Harmoning Found Guilty.

14. Harmoning of Palastos, who was charged with Intally Injuring James W. O'Bries merrly a year ago, wis found guilty of inhesisnabler by a jegg fa Judge Harthalay's cours, Chings, Wednesday of Jest week. A melled file a new trial was made, and off the course of the cour had clinched at sight, we waited there for Longstreet, who never missed a fight. An aid-de-camp in shirt sleeves came lopin' up the bill,

"You hold this line for Hooker!" he yells at Captain Bill,

"And mind you hold it longer than you did at Gaines's Mill!"

Old Captain Bill made answer: "You boys must have your fue,
But we didn't break at Gaines's till all you chaps had run,
And we'll hold this hill for Hooker while we've men to wonk a gun," Across the field below us ripped out the rebel yell.

As Longstreet's line of battle come streakin' up the swell.

And we whipped the limbers closer and opened out with shell.

But shell was meat for Longstreet; he ate it with his bread, And so we changed the menu to canister instead, And when that didn't stop 'em we let the shrapnel spread.

We pounded 'em to jelly, but the jelly wouldn't jell.

The powder scorched their faces but they took it like the shell.

And then they reached our muzzles and tumbled through pell-mell. It seemed we'd best be guin', with bayonets so near.

When through the woods behind us, there rolled a roarin' cheer,
And Captain Bill yelled, "Hold 'em! That's Hooker almost here!"

and captain Sill yeiled, "Hold 'emi! That's Hooker almost here!"
We fought between the sections just like a game of tag:
A Johnny jumped my field gun and waved a battle flag
But I lammed him with the gun swab and dropped him like a rag.
They had forced us to the limbers, where the teams were tangled thick.

Izagled thick.
And ware piroding our pieces to teach us our own trick,
When Hooker's boys came through us, deploying double-quick.
The Johnnies hung like buildogs and faced us breast to breast,
But Longstreet's men were winded, while Hooker'd had a rest,
And when the smoke had lifted we Yankees held the crest. And Hooker stopped to thank us, and then said Captain Bill:
"They thought we couldn't hold 'sm, but, General, here's your hill—
And I'd like to ask Jim Longstreet if we're quits for Gaines's Mill!"
