REV. ISAIAH VILLARS TO SPEAK

Rev. Joshua Smith of Chicago Who had Been Engaged to Speak Was Forced to Cancel Engagement.

In last week's paper we published the program for Memorial day which will be used with one exception and that is the speaker. Rev. D., member of the Rock Island conference to take his place. Rev. Villars will

The procession will form on the public square at 6:30 o'clock and march to Evergreen cemetery where the graves will be decorated and suitable ceremonies will be observed. Returningly they will "break ranks" for dinner.

The Woman's Relief corps will serve dinner to all old soldiers and visiting comrades.

In the evening a fine entertainment will be presented at the Methodist church under the auspices of the Ladies Aid society.

Rev. Lockhart Surinick

About fifty members of the Baptist church and congregation helped the pastor celebrate his birthday anniversary Monday evening at the parsonage. The fact that Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart were completely surprised by the friendly invasion of their home added interest to the occasion. Music and the reading of a letter from Mrs. Howarth, written at Hong Kong, served to pleasantly pass the evening.

Before departing all present a journey to the church parlors, where luncheon was served, at the conclusion of which Mrs. Seaverns, in behalf of the Dorcas society, presented the pastor with a birthday remembrance of ten dollars, hidden in a bouquet of white flowers. Rev. Lockhart responded very feelingly. The event thus spent brought pastor and people closer together socially than had been possible before, and was very much

Memorial Services at Barringer Center

Last Sunday the Woman's Reserve Corps and the Grand Army of the Republic went to Barrington Center to conduct memorial services for dead comrades who are buried in the cemetery there. Rev. G. H. Lockhart, pastor of the Baptist church here, gave a very interesting talk and the music furnished by Warren and Edwin Phillips, Orville Melners and Rueben Aurness was very much appreciated by the Barrington Center people and the soldiers. The singing of the school children there deserves special mention.

Hear, Hear,

Mr. Trimble—"You ought to have seen our cat catch sight. He went out in the pantry in the dark and caught a mouse. ### Only Way to Keep a Secret.

In life, usually, the only absolute, incontestable assurance of a secret is to tell it to no one. If one does not want a fact known, if it is wise not to tell any part of it.—William George Jordan.

April Fool Day.

There are all sorts of theories as to the origin of the merry anniversary, but the most plausible is the one which gives the custom its use in France, about 1644. France was the first European country to adopt the reformed calendar, and as a result the New Year day was carried back to January 1, and mock calls were made on April 1, as a joke on such as had forgotten the change in the calendar.

Carlyle and Ceremony.

Thomas Carlyle and his wife were so wedding-frightened that it is said to think of it. Replying to a letter of his describing his fantastic terrors, she wrote: "For heaven's sake get into a more benignant humor, or the incident will not only wear a very original aspect, but likewise a very heart-breaking one. I see not how I am to go through with it."

Better Let Her Cry.

A woman is almost as peculiar as a man. She will break into tears, and the more she is urged to cheer up the more she will cry. But if some one tells her to go ahead and shed as many tears as she pleases, she will at once quit crying and speak her mind.—Albion Clark.

On the Domestic Voltage.

"Wire you instantly," the electrician's wife inquired when he made his assurance as a J. A. Whereupon he explained that he had become thingy and had to make a short circuit.—Santa Fe New Mexican.
