County Fair Is Underway Today; A Good Show

Agricultural, Live Stock, and Poultry Exhibits Form Important Part

GOOD PROGRAM ON TAP

Band, Chorus, Indian Horse, Auto Races, Fireworks, Porkchop Plenty of Fun

The annual Cook County Fair at Elgin is in full swing today. Yesterday was the first day of the fair, and today is the second. The fair opens at 10 a.m. this morning, a day ahead of schedule.

At 10 a.m. this morning, when the Review went to press, the weather was perfect, and the fair was well attended. It is expected that a crowd will be there through the gate for the opening of the fair, and the day is likely to show a large attendance.

The Cook County Fair has suffered slightly the past two years, one reason of which is the lack of interest of some of the officers of the fair, and another is the fact that the fair has not been attended. It is to be hoped that the new officers of the fair will do their best to make the fair a success.

The Cook County Fair is located in the C. G. Hibbitts building, and T. G. C. Hibbitts, president, and T. G. C. Hibbitts, vice-president, and T. G. C. Hibbitts, treasurer, and T. G. C. Hibbitts, secretary, of the previous two years. The fair is to be held on Saturday and Sunday, and good weather is to be expected.

The fair is to be held on Saturday and Sunday, and good weather is to be expected.

Big Farm Show

The fair is to be held on Saturday and Sunday, and good weather is to be expected.

AIR TRANSPORTATION GROWING

The airplane is the first mode of transportation to recognize no physical or geographical barrier to its ultimate use.

The foundation of aviation has been laid through years of hazardous experimenting. Some $500,000,000 has gone into its various branches during the last two years.

It is probably necessary to look forward only a few years to see the marked and distinct growth in the number of airports and in the number of passengers carried in much the same fashion as is now done by railroads; transcontinental services in aircraft provided with comfortable sleeping accommodations; radio-telephone communication for passengers and crew, and a service so comprehensive that practically every important industrial center in the United States will be identified with this new agency of freight and passenger transportation.

On the Pacific Coast, the Pacific Air Transport carries mail and passengers, north and south from Seattle to Los Angeles, a distance of 1,100 miles, the second longest air mail line in the country. During May this year, the first transcontinental air mail and airmail services recently inaugurated shorter the trip north by one hour and 45 minutes, and the trip south by one hour and 15 minutes. Southbound planes arrive in Los Angeles in time to make night train connections for Phoenix, El Paso, San Antonio, Dallas and Southwest points, effecting a saving of from 12 to 24 hours. Passes have also been reduced to a minimum of 35 cents.

Travel by air is no longer considered a gamble with death.

As we become better educated to its advantages, schedules will be improved and rates will continue to go down.

HALLELUJAH AND BANANAS

One hardly knows whether to be indignant or merely amused by the shameless manner in which our jazz composers steal and distort the melodies of the masters, in grinding out the syncopated song and dance tunes of the day.

It is a far cry from the majestic "Hallelujah Chorus" of Handel's "Messiah" to the notorious "Yes, We Have No Bananas," but they contain the essentially same melody. Rachmaninoff's "Prelude" has been transposed into "The Russian Rag"; "Marches" is adapted from Nicola's "Merry Wives of Windsor"; "Chorus" from "Imperial March" of Mussolini's "Carnival of Rome"; "Carnival" into "Carnival Rhapsody."

Some of the more "composed" are even brazen enough to identify by their source of their stolen arias, as witness a tune called "Ragged William," based on a theme from Rossini's "William Tell," and another entitled "So This Is Venice," a distortion of the well-known "Carnival of Venice."

One of the most serious sins of the talkies is to import a popular song, if they are to maintain their place as a popular form of entertainment.

TALKIES IN CRISIS

Will the talkie become permanent successor to the silent movie, or will it be a wide appeal, but as a steady development, the picture houses Frankly admit that the harshness and poor synchronization of talking pictures are getting on their nerves.

It is reported that several picture theatres have already discarded their sound apparatus and two of these silent pictures have met unusual success.

One of the silent stars, the talkies seem to be in a bind. The talkies are getting on their nerves.

HOW JOHNNY APPLESDED MADE THE EARTH FRUITFUL

Over 100,000 square miles apples blossomed in the fruiting light, sitting in the boughs of their cabs and at the extremities of their wings. The sun, who had preceded to them and who had preceded them, was the first to come to the tropic and watery ways of the Middle-West in the beginning of the last century when "Johnny Applesdeed" was born.

One of the first settlers in New England, he was born in 1801 with such an appleblossom of beauty that he was called "Johnny Appleseed." He had a great heart and a kind, gentle nature.

He was a man of few words, but, as he is often known as the "Janned up" version of Liszt's "Second Hungarian Rhapsody," Grieg's "Peer Gynt," and many operatic arias.

There are dozens of other similar examples of piracy which might be pointed out, which are easily recognizable by anyone acquainted with real music. But, as there is no way to stop such a sacrifice, it is probably just as well to smile, for indignation will not help matters.

QUALITY VS. QUANTITY

In the last few years, it is estimated, not many cities and towns are annexing territory and in other ways planning to make a good showing as possible when noses are counted by Uncle Sam's agents.

Long and low will be the shouts of joy in every town which the census shows has passed a rival neighbor in population. Walls of division, charges of padding the returns and other ways of making a town look good to show as possible when noses are counted by Uncle Sam's agents.

Such a town is much to do about nothing. While growth in population frequently does indicate a prosperous community, other factors are far more important. What kind of citizens a town has is more important than how many. If inhabitants are well educated, well informed, well and of high moral character, then people of the other large cities. But that people of the smaller towns and even of the rural districts are happier that the masses crowded for elbow room in the congested metropolitan centers.

The town to be envied is the one where the people have a community spirit, are neighborly, intellectually alert, devoted to the better things of life, and interested in their own business. As to material prosperity, it should not be judged by the number of millionaires a town has, but by whether everyone who wants to work has a job.

TOLERANCE IS NEEDED

In the present state of unrest, with crime rampant throughout the land, the need for tolerance and co-operation among honest and well meaning people is greater than ever before.

Too much energy is being wasted in fruitless wrangle over politics, religion and other controversial matters and too little is being spent in sincere efforts to promote higher standards of public and private conduct.

People will always have different views on many questions and no amount of argument or abuse will ever lead us all to the same way of thinking. It is proper to have convictions and to stand by them, but we should accord the same rights to our neighbors.

On many of the vital problems of our time a majority of people could agree, if they would lay aside their unimportant differences and join in advancing those things that are really important.

We are favored in prosperity and opportunity beyond all other nations, yet we are wasting a great portion of our priceless wealth through senseless wrangling over trivial matters. Above all things else, we need to cultivate the spirit of true brotherhood.

LOVE IS BRAVE

Will the talkie become permanent successor to the silent movie, or will it be a wide appeal, but as a steady development, the picture houses Frankly admit that the harshness and poor synchronization of talking pictures are getting on their nerves.

This question is no doubt causing a good many predictors to sleep less soundly just now. As a novelty the talkies have had a wide appeal, but as a steady development, the picture houses Frankly admit that the harshness and poor synchronization of talking pictures are getting on their nerves.
