

CRUELTY CALLED "EMANATION OF HIGH KULTUR"

General Von Bissing's Defense of German War Practices Is Significant.

INCIDENT NOT TO BE SPARED

General von Bissing Declares
They Must Suffer With the Guilty
—Irvin Cobb Tells of Reason ability of Kaiser's High Command.

"The Committee on Public Information, appointed by the president and consisting of the secretary of state, secretary of war, secretary of the navy, and George Creel, official censor, has been presented with evidence dealing with German war practices which shows the Kaiser's leaders in the war are not to be blamed. The points to be directly responsible for the basenesses which has characterized the German war are the Kaiser and the present conflict. Quotations from the pamphlet follow:

"The interview was reproduced in the Berliner Zeitung of November 20, 1914.

Mr. F. C. Waukeen of the Belgian section of the Foreign Service, in the Geographical Magazine for May, 1917, of meeting Gen von Bernhardi.

"A German General, Gen von Bernhardi came into the room, an expert artillerist, a professor in one of the universities, and a man of the world. Next morning, he asked, 'Germany is the next to be invaded.'

"I said, 'I had him. He said: 'Do you know, my friends nearly ran me out of the room? You have the cut out of the bag.' I said, 'No, I have not, because nobody would believe it.' What did you think of it?'

"I said, 'General, I did not believe a word of it when I read it. I did not feel it was true. I did not believe the "truth" and the old general looked extremely pleased.'

Speaking on August 20, 1914, at Munster, of the extreme measures which the Germans felt obliged to take against Belgium, Gen. von Bissing said:

"The innocent must suffer with the guilty. The innocent human life cannot be spared, and if isolated houses, flourishing villages, and entire towns are destroyed, that is naturally regrettable, but it must not exceed 1500000 men. All this must be done in order to weight the scales in our favor, a single one of our brave soldiers—the rigorous account of which is the smallest detail of a high knight. In that, the population of the enemy countries can learn a lesson from our example."

Officers Enclosed Atrocities.

Gen. von Bissing, after his appointment as governor general of Belgium, reported to the Foreign Minister the addition to a Dutch journal. The interview is published in the Dusseldorf Arbeiter Zeitung.

Irvin S. Cobb states his conclusions on the responsibility of the higher German command for the war.

"But I was on crenelations to crimes which, measured by the standards of humanism and civilization, are no worse than any individual's excess; any individual's outrage, could ever have been or can ever be committed. These were wholesale massacres instigated on a wholesale basis by orders of the highest rank. They were carried out under their personal inspiration, direction, and approval. What I mean is that I was in the command of a section of the German army in which a prawn's worth of wanton destruction had been ordered to occur in the ripe years, had been touched upon the garden walls; and I saw other wide areas where scarcely a dozen houses were left standing, where the most villainous, bestial, and most abominable horrors had been left in den like the beasts."

"The most solid evidence offered before our own eyes, and buttressing it with the oaths made to us, and the oaths of our fathers and grandfathers and German officers, we could deduce one conclusion, which was that the German command had said to the troops: 'Spank this town and these people, and if they do not give up, 'Westen this town and shoot these people.' And here the troops had indiscriminately shot, indiscriminately killed, indiscriminately wasted, in exact accordance with the word of their superiors."

Monarch of Loyalty Islands Expresses Hope They Will Become "Part of Commonwealth."

"King" William of the Loyalty Islands has returned from Flanders, where he had been serving with the Australian expeditionary force, full of hope that the islands over which he will be come a part of Australia.

"While I was in England," he said, "I had interviews with A. Bonar Law and Walter Long of the British government, and on my way back I have had many interviews with the British Foreign Office."

"Australia, these gentlemen have been given the understanding that my return to the Loyalty Islands is for the commonwealth. I am informed by the British government that we are to be a part of the commonwealth."

"The British government has been told that we are to be a part of the commonwealth, and that we are but waiting until the end of the war." King William was wounded in France.

SCENE OF MUNITION EXPLOSION AT HALIFAX

1—Approximate location of explosion between the Mount Blane, French munition ship, and the iron, a Belgian relief steamer. The Mount Blane exploded, and the iron, a Belgian relief steamer, was partially wiped out. 2—Richmond, the section of Halifax which was principally wiped out. 3—Dartmouth, the section of Halifax which was partially wiped out. 4—St. Paul's, the section of Halifax which was partially wiped out. 5—The area where the iron was heavily damaged.

The losses of the English must be enormous. There is a desire to wipe them out.

The English are everywhere extremely tenacious and bloody. The English will not stop and will not give up.
