

FOUR HERDS OF CAT-TLE HAVE BEEN KILLED

State Officials Have Found Foot-and-Mouth Disease in Seven Herds in the Vicinity of Burlington.

WORK OF KILLING IS DELAYED

On Account of Cold Weather and Hard Ground It Is Hard to Obtain Help to Kill the Frenzies.

The state and federal authorities report satisfactory progress in the work of stamping out foot-and-mouth disease in the state. Quarantine regulations only by permission of the state veterinarians and his assistants. The public stock yards are permitted to receive animals for slaughter within 36 hours, only, in spite of the vigorous objection of the dealers in feeder and cull animals who are completely out of business by this arrangement.

The work of slaughtering infected herds and disinfecting the premises is about finished at the stock yards and a farm in farm inspected and made in suspected districts. There are occasional new outbreaks in suspected territory but these are being quickly and disposed of promptly. A good illustration of the way the disease may be spread is found in a cow which has appeared in our vicinity, in all, seven herds, with 175 infected cattle. In three of them, the disease was carried by cattle shipped from Chicago; in three others by owners exchanging work and visiting back and forth, and in one the herd of Fred C. Meyer, about two miles west of the Burlington town line, the method of introduction is uncertain although Mr. Meyer attributes it to the visit of a traveling "horse trader" from the region of Gilbert's station who came to the farm a few days before the disease appeared.

The owners of infected herds are Charles Hennings, 19 head; William Rogers, 20 head; Louis Rogers, 22 head; August Rogers, two herds of 22 head; Fred Rogers, 22 head; and Fred C. Meyer, 40 head. Four of these herds have been destroyed and the appliances have passed upon the last three and they will be disposed of as soon as the trouble can be prevented to receive them. The owners of the cattle are facing the hard conditions before them with the best possible grace; the expenses are liberal in most cases. Mr. Meyer's herd, consisting of 43 cows, six calves and 12 head being valued at $3029.20.

There has been some little difficulty in getting the stables promptly but an additional crew has been hired and no difficulty is expected in the future. The first five head of new live in not being able to keep their feet by eight feet long and eight feet deep per animal is required and digging in new weathering ground is the work. The neighboring farmers are naturally unwilling to do the work and the owner of the cattle is naturally prepared to do it, making it necessary to bring in help from the outside and often necessitating carrying the cows from farm to farm. However, Dr. Quinn is confident that all infected herds will be disposed of before the work is over.

It is interesting to note the time which elapses between the purchase of the Chicago cows and the appearance of the disease. In one case from October to December 5. Also that it is spread by individuals moving from farm to farm. It will for all stock owners to observe the following simple rules for a few weeks longer:

Keep all animals from the corn on the farm. If they must go off, have them change their clothing when they return to the farm, especially the shoes.

Use disinfectants FREELY, dry lime, or some of the coal tar disinfectants around the cattle, but on the horses' feet and wagon wheels and along the driveway to the public road.

Dr. GEORGE LYTLE, Government Inspector.

Christmas Bank.
The First State Bank of Burlington has made arrangements to secure, by next Monday, a United States bank of the automatic recording house savings bank, which has provided no capital, in the name of the friend you wish to remember, one of three annual banks can be secured. Such a present will encourage the one receiving it to form the habit of saving.

R. Y. P. U. ENTERTAINMENT GOOD

Lecture by Mrs. G. W. Spencer on "Shells" Was Excellent—Musical Numbers Were Much Enjoyed.

The program at the Baptist church Tuesday evening was greeted by "full houses" and the musical interest of all present. The lecture by Mrs. G. W. Spencer on "Shells" was very well liked for the lady has acquired a vast amount of knowledge on the subject through observation and study of books. During a five month's sojourn in Florida and nearby islands last winter she became a shell "fiend" and his guests into the topic with enthusiasm until she was able to tell many things concerning the shells, anatomy, value, origin, habits of the creatures living in the innumerable variety of shells which she brought with her. During that time she has seen and everyone who hears the talk Mrs. Spencer gives realizes how much there is to know of shells and how little the average person knows.

The musical part of the evening was also a source of pleasure. Mrs. Reuben Plagge played with her excellent piano playing and Master Robert Stoen accompanied with a piano solo. Howard Waller sang a solo which was enjoyed and Percie James and his band of singers. During that time the program was received by the Spigel Young People's Union which had promoted the affair and the money will be used in church work. Mrs. G. W. Banks, the president thanked all who assisted the young people.

Behind Making Money.
Ralph L. Puck, son of Sanford Puck of Burlington, receiver of the Washington, Rockford and Elgin Traction company, operating the Wisconsin railroad has issued a report of his recent covering a period between October 20 and November 10, showing many facts of interest about the little railroad connecting Wisconsin and Illinois. During that period, his report shows receipts of $1,048.16 and disbursements of $838.80. The assets are undiminished excepting that there is a balance of $1,091 in the bank.

The president has been retained as general manager of the directors' and the company's relations to the company of $102.50 have been stopped. The director's management has been reduced from $200 to $100 monthly. The superintendent as a salary of $100 monthly has been reduced. The trainmen have been reduced approximately as follows: The engineer from $100 to $90; the fireman and watchman from $100 to $90; the conductor from $75 to $60; the brakeman from $75 to $60; the boiler maker from $85 to $75; the trackman from $75 to $60; the carmen from $50 to $40; a car of $100 and the foreman from $60 to $50; all of which had been effected without impairing the efficiency of the service.

The receiver reports that so far as he is able to ascertain the total expenditures of the last month, except as hereinbefore otherwise stated, are normal and usual; that the freight and passenger traffic of the road have been profitable and give promise of good profits and of continuing and developing so that the road can at all times be operated at a profit, and with the prospect of a substantial increase thereof after the first of the coming year.

Burlington County Life Association.
Monday evening at the school house the officers of the Burlington County Life Association met to discuss plans for the annual banquet and "Big Day" of the association which is proposed for Saturday, February 6. The officers are Albert Robertson, Prof. E. B. Smith and H. J. Lageschulte. County Life Director, E. M. Phillips, was also present. Only preliminary matters were talked over, for it is uncertain at present as to whether such a meeting will be allowed on account of the prevalence of foot-and-mouth disease. However, arrangements will be made even if the show has to be abandoned here. The idea is to have a morning session for both men and women, a session for men and women and one for men and women and one for men and women.

This association was organized last February and nearly one hundred men of the village and surrounding country joined. Only one meeting has been held; but a "round-up" was planned for July which had to be given up because a central location could be secured and a "barbecue" gathering was prevented by the authorities.

PLEASURE THOUGHTS

What Least, Organizations Are Doing in a Right Way—News of Interest About Them.

CHRISTMAS!
Does the word hold special significance for you? Does it mean more than just the day on which Christ was born? And does it occur to you that because of the birth of Christ the world has emerged from darkness into the civilizing light of humanity and Christianity?
And do you remember on this day of universal giving that the Child of the Manger was the greatest of all gifts? That he offered up the only thing he had to give—his life?
And if Christ could give his life that we might have joy in our souls, could we not give just a little that some one less fortunate may taste of the Christmas day?

ONLY A WORD!
So little, and so easy to give!
And yet that word, if spoken, might bring cheer and a little brightness to the lives of some lonely person this Christmas day—a word which to them may hold little joy, may even be but an empty name, a tantalizing promise of the future.
Shall we pass beyond the beaten track and speak that word? Shall we make just a little effort to reduce the loneliness of our existence yet a little way beyond our own friends?
Shall we devote a few minutes of the day to the gladdening of the heart of some wanderer who has no husband, no wife, no children, possibly no home?
Only a word!
But there are times in our lives, when even a word is more precious than gold.

AND THE LITTLE ORS!
Did you ever pass a child on Christmas day and forget to extend a cheerful greeting? Probably you have—yet all the while the little child is so appreciative on Santa's day.
They like to be remembered—so that they are of some use in the world—that they are of some importance to someone.
You were a child once, with the same sensitive heart that beats in each little breast, and you will remember how pleased you felt when some man or woman passed you on the road and gave you a kindly word.
Are you going to remember the little ones on this day—this day that should be joyful to us, as well as to you?

PERHAPS there is some one in this community who has no relative, no close friend, no one to extend them the greetings of Christmas day, no one who cares if they be as the sheep, this day.
Most likely there is.
And quite likely in the enjoyment of our own blessings we will be forgetful of the fact that close to us someone is spending a sad and lonely Christmas day with but a painfully "good morning," or "and the head?" And how often has the same courtesy been extended to you?
"Merry Christmas, George."
"Greetings of the day, stranger."

How much difference those words would, and what a smile of pleasure it would bring to the stranger while your greeting. But we are worldly, and think mostly of self, and the pleasures we are to derive from the day.
And the stranger passes with a little tightening of the heart-strings at the hardness of the day.
It might be different.
But it is not.
And it is the way of the world today, and of today, and of tomorrow.
But will it?

HOW MANY TIMES have you passed an acquaintance or a stranger on Christmas day with but a painfully "good morning," or "and the head?" And how often has the same courtesy been extended to you?
"Merry Christmas, George."
"Greetings of the day, stranger."
How much difference those words would, and what a smile of pleasure it would bring to the stranger while your greeting. But we are worldly, and think mostly of self, and the pleasures we are to derive from the day.
And the stranger passes with a little tightening of the heart-strings at the hardness of the day.
It might be different.
But it is not.
And it is the way of the world today, and of today, and of tomorrow.
But will it?

WHAT WILL THIS Christmas day be to us, anyway? Will it be a day of rest—of turkey and cranberry sauce, and all of the "merceries gifts which our relatives and friends will shower upon us?
Will it be just a worldly Christmas?
Or shall we as adults on our way to the memory of the one whose birthday we celebrate, of the one who parted with his all without a pang of regret?
Shall we think to the soft-toned words of the minister as he tells of the sacrificial story of the Christ—the man of all men—the one whose memory and whose deeds live from the manger to the end of time?
Shall we?
And shall we sit a friend to go with us? Shall we ask the stranger in our midst?
Christ gave much for us.
Is it the least we could do for him?

Business at Close of Season.
The Lake County Board of Supervisors closed its December meeting last Friday. Final decisions of the five day's session were: the four faces of the big clock on the county house will have the electric light. Superintendent Russell will be kept in January to Champion to attend the convention of road superintendents of Illinois. Deputy County Treasurer, Bruce Stevens, is to be sent to Lincoln and Logan counties to see their systems of bookkeeping; a roadway will be constructed at the rear of the new county tuberculosis sanitarium. Judge C. C. Edwards was endorsed as a candidate for circuit judge in the spring election and in the fall term, the vote was 16 to 6 in favor of permitting Ralph Daily, State Attorney, to drive automobiles when he deems it necessary to get necessary evidence against law violators.

Real Estate Transfers.
The following transfers in real estate were recently recorded for this village: Leo Howard to W. A. Schumacher, $10 County Clerk's sale, Burlington, Q. C. $1.00.
Back to Barns and Kilham.
"Organizations for young people which take them away from their homes are a positive harm," said O. H. Barnes, agriculturist in charge of the State Department of Agriculture. In an address at the meeting of the county agents and club work in the Rural Bureau, Chicago, last Tuesday, "We need places for the boys and girls that lead to the back yard, kitchen, barn yard and hearthstone," he added.
New Store Front in Lamer Building.
The Lamer Bros. bakery in the Lamer building, Main street, has been greatly improved in appearance. A new store front has been put in that part of the building occupied by them and large plate glass windows take the place of the old fashioned windows. Plans Bros. advertise a Christmas opening for Saturday, December 10, and will have an attractive display.

Destroyed alcohol for use to automobiles in the village has 10 cents per gallon. Last quantity, 70 cents per gallon.

Death of Cuba Township Woman.
Mrs. Nancy Doyle, dead since six years, who lived in western Cuba township on the Cary road near Fox River bridge, died about five o'clock Monday morning, December 14, of pneumonia. She had been ill since the previous April. Her life was spent in this township. She was buried in the Catholic church in Cary at ten o'clock with the Rev. Father and the Rev. Deacon of Burlington in charge. Burial was in the Murray Settlement cemetery, northeast of Wisconsin.

Mrs. Doyle was Miss Nancy Barker, daughter of Patrick and Margaret Doyle and husband Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hawley, Cook street, Cary, who was born near her present home in April, 1857. Her life was spent in this township. When young she married John Doyle who died eleven years ago. They were the parents of three children, all living on the farm with their mother, Joseph and Mary Doyle and Mrs. Margaret McCormick. A granddaughter, Miss Nancy McCormick, also lives on the Doyle farm. Mrs. Doyle was always a pious woman and was not much known in public. She was always a member of St. Anne's Catholic church in Burlington, and of late years has been attending St. Peter's and St. Paul church in Cary.

Consider Extending of Spring Street.
The board of local improvements of the Village of Burlington met at the village hall Monday evening to listen to arguments of property owners for and against the proposed extension of Spring street from West to Latham street. ITEMS OF INTEREST TO LOCAL PEOPLE

Happenings of the Week Told in Short Paragraphs—What's Doing in and Near Our Hometown Village.

Mrs. G. W. Spencer has been invited to give her lecture on "Shells" for the Lee Center Women's club during holiday week.

The bakery and upon sale of the Ladies' Aid society of the Salem church was very well patronized and $70.00 were secured.

Fourteen freight cars of the C. & N. W. track just beyond Cary on Tuesday morning delayed all trains from the northwest until about one o'clock that day. The accident happened at half past six.

A card party will be given by the ladies of St. Peter's and St. Paul's parish, Cary, in the church basement, on Wednesday evening, December 23. Dishes and Five Hundred will be played.

Tuesday morning while cranking his automobile, George Babcock of the Village farm, lost his right wrist quite badly and will be unable to use it for some time as the ligaments were badly lacerated.

The Royal Neighbors' dance last Thursday evening in the village hall was well attended and the place was crowded and little dancing space permissible. Everyone had a good time, nevertheless. The neighbors took in fifty dollars at the door.

Fred Kling of Crystal Lake, formerly of the Donlin, Rogers farm in Cuba township, was operated last Saturday at the Sherman hospital, Elgin, and is very low. No one is allowed to see him and there is no hope for his recovery, which his many friends are sorry to hear.

The special train to Janesville from Chicago which left the body of William D. Canfield, formerly general manager of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad, passed through Burlington during the noon hour Wednesday. Mr. Canfield died Sunday after a six month illness at his home.

The entertainment at the First Creek school last Friday evening took in $34.00. The highest price paid for a supper basket was $2.10. The audience liked the children's program and among those at the school were people from Burlington, Wisconsin, Lake Zurich and Cuba Station.

Many towns are planning to open public meetings for Christmas Eve or Christmas night. Some of them will have a public Christmas tree. If the weather permits they could not their citizens meet in Fountain Square for an hour or two of these evenings and sing Christmas songs.

Clarence Page of South Hawley street entered six pigeons in the fourth annual pigeon show of the Chicago Pigeon club held from December 2 to 9 in Central hall, twenty-second street and Wabash avenue, Chicago, and took four firsts and one second prize. His birds are all homers and are beautiful creatures. The prices were the usual blue and red ribbons.

If you have a pig, hang on to it. All the big cities are sending out warrants to the unemployed to keep away. They are having a desperate time to take care of their own jobs. The fogging houses are filled and labor bureaus overwhelmed by applicants for positions. No serious holding a job of any kind, be it big or small, should claim to be in with the tendency of a bull dog.

Thirteen of the eighteen Bull Wyandotte chickens exhibited by Frank Wasserman at the International Poultry show in Chicago last week took prizes which is considered splendid recognition for the largest Bull Wyandotte raiser in the country, a man from Clinton, had exhibitions amounting to half the show and he took more of the prizes. First and fifth were taken by Mr. Wasserman on each of his three birds and ten on two pairs of five birds each, being second prizes on old hens and second prizes on young hens. The chickens which were sent to the Buffalo Poultry Association's show Thanksgiving week in care of the village board's poultry, was presented asking that the street be widened.

RESUMPTION OF THE GREAT

PAPER

The convening of congress in its short session brings to our mind one of the greatest and most ridiculous fables that has ever been foisted upon the American people.

And yet it was a fake fostered by the government.

It was the Congressional Record, the only really official publication in this country.

Many of our readers have received from time to time scraps of speeches purporting to have been delivered by some senator or congressman in Washington.

Some of these speeches were actually delivered on the floor of the house or senate, but many were pure fakes.

Here's the way it worked.

Congressman X—was ambitious. He wanted to electify his constituents by the delivery of a great speech, an oratorical effort which was calculated to enhance his fame with the voters at home.

Not being able to secure the necessary recognition for a speech from the presiding officer, he carefully wrote out his remarks, interspersed them with numerous exclamation points of "ap- plause," "etc," and then handed his way to the printer.

There he arose from his seat, cleared his throat, and with impressive dignity added "permission to print," which of course was promptly accorded him. This ended his "speech" on the floor.

But the Congressional Record was never obliged to print the elaborate pre- siding officer.

The Record printed his "speech" in full—that speech that was never delivered—and very generally the govern- ment printing office supplied the con- gressman with thousands of copies of his "speech" for free distribution to an admiring constituency. And the tax payers paid the bill.

It is country publisher resorted to a hundredth part of the fable that has been foisted upon the public by the Congressional Record has would be overlooked and driven out of any "silly" newspaper community.

And yet the Congressional Record is the national newspaper!

A national fake!

WILL YOU GIVE A CHICKEN?

A box of dressed chickens is to be gathered on Saturday of this week, December 19, for shipment on Monday to the United Charities Bureau, Chicago, for distribution among poor families for Christmas.

Will you give a chicken for this worthy cause and let it be the home of Miss Natalie Gillette.

West Main street, Barrington, on that day? Miss Gillette is giving her time unaided to this charity work and will attend to the picking of the chickens and their shipment, besides donating several from her own coops.

She recently wrote to the office of the United Charities and received word that such a box of food would be greatly appreciated. Nearly everyone who raises chickens can spare one (owl) for the assistance of some unfortunate family.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Dr. H. B. Thorne, pastor of the Baptist church, spoke to the high school for twenty minutes Wednesday morning on "Politics." He gave examples of the advantage of politeness in the business and social world.

A caucus, entitled "Santa Claus Jr.," will be given by the high school both Friday and Saturday evening, December 18 and 19 at eight o'clock. Candy will be sold. Remember the date.

A Christmas party was enjoyed by the eighth grade last Friday evening, December 11, from half past seven to ten o'clock. The room was prettily decorated with Christmas boughs, evergreens and tinsel. Refreshments were served consisting of sandwiches, pickles, cocoa and fruit. Many interesting games were played and a pleasant evening enjoyed by all.

Reports of attendance and punctuality for the past week. To compare the percentage, one tardiness is considered equivalent to two days absence.

If you see a slight mistake in the Review, such as a mis-spelled name, a date wrong, a grammatical mistake, a letter inverted, or something stated as a fact which is not absolutely true, please be charitable enough to understand that there are dozens of reasons why these little errors happen. TROTH is the aim and mistakes which are made, are not intentional nor made with spite. Very frequently someone has told us incorrect information as correct and we depend on the public for news. He added that Signor Rodin, the Italian consul at Hodeida, who was obliged to remain in his own house, which was besieged several days, until the arrival of the Italian coast armored cruiser Marco Polo, which had been ordered to Hodeida.

The Turkish government, in answering a request for explanation, the minister told the deputies, said that it was awaiting information and would adopt the necessary measures. Baron Rodin concluded by saying that he did not believe the Ottoman government wished to share the responsibility of such a patent violation of consular rights.

1915-Buick Cars-1915

The Car of Power, Speed, Dependability and Durability

The Buick Line of Fours and Sixes for 1915—the greatest line of cars the Buick organization has ever built. 1914 Buick success has been the talk of the motor world—a reputation merited by an abundance of power—faultless design—perfect performance and efficient Buick service. The five splendid models comprising the Buick cars for 1915 is up to their promise to all buyers of Buick cars—and make certain a continued satisfaction and uninterrupted use.

The 1915 Buick models actually offer greatly increased value. The reduction of price is possible because of the volume of business, the improved factory methods, specialized labor and our more years' knowledge of experience in this great factory in new economies of construction. The new Duo system of steering, lighting and ignition, with an increased operating capacity of 30 per cent and automatic spark advance. Traction steel valves. Carburetor supplied by Stewart-Warner gravity feed vacuum system.

Control conveniently located on instrument board in the cowl.

Non-skid tires on road wheels.

Improved quality of leather for the upholstery and floor finish.

High grade stream line bodies, hoods and oval radiators.

There are but few of the Buick improvements, regardless of price, they are giving more value than ever before. They always have and will continue to give more value than ever before.
