H. H. Kampert complains that some one is helping themselves to corn from his field on the Lake Zurich road, inasmuch as his crops were not larger than usual he desires to inform the parties that he needs all of his corn for his own use and hopes they will not continue carrying it away.

The singing by the choir of the Methodist church was unusually good on Sunday, owing to the new additions to the choir. The Sunday school will continue by using their new song books. With Miss Sadie Blocks to lead the singing and Miss Alta Powers at the piano, good music may be expected.

Albert T. Ullrich, who has been in the employ of the Chicago & North-western railway for a number of years has accepted a position with the Barrington bank as assistant cashier and will commence his new duties January 1st. The business of the bank has been constantly on the increase and Mr. Robertson needs an assistant.

"Harvest home" has been celebrated as a day of rejoicing and thanksgiving in England from the time of the Druids. Both Japan and China hold celebrations of thanksgiving with feasting when the fruits of the earth have been garnered.

The estate of the late M. B. Melnick is rapidly nearing a final settlement. On November 2nd, after a hearing before Judge Barnes in the Superior court, a decree was entered confirming the settlement of all pending matters, in accordance with an agreement signed by the members of the family. Since that date the will contest and the suits affecting title to the premises formerly occupied by M. C. McIntosh, have all been disposed of by final order of court, thus confirming title in John Robertson as executor and trustee, to all the real estate not specifically devised by the will. Mr. Robertson will at once proceed to sell those Barrington properties which are advertised for sale in another column, and close up the estate substantially in accordance with the terms of the will.
