her daughter, Miss Agnes R. Fanning, to Edward M. Fleming, which will take place at her home, 2 West Walton place, Chicago, Saturday evening, November 29.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Kimberly of Chicago visited friends and relatives here Sunday, and drove out to the old Kimberly place at Honey Lake. The Browns Land company, by whom Mr. Kimberly is employed, is exploiting land in central Montana and Mr. Kimberly left for that country Tuesday for his last trip of the season.

SHORT LOCAL ITEMS.
The winter train schedule on the Chicago & Northwestern went into effect Sunday.

A basket social and entertainment will be given at the Humphrey school, district number nine, Tuesday evening, November 25. Miss Fannie R. Ries is the teacher.

H. B. Banks & Company, who have conducted a men's furnishing store and tailor shop in the Abbott building on Cook street for over three years, have disposed of their equipment and closed their shop. They closed out their stock of merchandise some time ago.

St. Paul's parochial school was opened last week with an attendance of 11 children in the day class which takes up German and catechism study. An afternoon class in English has been organized which meets every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 8:45 until 6:00 o'clock. There are five pupils in this class.

E. F. Wiseman, who has had charge of the mason work on the Hammond farm west of town, has completed his work for this season. He put down over 30,000 feet of cement floor, laid about 10,000 building tile and built 20,000 cubic feet of concrete wall. Mr. Wiseman is at the present time building a large concrete bridge over Flint creek for G. E. Van Hagen.

A farmers meeting will be held at the home of Fred Kirschner of Cuba township tomorrow afternoon which every farmer in this vicinity is invited. Donald Blair, Lake county farm editor, will be present to get acquainted with the farmers in this vicinity and will give a talk on farm conditions and "soil doctoring", as well as answering any questions those present may desire to put. The meeting will begin at 1:00 o'clock.

Henry Gottschalk had the misfortune of breaking both bones in his right leg just above the ankle yesterday morning while removing a scaffold from one of the new buildings being erected on the farm of B. R. Hammond, one mile west of this village. He only fell about six feet. Mr. Gottschalk seems to be rather unfortunate as he had a similar accident about two years ago, breaking his left leg. He was taken to his new home on Williams street where he is getting along as well as could be expected.
