Guy Bush Gives League Data at Star Dinner

Baseball technique, the difference between a screw ball and curve ball and his experiences in the league were among the topics discussed by Guy Bush of the Cubs in his after dinner speech at the Father and Son banquet held at the Methodist church, Thursday evening. About 200 men and boys were present.

Hayden Bell of Bannaville, Cook county attorney and Illinois tax expert, served as toastmaster at the banquet. Musical numbers were provided by the high school orchestra, by Roland Kelsey and by Donald Bennett. In conclusion, Kenny Prete gave a reading.
Mr. Bush said he thought Paul Werner was the best player in the

Aquatic Snails

Aquatic snails are of two forms according as they live in quiet swamp marshes or in the depths of the lakes and streams. The first snails need only the shallow shells, while the river-snails require thick and strong coats of lime to protect them, and protection against their peculiar enemies.

A More Joyous CHRISTMAS

A happy Yuletide is assured this year for 210* families living in this community who are members of our 1934 Christmas Savings Club. These people have ready cash for a real Christmas. We know from experience that all or nearly all of them will renew their memberships for next year.

YOU, TOO, can assure yourself of a happy Yuletide next year if you join our 1935 Christmas Savings Club which will open December 1.

*This number includes only the Christmas Savings Club memberships and not the regular savings accounts.
