William Wascher Tavern Bombed at Cary Early Monday

Garage, Drug Store, Tavern Damaged by the Explosion

Bombing of William Wascher's tavern at Cary early Monday morning caused damages to three Cary places of business, ruining the front part of the tavern and shattering large windows in the Freeman garage and Myers drug store on the same street. Sheriff Lester Edinger who was called to investigate the bombing about 4:30 a. m. Monday reported that the bomb had evidently been placed at the entrance to the stairs of the building which was in line with the bar on the inside of the tavern. The big glass window of the tavern was exploded and the bomb was considerably damaged. Mr. Wascher's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wycherly were asleep in a bedroom on the second floor when the bomb exploded but were not injured although badly shaken up. No reason could be given for the bombing. Mr. Wascher having reported that he had no enemies as far as he knew, had received no threats and could give no information that might solve the mystery. He is a road commissioner in Cary and operated a coal and ice company in addition to the tavern, which had been located in the same place long before prohibition. Mr. Wascher had remodelled it recently.

Mrs. Emily Gleason Oldest Resident? Here Since 1872

Mrs. Emily Gleason of 213 E. Lincoln avenue celebrated her ninetieth birthday Sunday by receiving friends and relatives quietly and informally. There was no party but many sincere congratulations were extended according to her daughter, Mrs. Della Cady. "Mother is probably the oldest resident in Barrington," Mrs. Cady said. "She moved to Barrington from Missouri, where she had lived during the civil war, in 1872 and shortly after coming here married my father. They made their home at 213 E. Lincoln avenue and my father had his carpenter shop at 213 E. Lincoln avenue. So Mother has lived at the same site for 62 years. All of her children were born at that address and I believe several of the children died there. Mother can recall some interesting historical events and many exciting changes in national affairs." Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Harding and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harding were guests at the Glens-Cady home Sunday.

Smith has announced final arrangements for the opening of school Monday, Sept. 10. Teachers are to be on duty Thursday, Sept. 6 so that preparations for a full day's session Monday will be finished prior to the official opening. The rental system will be used for kindergarten classes, first five grades and junior high school (an innovation for the latter this year). Pupils of the junior high school must receive locker assignments from their room teachers the same day. High school pupils who have not registered should report to the assembly room on the same dates and receive their schedules and assignments to lockers. Forestry Experts To Fight Barberrry in This Vicinity

Local Students Employed to Survey Adjacent Territory

From the swimming pool to the field may seem like a long jump but three college students who have been serving as life guards at the local pool during the summer months signed up for work under the state forestry department early this week and started surveying local property Thursday with an eye to spotting that source of grain growing wild. Barberrry bushes, which have been employed by Mr. Edde DeFomb and Charles Hawley to grow grain, are a serious pest to the state forestry department to spend the next three weeks examining land adjacent to the pool. The pool and town properties as well as farms. Wherever wild Barberrry is found, the group will notify the landowner. Farmers and Village or town property owners have been asked to cooperate with these men by either digging up and destroying any Barberrry which they report or by giving them permission to do so. Barberrry is a very hardy plant and is gradually being eradicated by complete cooperation, according to forestry experts, since it spreads like wildfire. It will cause damage if left unchecked.

WE asked Otto Spilka what he thought of gas heat. Here is what he had to say: "We would never think of going back to the old days—the old heating methods. We installed gas heat when our coal bin was full—and never for a minute have we regretted it. Gas heat is with us to stay. These are Mr. Spilka's own words. Yet, if you were to ask any of the 20,000 other users of gas heat in the Chicagoland area, you would probably get the very same answer.

No furnace worries, no soot, no dirt
They know the comforts gas heat has brought to their homes. They know it is clean—absolutely clean. There's no soot to cover walls and curtains. No ashes to get furniture and woodwork dusty. No dirt to clean in the house or basement. Just uniform, clean heat, day in and day out, any time of the year. And with gas heat you can forget you ever had a furnace. No running up and down stairs to fix the fire. All you do is set a little thermostat on the wall.

Get the facts now
Investigate gas heat now—before you start the worry about winter heating problems. It costs you nothing to try it. You try it for one month, two months or a year before you decide. While you are trying it you pay only a small rental—only $3 a month for the burner during the heating months in the average home. This charge is included with the bill for the gas you use. If at any time within the year you decide you don't like gas heat, we'll remove it and replace your former heating equipment in good workmanlike condition.

Order gas heat now and save yourself a lot of worry and extra work this winter. Phone your Public Service office today, for free estimate and full details of our startling offer.

Frank Vokac Wins J. J. Norris Trophy in Diving Competition

Competing against a field of some of the best swimmers in this section, a team representing the Barrington swimming club captured fourth place in the annual Fox Valley swimming tournament held at St. Charles country club last Sunday. Frank Vokac, of Barrington, was the local swimmer who broke into the scoring column to earn a total of nine points for the Barrington team.

Notably of the first performance was that of Vokac who won the fancy diving and in so doing was awarded the J. J. Norris trophy, the first prize for the event. The trophy, a beautiful 20 inch cup topped by the figure of a swimmer, is on display at the Cadwallader jewelry store. Jo Park took second in the women's 50 yd. free style and Dick Drover, a third in the 25 yd. breast stroke for the other local scores.

The absence of Herb Fisher, No. 1 man for the home team, undoubtedly weakened the chances for a local win even though his presence might not have changed the final outcome. Fisher won both his singles and one doubles match in the previous battles with Elgin and if he had been able to play Sunday probably would have helped to add two more points to the Barrington total.

The strongest living thing in proportion to its weight, is the beetle. In experiments, scientists found that it can carry a burden 800 times heavier than itself. If man possessed proportionate strength, he could carry a load weighing 70 tons—Collier's Weekly.
