THE DANGER OF GOSSIP

In Hawthorne's book, "Mosses from an Old Manse," it is written that "the most terrible mischief that ever came from the mouth of man is the tale which he tells of his neighbor's life."
It is true that gossip is a very common thing in this world. It is the habit of many people to talk about the faults and weaknesses of their neighbors. They do this in a way that is often very hurtful to the person being talked about. They may say things that are not true, or they may say things that are true but in a way that is very damaging to the person's reputation. Gossip is a very dangerous thing, and it is one that we should all try to avoid.

Bell System

WHEN MEMBERS of the Reserve Officers' Training Camp at Fort Sheridan began receiving their commissions, their first thought was to notify their relatives and friends, somewhere and where, wherever they might be. To do this a rub was made for a telephone—nowhere in Lake County.

STOP FOR A MINUTE and think how the call must have piled up! Chicago, Detroit, Milwaukee, Louisville, Davenport and a score of other places. And not only each place called for be reached, but every one of this lot of eager, happy, instant was intent on getting his call through FIRST and getting it through quick.

RUSHES ARE FREQUENTLY made on the telephone service in normal times and they are always more or less difficult to handle.

WITH WAR ACTIVITIES at flood tide the problem increases in complexity, and in the case in point some men had to wait, but all were served, finally.

MOST GRATIFYING to the Telephone Company was the fact that every man was patient, all seemed to realize his position, and did their part in helping us by being good natured.

Great Program is Outlined for Food Pledge Week Campaign, October 21 to 28. Those Who Fight Must Be Fed

Washington.—The million food conservation pledges! Twenty-two million men visited! A colossal campaign projected on the largest scale the work to be accomplished is as great as though a score of the country were to be taken in a week!

Such is the program outlined for the food pledge week campaign, October 21 to 28.

What is so much food? In every state thousands of people are asking these questions while the hands of others are preparing them for the food pledge week campaign.

The reason why the food pledge campaign has been projected upon broad lines is simple enough; plain enough.

So simple and so plain that they are being taken up by the people of every state and every town. It is so plain that it is being taken up by the people of every state and every town.

It is so plain that it is being taken up by the people of every state and every town. It is so plain that it is being taken up by the people of every state and every town.

It is so plain that it is being taken up by the people of every state and every town. It is so plain that it is being taken up by the people of every state and every town.

It is so plain that it is being taken up by the people of every state and every town. It is so plain that it is being taken up by the people of every state and every town.

It is so plain that it is being taken up by the people of every state and every town. It is so plain that it is being taken up by the people of every state and every town.

It is so plain that it is being taken up by the people of every state and every town. It is so plain that it is being taken up by the people of every state and every town.

It is so plain that it is being taken up by the people of every state and every town. It is so plain that it is being taken up by the people of every state and every town.

It is so plain that it is being taken up by the people of every state and every town. It is so plain that it is being taken up by the people of every state and every town.

It is so plain that it is being taken up by the people of every state and every town. It is so plain that it is being taken up by the people of every state and every town.

It is so plain that it is being taken up by the people of every state and every town. It is so plain that it is being taken up by the people of every state and every town.
