HOFFMAN MAKES BIENNIAL REPORT

County Coroner Issues Comprehensive Volume of Statistics Regarding Accidents in Cook County.

Coroner Peter M. Hoffman has just issued his biennial report, which is without doubt the most exhaustive and painstaking volume ever issued from the office of the coroner of Cook county.

The book contains 176 pages and is full of valuable data. The many tables showing the principal causes in which accidents occur and their order of frequency, together with percentage tables arranged according to occupation, nationality, age, sex, color, civil conditions, etc., give a most comprehensive idea of the special classes who are the most and least accident-prone, and these tables are carried out with a detail that supplies a means of guidance to every citizen as to the way of avoiding danger.

The book contains numerous tables, which illustrate the many ways in which accidents occur in factories, on railroads, by means of motor cars, automobiles, etc. The illustrations, if carefully studied, are an education in themselves regarding "what not to do."

Elia Flagg Young, superintendent of schools, contributes an article relating to safety for school children, which should be read and re-read in every home where there are children who are exposed, as all children are, to the dangers of the street.

The introduction is written by George H. White, president of the public safety committee of Chicago and Cook county, and is perhaps the most comprehensive appraisal for public safety that has ever been compiled.

The "keep, think, look and listen" idea permeates the book and is brought home to the reader by facts and figures. Containing a much which will dole out the "look and listen" idea to all.

Celebrates 25th Birthday.

Mrs. H. H. Hubbard of Lincoln Street, who was born in Barrettton, Illinois, celebrated her 25th birthday yesterday. Forty-two guests came on a birthday train and passed the day at the Hubbard home, where the tables were decorated with flowers and bunting and flowers. Mrs. Hubbard is a civil war veteran and a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, Chicago, which has headquarters in the Masonic Temple. Three old soldiers who passed their 75th birthdays Tuesday. The others in the group were ladies who are members of State circles, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, Chicago, to which Mrs. Hubbard belongs. Among them were Mrs. Augustus Batten, department president; Mrs. Laura Stearns, secretary; and Mrs. Charles Hutton, past national president. ## Special Days at Lake County Fair.

For the first time in its history the Lake County Fair association will have a special "Farmers' Day" during the fair at Libertyville, which, on September 2nd of this year, the Milk Producers' association will hold a special program of much interest to all farmers.

A number of committees in which the Milk Producers' association is represented, the members of the organization hold annual picnics or other gatherings, thus stimulating local interest, strengthening the association and having a royal good time. Such a picnic was proposed for Lake county this year, but was decided against and a "fair-day" picked.

By adopting such a course the members have made it possible not only to get together for a good time, but also to gain much information and insight into various branches of agriculture from the numerous high class exhibitors that are secured for this year.

The day chosen for the Milk Producers' association is the big day of the fair. On this day the different exhibits will be awarded the prizes, the racing will be at its best, the racing at its best.

The committee in charge urges each and every farmer, whether a member of the association or not, to attend the fair on September 2nd and to see the fair will be a high success. Plans are now under way whereby the program will begin at 10:30 a. m. and will be continued in time for all to visit the entire local attractions on the grounds.

Special efforts are being made to secure extra strong speakers for the occasion; men who not only understand their subjects, but who are heart and soul in the great work that is being done by the Milk Producers' association.

The official button now being issued by the organization will be given out all members as soon as they apply at the booth, that will be used for that and other association purposes. County Chairman C. S. Small will preside during the program. Among those who are expected to appear are President W. J. Fellows of St. Charles, Secretary W. J. Kittle of Crystal Lake, County Secretary H. H. H. of Deer Grove, and others of Libertyville, and of Geneva.

Farmers are urged not to forget the date, Thursday, September 3rd, and to be present to help make this Lake county's banner event.

Bill Clinic Association Quits.

The Algonquin Hill Clinic association, which was organized to take care of the annual automobile bill climbing contest at Algonquin, has surrendered their charter and gone out of existence for want of something to do.

A meeting of the stockholders, called in the city hall last week, more than two-thirds of the stock was represented. The action taken was as follows: A dividend was declared of $5.00 for each share of stock, which took care of the stock on hand. The association had next sum on hand two years ago, preliminary to staging the annual clinic, but after spending a large sum of money on the hills the motorists failed to hold the contest and the money was wasted.

Arthur Bohmer married.

Wednesday afternoon, August 12, at 6 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents, in Algonquin, occurred the marriage of Miss Caroline Schley of this place to Arthur Bohmer of Wauconda.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schley of Algonquin, and is a very fine young lady.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bohmer of Wheeling, and is a member of the firm of Brown & Bohmer, who are conducting a successful automobile business in this village.

The young couple will make their home in this place—Wauconda, Leander.

About 20 from Leander attended the picnic at Algonquin last Saturday, which was given by the Melrose local of the National Protective Horsemen's association. The day was spent in fishing, boating and bathing in the Fox river and a fine time was had by all who attended.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church of Leander is planning a picnic for a family in the village who is in need of help. Anyone who is not interested in this work will please send contributions to the home of Mr. John Schwann from 3 to 4 o'clock Friday afternoon.

The ball game that was played last Sunday between the Hawthorne and Hawthorne teams resulted in a victory for the Hawthorne team by the score of 9 to 5. ## War Not Welcomed.

Inasmuch as the great reading public has had a full notice of the cost and labor necessary to the issuing of a big daily newspaper, it is not surprising that most people insist that such newspapers welcome no, stupor and horror and even a European war. The popular idea is, of course, that the increased circulation due to the important news makes newspapers rapidly grow richer. The contrary is the fact, it takes a lot of money to pay cable bills and the getting out of news is never profitable. Expenses increase out of all proportion to returns from sales of advertising. But the people want the latest news and the papers must give it. And only the man on the inside knows how great is the strain upon every department of a newspaper, editors, sub-editors, reporters, proof readers, compositors, printers, artists, pressmen, circulation men, and all the others of the staff, are driven by their respective duties in keeping up to schedules. Days "off" are anticipated and every employee is kept in the editor's line office. No one knows how, when or where events will turn up as to give local interest in the war situation. The ramifications of the news are such that an international conflict touches the vital concerns of every citizen.

Wharton, during practice in Mercer, made a lap in 8 minutes, 24.5 seconds, which is 1.25 minutes faster than the record established by Toddy Cusick in 1912.

State Attorney Dahl has declared that all public wheel games, whether for candy boxes, pool, darts, pillow-toss, are gambling devices just as much as if they paid the winner 100 real cash, and while he did not say these devices at the Waukegan day celebration at Glenzie Park, he did claim on the whole where money was to make a bet.

TEXT—Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments

COPYRIGHT BY BOBBY-MERRILL COMPANY

TEXT—Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat; now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be. John 19:23-24 lean, displayed his poverty and the simplicity of his life.

Though he was God, by whom "were all things made" and who "upholdeth all things by the word of his power," as man he wore the clothing of a poor artisan.

Do "ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye by his poverty might be made rich."

It was customary for the Roman soldiers, who officiated at an execution, to take the garments of the victim as a fee. But, though a Roman custom, unknown in David's time, it was written by him in the XXII Psalm, "They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture," and in the words following the text it is explained that what the soldiers did was "that this scripture might be fulfilled."

whenever the story of Jesus' cross is told, the story of "me" is written right in. For that reason, it is not that must not be rent. It is the figure of another robe; who can doubt? The full heart of the prophet Isaiah in Isaiah 61:10, "I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, for my soul shall be joyful in him; for he has put upon me garments of salvation, he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, he has said, 'Be a righteous man.'" This is that, "best robe" which the father puts upon the prodigal to displace the rags of the far country and to make him fit for the father's house.

For Whom Provided.

And for whom is the robe provided? And for whom, The sinner, whose hands are stained with blood, who with wicked intentions, called him to the awful cross and then his "vesture talls." When he was enemies were reconciled to God by the death of his son (Rom. 5:10).

As
The sandal tree perfume when rivers
The ark that laid it low—
So
The very spear that pierced His side
Drew forth the blood to save.”

How Provided.

The means by which the robe of righteousness is provided are pictured in Eden. Adam and Eve in their nakedness, ashamed, hid themselves from the presence of God. Awakened the shame which sin has wrought they would by their own efforts put up the ruin. With their own sin hands they would cover the nakedness which sin has made manifest and so make themselves fit for the presence of God. But not by their carnal invention can they stand before him. And in grace he comes provide garments for them. “Un-themselves alone." Awakened the shame which sin has wrought they would by their own efforts pull up the ruin. With their own sinners they viewed life's forces together, and made themselves aware of the nearness which sin has made manifest, and so make themselves fit for the presence of God. But not by (that) probable invention can they stand before Him. And in great confidence provide parents to them. "And Adam sinned and to his wife did he Lord God make coats of skins, and clothed them" (Gen. 3:21).

Here is the first emergence of the "clothing" of the heart: that the animals must needs die, their blood must be shed, in order to provide covering in which the man and woman could be accepted of God. And so the first sacrifice of the hands he made those "coats of skins."

Who Receives it.

In Proverbs 18:33 it is written "The lot is cast into the lap, but it is the Lord who chooses."

whole disposing thereof is of Lord." That is, the casting of lot meant that the choice was God's hands. What, then, is his
"porting" as to this robe of righteness? Let the apostle answer: "It now the righteousness of God with the law is manifested, being witness by the law and the prophets; even righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and all them that believe" (Rom. 3:21-

The "Arabian Nights" did not come familiar to Europeans until 1717 when Galland translated them into French. There is no shortage in the food supply in this country. In fact, the war has prevented the shipment of foodstuffs to other countries, thereby increasing the supply on hand. And yet in the face of this overwhelming fact the news is "control of the markets in the large centers of population have been forcing the prices up by leaps and bounds, and there appears to be no end to this insatiable greed. It is no more than a case of gouging a hold-up, robbery, the meanest and vilest kind of thievery, because it falls heavily on those who have no ability to afford it. It is time for the government to act, and act promptly.

Then speculation on the outcome of war? Don't do it. No one knows what is happening inside of the lines, and a number of very few men are speculating on those who have no ability to afford it. War correspondents abroad are being harried and guarded like sheep and are allowed to send only such news as the official censor approves, and that is often far from the truth. At the present time we are not getting any unbiased reports.

Parsons will view with interest the process of dismembering the International Harvester company, which a select court has ordered shall be done within the next ninety days. A little more competition in the manufacture of farm implements would not be amiss. The company has too many tendencies.

Let us hope congress will take prompt action for the establishment of an American merchant marine. It is doubtful if such a golden opportunity will ever be offered again. European exporters have been driven from the east, and South America is crying for goods. Opportunity and a ready market is knocking at our door. Will it be opened?

Our foodstuffs are accumulating, bumper crops are reported from every direction, we can't ship it to Europe, we have no ships in which to ship to South America, and yet we are forced to pay higher prices—war prices—for what we eat. Let the government act why—compel the shipper. It is not the fault of the small local retailer, nor is it the producer. It is the man between who is to blame.

This country is afflicted with too much middlemen. He is numerous, he is greedy, rapacious, and never enough. He is a price taker, a price booster, and his paw is in everybody's pocket. He is so greedy he would swallow the man from a grove store if he could sell it for breakfast food. Swat the price-boasting middleman.

Certain financial interests in New York are looking for an opportunity to ship gold to Europe, and incidentally further enrich themselves at the expense of our country. If these financial interests have such an overpowering affection for Europe our government would do well to ship them over there, bag and baggage.

NEUTRALITY IS ASKED

AMERICANS ARE WARNED BY PRESIDENT WILSON AGAINST "TAKING SIDES."

MAY PROVE PERIL TO U. S.

Final Effect of European War on This Country Rests "Within Ourselves," Says Nation's Executive—Urges Self-Control on Part of All Citizens.

Washington, Aug. 20.—President Wilson addressed a communication to the American people on Tuesday, asking them to observe strict neutrality in speech and conduct in the present European conflict and to act in a spirit of impartiality and tolerance and friendliness to all concerned. His statement says:

"My fellow countrymen: 'I suppose that every thoughtful man in America has asked himself during these last troubled weeks what influence the European war may exert upon the United States, and I take the liberty of addressing a few words to you in order to point out that it is entirely within our own choice what the effect upon us will be and to urge very earnestly upon you the sort of speech and conduct which will best safeguard the nation against disaster and disaster.

"The effect of the war upon the United States will depend upon what American citizens may do. Every man who really loves America will act and speak in the true spirit of neutrality which is the spirit of impartiality and fairness and friendliness to all concerned. The spirit of the nation in this critical matter will be determined largely by what individuals and society and those gathered in public meetings do and say, upon what newspapers and magazines contain, upon what ministers utter in their public and men publish their opinions on the street.

"The people of the United States are drawn from many nations and chiefly from the nations now at war. It is natural and inevitable that there should be utmost variety of sympathy and feeling among them with regard to the issues and circumstances of this conflict. Some will wish one nation, others another to succeed in this momentous struggle.

"It will be easy to excite passion and difficult to allay it. These responsibilities for exciting it will assume a heavy responsibility, responsibility for no less a thing than that the people of the United States, whose love of the country and whose loyalty to its government should unite them as Americans all bound in honor and affection to think first of her and her interests, may be divided in camps of hostile opinion, not against each other, involved in the war itself in impulse and opinion if not in action. Such divisions among us would be fatal to our peace of mind and might seriously stand in the way of the proper performance of our duty as the one great nation of peace, the one people, holding itself ready to play a part of impartial mediation and speak the words of peace and accommodation, not as a partisan, but as a friend.

"I venture therefore, my fellow countrymen, to ask a new kind of warfare to you against the deepest, most subtle, most essential breach of neutrality which may spring out of partisanship out of passionately taking sides. The United States must be neutral in fact as well as in name during these days that are to try our souls. We must be impartial in thought as well as in action; must put a curb on our sentiments as well as upon transactions that might be considered as a preference of one party to the struggle before another.

"My thought is of America. I am speaking, I feel sure, the earnest wish and purpose of every thoughtful American that this great country of ours, which is, of course, the first in our thoughts and in our hearts, should show herself in this time of peculiar trial a nation at beyond others to exhibit the fine pulse of undisturbed judgment, the dignity of self-control, the efficiency of dispassionate action, a nation that neither aids in judgment upon others nor is disturbed in her own councils and which keeps herself fit and free to do what is honest and disinterested and truly serviceable for the peace of the world.

"That we not resolve to put upon ourselves the restraints which will bring to our people the happiness and the great and lasting influence for peace we covet for them."

AMERICAN MUSIC HALL.

One of the most startling indications of the progress of modern burlesque in recent years is the announcement of the change of policy of the American Music Hall, Chicago, which places the attractions of the Progressive burlesque circuit in this house, which began with the superlatively "Mischief" there last Sunday afternoon.

This house, which since its erection many years ago has housed nothing but the highest class attractions and has been steadily kept to the highest form of entertainment by its owners, despite flatterings from numerous sources, was yielded to the Progressive people only after thorough investigation of the quality of the popular priced entertainment to be offered.

Beginning with last Sunday's matinee, the famous old theater will be the home of the most elaborate, the cleanest and brightest offerings of burlesque, the change marking one of the biggest upward steps in this form of entertainment. There will be changes of bills weekly of seasonal, but brightly musical and comedy entertainments.
