The return of birds to this re

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Schwemm.
Mrs. Clifford Stout, the president, complimented the club for the way in which its vital interest in birds and their welfare had found concrete expression in the Barrington school's bird house contest.
Mrs. Robert Work, then gave an illustrated talk on "Birds of Winter and Early Sprine." She told entertainingly of the habits, peculiarities, and outstanding characteristics of many of these birds. Down, hairy and redheaded woodpeckers, authatches, juncos, chickadees, horned larks, sparrow hawks, creepers, song sparrows, bluebirds.
