Heavy Rain Floods Local Homes and Streets on Monday

Lightning Strikes Church
People, Chimneys;
Damage Slight

While the sun was shining brightly on Monday, a heavy rain fell over the city, causing much damage to property and flooding the streets.

The rain was accompanied by lightning, which struck the St. John's Episcopal church and several chimneys in the city.

The damage to the church was slight, but the chimneys were badly damaged and the roofs of several homes were also damaged.

The streets were flooded and many homes were damaged by the rain. The water was several feet deep in some places.

The rain continued for several hours and the flooding was still going on when it stopped.

The damage to property was considerable and many homes were uninhabitable.

The city officials are now working to clean up the streets and to repair the damage to property.

The rain was a great disappointment to many people who were expecting a clear day.

Federal Court Releases Outer Belt Railway From Government Injunction

Federal Judge Charles E. Woodstock yesterday ended a five-year-old injunction that had been issued against the E. J. & K. Railroad.

The government had sought to restrain the railroad, which has a freight terminus in Barrington, from carrying products of fellow subsidiaries of the United States Steel Corporation.

It was the contention, under an interstate commerce act, that railroads are prohibited from carrying commodities of a company in which it has any interest.

In settling down his "general" Judge Woodstock held the railroad was a separate company although the steel company does own all the stock.

Fish and Children Have Whale of a Time After Storm

In spite of the havoc wrought by the terrific down-pour of rain Monday afternoon there were some humorous sights witnessed in the village.

Goldfish belonging to E. Gross, 213 Franklin street, escaped from their outdoor pool and were seen swimming around neighbors' back yards.

After persistent pursuit by their owner, assisted by willow friends, they were corralled and safely locked up.

Trustee John H. D. Blanke found all the deep puddles in town to prove to "doubting Thomases" that his bicycle was amphibious as well as a dry weather craft.

He reported that locomotion is slower through water than through air.

Swimming classes were quickly organized in many neighborhoods and age was no handicap. In fact some men had more fun in the water than the children.

A few enterprising youngsters started a pushing service for stalled cars. Autos were moved to the street for a minimum charge of a nickel.

Speeders Beware! Public Tired of Reckless Driving

Chief of Police Pledges Strict Enforcement of Motor Vehicle Laws

Vigorous prosecution of the laws against reckless driving will be carried on by the local police department and the public should be expected by violators.

Chief of Police E. E. Baude declared before the village board Monday night.

The board passed a resolution instructing the police to exert every effort to curb speeding in the village. The chief accepted the challenge and responded that to be successful, the law must be enforced for everyone, no violator should ask for or expect leniency.

He turned to the trustees and declared: "Even you members of the board must practice what you preach."

A wave of indignation against reckless motor vehicle drivers has swept the village within the last few weeks.

A discussion of the situation was carried on at the Lions club, members generally agreed that motorists themselves must cooperate in wiping out the menace because a police department of three or four men can not possibly patrol all streets in the village.

It was reported that most speeding takes place on West Main street, North and South Hough street, North avenue, Cook street and Grove avenue.

Several local residents complained at the village board meeting Monday night that a great deal of speeding takes place on their streets.

Speed limits in Barrington have been reported as 15 miles an hour on residential streets and 15 miles per hour downtown.

Federal Grant on Sewer Project Is Reported in News

$206,000 Project Would Include Grant of 45 Per Cent

Although he has not received an official notification from Barrington's application for a PWA loan has been approved, Attorney David H. Maloney stated Wednesday that he is confident the published report that that effect is correct.

"With more than 90 per cent of the total an outright grant can be seen no reason why the village should not accept the offer," Mr. Maloney said.

A letter submitted to Barrington's problem, which must be met, is hardly conceivable.

Unofficial word has been received from Washington through news dispatches to the effect that the loan application filed by the village has been approved in part. A total of $206,000 is reported as approved.

This figure represents estimated cost of the first plan of changing the sewer and does not include all sewerage project. Work on a project is an outright gift and the remaining 55 per cent carries an interest charge of four per cent.

An official approval is expected at the next two weeks. Trustee John H. D. Blanke, chairman of the buildings, sewers and treatment plant, reports that he has received the past week stating that the application for Barrington had been turned over for approval at the department of public works.

Sea of Galilee Always Proves Great Attraction

A trip to the Sea of Galilee, or Lake Tiberias, as it is sometimes called, is ever interesting. High up on the west bank of the sea is Tiberias, the modern city occupying but a small portion of the site of ancient Tiberias, once the capital of Galilee, and after the destruction of Jerusalem the chief city of the Jewish nation.

Most ancient city of the world and one of the most important in the Bible is Damascus, a veritable paradise in the wilderness which has existed as a city without interruption for about 4000 years. Because the River Abana flows from the nearby mountains and distributes its waters over the plain, what would otherwise be a parched desert is converted to a luxuriant fertile field, orchards, gardens and vineyards. Above the white terraced roofs rise tapering minarets and domes topped with golden crescents. The private homes are the admiration of all. The apartments open into courts of remarkable beauty, where marble fountains play and lovely shrubs and climbing plants give freshness and fragrance. Damascus is closely connected with the life of St. Paul and the "Street Called Straight" is still to be seen, as well as the wall from which St. Paul was lowered at night in a basket.—Washington Post.

Poplar Tree Is Beaver's Favorite Along Streams

Beavers are as easy to raise as sheep or pigs. They are more profitable and give less trouble. The beaver flourishes wherever the poplar grows, and was once very much at home all over the continent from the Mexican border north, excepting only the deserts of the south and the sub-arctic barrens. For the natives it was an important source of food and warm clothing, and the value of its pelts was responsible for attracting the advance guard of civilization. For a century the beaver skin was the standard of value among the dwellers of the frontier.

As engineers their architectural ingenuity is sufficient to enable them to withstand their natural enemies, the bear, the wolf, the bobcat, the wolverine and the otter. But they are not nearly so intelligent as it is generally supposed, in fact they are so easily trapped as to be the most difficult animals to protect.

In their wild condition they are friendly and sociable among themselves, but regard other beavers and all other living things as enemies.

Girders Fall at State Hospital; 7 Workmen Hurt

Three heavy truss beams collapsed from the supporting walls of the new recreational and auditorium building at Elgin State hospital Wednesday morning injuring seven workmen, one so seriously that he may die.

Cause of the accident has not been determined as yet by hospital officials and contracting engineers.

The girders, estimated to weigh about 12 tons, crashed with little warning. A sudden cracking noise was followed by two loud reports.
Workmen leaped and ran for their lives as the tons of steel broke loose from supporting walls, tearing away a section of the north wall and sending bricks crashing into the midst of workers.

George Cook in Jail After Marriage to 17-Year-Old Girl

Elgin Police Find Couple; Warrant Served in Barrington

George Cook, alias Jay Carter, who was employed on a farm near Dundee until a week ago when he ran away with a 17-year-old girl, was brought to Barrington and served with a warrant charging him with contributing to the delinquency of a minor Tuesday evening. Matthew Peck, local constable, served the warrant and Cook is now housed in the jail.

The girl, Catherine Gavriluk, 17, was brought to Barrington on a farm three miles east of Dundee a week ago Saturday night and telephoned Cook where he was employed on a neighboring farm to come after her. They drove to Woodstock for a marriage license and the ceremony was performed. Since then, they had driven about the countryside

stopping a night here and there.
The girl's parents carried on an unsuccessful search for her but had a radio appeal broadcast Monday night.

Elgin police received a call from a woman Tuesday afternoon, saying that the Dundee girl whose description had just been sent over the air had just stopped at her place to get a room and that she and her male companion could be found driving on McLean boulevard. They were found by Elgin police, taken to headquarters and the girl's parents notified. She refused to return home with them.

State Highway Patrolman A.
Olson brought Cook to Barrington where a warrant sworn out by the girl's mother and charging him with contributing to the delinquency of a minor was served.
Cook is alleged to have a prison record. He will be given a prison hearing soon.

To Reason Things Out
To reason a thing out is to turn it into a collection of facts, to study their pros and cons, and to weigh them with a view to securing a preponderance on one side or another.

The Grooming of Aunts

Naturalists who have been studying the habits of certain ants have discovered that the insects go through most careful operations of cleaning themselves. Each ant performs this operation, not for herself, but for another. She acts for the time as her sister's maid. She stands by washing the face of her companion and then goes over the whole body. The actions of the ant who is being washed show the utmost satisfaction. She lies down with all her limbs stretched loosely out, she rolls over on her side, even on her back, a perfect picture of ease.
The pleasure the little insects show in being thus combed and washed is really an object lesson to many higher animals.—Montreal Herald.

"Hello, Bill"
"Hello, Bill" is the conventional greeting of Elks. It began about 50 years ago in the early days of the fraternal order. When one Elk doesn't know another's name, he supplies the word "Bill."

Rental Rates for Proposed Sewers Discussed Monday

diclary and accounts, reported many old water bills are being paid.
A letter has been received by the village from the state department of highways approving the installation of sewer signals at the intersection of Main and Hough streets. This approval came through upon a request made by local authorities a month ago.
Bills totalling $1559.70 were passed after some discussion and the clerk was instructed to notify the Engelhard Insurance Co. that the village desired to terminate all policies covering relief labor. They felt they were being charged an excessive rate in comparison with rates of other companies. A bill had been rendered by the insur-

of the organization working at work committee will spend the day quilting; it was reported, and the welfare committee will make

Miss Lipofsky Elected Business Manager of the Theatre Arts Club

Miss Irene Lipofsky of Barrington is business manager of the Theatre Arts club, made up of professional dramatic art readers and teachers from the north shore and northwest suburbs, and is director of one of the plays which will be produced by the organization during the summer season.

The officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. J. Manley Phelps; vice president, Mrs. Ross Van Pelt; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Daniel Hanks, all of Chicago; business manager, Miss Irene Lipofsky; publicity chairman, Mrs. J. E. Shawhan Jr. and Miss Dorothea Metzner, Norwood Park.

The club's program for the year was published in the Community Edition, Chicago, last week which gave credit to the organization for some fine work in creating interest in a high type of entertainment.

Miss Lipofsky will direct the play "Joint Owners in Spain" by Alice Brown. The cast includes Mrs. J. E. Shawhan Jr., Marjorie Kramhold, Virginia Carson and Mrs. Ross Van Pelt.

Other plays to be produced by the organization are "Fidelio" and "The Purple Door" and "Square Pegs."

Move to California
Mr. and Mrs. Warren Meier have moved to Los Angeles, Calif. where Mr. Meier has accepted a position. They left Barrington Thursday.

Return From Trip
Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Graber and family returned from a 1000-mile motor trip through the west Saturday. They were gone a month.

"Plus Four"
The term "plus four" has nothing to do with golf terminology, but originated from the Guard's regiment and straight trousers which were pulled up to the top of the puttees, held in tightly and rolled so that the trousers draped down over the calf of the leg. The order from upper quarters was that the trousers must be "plus four" inches over the top of the puttee.

The officers, who were distinguished, had knickerbocker britches made to give the same effect with more flare, and were eventually dubbed "plus fours."

Chinese Used Big Rollers
To Produce Their Sugar
While American pioneers were grinding their grain in stone rollers a century or more ago, Chinese immigrants in Hawaii were producing sugar in the same manner.

Two rollers, believed to have been imported from South China more than 100 years ago, were found under the ruins of one of the territory's first sugar mills, near Honolulu, says the San Francisco Chronicle.

The rollers, weighing more than a ton each, were turned by horse power to crush the stalks and produce the juice from which sugar was boiled.

Several mills were in use in recent times in Formosa and the Philippines, where communities produce their own sugar.

Steam-driven machinery in more than thirty mills in Hawaii produces more than 1,000,000 tons of sugar annually.

The rollers were set up in the original manner at Honolulu by the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' association through co-operation of the Hawaiian Historical society.

The society's files reveal information on how the mill was assembled when it was first taken to the islands, and the operation was duplicated.

One of the stone rollers is driven by a wooden arm to which a horse or mule is hitched. Wooden gears attached to this roller drive the other one. The stalks of cane are fed in by hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schroeder, 634 S. Cook street, plan to spend the fourth in Wisconsin.

Two Prisons on Alcatraz
Dungeon Under Buildings
There are really two prisons on Alcatraz Island in San Francisco bay, notes a writer in the New York Times, for beneath the buildings are dungeons which are never penetrated by daylight or the sound of wind and waves. Legend relates that these underground cells are remains of a prison built by the Spaniards shortly after the Aztecs sailed through the Golden Gate on his voyage of discovery. But some military authorities assert that they are abandoned powder magazines.

The government came into possession of Alcatraz some time before the Civil war. In 1854, the construction of a fort was started on the island. Four years later the fortifications were completed with a lighthouse and "impenetrable" batteries, the first defense of its kind along the Pacific coast. During the Civil war the fort became a concentration point for federal troops, and to Alcatraz were sent civilians who had manifested disloyalty to the Union.

In 1913 army officers led a movement to turn the island over to the immigration service, and to discontinue its use as a military prison. This agitation was unsuccessful, however, but two years later the term "military prison" was changed to "disciplinary barracks."

When the United States entered the World war, numbers of conscientious objectors, some of them socially prominent, were transferred to the prison, where they rubbed shoulders with hardened army malingers. Finally, the Department of Justice assumed control of Alcatraz.

Only Two Deaths Registered in Entire Country from Firecrackers

Barrington is to be congratulated on a safe and sane Fourth of July this year due to the absence of major injuries. No one seriously injured by the use of fireworks on Independence Day. A few minor burns have been reported. Motorists in Barrington escaped collisions and drownings occurred.

Throughout the entire city, there were only two deaths caused by firecrackers while staggering total of over 100 children died through automobile collisions.

Eighteen lives were lost in Northern Illinois by drowning over the week-end. Nine persons drowned in the Fox river at four points nearby.

Scores of persons left Barrington on trips and picnics to four days vacation going to parts of the country in search of interesting spots.

Swimmers took advantage of the hot weather Thursday, flocked to the pool at North park.

A severe windstorm from southwest through the country north of Barrington did considerable damage to trees and bushes. Palatine and Arlington Heights suffered the most when the wind was at its peak. Starting near Cromie, Wis. the wind left a path of broken, twisted branches and it. Many casualties were reported on Lake Michigan quick action of the lake patrol.

Accidental Death Verdict Returned in Nielsen Case

Accidental death caused hemorrhages and shock was verdict of a coroner's jury at inquest held Tuesday in the death of Mrs. Helen Marie Nielsen, 3224 Ridgeland avenue, killed when a car driven by O. Nielsen, husband of Mrs. Nielsen, struck her on the head.

The inquest had been pending for two weeks to allow principals to recover from the accident and also to give time for eye witnesses to be present.

Herman Burkhardt, 424 W. 11th street, Chicago, testified the hearing as did Miss A. C. (Mrs. Nielsen), 1544 Superior avenue, who was riding with Wagner. Both drivers of the car testified their testimony was to cause of the collision.

Neither Miss Christensen nor Wagner were injured. Nielsen received scalp wounds and bruises. Mrs. Nielsen died at a local doctor's office where she had been rushed by motorists.

Otto Gaare and Harold Hestrup of Palatine Injured in Crash Fire

Otto Gaare and his brother-in-law, Harold Hestrup, of Palatine were seriously injured in an automobile accident Friday on North highway near the intersection of the railroad intersection. Their car collided with another driven by a party from Chicago.
