

Washington, Stripped of Romance, Shown as a Man

* * * * * * *

Not a Saint by Any Means, but One Who Will Ever Be Counted Foremost Among the First

* * * * * * *

weakness of he attract perhaps no proper to the control of the con that of the late King Edward and—prone to human weaknesses. The same time a gentleman of act and dignity.

It became apparent that Washwas not a sails, the trend of the same apparent that was not a sails, the trend of the sails are sailed by luck the sail of the sails of the sa to the C. W. Paul, Pained to 1777

I the Turly rest man has accomplished for the liberties of America, the generous indeprintations which he linguisted to the Prench who were attracted to the Prench who were attracted to the rest of the control o

ASKED AID OF WASHINGTON

Hampered for Funds.

ITS SERVICES POINTED OUT

men Especially Are Inter-ne Matter—Every Dollar Sp leturned Ten Fold to the People of the Country.

By GEORGE CLINTON. By GEORGE CLINTON.
Washington—Cogness being economically inclined this year there is commended in the province of the comment of the comment of the comment of the comment of the country, that the appropriation of the country, that the appropriation of the country, that the appropriation is not cut the creasing work. The truth is that if the appropriation is not cut themselver of the currey probably will be have propriation in not cut themselver of the currey probably will be have propriation in not cut the machanism of the currey probably will be have propriated and the country of the currey probably will be have propriated and the cut of the currey probably will be have propriated and the cut of the cut of the currey probably will be have propriated and the cut of the c somically inclined that year there is established that the man that the government that the electrical that may be work a large part of the thin me behalf of the agricultural and the properties of the street part of the st

members of congress heard in project of the congress of the congress heard in 100 to 60 to 100 to 10

ILLINOIS STATE NEWS

Collinaville.—Alsons Horsad and John Sizecy, employed in Donk's No. John Sizecy, employed in Control of Control

nis eyesignt.

East Si. Louis—Mayor Lamber revoked the saicon. Honnes of Otto Schalk Monday afternoon. Schalk is hold on a charge of shooting Watter Hankins, twenty-two years old, in a quarrel over fifty cents. Hankins, who is in a dangerous 'condition as St.
Mary's hospital, charges Schalk with a upprovided assault. Schalk has Canton.—Clifton R. Shelby was killed instantly at his home, ten miles south of this city when a pumpgun he carried was accidentally discharged as he pushed open a porch door with the butt. He was attring on a hunt. He was a farmer, twenty-three years

Arenzville.—Charles Bell. forty-five years old, is dead as a result of an injury received from a failing tree. Bell had retired a safe distance, but the crashing trunk struck another tree and hurled a heavy rotten limb which struck Bell in the bead.

Taylorville.—Fred McCurdy, charged with wife abandonment, entered a plea of sullty and was ordered to pay his wife two dollars a week for a year, and to execute his personal bond of 4400 that he would do it.

The control of Coccolor and personal and a control of short has been as a control of the control

Belleville. — The Illinois Retail Merphants' association, completing its convention here, elected offi-cers after thearting an attempt to in-troduce resolutions indersing the Rosesvelt presidential born. Occar M. Ring of Unicago was elected pres-ident and T. Schmid of Chicago trea-

A TROUBLE MAKER