Baldwins Castle, Uneasiness
A world-famous example of a building settling unevenly is that of an unsatisfactory mud foundation in the Leaning Tower of Pisa in Italy. This building started to settle unevenly while it was being built and has continued to settle ever since. Thus it started to settle while in course of construction, some hundreds of years ago. It is dictated by the fact that efforts were made to correct the slant of the upper floors by building them higher on the sinking side. Even those upper floors on which correction was made are very much off level.

Snake Spits Poison

The snake which splits poison is the Egyptian splitting cobra. The mechanism of this splitting appears to be that by compression of the poison gland, the poison is forced out through a narrow tube. At the same time a band of skin is relaxed. This causes the liquid forward as a spray for a considerable distance and if it strikes a person in the eyes, intense irritation is set up which results in temporary and sometimes permanent blindness.

Stamp Collectors Value Old Christmas Seals

The Lake County Tuberculosis Association has recently received an article concerning the value of old Christmas seals which will be of interest to stamp collectors. The seal originated in the United States in 1907 when Emily Bissell used it as a means of raising money for a tuberculosis institution in her state.

The 1907 seal is not valuable, however, as the 1911 issue which was made up in coils for use in an adhesive vending machine is the one listed at $5.00 in stamp catalogues.

The 1912 seals are listed at $15 while a variation of the design is worth only half as much.

Certain designs of the years 1908 and 1910 are worth $5 each, a design of 1910 $3 and one of 1912 $1 each.

Collecting of Christmas seals has grown to such an extent that collectors have formed a society known as the Christmas seal and Charity Stamp Society. Collectors in all parts of the world belong to it.

The seal this year shows a picture of "The Little Red" first tuberculosis sanatorium established in the United States by Dr. Livingston Trudeau.

Chest clinics are supported by the sale of seals which are sold before Christmas every year.

Here are seven advantages of buying Zeigler

- Very little smoke.
- Quick and responsive, with steady flow of heat.
- Makes very little smoke, not dirt.
- Naturally clean in ground and hand picked to insure absolute cleanliness.
- Dense and firm in structure. Staves well over long period. Very little fine coal in storage.
- A size for every purpose.
- Coal is not dropped and shattered in loading to cars and it is carefully sorted to remove all fine coal.

Ask your supplier about Zeigler's special service. Write to us in care of Mrs. Zeigler, and you will find these seven points equally evident.

at Herlin Home

Mrs. E. M. Herlin, 230 Gladys, was hostess to the Delta Alphas class of the Salem church Tuesday evening. A playlet, "Turkey Red," was presented by the following members: Mrs. Clarence Miller, Mrs. Hobart Bergthorn, Mrs. Eugene Grabe, Mrs. Herman Wendland and family of Elmhurst were out of town guests. Mrs. Miller had the unusual pleasure of having her father, Henry Gill, 81 years old, present as did Mr. Miller his mother, Mrs. Mary Miller, 76 years old. Both parents of Barrington.

Eastern Star Honors Worthy Patrons

Lounsbury chapter O. E. S. entertained 200 members and guests Monday evening at Worthy Patron's night, with Arnold H. Sase and Mrs. Esther Grimm serving as host and hostess. Mrs. Corrine Clark of Bethel chapter, Elgin, served as acting worthy matron. Hubert Hansen of Day Star chapter of Dundee acted as worthy matron. W. J. Sennick, worthy patron of Elmhurst, was guest of honor. Other stations were filled by worthy matrons and worthy patrons from surrounding chapters.

Delightful refreshments were served in the dining room. Forty guest officers were seated at a table decorated in yellow and brown. Mrs. Genevieve Thacher served as soloist accompanied by Mrs. Vernon Meyer at the piano.

Celebrate Silver Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller were delightfully surprised Sunday when 45 relatives assembled at their home, 303 N. Ela street, to help them celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. A potluck dinner was served and the afternoon and evening were devoted to pinochle. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Robertson, 131 W. Main street, Rev. Charles R. Drusel officiated. The young people will make their home in Barrington.

Salem Choir to Sing at Naperville

The Salem choir of 25 voices and the direction of Mrs. John Mittske of Arthur Heights will give a musical program at the Grace Evangelical church in Naperville Sunday evening. Solo parts will be sung by Mrs. Mittske, Miss Josephine Beuscher, Willard Gleckley, Raymond Gleckley and Donald Landwehr.

Mrs. Miller had the unusual pleasure of having her father, Henry Gill, 81 years old, present as did Mr. Miller his mother, Mrs. Mary Miller, 76 years old. Both parents of Barrington.

Junior Play is Unusually Good

"Skidding" a three act play by the junior class of Barrington high school, Friday and Saturday evenings was an unusually fine production; it was enjoyable from beginning to end.

Each character was especially well selected, it seemed for each portrayed his part so well. Miss Ethel Schwab has again shown what can be done through patience and hard work. A large attendance proved the success of the play.

Is Honored on Birthday

A group of thirty relatives and friends spent Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Horn, 502 Grove avenue, celebrating Mrs. Horn's birthday. Games were enjoyed as were delicious refreshments served from the guests' lunch baskets. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Adams and sons of McHenry and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamini Clinge and daughter of Wauconda were among the guests present.

Yokes for Gossips; Used to Punish Early Scolds

The most effective punishment that can be administered to any wrongdoer, according to criminologists, is to give the malefactor a dose of his own medicine. At least, that was the method used during the Sixteenth century to punish scolds and gossips. Gossips and scolds were punished by being yoked together and made to talk until they not only ran out of something to talk about, they were blindfolded.

The "Scold Yoke" was a part of the regular equipment of every medieval jail. This yoke consisted of a board which was hinged together in such a way that two women could be yoked into it at one time. The head went through one hole and the hands through others. In this way they could express their views of each other with entire freedom, but with the result that the opposite party could not hit back. The offenders who were confined in this species of pillory often wore themselves out in denouncing each other, and sometimes would fall down on the ground together, totally exhausted.

—Montreal Herald.

The U. S. Coast Guard

The coast guard service of the United States is under the jurisdiction of the Treasury department, created by the act approved Jan. 29, 1919, whereby the revenue cutter and life saving services of the United States were merged into one organization, to be known as the coast guard. The coast guard is essentially an emergency service, and may be called upon for any special work of a nature for which no other vessels are provided. It is a military arm of the government, its officers are commissioned by the President, and holding rank with officers of the army and navy.

wall against New Trier, which is a larger school.

Lotta, tall Bradie center, was high scorer of the game with 11 points. William of New Trier accounted for ten of his team's points. All of the squad saw action in the game.

New Trier lightweights were too speedy for the Foxes and Indians, the locals 19 to 11. Coach M. G. Schreiber said his entire squad had to be blamed.

Overing, Pannepier, Plummer will not grow when the frost bites.
