thus distribu-ting them on foods. This seems all-tic fanciful, but whether it be true or not, the fly is a malefactor and should be eliminated.

The duke of the Abrust continues to have difficulty in persuading the queen of Italy to consent to his marriage to Miss Elkins. The queen has a reputation at home for beauty, and it is but natural that she should naw and another wound at court who would become, as a well-known classes are capen once said, the sinecure of all

That Genoan father who shot and killed the driver of an automobile, and also one of the woman occupants of the vehicle, who was a marchlon-ess, when he saw his child crushed to death before his eyes, is commend-ed by some in Genoa who do not stop to reason; but his violence is more reprehensible than the neglect of the chauffeur.
