

GRACEFUL IN DESIGN

COSTUME OF GREY CHAUMEUR PARTICULARLY APPRECIATING

Embodies All the Best Style Features of the Season—Fit and Proportions to Match Adequately to the Toilet.

A costume shown here of grey chaumeur must appeal to everyone of refined taste. The style features of the season are embodied in it, and it is designed along very graceful lines, following those of the figure. The draped skirt is very elegant and graceful, and the management is shown in this case. The round neck with turn-back collar admits a glimpse of face if desired. The skirt is a simple puffed sleeve terminating

In a turn-back cuff. The collar and cuffs are made of brocade matching the gown in color. The modest split of curved seam at the left is a simple and high. Grey silk stockings and satin slippers are worn with the gown. A finishing touch is shown in the hat and evening made to match. They brighten the toilet delightfully. The hat is of leathers with a drapery of checked silk and trimming of broad velvet ribbon with a big cluster of roses at the back. For this particular gown the combination could not be better. The silk is in black and white check with corse border and the roses are in shades of corse imprinted with broad velvet ribbon in black.

Neckwear Style. The fact that a large distribution of low collar is expected during the coming season is resulting in the presentation of a host of new styles, according to the Dry Goods Economist. Deep shawl-like pointed numbers continue in the lead. Cream batiste of the sheers of quality beautifully embroidered, with fine semiticking and dainty handbags and lace, are used in the development of the new most modest. Cream batiste is also used in some of the handkerchief collars with labors. The collar portions follow largely the daisy shoulder-point idea and the labors are of conservative size and style. Flat pointed labors are especially liked. Flat, figured and dotted crepe, plain and fancy velvets and crepe de chine are among the other prominent materials employed.

AFFECT THE MIND STRANGELY

Important Part That Various Colors Play in Life Has Not Been Sufficiently Recognized

Have you ever stopped to think of the important part that color plays in your life? Possibly not, but psychologists and some medical specialists—and they are paying more and more attention to the subject—say that some colors have all sorts of curious effects on the human mind.

After a revolutionary outbreak some years ago in Russia, the fact came out that the punishment meted out to several of the leaders of the rising was confinement in cells whose walls were painted violet. A few weeks spent in these cells turned keen-witted restless men into dull, stupid fellows, who moved and spoke as dying men do after they have lost the power over brain and body.

The effect of red is even more striking. Red is said to produce restlessness and excitability, and no specialist will allow a highly nervous patient to remain long in a room that is either papered or furnished in that shade. And dressmakers complain that to work for any length of time upon a garment that is fluted red will cause the seamstress to become tired, have a headache, and feel nauseated. Perhaps that is why blue, brown and white have their turns as the "most popular color," while red is always matched with individual taste, except in the matter of occasional trimming.

MADE TO SUIT ALL COSTUMES

Waists of Various Materials Intended to Complement the Skirt With Which They Are Worn.

The waists now being featured for wear with tailored suits are, according to the Dry Goods Economist, made of matching chiffon, crepe de chine, satin or tulle. White net and lace waists are also good style for supplementing the more dressy tailored suits in many departments. The models designed for special wear are grouped together on one table, or in part of the counter.

Waists for traveling, for athletic wear or for general utility purposes are made along the lines of the mannish shirt. In New York stores, such as messaline, brocade and fancy silks are strongly featured.

In the washable varieties of crepe de chine, Ray silks and corded silks are of white, white, marked off with stripes in bright colors. Middy blouses, finished with a broad band over the hips, are strongly featured. They are designed by retailers as Balkan middie blouses.

OLD CHINESE BELT BUCKLES

Among the Most Alluring of the Offerings in Antiques Which Are Just Now All the Rage.

Old belt buckles of ancient Chinese workmanship are among the latest offerings in antique. The buckles are of metal heavily plated with dull, greenish gold, are set with huge circles and squares of green, blue, red and rose mottled quartz or highly polished that it appears to be overlaid with crystal. On the under side the buckle are of the gilded metal richly chased or engraved, and near one end of each is a slide through which the belt ribbon may be forced, while at the opposite end is a broad, flat sort of hook, which readily catches into and holds the giraffe's fabric. It is possible, by joining four to six of these buckles, to make a wonderfully unique buckle for the sort now worn with "classic" tea gowns and with tailored white crash or fowling frocks. The ornaments bear the earmarks of great age, their fine workmanship is obvious at a glance and they are not prohibitively costly.

PRETTY HAT

Black straw forms this wide-brimmed hat. The trimming is composed of blue velvet ribbon, which is placed round the crown, and a wide band at the front completes the trimming.

Delicate Parfume. Some of the richest and most expensive perfumes can be made in the following way: Boil your blossoms, whatever you choose, in water. Strain the water from the blossoms and pour it into a jar half filled with alcohol. Let it stand for a few days, then strain it through a cheesecloth and add a perfectly clean glass dish. Repeat this process until you have reached the desired strength. This perfume can be used in a variety of ways. It can be used to perfume the room, or it can be used to perfume the skin. It can be used to perfume the hair, or it can be used to perfume the clothes. It can be used in a variety of ways.

CHOOSE THE SANDWICH

HERE IS VARIETY ENOUGH TO SUIT ALL TASTES.

Tomato and Horse-Radish Makes an Excellent Combination—Pineapple Finer Than Who Like the Fine Flavor.

Tomato and Horse-Radish Sandwiches—These slices of bread, lay a crisp lettuce leaf on lower side, then place very thin slices of firm tomatoes on top, spread a little prepared horseradish on each slice, cover with another lettuce leaf and slice of bread. Trim the edges evenly and cut through center.

Brown Bread Sandwiches.—Butter this slice of brown bread, lay a lettuce leaf on lower side, spread the boiled dressing over, sprinkle with chopped walnuts; lay another lettuce leaf with dressing on that, press top slice of bread on and cut into three triangular pieces.

Pineapple Sandwiches.—Cut pineapple into thin slices, trim off the rind and remove the core, now shred into fine shreds, sugar slightly and set in cold place over night. Or, if desired leave the slices whole, place between slices of buttered bread and cut into triangles.

Ginger and Walnut Sandwiches.—Between thin slices of buttered bread lay bits of preserved ginger and chopped walnuts, using a little of the strap the ginger is put up in. Cut into thin slices.

Dream Sandwiches.—Rub one cupful of steamed prunes to a paste with two spoonfuls of lemon juice, spread between thin slices of buttered bread; a few chopped walnuts may be added. Cut each into four little squares.

Hot Preserves.—Spread bread moderately thin, trim into even squares, butter lightly, spread with any well-flavored fruit preserve, cut into triangles, place in fat tin and toast under gas flame in broiling oven until a golden brown. Turn and toast other side, and serve on hot plate covered with napkin.

Bacon and Lettuce Sandwiches.—Cut crust from thin slices of bread, toast on one side only and keep warm. Fry thin slices of bacon until crisp. Now butter the inside of the bread, lay a lettuce leaf and a few slices of the bacon between and cut into triangles.

Egg Sandwiches.—Prepare as directed above, then lay a lettuce leaf and a carefully fried egg on lower side; season with salt and pepper, place second slice of toast on top and lay strips of fried bacon across. Either of these bacon sandwiches may be made with plain bread. Potato salad or water cress are nice with hot sandwiches.

EGG BEATER.

An egg beater will do many things besides beat eggs. If a custard holds a little too much, keep it from curdling by beating thoroughly. Use it also for lumpy gravy. After boiled dressing is removed from the double boiler beat it hard for a few minutes. If it is too thick, add a little milk and beat again. It will be much more delicate and fluffy. One may use the beater for cake batter. Reduce the milk with a couple of tablespoonfuls of hot water, which will soften the batter so that you can beat the sugar, butter, milk and eggs more easily. Add the rest of the flour to a delicate cream before adding the remainder of the flour and baking powder.

Apple Salad.

Apple salad is delicious and seasonable, too. You take large red apples and scoop out the inside, creating cups. These are put into cold water with a few drops of lemon juice until ready to be filled. The filling consists of the apple chopped with celery, a little mayonnaise and mayonnaise dressing. On the top heap bits of walnut and maraschino cherries, and lay each cup on a lettuce leaf. This is a very light salad, put together at a very little cost. Walnuts and cherries are served with it.

Chicken Griddle Cakes.

Beat one egg, add two tablespoonfuls of chicken fat, melted, one cupful of minced chicken, half a level teaspoonful of salt, one pint of milk, and four eggs to make a batter that will spread easily when placed on the griddle, having previously sifted three spoonfuls of baking powder into the flour.

Saving Wallpaper.

While cleaning wallpaper, the wall adjoining may easily be protected by using a piece of cardboard held at the upper edge of the board. This allows the cleaning cloth to roll the card, so that the wall is not so often soiled upon wallpaper or painted walls.

Radish Salad.

If at all wilted, place the radish in cold water, but do not wet the leaves; wipe the leaves dry with a damp cloth, using only water. Wash the leaves. Pour a French dressing over it and garnish with trimmed red radishes.

Orange Dressing.

Helping the Little Fellow.

The United States Machinery Company is the only real obstacle to the formation of a shoe trust. We help the small manufacturer to start in business and keep going. He could not afford to buy and care for his own shoes, but he can afford to lease them on the terms we give him based on the amount of shoes he makes—an average of less than 2.5 cents per shoe. And let us keep them up to date. That is a fair arrangement. Some of the fellows don't like our system, because they think we ought to give them special rates. But the little fellows stand with us because they know we treat all manufacturers alike no matter how many machines they use. If it were not for our methods of doing business there would be no small factories anywhere and no prosperous factories in small towns.

The United States Machinery Co., Boston, Mass.—Adv.

There With the "Warrior." The conversation led to the beauty of having abundant nerve the other evening, when Senator Clapp of Minnesota told a marvellous story of a fashionable restaurant, accompanied by a couple of children, and after ordering a lemon soda, asked the waiter to wait for three plates. This, according to Senator Clapp, the waiter did, but when he saw the man take some sandwiches from his pocket, put them on the plates, and pass them around to the kids, he reported the matter to the boss. "What are you doing?" indignantly cried the manager, rushing over to the sandwich party. "Don't you know that this is a free picnic ground, where you bring your own food?" "Is that so?" was the calm rejoinder of the man, passing along the plates. "Who are you?" "I am the manager," blustered the boss, with rising heat. "I have been looking for you. You are the imperturbed party. Why isn't the orchestra playing?"
