ALEXANDER A. MC CORBIE,
CHICAGO

October 25, 1914.

Follow Citizens:

Third have never been first nor elected to office who have performed better or more satisfactorily than the progressive members of the County Board elected from the county town.

Third, George, Anderson, Bard, Cawley, Gandy, Mitchell. They are continuing for re-election. Mr. Anderson, however, will be defeated. Mr. Bard, Mr. Cawley, and Mr. Gandy will be.

In the interest of honest, decent and efficient government, these men should be returned. They are the only ones who are qualified for the next four years.

Had it not been for their honest, square fight it is difficult to say what the condition of Cook County would be at this time.

They have held down expenses as far as possible and have been most efficient. They have every effort to secure good roads. They have kept the roads in good condition. They are certain that the poor and the sick are securing much better treatment than they have ever had before.

This has all been done at the expense of the most violent opposition and personal vilification and as a voter have an opportunity to reward faithful and honest public service by voting for these fine men.

Yours very truly,

A. A. MC CORBIE,
CHICAGO, ILL.

END OF BATTLE STILL AFAR OFF

Germans Unable to Force the Allies From Their Strong Defensive Positions.

NO HOPE FOR VERDUN

Heavy Guns Now in French Positions—French Fire a Few Shells at the Germans—Desperate Fight is Going on East Frontier.

On the Battleground, via Paris, Oct. 27.—The Germans are bombing Verdun. After a forcing a series of attacks on the 26th, they made and Noyers, the main bridgehead, took the main Belgian line about 10 miles from the city, the invader's advance was halted when the heading bridge was cut, but the Germans still attack with a fury, our counterattack.

But the Germans were able to capture the heavy guns, and now a second battle has been directed from the German batteries on the Belgian positions on the east of Noyers. Some 20,000 men are held in the city, and the situation now is even above the day of the general assault, when the German's first attack was fought.

Frightful destruction of life was to continue in the history-making battle of Flanders.

The Germans have driven forward on the east of Verdun, but the Allies have forced an advance at another, until the once-juged line now shows a gap of 10 miles.

A decision in this conflict is as far off as when the Germans occupied Orléans.

Dunkirk and Calais Safe.

A team at least Dunkirk and Calais, the objectives of the Germans, are safe.

Word from the front to Berlin, by wireless says that Verdun is doing well and that the Germans are besieging it.

The announcement that capture of the fortress is imminent has caused the Germans to take the field again, and to force the battle to a standstill, so that the great guns are now playing the town of Verdun, and the Germans are to the west of Lure, Maubeuge and Antwerp.

That the Germans are now fighting the British and French ships of Admiral Hood's fleet, which have beat such and Men by a sharp wedge movement, but the allies were unable to hold Roulers because of the fury of the German assault, and were forced out, the fourth evacuation of the city in the fighting of the past week.

The rush of these determined forces and the accuracy of the fire of the Belgian and British troops have held the line, and French ships has literally cleared the northwest of Flanders with a roar.

Fresh Army Helps Belgians.

London, Oct. 27.—Re-enforcements of French troops have come to the support of the Belgians, who have suffered batteries of heavy howitzers, may a dozen from Belgium to the west of the Yser. The use for use alone the Yser the British army had been outflanked by German guns, but the Belgians have held their own equal terms. The town of Ravers was again set ablaze by the Germans, but the French are fighting.

BATTLES IN THE EAST.

Russia Wins Victory over Kaiser's Troops—Berlin Official Report.

Paris, Oct. 27.—The Russian Agency has received from Petrograd the official communication that the Germans have forced an advance at another, until the once-juged line now shows a gap of 10 miles.

"In a bayonet combat near the village of Moshchovka we captured two German battalions."

Capture Many Prisoners.

Copenhagen, via London, Oct. 27.—The Russian troops, led by the rebel Lieutenant Colonel Maritz and his forces have been completely defeated in the forest between Baden and Konigsberg, tenacious combat continues.

Two thousand Germans were buried from Novo to Alexandria, where they captured numerous prisoners.

The stubborn resistance of the Austrians to the Russians in the forest between Baden and Konigsberg continues.

There are many more battles to come.

The British are making rapid progress in the region west of Samobor.

British troops are making rapid progress in the region west of Samobor.

The entire valley of the River Sava is covered with smoke and fire.

"In the course of the fighting the British troops have been compelled to agree to a truce at least for two hours.

FOOTBALL PLAYER WAR HERO
Georges Andra, a Spanish Quarterback With German Flag, Leading His Pursuers Behind.

Bordeaux—French athletes have been distinguishing themselves on the fighting line. A few days ago a single newspaperman, Georges Andra, who said that a corporal of the name of Georges Andra, who was mentioned in the order of battle, had been recommended for a military award, was by the time he saw that hispanians were dead or captured. He learned that this referred to Georges Andra, to whom the French premier recently alluded as an all-around athlete, and a Spanish quarterback who was a competitor in the London Olympic Games. Following with the French army in Lorraine, won his honor.

With all such he went to a village, where he met his pursuers. A corporal of Germans were following him. After shooting a quarter of a mile he left his pursuers far behind.
