

Ye Cuthberts' Memory.
The best way to remember a thing is thoroughly to understand it, and this is best done by reading it over continually with great attention, and never passing a passage without understanding it. Then, when the memory will be stored with knowledge, and nothing will ever be lost, even when we sleep. All the better times will be those when we have to use our memory, and the passages or facts we have stored will be at hand.

Gentle Intercessor.

Saves Time on the Farm

THE farmer with the Bell Telephone Service at hand, doesn't have to travel in rainy weather.

Bell Telephone Service saves him all that.

There are always a lot of rainy-day chores about the farm.

Instead of spending a day in going to town, the farmer goes to his Bell Telephone and does his business. Time saved can be spent profitably.

That is why he would not think of being without the Bell Telephone Service. It is more economical to try to get along without it. Consult our local manager.

Attack Like Tigers.

In trying to keep the blood pure the white corpuscles attack the germs and viruses. They move so rapidly so fast the little fighters are called tigers. They move so rapidly that they can eat up the excess salivary and tonsils and multiply and strengthen the electric Bitter to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to keep the body healthy. They will "have ever found." They make rich, strong, healthy blood and help to keep your health. Try them at the Barrington Pharmacy.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to thank the friends and neighbors who offered their assistance in the care of my mother. She is now in heaven. Miss June Watson.

Dr. Harkness, optician, will be in Barrington on Saturday, August 22, through Tuesday, August 25. Through Saturday he will be in the office of Dr. Harkness, 1107 Main Street, Barrington.

A King Who Left Home.

Frank Martin of Buffalo, N. Y. says he always wanted to be a King. Now he is a King. His New Life tells— "and that there's a blessing to all who are willing to be a King." He died July 24, 1916, at his home in Buffalo, N. Y., at the age of 70 years.

HIS ESCAPE WAS EXPENSIVE

Globe Trotter Haskin Keeps Store Good Natured While Traveling.

Frederick J. Haskin, globe-trotter, man of the world, humorist, who once escaped from Shanghai when the revolution was strong against America. The people of the Celestial empire were very angry with him because he was an American who ever went with it.

Haskin was warned not to take any risk.

"These people want neither humor nor a smile," he remarked slyly. "If any of them tries to hunt me, I'll hand him a swift kick in the pants."

"Ten minutes after he left his hotel he was hoofing it down the street when he saw a man with a long rifle and a target, and pointing him with a rifle, telling him to lay hands on. Please don't shoot me."
