

BIG CAMPMEETING
NOW IN SESSION

Barrington Park Meeting Develops
Much Enthusiasm for the Cause of Christian Endeavor.

Many Ministers Have Delivered Inspiring
and Instructive Sermons—
Next Monday Closing Day.

The forty-first annual session of the Barrington Park campmeeting of the United Brethren church opened at the campgrounds in this village last Friday. Rev. B. B. Schmitt, of Highland Park, the presiding elder, was called away to serve at the funeral of Rev. J. H. Gaudin, who died at Shaw, Illinois. During his absence Rev. H. H. Thoren took charge of the management of the services.

The forenoon services were given over to the thrilling Bible school which is conducted in connection with the campmeeting. Dr. C. A. Mook, president of the Western Union college of Chicago, is in charge of the Bible school.

The opening day was devoted to the young people. The Chicago Division League union expressed. The school was held in the evening in the church music, pleased with their singing.

Saturday morning at 9 o'clock the ministers' meeting was held by Rev. H. H. Thoren, who spoke on "The Power of the Holy Spirit in Our Experience." The morning service was presided by Rev. C. A. Mook, of Chicago, his subject being "Jesus of Nazareth." The afternoon program for the young people included an address by A. G. Peck, president of the Chicago Christian Endeavor union, his subject being "What Does Christ Mean to You?" He made a direct appeal to the youth to live an upright Christian life which was very effective. Rev. J. Van Dera of Highland Park presided in the evening his theme being "The Call of the Gospel." His address was also followed by all present.

The services on Sunday morning were conducted in both English and German. Rev. C. A. Mook, president of the Chicago Christian Endeavor union, presided in the morning. The evening service was held in connection with the celebration of the Lord's Supper. After the Sunday school, which opened at 1:30 p.m., Rev. F. W. Landwehr, pastor of the North High Avenue Episcopal church of Chicago, delivered a sermon. The evening sermon was by Rev. H. W. Lamborn, pastor of Adams street Evangelical church.

On Tuesday the Bible school in the forenoon was highly attended. Rev. H. H. Thoren presided on the subject of St. John's gospel, and the interest in that study was evidenced by many expressions of praise for the help they receive in understanding this book.

Rev. L. C. Schmitt of Chicago delivered a strong sermon on the "Mystery of Consolation." A congregation service followed in which many took part. One woman testified that some of her unloving relatives were brought to accept the Christian religion by persistently praying for them.

A bass solo from Minstrelers was heard to enjoy the meetings. Wednesday was "Missionary day," when Mrs. Emma Davis, from Maple Park, and for many years editor of the "Ministry" Chicago, published by the church at Harbington, Pa., spoke on "The Meaning of Mission." She used a chart and aid in presenting her arguments. The chart was covered in a way that the uncovered line stories as she proceeded. Mrs. Davis concluded her lesson sermon by reading a portion of Bishop Faber's hymn illustrating the earnest appeal for Christian efforts in missionary activities.

The children's meetings each evening are attracting much attention. Children wear special buttons and are enthusiastic for their religious studies which are led by Mrs. J. P. Glens and Mrs. Beckhold of Chicago.

The speakers during these meetings have been very direct in their statements, emphasizing the necessity for reaching the people to their need of God.

The afternoon has been given to the Holy Spirit. Many faithful men from Chicago and surrounding territory own and occupy the grounds during the entire meeting.

PALATINE PEOPLE TO HOLD FAIR

September 11 and 12 Have Been Selected as Dates for Exhibition—May Be Permanent.

The people of Palatine village and township are making extensive arrangements for a fair to be held in Palatine September 11 and 12. Following is a list of the program that is being arranged.

A water fight in which some neighboring fire company will be asked to oppose the local boys. Regulation fire hose will be used.

A showing of the film in the Danfield hall. A parade such by of floats, regattas and the live stock exhibition.

Rev. J. H. Gaudin, who died at Shaw, Illinois, will be used for the stock exhibition. The committee has secured promises that some very high grade humped stock will be there.

The ladies' executive committee are probably doing more real hard work than any other committee. There are ladies soliciting for the sixteen departments, whose work will be shown in the brick building.

The people of Palatine will be asked to decorate their lawns with Chinese lanterns and lights and several shows and have been ordered for this purpose. The Public Service company has presented a proposition to furnish street lighting for the fair.

There will be a ball game between Palatine and Barrington. A display of fireworks will be shown Saturday evening, and there will be local concerts and vaudeville shows, as well as dancing in the evening.

There is a growing sentiment among the people of this part of the county that the Palatine fair will assume the character of a Cook County Fair and will be held for the purpose of conducting a fair each year. Several prominent men of Chicago have expressed their interest in the carrying of the chartering of such an association. The success of the first fair has given this year will demonstrate the feasibility of forming a large organization and visiting grounds.

Officials of the United States department of agriculture have been testing the various crops in a series of tests. The results have been very satisfactory. The department has shipped 400 tons, consisting of 1,000 eggs to various parts of the nation and eggs to destination only 25 cents, or three and one-half per cent of the total were broken. Two dozen eggs can be shipped for one cent.

Illinois rural authorities advise that the farmers and farmers' wives of this state are utilizing the parcel post extensively in selling farm produce direct to the consumers and excellent results have been obtained.

Last winter when eggs were being sold by retailers at from 10 to 15 cents to the consumer, the farmers were only receiving 20 and 25 cents per dozen for their product, giving the middleman from 30 to 40 cents on each dozen eggs he handled. The parcel post system of marketing entirely eliminates the middleman's profit and divides the profit of the middleman among producer and consumer.

Look Out for Impostors. William B. Dillon, chief examiner of cheques for the state of Illinois, and his assistant, P. H. Stanton, are making the rounds of towns in the state to see if the laws are being observed in regard to his office.

If you are driving for an employer and are being paid for it, if you are leaving your own car for hire, or if you are the owner of several cars, and have chauffeurs for your employ, be prepared to stand the test.

Under the statutes every driver under the above conditions must have a license from the state. The license is granted after an examination and payment for a license. The fee is $5 for the first year and $5 for each renewal.

In the state last year there were 94,000 licensed autos. So far this year over 115,000 licenses have been issued, which would rather seem to throw a cloud on the hard-up work which has been done.

In preparation for the visit from the examiner, it may save you some money to get a lot of tips.

There are four-night buildings on the campus and several tents house families and parties from distant cities. There are no game or entrance fees to the campmeeting, all the expenses being covered by voluntary offerings.

Altogether the Harrington Park campmeeting has done a world of good to those attending, both physically and spiritually. The session will close next Monday, August 31.

RECIPROCITY AT HOME

MANY persons believe that the word "reciprocity" has merely a political meaning. But it means one of the greatest principles. All civilization is founded on it. Were it not for this great principle there would be no government, no order, no peace, no progress, no science and no art.

Let us lay aside the political significance of the word and discuss this great principle as it applies to our own individual and communal interests. We have a prosperous community. We have a town which we are proud to call our own. We have various business establishments, good, well-stocked stores, stocked with merchandise; we have various facilities for marketing and for producing raised by the farmers who are a great and important part of our community.

When it comes to the farmers we would not have all of these facilities for doing business. It is possible that there would be no great necessity for a great principle as it applies to our own individual and communal interests.

Now here is where the reciprocity comes in and affects our local condition and our property. THE FARMER HELPS THE TOWN AND THE TOWN HELPS THE FARMER. Much does something for the other and both are benefited. The town is benefited and the agricultural district is benefited.

What if some great misfortune should come down and buy up everything the farmer has and leave him and his family and his neighbors with nothing left to the city and thereby deprive our local merchants of the opportunity of handling the same? Is it not to the farmers' interest to have the town help them?

Of course, this is rather a rhetorical question, because there is no possibility of anything of the kind happening. BUT THERE IS DANGER FROM ANOTHER SOURCE. If the farmers should all send their money to the mail order houses to buy their goods from our local stores?

THIS POINT OF SENDING MONEY AWAY TO THE BIG CITIES IS NOT A NEW ONE. IT HAS BEEN POINTED OUT BY THE LOCAL MERCHANTS KEYS UP AND CONTINUES TO BE A POINT OF CONCERN. THE LOCAL MERCHANTS WILL BE THE FIRST TO SUFFER.

Reciprocity is what we need, right here at home. The storekeepers must do their duty with the farmers and the farmers must deal fairly with the storekeepers, otherwise our system of business will be thrown out of the public support.

Don't help the big mail order houses to profit at the expense of our local merchants. With the men who are helping to build up the community, help to increase the value of your property by making a bigger and a better town where every facility for doing business is applied for the benefit of the farmer and the rest of us.

We must do for others if we expect others to do for us. We cannot expect reciprocity if we do not give it. Every dollar sent away to the big mail order houses restricts our opportunities for doing business here at home. TRADE MEANS NO MUCH TAKEN FROM OUR TAXES WHICH GO TO SUPPORT THE COMMUNITY.

We can all do as well at home in the buying of goods as we can by sending our money to the mail order houses. We can do better, when we can get our money and our goods.

And reciprocity is the thing that builds up communities. THINK IT OVER THIS NEXT TIME WHEN SOMETHING IS TO BE BOUGHT.

ED RIEKE HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Was Standing Near Fence at Eight When Spencer Whisker Was Killed—Machine Hit Close to Him.

Ed Rieke of this village had a narrow escape from death last Saturday when he was standing at the Elgin road race, at the time Spencer Whisker, who was pilot of a Mercer car, was struck by a machine gun, wounding him at an estimated speed of 100 miles an hour and was on the second mile of his thirteen lap, when, in attempting to pass Hamilton in another Mercer, the hull of Whisker's car struck the machine gun which was mounted on the roof of Hamilton's car. The impact was high, but spectators claim that Whisker's car traveled twenty-five feet without touching the ground. Mr. Rieke says that when the machine gun killed they were about three rods from him and Whisker's car went head on in a direct line for him, but that it was an uncontrollable machine. Its course was changed and it hit the fence about two feet from where he stood. When the fence was torn away it swept clear of him and Whisker's machine gun was hit by it. From the time that the car hit the fence it did not have time to turn in any direction. After clearing the fence from his eyes and looking straight over to see if he was hurt, he was one of the first to reach Whisker's side.

Teachers Institute. The Lake County Teachers' Institute which is being held at Waukegan this week promises to be one of the most successful in point of interest, attendance and enthusiasm of any ever held.

LAKE COUNTY FAIR OCCURS NEXT WEEK

Will Be Largest and Best Exhibition
Lake County Has Ever Had—
Record to Be Broken.

Many Politicians Will Be Present
Friday to Address the Crowd—
Special Days.

The fair-Lake county's largest and best agricultural and industrial exhibition—will take precedence in interest over all other events except the Democratic war on Tuesday, September 1, the opening day of the Libertyville grounds, and Lake county is promised to witness four days it has had in a year.

Wednesday will be the occasion of the grand annual jubilee for the children of Lake county—children's day at the second oldest county fair in the state. The kiddies will be admitted free of charge. This day will be accompanied by the bands of exhibitors getting their displays of cattle, horses and farm produce into positions of the best advantage, and the placing of the best examples of the household arts.

When Wednesday leaves the fair will be in full blast, every exhibit in place and every building filled to the doors with objects of interest to city and country alike. Nor will the moon alone be attracted. The exhibitors will be replete with things that country women alone, particularly in the domestic arts departments. Wednesday will be South Shore day.

On Thursday thousands of fairgoers will invade the fair grounds, in addition to the Lake county people in attendance, and it is expected that an attendance record will be unbroken. This also will be the day of the horse show. This day probably will mark the grand climax of the fair.

"Politician" day will be Friday, the last day. Every politician of note in the state of Illinois will be in the crowd. Each will be expected to speak his mind, to present his belief direct to the people. Besides the candidates for county offices the following have been invited:

Lawrence T. Sherman, republican candidate for the senatorial position; Roger C. Sullivan, republican candidate for the senatorial position; Charles Thompson, the incumbent, a democrat; and a number of other politicians.

Edward D. Shurtliff, candidate for state representative to succeed himself, and one of the big game politicians. William H. Vickers of Harvard, candidate for state representative to succeed himself, and one of the big game politicians.

The following are representatives at various life activities: Race ball—two games daily beginning Wednesday.

Hemp race—two races daily beginning Wednesday. Races will be held at the fair grounds, and the winning prize will be $100.

Midway bigger and better than ever, with all the old attractions and many new ones.

Free attractions! Daily balloon ascensions and shuttle parachute drops. Milk Producers' association will hold business in the grounds.

Large displays of cloth, poultry, ex-spectation of the mechanical arts, farm produce, cattle work, fancy work, painting and kitchen science, $5,000 in premiums and many blue ribbons to be competed for. Daily inquiries show that every branch of exhibits will be represented more extensively than ever.

There will be no central dining hall, but the excellent stands about the grounds operated by the joint women cooks of Lake county, members of church societies, will be easily accessible. Here, too, will be easily accessible. Here, too, will be easily accessible.

POPE PIUS X DIES; CRUSHED BY WAR; ASLEEP AT END

Aged Pontiff Had Rallied After Release and Crisis Was Thought Passed.

DEATH SHOCKS WORLD

Relatives and Officers of Church at Benedictine-Lost Sacrament
Interred When End Achieved
Near Pontiff's Reign
Eleven Years

Rome, Aug. 10.—Pope Pius X died
at 11:15 o'clock this morning.

Already suffering from bronchitis
and a weak heart, the worry occasioned by the war had struck down the aged pontiff. He had been ill for four days. His holiness had lain unconscious most of the afternoon, but rallied in the evening, became conscious for a time, and gave the physicians hope that he might recover. But his strength was gone, he soon relapsed into coma and gradually grew weaker until the end. He died while sleeping peacefully.

Death Followed Release.
In the afternoon he suffered a re-lapse, and he received the last sacrament. His sisters followed the cardinal before the infirmarium, and St. Joseph and remained prostrate, praying for his recovery.

The studies of the church held the people of the expositions of the holy sacrament and called them
to prayer.

Cardinal Merry del Val, who was called to lift after a few minutes and termed a summons for the cardinal who had left the city for their vacations.

Before the final turn for the worse
the pope addressed the whole world on the subject of the war. When he was told that the year of canonization of the Adriatic could be heard in Venice
he exclaimed:

"The bones of the dogs must thrill
in their sepulchres at the familiar name of Jesus, recalling the words of the Lord."

Has Reigned Nine Years.
The pontiff, for whom the world
was mourning, passed away in his sixteenth year, in the ninth year of his reign. Although his rule was brief, his lively personality made him
one of the most illustrious occupants of the throne of St. Peter, and even the followers of the socialist Mayer Nathanael of Rome, by their presence
before the Vatican, showed their desire to pay homage to the Catholic pontiff.

Pius X. Was Born June 2, 1855.
Pope Pius X was a native of the little village of Rivis, in the Venetian province of Treviso, which in 1383, gave to the church a pontiff in Nobilio Baccarini, who assumed the triple crown under the name of Benedict XI.

Born June 2, 1855. In a poor and humble family of the village of Rivis, Pius X. was christened Giuseppe (Gisepp) and known throughout life by the district cognomen of Giuseppe
"Beppo."

The early life of Pius X. was filled with activity. The district of Treviso is one of poverty, only those who have seen it realizing the struggle for existence that ever prevails.

From an early age Giuseppe, bent to study outdoor life, displayed a passion for the priesthood. The educational expenses of his childhood were soon exhausted, and the left studies learned demanded a wider field for their development. He was sent to a college at Castel, France, and from there was transferred to the Central Seminary at Padua, the well-renowned seat of Italian learning.

On September 18, 1881, the young student received his priest's orders in the cathedral of Castel-Franco.
That year was a memorable one for Italy. The question of Italian liberty had been forced to the front by the attempt of Orsini to assassinate Napoleon III.

The diploma of nations assembled,
but the youngest priest was not concerned in the movement. He turned his back on the world and took up his duty as a curate in the village of Rivis.
He soon was loved by his parishioners, to whom he endeared himself by his unselfishness, his self-sacrifice, and his tireless labor.

Became Parish Priest in 1887.
He was promoted as parish priest of canton of Vercelli (Vercelli) to Italy.

Peter Rabbit Found A Ring
Friend Weighed Band Last Twenty-Five Years Ago Discovered by Bellevue Home.

"Peter Rabbit," a pet Belgian hare,
belonging to Eugene Wardlaw, will no longer be changed from the hands of neighbors on Helix street, Bellevue, Ky., according to the Cincinnati Times.
It is said, "Peter Rabbit" has attained a degree of heroism that has earned for him many carcases at the

so that the future pope lived, for the first thirty-two years of his life, under Austrian regime in his native province.

The able discharge of his office recommended the pastor of Rivis to the notice of Monsignor Zinelli, at that time the bishop of the diocese, who nominated him to a canonry in the cathedral of Treviso. This promotion was supplemented by bestowal of the deaconry on Father Sarto and his appointment as Episcopal chancellor.

To this also was added the endowment and important charge of spiritual director of the Seminary of Treviso,
in which college he was likewise
given a professor's chair and an excellent salary.

Nor did his activities end here, for he was chosen as a judge in the Cathedral Ecclesiastical court, and finally was appointed vicar-general of the diocese.

After such an appreciable it was not surprising that when the important see of Mantua became vacant,
in 1891, Leo XIII. chose Giuseppe Sarto
to fill the place. It was no easy task to which he had been called, for his predecessor had allowed discipline to slack. His persuasive powers and administrative gifts were tested to the utmost, but he was fully equal to the onerous task.

Two years later Pope Leo recognized Sarto's merits by raising him to the Sacred College, with the title of San Bernardo alle Terme, at a canonry held June 15, 1893.

At the same time he was chosen cathedral, Rome, with all the magnificence and brilliancy of ceremonies that distinguishes the coronation of each successor to the apostolic throne.

From the post of spiritual head of goodwillers and penance, a work that he loved, to the throne in the Vatican
Pope Pius X.
And he never had been ambitious to be the head of the Catholic church and the successor of St. Peter. He loved the simple life among his friends.

There was a great difference of opinion as to the qualifications of Pope Pius X. for his office. His election, a communique, was particularly pleasing to Austria, Germany and France, and in those countries, with the exception of France in recent years, he was highly commended for wisdom and strength.

That diplomacy found to place in that office was evidenced by many of his acts. His action toward the Jewish government was perfect tact forerunner. Therefore, France had all the trouble and the pope was out of it.
Brought Church and State Together.
As to Italy, he increased the cordial understanding between church and state, which was not thought of by Italian churchmen. However, his contention resulted in an uplifting of the church in Italy.

Three years later he had been on the throne three years he evidenced that young men who dreamed of the career of a courtier in Rome were not to be disappointed. He was the pope of the bishops for the different sees, and the church in Italy.

POPE MOURNED BY MILLIONS

out of all the Vatican prelates to fill the patriarchate of Venice.

Was Support of the Holy See.
In his old age, residence in the "sacred" city the pope of the penitents
was beloved and a familiar figure.
His firm, dignified, yet gentle, calm,
quietly made him a force to be reckoned with.

Elected as Compromise Candidate.
Pius X. was, as befitted a democratic pope, different in many respects from his illustrious predecessor. Like the Führer, whose place he held, he found his recreation riding in the Vatican ponds rather than in writing Latin verses. To his salubriousness of character and moral worth, independently of all lesser and worldly considerations, many doubts will pay homage.

When his back to those a choice
successor to Pope Leo XIII., the name of Giuseppe Sarto was hardly considered at first. An balloting continued, however, the roll of votes in his favor increased. He was then regarded as a compromise candidate, and finally, on the sixteenth ballot he was elected August 4, 1903, and five days later he was crowned in St. Peter's church.

By young diplomats to promotion,
it was soon apparent, was through the streaming but wholesome office of governing bishop.

One great reform Pope Pius X. accomplished, and it promises to be ever remembered to history. He proved that diplomacy in church matters is a kind of little importance compared with the direct teaching and preaching of the gospel to the poor.

His new famous Apostolic constitution was considered as embodying the most sweeping reform ever attempted by a Roman pontiff since the celebrated edicts of Trent. In that it denounced the satanic congregation of the council, a committee of cardinals charged with the interpretation of the council's decrees and placed all affairs in the hands of separate tribunals and courts of appeal.

By virtue of one of his documents,
known as the "Apostolic Constitution,"
the congregation composing the Roman Curia of the Catholic church have been reformed and the American Memory has been accorded a recognition in the government of the church.

discovered Dignity was happy. It was found and bright and holy, and the pope picked it up and examined it.
He found that it was a ring, and took it to his room.

"Why, it is my wedding ring,"
he exclaimed. "What do you find it?"
He told her that "Peter" had dug it out of the ground.

"Why, it has been lost about 25 years ago by Mrs. Napa's son, the Blacky, who stole it," he was identified by his inscription.

basked in the walk in the back yard.

"Peter" was about to be scolded, but

ALLIES RETREAT BEFORE ADVANCE OF GERMAN HOST

Strong Fortress of Namur Falls Into Hands of the Invaders.

FIRST GREAT VICTORY

Paris Admits Troops Were Compelled to Fall Back Within Their Own Borders—Russians Vigorously Pushing Forward—Japs Begin Advance on Manchuria

A London cable to the New York Herald, received Tuesday, says that the British official press bureau confirms that Namur has fallen.

Paris Reports German Victory.
The Germans have beaten back the attack of the French and British,
launched on the 19-mile battle line between Meuse and Luxembourg, and the allies have abandoned their offensive movement, at least for the present.

This is admitted in a statement issued by the French war office, which says:

"The French and English, the plan of attack having failed, owing to unknown difficulties, have retired on the covered positions."

British Advance Frustrated.
"West of the Meuse the English army on our left was attacked by the Germans, but behaved admirably holding its ground with traditional steadfastness."

"The French assumed the offensive with two army corps, and an African brigade in the front line, carried away by its eagerness, was received by a surprise fire. The soldiers did not stand."

COMMANDS FRANCE'S ARMIES

Russian Invasion Goes On.
It is officially announced that the Russian forces are advancing on a broad front in Prussia and Galicia.
The Germans, it is reported, are retreating toward Konigsberg. In eastern Galicia Russians have apparently advanced to a distance about twenty miles beyond the frontier.

Kitchener Is Reassured.
Lord Kitchener made his first speech as minister of war in the house of Lords Wednesday.

He told his hearers that the war
subtly would attack the forces of the empire and call for sacrifice.
He laid emphasis on the fact that his mission in the cabinet involved adherence to neither party.

Austrian War on the March.
A dispatch from Vienna to the Reuter Telegram company at London by way of Amsterdam gives the official announcement that the Austrian government has issued its passport to the Japanese ambassador. The Austrian ambassador at Tokyo, it is also announced, has been recalled.

Russians Advance Fifty Miles.
The following official announcement
was made in Paris:

"The Russian cavalry territory fifty miles into the German frontier.
The Russian line on the German frontier extends from Tilsit to Tor-tung and Arys. The German population is evacuating Wilenberg, 25 miles southeast of Konigsberg, because of the arrival of Russian forces from Poland, which already have penetrated a considerable distance toward Silesia."

Japanese Begin Warfare.
The bombardment of Tientsin, the fortified port of Peking, the German possession in China which Japan has demanded Germany give up, has begun.

The battleship Setts fired the first shot.

In addition to the Japanese war vessels, British, French, and Russian ships are taking part in the blockade of the port.

The bombardment of the port is confirmed in an extra edition of the Tokyo Yamanote. The message published was passed by the center of the navy department.

No details of damage done to the German fort are obtainable.

A London Times dispatch from St.
Petersburg says that military obser-

ers there have made a careful comparison of the distribution of the German forces on both frontiers from which they gain the belief that it is not possible for the Germans to overcome the allied forces on the western frontier at vital points. The Russians believe there are no Austrian corps in the west.

The Tokyo Yamanote in an extra edition says that the bombardment of Tientsin by the Japanese fleet has commenced. This message was passed by the center of the navy department.

Communication between Japan and China has been agreed. Threats for the very message news that has reached Tokyo from New York, the entire country is kept in the dark regarding the progress of the war in Europe.

Austria was avoided war with Japan
by agreeing to dismantle the cruiser Kaiserin Elisabeth, now at Tientsin.
Japan believes Washington.

Japan has officially notified the United States that she will continue her activities in the war situation in the far East," said Secretary of State Bryan.

Mr. Bryan's statement served to clear a wrong impression caused by a previous remark made by the president to the effect that such a pledge had not been made as far as the know: It was explained later that the difficulties impossible to foresee. It would have shortened the war, but our defenses remain intact in the presence of an already weakened enemy.

"Every Frenchman will deplore the temporary abandonment of portions of Alsace and Lorraine which will be occupied, and certain parts of the national territory will suffer from evils of which they will be the theater."

Battle Being Fought.
A new battle between the Germans and the French and their English allies is raging in the valley of the Meuse, according to advices received at London Wednesday.

"On this engagement hangs the fate of France," says a statement issued by the war office in Paris.

To meet the German army the French commander ordered the abandonment of much occupied territory and massed his troops at the critical point. Almost overnight a bitter conflict on so much depends is being fought on French soil, the line
extending from Madsburg on the north to Namur on the south, a distance of 100 miles.

Fighting in Lorraine.
Another battle, which is believed to be of secondary importance, is going on in Lorraine, in which two armies of French soldiers are taking part.

A third engagement is going on at Malines, in Belgium, 15 miles southeast of Antwerp, where 30,000 Germans attacked the town. There already is fighting in the outskirts of Ghent.

Canada to Send More Troops.
A second Canadian force for foreign service is being authorized, although the cost of mobilizing the first expeditionary army division of 15,000 men has not been computed.

WHAT'S DOING IN OLD HOME

Summary of the Most Important Happenings in the Land of the Kaiser—Tidbits from the German Readers.

Dresden, like many other German cities, has a municipal slaughterhouse. It is located near the outskirts of the city of Dresden and there are probably 20 or 25 separate buildings. Everyone of them are well lighted and remarkably well ventilated for German buildings. There is one large hall used for refrigerating and for various business transactions connected with the buying and selling of the meat. This is located at the entrance. At the opposite end are the railroad tracks and the stockyards. The slaughterhouse is done in a remarkably humane fashion and the process is very simple. There is very seldom any haste in the process and everybody works industriously in the city of Dresden did not need any meat at all. A sort of market is put over the head of the animal, completely shutting off any view of the process. In this way a hind is killed about four inches in length. This is the standard plan, directly over the forehead and back of the animal. A muscular workman drives the knife and kills the animal. The killing is completed. Most of the meat is slaughtered by municipally licensed slaughterhouses. These men are paid regular fixed sums which are designated by the municipal government and anyone who has meat to be slaughtered can bring it to the municipal slaughterhouse. As a matter of fact, all the slaughtering for the city of Dresden is done in this one slaughterhouse; individuals are not permitted to slaughter on their own premises.

The Ideal Co-operative building association of Berlin is providing homes for its members in a colony near Berlin. Most of the houses consist of two rooms and a kitchen downstairs and two rooms upstairs. Perhaps the chief feature of the little colony is the beautiful gardens. In front of each house is a garden. Each owner seems to take pride in outdoing his neighbor in the variety of the products of his small plot and in the care with which his garden is kept. The remarkable thing about this whole apartment, however, is the fact that such an experiment is being successfully carried out on land which costs almost exactly $1,000 per lot. Even the most extravagant suburban in the vicinity of Berlin city ask scarcely more than this price for their choice building plots. Yet in Berlin a co-operative society is now constantly building workers' cottages. The general plan is simple. Only members of the co-operative association are permitted to rent houses. They purchase stock and are paid dividends. The association borrows a large part of its funds, at 3 to 5 per cent at very low rates. They borrow large sums from the ordinary commercial banks, labor unions, the Imperial Insurance funds, and private individuals at rates ranging from 3 to 4 1/2 per cent. In this way through collective action and the ability to borrow funds at low rates, there has come into existence a beautiful development which is a real example to cities where land prices are high.

German aviation circles are expressing pride in the part played by their countrymen in record-making in the last few months. All the records were made in German aeroplanes equipped with German motors. The duration record has been broken four times this year by Germans. The first was Bruno Langer, who set the mark at 14 hours and 7 minutes on February 2. This mark was raised to 15 hours and 25 minutes on April 25 by the Frenchman Poulet, but on June 24, Hermann Landmann raised it once more, and then came Lohm with the first 24 hour flight ever made. Lohm still had gasoline enough for two hours flying and was completely fresh when he landed.

The Kaiser Wilhelm Institute for the Study of Coal and Coal Deposits has been dedicated at Muehlen on the Ruhr. Professor Barnack of Berlin, the famous church historian, made the dedicatory address. The city furnished the site free of charge. Though money has been raised for the upkeep of the institution. It will be of great importance to Germany as one of the leading coal-producing nations of the world.

The production of beer in Germany continues on the whole to increase despite a pretty strong consumption movement throughout the empire. The word "temperance" in Germany has, however, more of its moral meaning of moderation. While the reform movement appears to some small degree in the form of total abstinence, it more usually means the discouragement of the use of whisky (schnaps) and other strong drinks, and a more moderate use of beer instead of the two or three gallons a day which many Germans think they must consume.

CALLING TO US

In these days of war and cannon of wars, when Europe is drenched with rivers of blood, it is meet that we turn our thoughts at times to a house where noble things are taught.

While the peoples of other nations are swerving to the call of the god of war, let us consider the teachings of the Prince of Peace.

When at last the week is ended and the day of rest is at hand, let us spend an hour in the hushed domestic windows, where sweet voices sing the praises of the meek and lowly Nazarene, who gave of his life's blood that we and others might be clothed by the fruits of his sacrifice.

While the day of rest is being profaned by other nations of the earth—while shot and shell are breaching the unshod and the dead and living on the crimson field of battle—let us of America give heed to the wisdom of the blood-bred men of God, whose teachings proclaim peace on earth and good will to men.

While the Christians of one is bowed with grief that his children in other climes should be as the beasts of the jungle—reading, teaching, despoiling—let us look into our own hearts, that we may avoid the pitfalls that are engulfing our brethren across the sea.

Let us journey to the home of God on Sunday and there join with the multitude in his supplication to the King of Kings for the restoration of peace and a return to the ways of righteousness and sanity.

And let us emulate the wise example of the talented prelates of our own clergy, who, service with his peaceful grief, yet implores his people to refrain from comment or action which might tend to create racial strife or jeopardize our own position as people at peace with the world.

The house of God calls us in this hour of gloom.

Let us go.

FOOLISH TRADING

As producers and builders the American people excel all previous civilization, and we are a present-day marvel in business efficiency, but in dealing with foreign countries we are a sorry lot of traders. Ever since William Penn traded the Indians a handful of trinkets for what is now the state of Pennsylvania, the American people have been selling their birthrights to foreigners for a mess of pottage, so to speak.

We export over $500,000,000 of cattle and their products per annum, which feeds the nations of Europe, and our American brethren, spend a similar sum in buying and maintaining foreign ships and allied purchases. These foreign noblemen say, as a rule, absolutely worthless—in fact become a perpetual liability—for they never come to operate and keep them in repair than it does to run our cotton mills. Foreigners really put the black sheep of their families on the block, and our rich American girls buy them, and we virtually exchange railroad wheat fields and millions of dollars' worth of products of farm, mine and factory for the products of Europe, which we cannot for any sum. It does not require foreign treaties, a fleet of war vessels or tariff revision to stop this enormous loss. It needs only common sense in the homes of the rich.

We export $100,000,000 of lumber and timber, and American tourists spend a similar amount in motoring over Europe and sight-seeing in foreign lands, although the most enchanting scenes of the world are on the American continent.

The United States will use every honorable effort to keep out of this war, but if we should eventually be forced into the conflict the other fellow is liable to get his share of the spoils. There are a hundred million people in this country, and about twenty million of that number are sturdy and stubborn fighters when aroused.

War in all its horridity and a few short months, has generalized the peaceful boundaries of the United States. Rich American married abroad are struggling home by way of the seacoast and their tongues and imaginations are working overtime for the edification of a heartless and unbelieving public.

This is an opportune time for the United States to set a worthy example to the rest of the world by attending strictly to its own knitting.

"How can we curb the food treacherers?" wails a distressed housewife. Stay—stay—stay!

It is galling to Carnegies to be shoved off the front page without even a "by your leave."

To Let—One perfectly good building known as the Palace of Peace.

That "good deed" in China signifies a broken hope.

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Auditors of the Town of Cuba will meet, at the office of the town clerk of the Town of Cuba Tuesday, September 1, 1914, at 2:00 p. m., for the purpose of auditing the accounts. Any person having a claim against said town is requested to file same on or before above date.

Summer Constipation Dangerous.
Constipation in summer-time is more dangerous than in the fall, winter or spring. The food you eat is often contaminated and is more likely to ferment in your stomach. Then you are apt to drink much cold water during the hot weather, thus injuring your system. Colic, fever, pneumonia, poisoning and other ills are natural results. Do-Do-Lax will clean you well, as it increases the bile, the natural laxative, which rids the bowels of the congested poisonous waste. Do-Do-Lax will make you feel better. Pleasant and effective. Take a dose to-night. See at your druggist.—Adv.

Republican Candidate for Representative.

To the Republican voters of the Eighth Senatorial district:
I hereby announce myself a candidate for nomination for representative in the lower house of the general assembly, subject to the decision of the Republican voters of the eighth district, consisting of the counties of Lake, McHenry and Boone, at the primaries to be held September 1, 1914.

If nominated and elected I shall vote for and favor the state may have:

1. A constitutional convention, to the end that the state may have:

(a) A more adequate and modern revenue law.

(b) A shorter ballot in elections.

(c) An act to increase representation in the assembly, and the (d) vote system.

(d) A restriction upon the power of the City of Chicago in the legislature and a greater measure of home rule for the City of Chicago.

(e) An easier method of amending the constitution than now provided for.

(f) Our constitution should be otherwise understood in various particulars.

2. I shall vote and work for an effective county local option law, as the results of the township law show plainly that the county should be the unit of voting on the saloon question.

3. I shall favor as I always have favored, such legislation as protects the dairy farmer and I shall favor to secure such a settlement between the state board of health and the dairy interests, so that both taxpayers live.

4. In the house I shall favor the cut in the down the number of members from 10 to 15 in number and make them all working committees, and shall also favor the doing away with all rules that prevent the house by a majority from acting as any time as the majority of the house see fit.

A stenographic record of everything said and done in each house of the legislature should be taken and made a part of each day's printed journal, and given the widest circulation and publicity.

Very respectfully,
EDWARD D. SHUTZLEFF.

Infection and Insect Bites Dangerous.

Mosquitoes, flies and other insects, which breed quickly in garbage pails, ponds of stagnant water, barns, many places, etc., are carriers of disease.

Every time they bite you, they inject poison into your system from which some deadly disease may result. On a bottle of Sloan's Liniment. It is antiseptic and a few drops will neutralize the infection caused by insect bites or rusty nails. Sloan's Liniment disinfects cuts, bruises and sores. You cannot afford to be without it in your home. Money back if not satisfied. Only 5c at your druggist.—Adv.
