The First Auction Sale of The Porkmaker Herd of Berkshires

It may be surprising to some of our friends to learn that our first auction sale will be held in Bluffton, Indiana, instead of Barrington, Ill.

The reason for this is that we have just taken over the entire herd. W. R. McCollister, who lives near Elgin, Ill., and Mr. McCollister will move to Barrington, Ill., to combine his work, as well as his wife, with our herd here. Mr. McCollister has a great many friends and good customers in Indiana, and we felt it no more than right that they should be offered an opportunity to buy some of his best stock before he leaves the state. Accordingly we will hold a

Bred Sow Sale,
SATURDAY, MARCH 1, 1919
At Bluffton, Indiana

The sale will include 50 head of fine large sows and gilts bred to good hoghams; Mr. McCollister has a hundred dollars board, Dukes Champion 1918, and his herd, Laramie, Royal 41st, and McCollister's Epochal herd, Epochal's Improver.

This will be a splendid opportunity for those in the vicinity of Barrington to come ready to run some real hogs from the best breeders, hogs, to buy at a low price, and to get a real bargain.

Several people have already planned to go from Barrington to attend the auction, and if there are any who do not care to make the trip now, may be able to do so later.

The Barrington Review is now printing a complete catalog, and this will be mailed free to anyone who wishes to have a copy, whether you are sure you want to buy hogs or not. Send your name at once and get complete information about the sale, and about the Porkmaker herd in the catalog. Fill in the blank below and mail it now.
