about this excellent feature of the celebration and they have their reward in the satisfaction of knowing that their efforts were productive of such desirable results.

Instantly after the parade Roy John S. Delano, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church and president of the Chicago Council of Churches, presided at a short devotional service, and then the races and stunts continued, with but a brief interruption for lunch, until time for ball game.

They were participated in with enthusiasm and several hundred dollars was given away in prizes. Roy Verne Hager was chairman of the committee having this part of the program in charge, and he and his committee did excellent work.

Baseball game, an interesting game, with a score of three to nothing, and the boxing and wrestling matches were staged immediately after the game and were witnessed by hundreds.

J. D. Robinson and Chas. Berg put on an interesting preliminary. Berg having a shade on Robinson because of his greater weight and longer reach. The main bout between Frank Baumgartner of Cary and Kid Rocco, who hails from the east, was snappy and played spectators, although Rocco was apparently not in proper condition and Baumgartner seemed to tire him out easily. In the wrestling match Dick Toms of Lake Zurich got the first fall but was unable to repeat and was thrown for the next two by his opponent, Jensen of the Walkefeld farms.

This activities kept the crowd interested all day and there was not a dull moment. After supper a large audience gathered to see the balloon ascension, "Daredevil" Reynolds made a perfect ascension and double parachute drop, and so many who witnessed the feat for the first time this was the feature of the entire day.

The fireworks were as represented and no word of criticism was heard. Many remained until a late hour for the pavement dance. The music was satisfactory and the dance well patronized. But was not productive of a profit for the Legion, which gratification last charge of this part of the entertainment.

The Legion took in something over $100 on the day and will make a small profit, less than $100.

The flag for the band was demonstrated well to the Baptists.

HOW TO KEEP FROM GROVING OLD
(Title with apologies to Gar Williams, Cartoonist, Chicago Tribune)
Always drive fast out of alleyways.
Always run with loose joints in the cranks.
Engineers like it. It breaks the monotony of their jobs.

Always pass the car around on curves or turns. Don't use your horn because it might annoy the other fellow and cause him to turn out too far.

Always hold the road—the middle half, insist on your rights.
Drive fast on wet pavements. There is always something to stop you—often a heavy truck or a strong car.

Never yield the road to the car behind. The driver may be a "remorseful" being pursued.

Never drive faster than the car behind. The driver may be a "remorseful" being pursued.

Always stop, look, or listen at the R. crossings. It costs time.

Drive confidently, say as though there weren't eleven million other cars in service.

In wet weather always drive in traffic tracks. It's smooth going and out of the mud.

Always lock your brakes when skidding. It makes the job more artistic.

Is doggy waste drive close to pedestrians. Fly cleaner appreciate it.

Always use a "put-out." All sayings need it.

Never sound your horn on the road. It's sure late at night as a doorbell—very few homes have a doorbell.

Always pass cars on hills. It shows you have more power; and you can turn out if you meet a car at the top.

Take the shortest roads around blind left-hand curves. Let the other fellow watch out for himself.

Never look around when you back up. There is never anything behind you.

A few shots of booze will make you do real stunts. For permanent results do it often.

Prof. Dittmar declares that more than 100 people died from malaria bites in the United States during the past year. What a fine argument for anti-malaria medicine.

A fortune awaits someone who will invent a safe and convenient way to get rid of used razor blades.

The Barrington Chamber of Commerce team defeated the team of the Palatine Commercial Association here the Fourth, winning the three game series between the two teams. Barrington brought in three runs, while Palatine failed to score at all. The game was an interesting one from beginning to end, both teams having men on bases nearly every inning.

Barrington's pitching was a feature of the game, and he was given perfect support by his team mates. Palatine broke the ice, and Bartholomew and Cook brought in the other two in the following manner:

Hoppe was Palatine's star, playing excellent ball at short and catching the two of Palatine's six hits, one of which, a triple to right field in the last inning, he caught with scoring.

And here is the dope in detail: Palatine—AB R H E. Flood, 3b. 4 1 4 0. Abramo, 1b. 4 0 2 0. Schwem, 1b. 4 0 0 0. Plieger, E. 2b. 4 0 1 0. Stiefenhofer, C. 4 0 1 0. Lipovsky, C. 4 0 1 0. Berg, 1b. 3 1 2 0. Bartholomew, p. 3 1 2 0.

Elmer Red Sox, N. B. W. 6. A sad tale with a thrilling finish. Early in the game Elmer took the lead and held it up to the sixth inning, when the count was tied. The next three innings were scoreless and hitless, but in the tenth the excitement ran high. In their half, Elmer gathered four runs of five hits. Our boys came up and made a desperate effort to tie the again, but two was their limit.

This game was full of freak situations, uncovering some poor ball playing and also some spectacular fielding. Bartholomew's one-handed catch and throw from left field in the tenth inning furnished the fans with something to report to Jimmy Wills' home run in the tenth, with Berg on the bases, furnished some more excitement.

Kraus pitched a very good game for the locals, as did Bueche of Elgin. Each allowed eight hits in ten innings.
