KILLED ON RAILROAD CROSSING AT WARREN

Fred H. Sandman Meets Tragic Death Last Saturday; Parents Reside Here

The dangers of railway crossings was vividly recalled to the minds and hearts of many a Barringtonian when it was learned that Fred H. Sandman of Warren, Illinois, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sandman of Elgin, was killed last Saturday at the Russell crossing, two miles west of Warren. The crossing is regarded as an especially dangerous one for it is impossible to see trains from the high way. There is no flagman, although a gong is run automatically.

The Sandmans resided across about 2 1/2 miles, a regular train had gone to pass there at that hour had gone to and it is thought he had seen the train and so judged that crossing to be safe. He had been riding a fast train, the "Duke of York" on the Illinois Central Railroad, was approaching, behind time of account of the accident. The Sandman was hit by the fast train and thrown about forty feet. He died as he came in contact with the ground and it was found that his leg was broken and his left arm was dislocated.

After running about 75 yards the train was stopped and backed up.

The crew took the body to Warren, where it was placed in the funeral home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Frazee, 115 Main Street.

Mr. Frazee was the officiating pastor and after the service, Mr. Frazee, Mr. and Mrs. Frazee and his son took charge of the casket and accompanied the casket to the grave in the church cemetery at the east end of town, for the doctor was a member of the Masonic Lodge of that village.

Dr. Sandman was a most worthy man and it is a tragedy indeed when a man of his talents and experience has swept away from us so young—only twenty-six years old. And in his short life he has done much for the welfare of his community and is much lamented. His record is clean and one of which to be proud. That fact will offer some consolation to his wife and parents.

The son of his birth was August 20, 1913, and he was born in Barrington. He attended the school, the higher, the trade and college, has been a sweep, away from us so young—only twenty-six years old. And in his short life he has done much for the welfare of his community and is much lamented. His record is clean and one of which to be proud. That fact will offer some consolation to his wife and parents.

A PROCLAMATION

The Christmas season is upon us.

How shall we best spend it? It is a time of mingled joy and reverence, of tender thought and kindly deed. This year will be no exception, and by far the greatest tragedy which enfolds the world. All the more reason why the tenderness, the generosity, the gladness of the Christmas season should find full expression in this. How can this now be better done than by a "mighty enlisted army" of the people.

For the Red Cross affords the reality of mercy and gentleness and compassion, and the triumph of the spirit. Just as the Red Cross

Patriotism long continues since

The Allies have captured the sad spot where "That Cross stood and the world may only recuperate the spirit which went out from Calvary, all will be well.

Our soldier boys in the camps and in the front will stand heads and shoulders high, and by their example

They anxiously ask, "How about our people at home?" Let them realize the magnitude of our task. Do we not have responsibilities, and we are their prayers. If so, we shall surely

Let us, in this Christmas season make a better world by raising all our people to strict virtue and boys and girls under the banner of the Red Cross.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of State at the Capitol in Springfield, this Fifteenth Day of December, in the year of our Lord One Thousand, Nine Hundred and Sixty-

Four and of the Independence of the United States One Hundred and Forty-Second Year.

INCOME TAX

You won't have to figure out your own tax. The government is going to send us a bill. It will be up to you to hunt up these men, who will be sent into every county seat town, and some other small towns, to help the people.

Postmen, bankers, and newspaper men will be able to tell you when the government's income tax man will be around. If you don't know when, you will know when he will arrive. The date of income for 1917 must be made between January 1 and March 1, 1918.

The Government, the Collector of Internal Revenue, and the Senate, said today, "that many persons experience a good deal of difficulty in different income tax forms."

It is recommended that in the amounts at points where collectors' offices are not easily accessible find it hard to get proper instructions in the new law. See your lawyer every person living with his wife and having a net income of $5,000 and more, and having a net income of $5,000 or less, and in the case of a return of income on the form prescribed, there will be hundreds in every community seeking light on the law, and the collector will be return.

My own and every other collector in the nation will be on the alert, and a government collector informed in the income tax assigned to each district. He will spend hardly less time than each county, and some counties a great deal more, very likely in the courthouses at the county seat town. Is there where there are collectors' branch offices in the towns, and the collector will probably at the city hall. My office will be in time saving postmasters and taxers and send out notices to the taxpayers, and the collector will offer will be in each county. It will be unnecessary for prospective taxpayers to ask in office for form on which to make out their tax. The office to which they will go will have them

"It may be stated as a matter of general information that 'net income' is the remainder of gross income after deducting all expenses in the meaning of the law, the exemption being allowed to cover such expenses."These exemptions of $1,000, and $2,000 will add tens of thousands to the number of taxpayers who will be entitled to exemptions, and much as practically every farmer, merchant, tradesman, professional man and salary worker, and a great many wage workers will be entitled to make return and pay tax."

"The law makes it the duty of the taxpayer to make his tax return and pay his tax, and if he does not, he is liable to a fine and imprisonment.

"The taxpayer has the right to have his tax form sent, or a government agent will call, they are relieved from the task of making a report to the government. It is the other way around."The taxpayer has the right to be within the time prescribed, and the government will go to him with its penalties."
