ture of a Printal.

Once upon a line a Philadelphia hayer came south. He had a pair of the pair of the crowd and ran back in great exment. "What's it all about? What they doing?"

beckoned to a very intelligent ing negro—who, by the way, was a minent politician—and asked:
bm, what's the occasion for all this red."

"Thus, what's the occasion to an un-parade?"
The young negro laughed. Now, footness of the property appeals to the negro's tropical imagination. Churches and lodges turnish most of the social life that he brass hand is playing: he keeps step with the fellow that beats the drum and is happy.
