LONG DEADLOCK FINALLY BROKEN

J. H. LEWIS IS ELECTED TO LONG TERM AND L. Y. SHERMAN GETS SHORT.

FIFTEEN BALLOTS ARE TAKEN

Choice of Assembly is First Time in History of Illinois That Two U. 8. Senators Are Selected at the Same Time, Springfield.—The Illinois legislature elected James Hamilton Lewis, Demo-crat, United States senator for a full six-year term beginning March 4, 1933. Lawrence Y. Sherman was selected for the remainder of the term vacated by William Lorimer, which began March 4, 1966.

und remainder of the term vascated by William Lorimer, which began March.

The deadlock, which has been in actual progress since February 11, was broken on the fifteenth ballot for the long term and on the fourteenth ballot for the short term.

It was the first time since Illinois became a state in 1818 that two United States sepators were elected at the same time.

The candidacy of Senator-elect Rherman for the full term, beginning March 4, 1915, was announced inmediately after the adjournment of the joint session by Homer J. Tice, his campaign manager. Simultaneously came the word that Frank H. Funk and Medill McCormick will be rival candidates for the Progressive nomination for senator for the same term. Will Recommend Direct Primary. The governor will recommend to this segislature the immediate enactment of a direct primary law for the nomination of senators, looking forward to the ratification of the federal constitutional amendment for the direct election of senators. Governor Dunne gave that indication of his course.
