T

LUICK'S ICE CREAM

ERCHANDISE

PANNANNANNANA

BARRINGTON REVIEW

AS TAX FOR ROADS TO EXCEED 28 MILLIONS
KINNEY ESTIMATES

Doubte 50 Con anto Advertise 1933 World's Fair

on Auto Licenses

Police Use Tear Gas Bomb to Tame Insane Farmer

Hangar Burns at Palwaukee Airport With 17 Planes

Jewel Minstrel Nets $541.86 for Local Relief Work

Route 59 Soon Kelsey Assured

Bonus for Veterans

REVIEW TO ISSUE EARLY NEXT WE

Young Farmer Hurt When Truck Hits "J" Train

an optional basis was due by the Recementary to the minority between the restoring the contents of the restoring the contents of the Recement Combat Drifts

Herman Hicks Dies of Heart Failure at Wheel of Auto

$2.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE, SINGLE COPIES, FIVE CENTS

HOWARD P. CASTLES TO BUILD IN SUMMER ON EVA CASTLE SITE

The residence of the late Mine Eva Coards, at the top of Grove avenue Mills, is being moved to a left on the west side of Summit street, near Hillington, and the conting which will be erected the conting summer by Mr. and Mrs. Howard P. Francis A. Barter, St. of 303 Garmanner by Mr. and Mrs. Howard P. Frindid street, Harrard, Ill., consincer on the continue of the

Palatine Lad Is Accidentally Shot Climbing Fence State Panel Climbing Fence Climbing Fenc Palatine Lad Is

ments, and for many years was noticed with a town band at Wanconda. He conducted an express business there and frequently drove to Bacchignton to pick up express considers. He had not been supported by the wile and one, Paul of Libertyille, Francisco, Paul of Libertyille, Paul of Libertyille, Francisco, Paul of Libertyille, Pau

to Fix Surplus Price of Milk

C. & N. W. Engineer Drops Dead Monday

Palatine Nash Agent Hurt in Accident

L. H. Grebe, Cary Hardware Merchant, Sells His Business

As New Service Headquarters Building of Public Service Co., to Cost $175,000, Will Look When Completed Next Spring

