Lake Zurich Community Woman's Club

The Reading Circle met at the home of Mrs. H. L. Wessner Friday afternoon, March 24.

Mrs. A. G. Schwerman reviewed the book "Sheep" by Arthur B. Zibelman. It consists of humorous and entertaining sketches of life in the sheep country of the Black Hills where they author, a shepherd as well as a writer, has made his home. He gives an arresting picture of this country and the hold it has on sheepmen, despite the seeming monotony.

The leader's wagon with its scientific economy of arrangement provides comfort and the requirements of a home at all times. The house is a long and hazardous season. Spring brings the lambing and the shearing season, and new flocks to be broken in, and the cycle is complete. Life is complete also—taking on something of the severity and breadth of the land itself.

Refreshments and a social hour followed the reading.
