PRETTY CRAPE HATS CONVENIENT STAND FOR CAKE

DESIGNERS HAVE DONE THEIR BEST WITH THIS MATERIAL

A few seasons ago there began to be touches of white used in the body of hats made of black crape. The heauty of this fabric was thrown into prominence by this combination and it has been making a steady progress in the consideration of designs ever since.

During the last three seasons en-tire hats of white crape, or hats of white with some black crape intro-duced, have been featured in all dis-plays of fine mourning headwear.

plays of fine mourning headwear Lovely effects have been wrought out in this fabric. Flowers and foi-large made of it are acquisite. The flower examples of mourning hats either in black or white are decorated with ornaments made of crape. These work-room made ornaments are the delight of the designers of mourning hats because effects are possible in crape which cannot be obtained with other fabrics.

It has become a matter of choice as to color and we may expect to see white crepe replacing black for sum mer hats, while white will be employed in facings and trimmings on black crape for winter wear.

The shapes now to

The shapes now in vopue rather small and along conservative lines, give a wide choice to the maker of crape hats. The models shown are fair samples of turbans which one may see developed in all-white crape, all black or to black and white combined in varying proportions. Besides white, pale gray and blue lavender tones promise to add turther variety to our mourning headwar These colors are shown in the new English crapes and have been taken up by New York designers, to whom

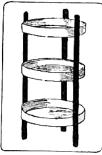

Rugs for the Nursery.

Grass fiber rugs, with borders of nienciled animals, done in soft red, reliew brown and green, which show attractively against the light gray-green of the fiber, are sold for nursery mats or for rugs for children's rooms. They are so light, so easily cleaned and so durable that they are ideal for use in a room where children live.

May Be Put Together at Nomi Cost, Though It is Expensive to Purchase.

For afternoon or informal tea, a stand is most essential, and though they are expensive articles to buy, they can easily be made at home at a very nominal cost. Very few mater-lais will be required, just three burn boo sticks of equal length or three roundilite sticks of white wood, and three bound dapanese trays of equal length of the trays, three wooden round but inde would do. They wooden round but inde would do. They must be the same size Japanese trays can be bought so cheaply, and they are so prettily got up that no further decoration is necessary, but if bot lids are used, they will require to be stained or pokered, this latter is an excellent method of decorating if the worker happens to possess a poker machine. Otherwise, the lids poker machine. Otherwise, the lids are stained and after-wined any color desired and after-wined any color holes from the tand, three rods about 30 inches in length are needed belies from the bottom, and another exactly half way between the two; the holes minut go right through, and must be exactly in the same position on each rod, or the stand will not be level.

Now is a good time to pian changes in the border and the flower garden, as one can see the mistakes made in planting the tail growers in front of the low ones; in grouping ill-matched plants and mixing inhammonious combinations of colors. Keep a note book and pencil in hand, ome look, whether for truth, inhese or ornament, plant the tailest growers well to the rear, grading down to the lowest, or creeping things, letting the rows run east to west, that all may have the sundiac. They can thus be seen to the best advantage, and prove a loy to the best advantage, and prove a loy to the best advantage, and prove a loy to the
