A Few Words Concerning Our Business Policy

The Pedersen Dairy has successfully conducted a business in this community for 17 years by adopting and rigidly following these four principles:

Giving the best possible quality of product and service to

Buying from local farmers and local merchants whenever possible and employing local men—in other words spending right here in Barrington practically every cent out of every dollar received from our customers.

Always paying the highest prices market conditions allo to the farmers for their raw milk.

Offering continued fair treatment to our employes.

We will continue to serve this community on a sound and fair basis by following the same policy as before.

The Pedersen Dairy has been in existence during trying times as well as good times. Like many other businesses, this company has had to operate at a financial loss during periods of depression and discouragement in the dairy industry.

But through these periods we have taken our losses ourselves and never passed them on to the customers by giving poorse service or ang quality.

Our customers have received the best quality of mile obtainable delivered at their doors promptly, day after day, week after meek, month after month in spite of any trouble or inconvenience we may have ex-perienced in continuing this service. Regardless of temporary difficulties that may come up in our own organization, we will continue to serve our customers promptly and efficiently as we have in the past.
