OBITUARY.

John F. Cowden died last Thursday at his home, 440 Prairie street, Elgin, at the age of 80 years. He was an early settler of Barrington, coming here on a farm at Barrington Center for 48 years. He was born in Wilmamstown, Massachusetts, in July, 1834, and was an employee of one of the first cotton mills that was operated in the United States. In 1846 he removed to Dundee township and settled in a locality called Centerville, where he lived until 1860, when he moved to Barrington township. There he was married to Miss Elmeda Messer. They lived there until 15 years ago when they moved to Elgin.

On August 12, 1882, he enlisted in Company K, Eighty-third Illinois Infantry and was later discharged on account of failing health. Early in life he united with the Methodist Episcopal church and was a prominent lay member. Mr. Cowden was one of the leaders in educational and religious work in this section during the earlier part of his life. He was an advocate of the church and the school house and did much to enable the earlier settlers' children to acquire learning.

He was engaged in farming until compelled to retire on account of failing health, yet he devoted much of his time to mission work and was known as a local preacher. He supplied pulpits in churches that were without pastors and visited places of school houses to see to it that the sick and the disinherited to assist them.

A son, Herbert and three daughters, Mrs. Jay W. Erman, Nellie and Pearl Cowden reside in Elgin. Mrs. Charles Perry of Jacksonville, Wisconsin, and Mrs. W. W. Keyser of Wheaton are also daughters. Mr. Mayers was a former resident of this village.

GIVE BANQUET FOR SCHOOL BOARD

Domestic Science Class Serves Six O'clock Dinner for Members of the Board of Education.

The domestic science class of the high school served the members of the board of education and their wives and the high school teachers to a most delicate and tasty six o'clock dinner Friday, January 23.

A long table covered with snowy linen adorned with a beautiful bouquet and hand made place cards, etc., occupied the spacious hall of our modern school building. The following four-course dinner was served in a graceful and pretty manner by the young misses: first course, tomato bouillon; Imperial sticks; second course, hot beef hash, mashed potatoes, cream peas, bean salad, wafers; fourth course, sage pudding with grape sauce, whipped cream, cake and coffee.

After dinner the guests were invited to inspect the kitchen and manual training room.

If parents have any spare time they would be well spent visiting either of these beneficial departments. Domestic science is a new feature in the schools this year. It is a step toward progress and up-to-dateness and is a most necessary feature of any school where it is possible to devote the necessary time to it, to teach the members of the board of education. Manual training is another course which is now being given much attention by most high schools and has recently become a department in the local school. Prof. E. R. Smith has been enthusiastic over these two very practical departments, recognizing the fact that through them

Company of Over Seventy Present at Enjoyable Celebration of the Happy Event.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thies on Grove avenue was the center of a happy event Tuesday afternoon when the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. William Thies was celebrated. Just fifty years ago they were married at Plum Grove, where they continued to reside on a farm and raised a family of seven children all of whom are living and happily contribute their part toward this occasion of cheer and honor to their beloved parents. More than 70 guests were present to enjoy the company and to congratulate the happy couple upon their golden anniversary.

Shortly after noon a brief program was enjoyed. An orchestra composed of relatives played a few selections and Rev. H. B. Thoren and Rev. J. C. Frey addressed words of congratulation. Mrs. Sadie Thies and Mrs. Myrtle Plagge sang a duet and Miss Plagge also sang a solo. These musical select ones were splendid and added to the happy spirit of the day. An elaborate dinner was served and the entertaining of guests was an easy and very natural one in which good cheer prevailed.
