

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

THE diverse occupations and activities of the modern woman's day make a flock, called in every hour of it about impossible of accomplishment. Therefore, "chickadee" is a description, is to be taken with some limitations—only really means the greater part of a day. But chickadee-chickadee, and similar words have inspired dreams of freedom to make models that mean as near to answer the ability year as we are likely to ever come.

One of these all-day frocks, as shown in the illustration, are unbecomingly, but elegant models in which one woman may find this, many of the points and other of them which are developed in chickadee-chickadee. One of the crests or other simple ways of all. The frock pictured at the left must be imagined in a dark color of crepe-de-chin, and a good quality. It is one of many that become the accepted by refusing to depart from straight lines. The bottom of the skirt is enriched with a wide band of embroidery in silk. Like the dress to come, and increase the width of the skirt. The lower circle across the front, feet.

The KITCHEN CABINET

It will prove a greater blessing than character is general influence. It makes friends, creates funds, draws pictures and reports and saves us easy way to health, home and happiness. —Harris

REASONABLE GOOD THINGS.

Now that the younger trend, then greens are here, let us try them in the following dress.

First Dressing.—Dark and drabs one pair of fresh trousers, one pair of small calves and fry up.

It is crisp and brown. Heat the fat with salt and add to two tablespoons of sugar, one fourth teaspoon of salt, one ounce of a cupful of water, one-fourth cup of vinegar. Pour this mixture into the frying pan with the bacon and mix well, stirring constantly until thickened. It should be served consistency of cream. Pour boiling hot over the finished greens.

Paper.—Take a bunch of oat, one and one-half pounds of Hungarian tripe. Cook the veal with a tablespoonful of salt, two large slices of onion sliced, one pepper cone, two bay leaves, one tablespoonful of marjoram, one tablespoonful of fresh basil and dill, one hot red pepper, one-fourth of a teaspoon of pepper, all in a bag, the red pepper cut in small pieces. Simmer two hours with the milk in the order.

Remove the veal from the stock. Cut the cleaned tripe, which has been washed in salt water and leaved in water in pelamine strips. Slice up to the stock for one hour. Add two large potatoes cut in dice and add egg, beat the size of egg, made by beating an egg and adding flour to make a dough stiff enough to hold in the hands. Cook for half an hour longer, then thicken with two tablespoons of sweet fat and three of cream. Cook until well blended and serve hot. The veal may be changed, or part of it, and added to the dish. This will serve two persons.

Roasted Strawberry Shortcake.—Roast together two cups and a half of sugar, one-half cup of sugar, three tablespoons of baking powder and one-half cup of butter. Beat one egg, add one cupful of milk and mix all together. Turn into a buttered mold and steam three hours. Serve with whipped cream and straw-berry sauce.

SUCH A NICE TOWN! MAN!

This Minister Evidently met One of the New School of Blues and Direct Speech.

Though scarcely broad enough and treated never "shorter" do not come from the department of Frank N. Wallace, state ethnologist, experienced racist, and one who lives around the best division of Mr. Wallace's ethnic group counts on as at least one good day. Here is the latest note:

He was a young minister of the old school. He did not follow the modern doctrine of freedom to be spoken, especially with the language of this stock. Photograph and "passed" for most before a large gathering of "outgoing, good-looking, up-to-date" people. Another straight-line dress against the trend of the times and with a shock of ultra-modern he said: "And my dear young friends, do you know that even this very day there have come in into your houses that are in this very community a lot of hard-boiled hoodlums!"—Chicago.

One Would Be Happy. It was the first night of the new year.

"Yes," murmured the author to the manager, "that scene-shifter over there is a most popular looking fellow."

"Yes, he's an old hand," said the manager.

"An old hand?" "What an earth make you say him?"

"He's a man who has been in the business for a long time, and he's a good one."

"Oh, I see," said the author, "but I don't know him."

"He's a man who has been in the business for a long time, and he's a good one."

ROOFS

The road is wide and the stars are out and the breath of night is sweet. And this is the time when the wanderer should arise upon his feet. But I'm glad to turn from the open road and the starlight on my face. And to leave the splendour of out-of-doors for a human dwelling place. I never have seen a vagabond who really liked to roam. The tramp who slept in your barn and night and left at break of day will wander only until he finds another place to stay. A speculator will sleep in your barn with canvas over his head. Or else he'll go into his tent when it is time for bed. But all on the grass and with canvas over his head. If you call it a prayer a vagabond, I think you do him wrong. For he never goes to travelling but he takes his kith and kin. And the only reason he goes to roam is that he has no home. In just because of the houses, the houses, the houses to which it goes. They say that it is a highway and that it is the road to the stars. And now and then there's a lot of good women who buy your kith and kin. It's a rough road and it's a hard one, but it's the only road that leads to it. That at last it leads to it. That's where good houses live.

Now is the time to put your roofs in repair before the arrival of Spring rains. Shingles are low in price.

THE MODERN INKHOEN

Not so many years ago the inkhoe was considered a relic of the past. It is a serious matter to put off getting your inkhoe, such as you can get at this agency. It's the part of wisdom to get it as soon as you can. We recommend the Hartford Fire Insurance Company—one of the oldest, most reliable companies in the business.

Today a business man is expected to carry a sub-machine—the fountain pen. As such and convenient as a pencil. Writes easily anywhere, fills at a touch from your inkwell. A gift to do your letters, your hand, your pen.

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES FOR RENT

REFLECT ON THIS

Fire is no respecter of persons. You may wait 'till tomorrow to insure, but the first fire may wait.

It is a serious matter to put off getting your fire insurance, such as you can get at this agency. It's the part of wisdom to get it as soon as you can. We recommend the Hartford Fire Insurance Company—one of the oldest, most reliable companies in the business.
