

WD of FERA Will Succeed CWA in All Communities

Employees Will Be Affected; Administration Explains Difference

It is the intention of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration to discontinue the work of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration in all communities where the Civil Works Administration is operating, and to have the CWA take over the work of the FERA in all communities where it is operating. This is the intention of the FERA, which is the only federal agency which is authorized to make such a change. The FERA is the only federal agency which is authorized to make such a change. The FERA is the only federal agency which is authorized to make such a change.

through work on public projects. This employment in FERA is to be confined to the needy and it is to be under local instead of federal supervision, but essentially the idea of work in return for relief is to continue.

In Barrington the village hall and scout cabin jobs undoubtedly will be completed under FERA.

Corn Shredder Throws
T. Grounke, Local Farmer;
Arm Broken, Face Cut

Tony Grounke, 28 years old, who lives on the George Edrick farm three miles east of Barrington, broke his arm and suffered three facial lacerations last Thursday morning when he was caught in the belt of a corn shredder that was running. He had been trying to put some dressing on the belt when the accident occurred. Mr. Grounke was thrown to the ground with such force that his arm was broken in two places, just above the wrist and near the elbow, and his face was bruised, one laceration above the right eye requiring several stitches.

Double Pneumonia Causes Death of B. Grandy, Palatine

Ben Grandy, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Grandy, died at his home in Palatine early Tuesday morning after a brief illness. He became ill at his work last Friday and pneumonia developed, causing his death. He is survived by his wife, two small children, his parents, his father-in-law, three sisters Priscilla of Detroit, Mich., Grace of Davenport, Ia., and Ethel Godknecht of Palatine.

Mr. Grandy, a graduate of Palatine high school, was a star in school athletics, and once held the conference record for javelin throwing. He was well known in Barrington, having competed against local boys in athletic meets.

Funeral services will be held at the Palatine M.E. church Friday afternoon with burial at Hillside cemetery. Rev. Bloomquist will officiate.

Where Coffee Was Banned
