MEN'S CLUB BANQUET LARGEST IN HISTORY

Two Hundred and Twenty-five Partake of Sumptuous Dinner Served by Ladies of M. E. Church

OBSERVE PRESIDENTIAL MEMORIAL

Speeches and Other Numbers on Program Bring forth Applause From Entire Audience

The eighth annual banquet of the Barrington Men's Club has passed into the history of the town as the largest dinner party ever seated in the village. It marks the beginning of an active, increased public sentiment toward the procuring for Barrington, by some means, a proper hall to accommodate large affairs of various orders.

The new Leonard garage, clean and commodious, so judiciously donated for by Percy Leonard, was the scene of this celebration in a most satisfactory way, but what of the future? Everyone is now "spotted" to speak, and will be loathe to return to inadequate accommodations when a crowd is expected.

The garage itself was transformed into a place of real beauty by the use of flags, draperies, ferns and blooming, potted plants. It was almost incredible to see the great change brought about in a few hours by many busy hands, explanations of surprise and delight were expressed by about 225 diners.

Mr. Leonard helped the completion of the wiring so that a flood of light would be cheerful; he was happy to assist in any way to make his building a big banquet hall.

Several active club members previously secured the services of L. E. Murphy of Oak Main street as decorator because of his twenty years of experience, before coming here, in professional work as a framer of decorative halls. The effects he produced with the national colors and pictures of statesmen were full of grace and significance. Dr. G. B. Lytle brought out from town an immense dish belonging to Uncle Sam which was used as a canopy over the tables.

Four long tables ran parallel, and the speakers' table placed horizontally to them; their simple decoration of glass candlesticks, each with a double full of red wine paper, aligned down the long tables with snuff and fruit. There was a picture of artistic simplicity; several beautiful silver candleholders of Mrs. R. R. Hammond were at the table of honor.

The catering service was excellent, provided by the members of the ladies. Aid society of the Methodist church, assisted by young ladies of the congregation as waitresses who had been instructed for the occasion that all might proceed unhampered; quiet efficiency was the result. The success of the banquet is attributed directly to these ladies.

Committee of men in the club worked ardently to arrange details but there were too many involved in attempt to point out those assisting. It was something of an understatement.

The guests of honor, Rev. O. F. Mattison and Mrs. Mattison of Evanston, were greeted with a sincere cordiality by old friends here and an evocation of long applause showed the affection still retained here for the founder of this amalgamating club of the village.

Miss Almeda Plagge played a march and the assemblage fled to the tables in couples; Warren Plagge guided with high calls to attention and these two couples played with an instrumental duet. H. H. Hubbard, the octogenarian president, presided over the program given after dinner was served; the Barrington Ladies' quartette which was welcomed in usual and also the precision ability of the little epicurean, Constantine Calkins. A new musical piece was the vocal duet of Mrs. W. J. Libberton and W. J. Cameron.

Rev. Mattison spoke briefly, saying he knew most people well in Barrington than he does in his present charge in Evanston of 1400 communicants and that he is proud of his men's club here.

Hugh Mattison (who also "Babbled" proceeded Mr. Hubbard's recital of a poem he had written for the occasion. Postmaster G. W. Spangler in splendid oratory told of George Washington and his times, also referring to the "molting pop" idea of the Men's club. Arnet Lines sang "Song of a Thousand Years" with sympathetic rendition.

Dr. Libberton, Methodist pastor, delivered an impressive speech on Abraham Lincoln, telling that he had once had the pleasure of seeing Lincoln, the man who could do nothing without a Cane and an African skin. William Rod, a favorite singer,

LOCAL MILK PRODUCERS ORGANIZE

Met Tuesday Morning—Daniel H. Gilly Active for Movement—Establish Farmers' Benefit Fund

Through the urging largely of Daniel H. Gilly, progressive farmer of Barrington township, the meeting of the Milk Producers association held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the bank directors' room attracted a fairly large audience in comparison with meetings of the past. About forty farmers gave their morning to listen to good speakers.

However, the very farmer who needs up-to-date advice on clean handling of milk and the benefits of organized work amongst farmers is not the man being reached as desired. Most of those present believe in taking up the best milk-producing plans, as well as the security of good prices, but gradually by constant suggestion every farmer will grasp the ideas. Splendid work has been accomplished around here in seven years' time towards co-operation and sanitation. It may seem slow to some, but the end is surely in sight.

H. J. Leachman is president of the local organization; Mr. Gilly is secretary and treasurer and also a member of the milk board with Dr. Leachman and Fred Kirschner. F. H. Rees, Dundee banker and also treasurer of the Northern Illinois Milk Producers' association was one of the morning's speakers; another was Samuel Reynolds of Dundee, both talking on the subject of organization.

A new movement in this locality is to establish a farmers' benefit fund so that a man shut off temporarily from shipping his milk may be reimbursed for a time at the rate of fifty cents per cow. Dundee has such a fund now amounting to $1,000.

About 40,000 pounds of milk are being shipped out of Barrington daily from the Bowman plant here at present, its distribution being on the south and west sides of Chicago.

There are four reasons why milk is so important for more sickness and death than any other food. Bacteria grow very fast in milk. Of all foods, milk is the most difficult to obtain clean. Milk is the most rapidly decomposed of all foods. Milk is consumed raw in greater quantities than any other food.

There are so many ways in which milk may become a dangerous article of food that it is perfectly obvious that all persons producing or handling milk should be compelled to obtain a license which should be issued only after that person has demonstrated his ability to handle milk in a safe and cleanly manner.

Clearance Sale at Meyer's
A. W. Meyer's fifth annual clearance sale is progressing very favorably and hundreds of people have taken advantage of the many bargains he is offering. The sale will continue until after February 26. Avail yourself of the opportunity to supply your needs with serviceable goods now, which can be used for immediate or future use. Dollars do double duty at this store during the great clearance sale. Read his advertisement on page eight of this issue.

The next Woman's club meeting occurred Saturday, March 5, with Mrs. Clara Sears as hostess.

Adopts Highway Commissioner Plan
The board of Great township, Lake county, north of Wauconda township, on Monday elected at large to adopt the new highway commissioner plan, instead of the customary three commissioners. This is the first township in the county to adopt a radically new idea in road supervision and the result will be watched with interest. Roads in that vicinity have been badly neglected.

Offered well the "Battle Hymn of the Republic." J. H. Bennett outlined the life of William Henry Harrison, fifth United States president; Percie James in his strong tenor delighted with "Forgetten" by Eugene Cowles and "Garden of Sleep" by Isidore De Lave.

Superintendent of School E. B. Smith dwelt upon the American flag, officially adopted September 3, 1777, and first flown in battle on August 2, 1777. Plagge drove down over school house once again.

H. C. Gave a resume of the club's work in promoting patriotism and good fellowship. He advised the revival of monthly meetings. Dr. G. H. Lytle extended words of appreciation to various people who had loaned articles and furnished for banquet with aid. The quartette and assembly joined in a closing song of home.

Rev. John Hoerner of the Evangelical church gave the invocation and benedictional prayers. Taps were sounded by Warren Plagge and the playing of "all manner of men" was over.

CUT FLOWERS GREATLY IN DEMAND

Merch Brothers, who Leased the Stott Greenhouse, Doing Excessive Business—Produce Fine Flowers

Facts on the volume of business done in cut flowers in Chicago were given by a Randolph street wholesale dealer recently, as follows:

Chicago is the greatest wholesale market for cut flowers in the world; Philadelphia ranks second; New York third, and San Francisco fourth. Retailers in Chicago stores exceed $5,000,000 worth of trade in a year. More than 2,400 men and women are employed in the city's 800 retail stores and about 1000 by wholesalers.

The months of January and February are usually months of flower scarcity, but this year has been unusually so, because the Christmas trade was very large, depleting stocks; many cold and rainy days last summer and the many funerals of December and January made extra demands on the green houses. Also, the use of flowers is becoming more general, people buy them for their thoughts, cut flowers in winter a great luxury.

Nicholas and Walter Merich, the young men who are leasing the Stott greenhouse in Barrington of Mrs. Eva Stott of Chicago, are prepared to meet a large spring trade. At present they are shipping flowers to Chicago about every third day, picking for shipment about 600 pansies, 200 sweet peas, 600 carnations and a number of other blooms.

They are comparatively new in the business as this is their first location; however, they are mastering the art of producing fine blossoms and greatly enjoy the work. Their father has purchased two and a half acres of ground near the west limits of Palatine upon which four large green houses will be built for the brothers when they are more experienced. They expect also to retain the green house here, but will not be able to enlarge it on account of lack of room.

It is a very pleasant place to visit with everything in neat condition. The recent sunbathers have aided them to increase their output. Potted plants, ferns, hyacinths and various flowers "alight their sweetness upon the air." They deliver promptly and are anxious to please their customers.

Sudden Death of John Snyder

The sudden death on Tuesday evening, February 22, just before nine o'clock, of John Snyder of Liberty street touched the hearts of the community in sympathy for the parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Snyder. The boy was approaching his sixteenth birthday and was thought his youth and apparent strength would help him to overcome a valvular heart trouble. Two years ago he had an illness of several months duration but had seemed to recover. Another attack came on three weeks ago and while very ill for the past week it was expected that he would pass away, although he had suffered very much.

The funeral will be held at ten o'clock Friday morning, February 25, at St. Ann church of which he was a member. Father E. A. McCormick will officiate.

John was the third son of the family and was born in Irving Park on June 2, 1900. He came to Barrington with his family about nine years ago and attended the school here and for a year recently went to St. Edward's school at Irving Park. He was of a cheerful, friendly disposition and was a great reader of good literature. His mother was formerly Miss Ella Leamer, there are three brothers living, Earle, Correll and Marvin Snyder.

Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martens of North Hawley street celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary on Tuesday evening, February 22, and about forty of their friends and relatives were present. Those present from out-of-town were: Mrs. Ullman and Mrs. George Behrens of Chicago; Mrs. Carl Ernst and children of Lake Zurich; Mrs. H. Law, Edith, Arthur and Walter Witt of Palatine.

There are now 160 children in the orphanage. Miss Hager has charge of fifteen girls in her cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wright are occupying the Methodist parsonage.

CLUB MEMBERS ENJOY ANOTHER TREAT

Paper Read by Mrs. Lines Proved to be Very Interesting and Instructive—Will Give It Again Sunday

EVENING AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH

Meeting this Week to be Held at the Home of Mrs. Charles Hawley—Mrs. Seaver as Speaker

The Woman's Thursday club of Barrington and invited guests were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Eva Cassin on Grove avenue last Thursday afternoon, February 17.

Mrs. Emma McIntosh Lines, one of Barrington's "home" women—nevertheless, one of the most intellectual—furnished a rare treat in a fine lecture on "Our Country and Europe."

The subject was deftly handled and modestly expressed the speaker's wide scope of knowledge of poets, historians, essayists and writers of fiction, both past and present; whose writings have chronicled the history of the world. Her incisive interest and sound opinions of the subject in hand were well reflected in her splendid delivery.

Mrs. Lines, at the beginning did not give her lecture a title, but at the close asked those present to do so. Among those suggested were "America First," "Patriotism," "America the Best," "Neutrality," "Our Country's Mission," "Our America," "America and Neutrality," "Our Country and Our Flag," "Justice to All," "Africa First and Neutrality," "One God for all Countries and One God for all."

This lecture is worthy to be heard by every citizen of Barrington, and such an opportunity will be afforded, for through the solicitation of Rev. George H. Lockhart, Mrs. Lines has reluctantly, but a kindly, consented to repeat it at the Baptist church, Sunday evening, February 27. Mrs. Lines complimented the elation of its twenty-two years of study, good fellowship and quiet social activities.

To quote her—"A person who prepares a paper to be given before an audience, gains more than he who listens to the best lecture that can be given; a truth that cannot be gainsayed—as it is personal study and research that develops the human mind."

Cut-of-town guests were Mesdames Meyer and Culrin of Austin, Mesdames Castle and Robinson of Elgin and Mrs. Castle of Arlington Heights.

The meeting this week will be at the home of Mrs. Charles Hawley, where Mrs. F. T. Seaver will speak of the lives of famous men who were born in February.

Minding One's Own Business

So many employees in these parts tell the private affairs of those for whom they work—also many people question employees to find out about the employers—so the following story by H. J. Barrett in the Chicago daily Journal will help many to remember that it is not right to tell what one may know about the "boss" and his business:

"My first lesson in discretion, or careful speech came when I was working as a solicitor for an advertising agency which handled the publicity campaigns of local merchants. One day I called on the proprietor of a local clothing store."

"He received me courteously and betrayed interest when I informed him that we handled the accounts of another clothier, Richards, located at the other end of the city."

"What is the ratio between Richards' annual advertising expenditure and his gross volume of sales?" he inquired.

"Frankly, Mr. Beckett, I'm not justified in saying," I replied. "That's Mr. Richards' secret."

"What kind of advertising has brought him the best results?" was the next question. I told him.

"How much sales did Richards sell on his last sale advertised Friday?" he inquired.

"Another question which I'm not at liberty to answer," I replied.

"For perhaps fifteen minutes he quizzed me closely. To most of his questions I refused an answer."

"You're mighty closely questioned about your clients' affairs, aren't you?" was his sarcastic conclusion.

"Then, with a sudden smile, he said: 'Which is just what I shall carry advertising over to your concern. I've tested you pretty thoroughly during the last half-hour. I guess my business and trade secrets are safe in your hands.'"

WANTS TO MOVE CAPITAL

Latest news in the political field at Washington D. C., is to the effect that Representative Cary of Wisconsin wants to move the capital city, and in accordance he has offered in Congress a resolution to have the federal city from its present location to Milwaukee.

Cary says that the pending legislation might make the District of Columbia "dry" and for this reason he wants the capital of the United States to be moved to Milwaukee. He says that prohibition is a menace to society and good judgment. Milwaukee is noted for being very "wet" and it seems that this congressman wants to live in "wet" town. Just how the resolution will strike prohibitionists is yet to be developed. However, it is dollars to doughnuts that there is not a congressman from Illinois that would vote for it.

ON BEHALF OF WESTERN RAILS

The following statement on behalf of the executive committee of the Association of Western Railways has been prepared for the purpose of informing the public regarding the state of the facts, principles and conditions involved in the movement of the organizations of railway train service employees for increased wages:

A dollar a year for every train, woman and child in the United States would have to be added to the present freight and passenger rate to pay the $100,000,000 a year increase in wages demanded by the trainmen and engineers. This would be the equivalent of a five per cent general advance in freight rates and would amount to less than a year for the average family, counting five persons to a family.

The train service employees want a 25 per cent increase in wages. To give a 25 per cent increase to all of the employees of the railways would cost $332,000,000 a year. This would amount to $16.60 for every family in the United States.

Not only do the trainmen and engineers constitute the highest paid class of railway employees, but their average earnings per year exceed the average earnings of those who furnish the money to pay railway wages.

Can the railways, without arbitration, advance the wages of their highest-paid employees by 25 per cent without also advancing the pay of the others?

The total net dividends paid by the railways of the United States is considered as a system, in 1914 amounted to $329,000,000, according to the Interstate Commerce Commission. Thirty-five per cent of the railway stock paid no dividends. A dollar increase of $332,000,000 would wipe out 97 per cent of all the 190,000 stockholders received as a return on their investment.

The public should not be misled by statements of the brotherhood leaders that are asking for an eight-hour day. Thousands of train service employees now work less than eight hours for a day's pay and those who work longer receive pay not only for all of the time they work but for every mile they run.

The proposed rules would simply change from a ten-hour to an eight-hour basis of computing wages, so that one hour's work would be paid for as one-eighth rather than as one-tenth of a day's pay, or as 121 miles instead of 10 miles.

In railway train service a day's work cannot be arbitrarily fixed. The employees know this and they have no intention of changing the working day. They are asking only the enormous increase in wages which would result from changing the basis of payments so that they could earn money faster.

There is not a word in the proposals now being pushed up by the employees that would require a man to work as much as eight hours for a day's pay. It is specifically provided that "100 miles or less, eight hours or less," should constitute a day. Nor is there any provision for a reduction in the hours of work for any one who now works more than eight hours.

What the men are asking for is a reduction of 25 per cent in the number of hours they must work before they will begin to draw pay for overtime. This amounts to be at a rate 50 percent higher than the proposed regular hourly rate and 57 per cent higher than the present overtime rate.

WAUCONDA

The farmers' institute held in Village Hall Friday proved a great success. Being well attended by farmers and their families, high school students, teachers and people of the village in general. The speaking was the best ever heard at a day's meeting here and the exhibits of corn, potatoes, grain and seed were very good indeed. Mrs. McHenry, in her address, making on short order, was a help to many housekeepers. Messrs. Thomas, Adkins and Pyverro acted as judges of samples of potatoes, grain and seeds and Mrs. McHenry passed judgment on bread and pastry. These judges made their awards in the presence of exhibitors and interested spectators, recording them in a correct manner of awarding prizes. We claim that lesson is alone, worth the trouble of attending this meeting. Speakers reported this the best meeting of the week.

George Proby was a Sunday visitor in Elgin.

Mrs. J. A. Taggart, visited relatives here last week.

Thomas Jar, who has been at his brother's home here has gone to McHenry.

Miss Della Dahms entertained her young friends at a leap year party Monday evening.

Edward Grover was called home on account of the serious illness of his father, Sunday.

Will Lamphere, Miss Marguerite and Helen Manly were visitors at the Lamphere home in Elgin Sunday.

Miss Edith Slavin who had been very ill with pneumonia the last ten days is now able to report, improving.

Mrs. E. C. Hallock was a victim of pneumonia, the week's end, so were Eleanor Dancy and Dorothy Peck. All are better now.

It is reported that W. V. Johns and family are to move to George Harris' new cottage, having sold their home to M. W. Franck.

The Phi Kappa class of the Salem Sunday school surprised the teacher, Mrs. Frank J. Gieske, on Monday evening with a party in honor of her birthday. Forty ladies paid their compliments in letters and presented gifts, amongst them being a bouquet of red carnations, but flower for each year of her life. The classes number 60 ladies, all married, from young brides to women of middle age.

SCHOOL NOTES.

On the evening of March 10 and 11, there will be given in the high school assembly room a musical entertainment. "The Browless Whimper." All of the grades are well represented in the choruses and pupils and teachers are working faithfully, expecting an even greater measure of success than accompanied their efforts of last year.

The Freshmen and Sophomore English classes have arranged to have special work in parliamentary practice, thinking they will soon be able to outdo the upper classes. The Freshmen assembly voted that at the next meeting roll call should be answered by presenting some topic suitable for debate.

In all the rooms special note was taken of Washington's birthday, a great many pupils doing construction or drawing work in connection with it.

At the beginning of the semester the magna's training equipment was moved to one of the basement rooms where the seventh and eighth grades are now working. The girls of these grades are very busy cutting and sewing garments for the exhibit this spring. In room 4 the girls are almost through making their spoon-borders of soft flannel, which some of them have been helping the boys make border designs which will be used for the artistic booklets at the exhibit.

A picture study, based on Lincoln's statue in Lincoln park, Chicago, has just been finished by room 5; it is a part of their recent language work. They have also written compositions on oyster fishing, a topic taken up in geography study.

How to Cure Colds.

Avoid exposure and cold. Eat right. Take Dr. King's New Discovery. It is prepared from Pine Tar, healing balsams and mild laxatives. Dr. King's New Discovery kills and expels the cold germs, soothes the irritated throat and always infuses life into the mucous membrane. Search as you will, you cannot find a better cough and cold remedy. Its use over 45 years is a guarantee of satisfaction.

The Reason Why We Can Guarantee

If a machine is to be guaranteed for five years it must be built so it won't break down. Every part must be as strong as the rest—no weak points. Something besides "bull-strength and awkwardness" has been brought to bear in the production of the Litchfield Spreader. The theory in developing this spreader has been to remove the unnecessary strain throughout the entire machine, so that the natural strength and staying qualities of good material and good workmanship, could develop the greatest possible strength and durability.

It was on this theory that the Bull Dog beater wheel and the No-Choke Box were conceived and embodied as a part of this machine. These two features reduced the strain and heavy wear on the Litchfield Spreader so that at least 30 per cent of the usual strain on the other spreaders is absolutely cut out by these inventions.

The Self-Oiling journal bearings, the Litchfield style of single lever which starts, stops and regulates all parts of the machine and the general simplicity cuts down the possibility for trouble and breakage to such an extent that the machine is practically Fool-Proof.

The bolster construction of the front truck and the Litchfield style of bracing this truck to the frame, the large channel steel rails, the cross trussed and re-inforced frame, steel beater bars, self-aligning beater wheel bearings and our forced Self-Cleaning Conveyor with hinged sections—found only on Litchfield spreaders all combined give strength, durability and long life, which enables the Litchfield Mfg. Co. to give each purchaser of a Litchfield Spreader a written contract guaranteeing it for five years.

All possible causes for trouble, breakage and accidents are studiously removed and overcome. This statement is strong and so is the machine. The Company is behind it and so is the Barrington Mercantile Co.

HOW MEN AND WOMEN
CLIMB TO BIG SUCCESS
IN CHICAGO

Became General Manager of a Big Store in 15 Months

In March, 1914 I was a stranger in Chicago. I had no money and no job. I put a little "Situation Wanted" Ad in The Tribune and got a job in twenty-four hours. That was in 1914. Today, as the direct result of my Tribune "Situation Wanted" Ad, I am a successful business man. I have a 700-seat movie theater on one of the busiest streets in Chicago. ARTHUR LOVY, June 27, 1915. 710 Milwaukee Ave., Chicago

Owns a 700-Seater Movie Theater

That has been out of work but has $10 left. I put a little "Situation Wanted" Ad in The Tribune and got a job in twenty-four hours. That was in 1914. Today, as the direct result of my Tribune "Situation Wanted" Ad, I am a successful business man. I have a 700-seat movie theater on one of the busiest streets in Chicago. ARTHUR LOVY, June 27, 1915. 710 Milwaukee Ave., Chicago

Got Him the Best Job he Ever Had

It took exactly half an hour to get a job to pay for a four-line ad in The Tribune. I brought me four replies and the first one I answered was the best job I have ever had in my life. That was only a year ago, and today I am out of debt, my family is with me, and we are happy. HARRY P. G. 1147 Early Ave. June 25, 1915

The above are only brief quotations from some of the many letters received by The Chicago Tribune telling of the unusual success achieved through putting "Situation Wanted" ads in The Tribune.

The "Situation Wanted" and the "Help Wanted" columns of The Chicago Tribune, both daily and Sunday, have been the stepping stones by which thousands of young men and young women have secured positions that led to big incomes, independence, happiness and real success.

People who want positions quickly, without wasting time, energy and money, insert "Situation Wanted" ads in The Tribune, telling what they can do, and at the same time read the "Help Wanted" columns carefully every day in order to take advantage of any suitable openings that may appear there.

The Tribune carries more "HELP WANTED" advertising and more "Situation Wanted" advertising than any other paper in Chicago. If YOU want a good position

Put Your "Situation Wanted" Ad.
The Chicago Tribune

and also read the "Help Wanted" Ads in The Tribune every day, daily and Sunday.

A Substantial Telephone Patronage is enjoyed by the merchant who makes it easy for customers to reach his store by telephone.

Single line service affords a clear track for all orders that are telephoned and for that reason gives greater telephone value in the business establishment than the party line.

If you are now on a party line, why not change to a single line and test these statements. The additional cost is small.

LAKE ZURICH

The Farmers' Institute held here on last Saturday proved a great success and the ball was entirely filled all through the day and evening; everyone was greatly interested. In the afternoon at 6 o'clock, the speaker was Mrs. J. H. McMurry who gave information about baking bread and netness in the home while cooking; a great many women were present, all very eager to learn new things about cooking and they certainly had a good demonstration put before them; each one was presented with a leather-bound book.

A Boy Scout drill given by the younger boys brought out great applause. Miss Gertrude Hirs and Nettie Hillman sang and little girls of the primary grade gave a flag drill; other speakers on the afternoon program were Mr. Adkins and Mr. Lewis Pepper who talked upon the subject of Farming.

During the evening stereoscopic pictures were shown of country life and discussed by the speakers; one great topic was "Come on to the Farm"; modes of farming in different European countries were shown and were very interesting. The last number on the program was a Scotch pantomime given by seven girls all dressed in Scotch costumes who sang "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton" and "Blue Bells of Scotland," followed by all the audience singing "America."

This being the first experience the people of Lake Zurich ever had in enjoying a Farmers' Institute, the program was rather short, but all hope to have another here next year, with a longer and still better program, if possible.

Miss Emma Schneider was a Palatine visitor Sunday.

Miss Ida Barberous is now working for Mrs. William Tonne.

Lake Zurich men are working very hard to establish a bank here; several men went out around the country Monday to sell shares, although half the stock is already sold.

EASTLAND MEN FREE GIVES DATA ON MEXICO

FEDERAL JUDGE ABSOLVES OWNERS INDICTED FOR MURDER.

Rules Accused Need Not Leave Michigan—Assess Charge of Conspiracy Not Proved.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 21.—Six men charged by the government with responsibility for the loss of more than 800 lives in the Eastland disaster do not have to go to Chicago to stand trial.

This decision was handed down on Friday by Federal Judge Clarence W. Sessions, sitting as a commissioner in the district court here. He denied the government's application for a warrant of removal for the defendants, all of whom live in Michigan.

The finding of the court means practically that none of the defendants will ever be placed on trial by the government. There is a possibility that if any of them journey into other states than Michigan they may be seized and another attempt at extradition made, but it is declared to be a remote one.

The men, indicted here, who fought extradition and defeated the government are William H. Hall, president of the St. Joseph-Chicago Steamship company; George T. Arnold, general manager; Harry Pedersen, captain; Joseph M. Erickson, chief engineer, and Robert Reid and Charles C. Eckloff, federal inspectors.

Judge Sessions in his opinion, said the government had failed utterly in all attempts to show conspiracy and negligence.

In making his decision the judge said: "The dead cannot be restored to life. The sorrow of the living cannot be lessened by claiming other victims. The majesty of the law cannot be upheld and vindicated by taking men from their homes to stand trial among strangers upon accusations which there is barely a scintilla of proof to sustain. The verdict in this matter wisely fails to establish the probable cause for believing any of these defendants guilty of any crime charged in the indictments."

EIGHT DIE IN WRECK

SPECIAL RUNS INTO TRAIN NEAR MILFORD, CONN., AFTER KILLING FLAGMAN.

YALE ATHLETES ARE HURT

Sixteen Persons Seriously Injured—Bodies of Two Passengers Buried in Wreckage—Engineer and Fireman Lose Their Lives.

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 24.—Eight persons were killed, sixteen seriously injured and scores shaken up and bruised on Tuesday on the New York, New Haven & Hartford when the Connecticut River special, from Springfield for New York, stalled near Milford, was run into by a special train from Boston.

One of the cars of the Springfield train was filled with Yale students on the way to New York. It is not believed that any of them were killed, but several noted Yale men were injured and taken to a hotel at Bridgeport. Among these are John R. Kilpatrick of New York, former track athlete and football star; Allan Corey, son of William E. Corey, former president of the United States Steel corporation, and former Yale baseball captain; Morgan O'Brien, son of former Justice Morgan O'Brien of the New York supreme court, and Ford Johnson.

The Springfield train had stopped just outside of Milford because of trouble with an air hose. While this was being repaired the Boston train was seen coming. The flagman rushed ahead to give the warning, but in vain. He was ground to pieces by the oncoming train, the engineer and fireman of which also lost their lives. A Pullman porter also was crushed to death.

The debris was cleared away the bodies of two passengers were seen in piles of heavy wreckage. How many others were buried could not then be known. Two other passengers were taken out alive but terribly mutilated and these died a few hours later.

It is feared several more of the injured will die.

WOOD HITS AT DEFENSE FOES

Major General Calls Those Who Oppose Preparedness Dangerous Enemies of Nation.

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 24.—Major Gen. Leonard Wood, U. S. A., on Tuesday night made a stirring plea for preparedness of men, "not in preparation for war, but as insurance against it," in a speech at the annual Washington's birthday dinner of the Gray Club club in the Coleman. A great audience heard him. Other speakers were Henry D. Estabrook and Dudley Field Malone, collector of the port of New York.

General Wood confined his speech to the value of the military instruction camps, from which, he said, he hoped to see the army develop 50,000 officers for the reserve. He pointed out how small even this number is when compared to the 127,000 officers that were the blue in the Civil war.

HAVE ROSY CHEEKS AND FEEL FRESH AS A DAISY—TRY THIS!

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, to have a clear, cool tongue on a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of red hot water with a teaspoonful of Limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and Limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleanses out all the acid fermentation, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of Limestone phosphate will cost very little at your druggist or general store; but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so Limestone phosphate acts on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, and those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way than before.

In Other Words.

An Arkansas man who intended to take up a homestead claim in a neighboring state sought information in the matter from an Irish friend.

"I don't remember," said the Irish friend, "but I can give you the meaning of it all right. It's like this: The government of the United States is willing to let you 160 acres of land against fourteen dollars that you can't live on it five years without starving to death."

MOTHER! LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE

If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, and you have a hearty, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs"; then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation, poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the system. It will give you a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleaning" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given for any sickness. Beware of counterfeit. See it in every drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which he full directions for babies, children, all ages and for grown-ups, printed on the bottle. Adv.

WATERS OF STATE GET FISH SUPPLY

New Commission Distributes
18,750,000 Fry.

SPORT FOR THE ANGLERS

Bass, Pike, Perch and Other Game
Members of the Finny Tribe Are Bred—Report Just Issued to Governor Duane.

Springfield—The new state commission for game and fish conservation has built hatcheries from which 18,750,000 fish fry have been distributed in state waters within the last eighteen months, according to a report just issued to Governor Duane. In this manner bass and pike perch stock are placed in the lakes and streams and will provide ample sport for the anglers.

At present the commission must rely chiefly for its supply of young fish on the Springfield hatchery, which has grown to its present capacity of producing fish within two seasons. This plant includes a modern building, where pike perch, brook trout and rainbow trout are hatched; a twenty-four-acre breeding pond for black bass; two rearing ponds of two acres each and four cement brook and rainbow trout ponds.

From this plant in the last season the game and fish commission reports there have been produced and distributed 18,000,000 pike perch fry, 755,000 black bass (advanced) fry, 22,000 yearling black bass and a small consignment of rainbow trout fingerlings.

With increased facilities the bureau expects to hatch and distribute next year:

Thirty-five million pike perch fry, 1,000,000 black bass (advanced) fry, 100,000 black bass fingerlings and about 15,000 rainbow brook trout fingerlings.

The Springfield hatchery plant differs in many essential particulars from hatcheries in general. Profiting by the errors of other breeders who were without suitable precedents to guide them, the commission has departed somewhat from the conventional to the end that they are able to breed and handle young fish at a comparatively low cost.

The output from the Springfield hatchery goes largely to the heart of the northern part of the state. Some fish from this plant have been put in the Kankakee river and other waters south of Chicago. However, transporting fish such a distance and taking into account transfer charges at Chicago make it impracticable to take care of these waters from the Springfield hatchery. Besides there are lakes and streams in the northern part of the state that need all the fish that can be bred at one plant. There is, therefore, need of a hatchery at or near Chicago from which the waters of the middle and southern sections of the state may be stocked.

In addition to the fish distributed from the hatcheries and breeding pond, great numbers are taken from the land-locked waters of the Mississippi and Illinois rivers. These backwater ponds overflow in the spring and make good spawning grounds for lake trout fish and splendid feeding grounds for the young fish. Unless these young fish are caught they will perish in these shallow waters during the winter.

The game and fish conservation commission was created at the beginning of Governor Duane's administration to take the place of the old game department and fish commission which were abolished.

Women Can Run for Committee.

Another claim was put into the arena of law by which Illinois attempts to govern its elections when Secretary of State Stevenson filed that women may be candidates for state central committee and delegate to national conventions. This women may not vote for the women who filed. That was decided by the supreme court. A woman candidate can't even vote for herself. Still, according to the secretary of state, women may not be candidates for ward and precinct committee.

And it is up to the central committee of the parties to decide whether they shall admit women delegates and state committee members, even after they are elected.

Discovery of these latest quibbles in the primary law was made by Mr. Stevenson when in examination of the act was made necessary by objections filed to the petition of Mrs. William candidates.

Estate Clashes With U. S.

The state of Illinois has declared war against the bureau of animal industry of the United States department of agriculture.

Return of the foot-and-mouth epidemic—the third within less than two years—furnishes the foundation for a sharp exchange of hostilities between A. D. Melvin, chief of the federal bureau at Chicago, and the Illinois state board of live stock commissioners, represented by B. J. Shanley, its chairman, and the Illinois state veterinarian, Dr. O. B. Dyson.

The Illinois state board issued a peremptory order that all cattle, sheep and swine "freeders" removed from the Union stock yards to points within Illinois shall be held in quarantine for a full period of twenty-one days.

This was the answer of the state authorities to the order of the federal bureau No. 242, sent out from Washington February 11, preventing interstate movement of animals for purposes other than slaughter in the state of Illinois north of a line drawn with the southern border of Christian county as its base. This line is about thirty miles south of Springfield.

The state order will not be withdrawn until federal order No. 242 is withdrawn. Mr. Dyson said: "We are going to a showdown, and the state authorities will not permit themselves to be goaded in the crisis, which is very grave."

Illinois has a direct interest in what is happening by reason of $2,000,000 already spent by the legislature to pay for relief of stock raisers hurt in the two prior outbreaks of the stock epidemic.

Less Primary Fight.
Again cannot vote for delegates to the national convention or for precinct or state central committee members, according to the decision of the supreme court.

The court dismissed a petition of J. T. Garretson for a mandamus against County Clerk Myers of Sangamon county to compel him to print the names of delegates and committee members on the women's ballots at the April primary.

The decision of the court was announced by Chief Justice Farmer. He said:

"The petition and demurrer present the question whether women can vote at the primaries in April for delegates to the national convention for precinct and state central committee members. The court also vote for the election of committee members of political parties."

"What is commonly known as the women's suffrage statute authorizes women to vote at elections for delegates to certain offices named in the statute. The primary election law gives women the right to vote at primary elections for the nomination of candidates for such offices as they may vote for at the election for which the primary is held. Candidates for delegates to the national convention and party committee members are not nominated, but are elected at the April primary."

"Under the authority of Scott v. Caraceni, 204 Illinois 305, the legislature could have authorized women to vote for the election of delegates to national conventions for party committee members. It did not do so, and whether this was intentional or not it is not within the province of the court to read into the statute something not expressed or necessarily implied. The remedy is with the legislature."

"The demurrer to the petition is sustained and the petition dismissed."

Reality Agency Act Invalid.

The supreme court, in an opinion handed down in the case of the People vs. Frederick S. Oliver et al., doing business as Oliver & Co., Chicago, against Secretary of State Stevenson, holds invalid the act permitting real estate agencies to incorporate. The act was passed by the forty-ninth general assembly. Attorney General Lucy held that it violated the constitution in attempting to amend the general corporation act by title only. On this point the court is divided. On the other point, Secretary of State Stevenson refused to grant incorporation papers to Oliver and the mandamus was brought. The court upheld the view that the act is in fact an amendment to the general corporation act and not a separate act, as it purports to be, and that it is therefore unconstitutional.

6,152,237 in Illinois.

The population of Illinois will be 6,152,237 by July 1, 1916, according to estimates prepared by the federal census bureau. These estimates are mere computations based on the assumption that the annual percentage increase in population from year to year since 1910 has been the same as the average annual numerical increase which prevailed between 1900 and 1910.

According to the announcement the census bureau gives the following estimates of the population of Illinois: July 1, 1915, 6,059,519; January 1, 1916, 6,110,588; July 1, 1916, 6,152,237; an increase of $2,738 for the year.

TOY WINDMILLS.

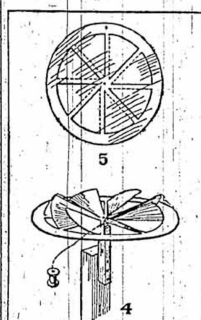

The simplest windmill to make, and one of the best whirling ever devised, in the common paper pinwheel mounted upon its stick (Fig. 1).

A piece of paper 8 or 10 inches square is needed for the pinwheel. Fold this piece of paper diagonally from corner to corner, both ways. Then open the paper, and with a pair of scissors cut along the diagonal creases from the corners to within 1 inch of the center (Fig. 2). Then one by one fold corners A, B, C and D over to the center, as shown in Fig. 3, and run a pin through the corners and through the center of the sheet.

The windmill in Fig. 4 may be made of cardboard or tin. A circular piece 10 or 12 inches in diameter is required. After marking out the outer edge with a compass, describe an inner circle about 1 inch inside of it; then draw two lines through the center at right angles to each other, and another pair at an angle of 45 degrees to these. The four lines are indicated by heavy lines in Fig. 5. One-half inch to one inch of these lines draw a parallel line, as indicated by dotted lines in Fig. 6. The next thing to do is to cut out the disk, and cut through on the heavy lines just as far as the lines are shown on the diagram (Fig. 5), and then to fold on the other, or dotted lines.

The hub for the windmill shown in Fig. 6 is a disk of wood 4 inches in diameter and one inch thick (Fig. 7). Draw two lines across one face, through the center, and at right angles to each other. Then carry these lines across the edge of the disk, not at right angles to the sides, but at an angle of 45 degrees. Saw along these lines to a depth of 1/2 inch. The ends of the windmill blades are to fit in these slots. Cut the blades of equal size, 9 inches long, 5 inches wide on the wide edge, and 1 1/2 inches wide on the narrow edge, and fasten them in the slots with nails. The hub block with the blades in position, should next be pivoted to the end of the windmill shaft, a stick 1/2 inch long (Fig. 8). The end opposite to that to which the hub is pivoted is whittled round, and slotted with a saw to receive a tail (Fig. 9).

HOMEMADE SCRAPBOOKS.

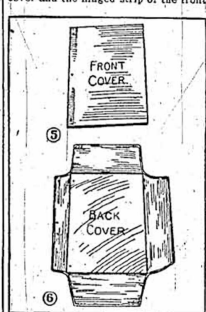

The covers of your scrapbook may be of cardboard from drygoods boxes. If you haven't any boxes at home you can get them for the asking at a drygoods store. The scrapbook leaves should be of manilla wrapping paper. Any merchant will sell you what you need at a trifling more than it costs him. The size of your scrapbook pages should be regulated by the size of the sheets of wrapping paper, so the paper may be cut with little or no waste.

The way to prepare the front cover of the scrapbook in Fig. 1 is shown in Fig. 2. Cut a strip 1 inch wide from the binding edge of this cover, and then with a piece of drilling about 3/16 inch wide hinge the strip to the edge you cut it from. Cost the piece of drilling high glue and fold it over the strip so its edges will lay over both the upper and lower surfaces of the cover.

Punch three holes through the back cover and the hinged strip of the front cover, one near each end, and one through the center.

If you haven't a punch for punching the holes of the scrapbook use the point of a nail. Figure 3 shows how to index the pages with tabs lapped and pasted to both sides of the sheet, and Fig. 4 suggests an arrangement of scraps. When an article occupies both sides of a clipping paste it along one margin as shown.

Lace together the covers and leaves with a needle. Pass the lace down through the center holes, along the outside of the back cover to one end, up through the holes at that end, along the front cover to the holes at the other end, down through these holes, along the back cover to the center holes, up through them, and then tie the ends in a bowknot.

By covering the front and back covers with denim, canvas or cambric, lapping and sewing the cloth to both sides of the front cover (Fig. 5), and providing flaps upon the place fastened to the back cover (Fig. 6), a more attractive scrapbook will be obtained, and the leaves will be protected by the flaps.

Figure 7 shows a scrapbook made like a letter-file. Get a cardboard box about 10 inches wide, 12 inches long and 5 inches deep, separate one long side from the corners, and with a strip of linen hinge it to open as shown in Fig. 8. Then cut a strip about 1 inch wide from one long edge of the cover, and hinge it back in place with a linen strip (Fig. 9). Place the cover upon the box and sew the turned-down side edge and ends of the hinged strip to the box. The scrapbook will then be ready for its pages, which may be prepared as shown in Figs. 3 and 4.

Tough on Percival

At a dance Percival Claude was presented to a beautiful young girl from an adjacent town and during the evening it was his great happiness to lead her around the paper mache palm for ice cream and angel cake.

"And so," said the girl in response to Percival's story of his life, "you have never married."

"No," answered Percival, "I shall never marry until I meet a woman who is my direct opposite."

"That should not be hard," returned the pretty one with a faint smile. "There are bright, intelligent girls in every part of the town."

Discouraged.

"You know the old saying that pride goes before a fall."

"Oh, yes," replied the postmistress, "but my faith in the adage has been considerably shaken."

"In what way?"

"I've been watching a certain neighbor of mine for about 25 years, and he still carries it high."

"Maybe he'll fall yet."

For Rheumatism.
As soon as an attack of Rheumatism begins apply Sloan's Liniment. Don't waste time and suffer unnecessary agony. A few drops of Sloan's Liniment on the affected parts is all you need. The pain goes at once.

A grateful sufferer writes:—"I was suffering for three weeks with Chronic Rheumatism and stiff neck, although I tried many medicines, they failed, and I was under the care of a doctor. Fortunately I heard of Sloan's Liniment and after using it three or four days my pain went away. I am employed at the largest drug store in St. E. where they employ from six to eight hundred hands, and they surely will hear all about Sloan's Liniment.—B. Smith, San Francisco, Cal.—Jan. 1916.
