WHAT'S GOING ON IN WASHINGTON

(Courtesy The United States News)

Toward a policy of "Let the seller beware" in the marketing of food and drugs, a house committee listened to testimony and recommended a bill to regulate advertising of edible products, drugs and cosmetics. It would empower the secretary of agriculture to seize goods deceptively advertised when they are imminently dangerous to health.

In opposition, a bill was presented by the New Jersey Medical Society, which sees no need for a new law. If the present act is enforced, it would be illegal to sell the company bill. Some samples of "attempts to mislead congress" which the committee uncovers:

One group of 775 telegrams only were paid for by the senders.

Of a group of 400 messages investigated by the telegraph company 250 were declared by the company to have been unauthorized by those whose names they bore.

Confronted by the formidable magnitude of its inquiry, the committee asks help from the Federal Communications Commission, which orders all telegraph companies to report under oath by Aug. 15 the facts concerning alleged forged telegrams and concerning destruction of originals.

Rep. Walter G. Campbell, chief of the food and drug division: "The present law is inadequate. It does not apply to interstate commerce. It is a bill of food and drugs under a special name. The proposed law also is inadequate. It should permit seizure of all products advertised by grossly deceptive statements."

Dawn begins to glimmer toward the day of practical television as the federal communications commission grants permission to the American Telephone and Telegraph Company to construct a special type of cable between New York and Philadelphia for experiments on long-range electrical vision.

A condition is added—that other manufacturers of television equipment must be allowed to use the cable also.

The line has another utility of far-reaching importance. It enables the simultaneous transmission of hundreds of telegraph messages, a fact that may lead, says the FCC, to a radical clearing of wire communication.

The day of free and unhampered competition by bus and truck lines with each other and with the railroads draws toward an indicated close as house committee reports out a bill to give the Interstate Commerce Commission the same power over them as it has over the railroads. School buses, taxicabs and urban bus lines would be exempted.

A similar measure already has been approved by the senate.

To employ the bus and truck lines, the new measure would bring objective bargaining guarantees under the supervision of the national mediation board.

Switching his role from mortgage holder to landlord, Uncle Sam, as represented by the Home Owners Loan corporation, foreclosed on 110 of the $83,000 properties in Illinois which he had advanced loans. Twenty percent of the total are behind in payment by 90 days or more.

Says officials: "There is no intention or likelihood that the government will take losses on the defaulted loans."

Size of Uncle Sam's stake in urban mortgages—from 15 to 20 per cent of the total, valued at some $1 billion dollars.

Continuance of farm planning is assured as the senate approves, 64 to 15, amendments to the agricultural adjustment act. The house had already passed a similar measure.

Two points in which the senate bill differs from that passed by the house:

1—No export debenture; that is, no provision for using tariff revenue to subsidize foreign sale of farm products.

2—No outlawing of suits for refund of processing taxes in the event these should be declared invalid by the supreme court. But plaintiffs would have to prove the tax had not been paid and would have to open their books to the government.

Deeper penetrates the scalpel of the senate committee's investigation into lobbying activities of utility interests against the "death sentence" clause of the holding

Rev. H. ENGELSCHIRK, Superintendent.

Q. Who was Henri de Tonty?

A. Antislavery who had served in the French army and a trusted lieutenant of La Salle during the early French period in Illinois. He was placed in command of Fort

Crevecoeur in 1681.

Q. Why did the Indians look upon Tonty as a "medicine" of peculiar power?

A. Tonty had lost a hand by the premature explosion of a grenade in the wars in St. Louis and in its place wore a hand of iron covered by gloves. At times he used his hand to kill effect in Indiana.

They knew knowing the secret of the severe blows attributed to them to make.

Q. What happened to Fort

Crevecoeur in 1680?

A. Tonty, shortly after taking command, left with a few men to expel the Indians who had left the fort to Starved Rock.

Those left at the fort sacked and destroyed it.

Q. What fortification did Tonty and La Salle build at Starved Rock?

A. Fort St. Louis in 1683.

Q. What was the fate of La

Salle?

A. He was assassinated in 1687

somewhere on the banks of the Trinity River by one of his own men.

Q. Who was the first practicing lawyer in the Illinois country?

A. John Rice Jones, born in Wales in 1750 he came to Illinois in 1790. His circuit extended from

Kaskaskia to Vincennes, (Ind.)

He was elected a member of the Indiana Territorial legislature in 1807.

Q. Who was Lincoln's first law

partner?

A. John Todd Stuart.

Sales Tax Collections
Total $4,034,947 for July. Second High Month

Sales tax collections during July reached the total of $4,034,947.22, the department of finance revealed this week. This is the second month that collections have exceeded the $4,000,000 million dollar mark, the high mark being $4,076,424.42 for May.

Department of finance records will not show the increase in the sales tax from 2 to 3 per cent until next returns are in. The increase, effective a month ago, is not reflected because retail merchants make their returns on gross business on the 15th of each month.

Methodist Men to Meet
Men of the Methodist church will have one of their annual community get-togethers Friday evening at the beautiful Rustic estate schoolhouse of Barrington. There will be the usual round of games, good fellowship and dinner, according to those in charge. Guests will leave Barrington about 11 p. m.

Modified Liquor Ordinance Passed at Board Meeting

Board Grants Vacations Monday to Monthly Employees Buy Park Seats

A modified liquor ordinance was presented Monday night the board meeting by Trustee John Dasech and approved the members.

The modification will not limit the number of taverns in Barrington to four. There are at present and as long as they remain in business no change will be made. In the event a business fails to renew its license then the ordinance will prevent the opening of a new place.

Upon a report of John Carr the board granted vacation monthly village employees to be related to the best advantage the employees themselves.

The police committee presented an offer to the village of Barrington a half of $17,500.00 which will be paid when the police car and the dairy truck had been used several months ago.

Trustee Kocher reported after investigating the water service he found that no repair or painting were needed.

Order Six Benches

Purchase of six benches to placed downtown was made up to the consideration of Trustee John Dasech, who had the matter. The benches will be made of concrete and wood by Tichy, 542 N. High street, and are to be six feet long and cost 15c apiece.

Upon the three new Illinois state books to be used by the police magistrate and the village board was approved.

A license for the rental of a parking lot behind the post office station was rejected to the Chicago and North Western railway men of the board felt service charges were too high and the village board was asked for the actual benefit of the village.

Upon a motion of Trustee Nathan Plagge the board moved to consider the insurance on the village hall passed at the last meeting. The bids are to be called for based on a new rating for the building.

Teachers, Pupils to Return to Ela High September

The 1935-36 teaching staff Ela Township high school, La Zurich, will be identical with that of last year when school opens for the fall term on Tuesday, Sept. 10, according to an announcement this week by J. L. Clements, principal. As has been the custom several weeks before the opening of classes has been set for the first day after Labor day.

Many students have been carded for the coming year. Mr. Clements reported, but those who have not may do so after Tuesday, Aug. 24, by calling at his office. This will give those who have not ready enrolled exactly two weeks to do so before classes begin.

And So Mrs. Jones Lays Aside

Thursday, Aug. 8, was one of Mrs. Johanna Krueger, 417 High street, had to give up her crocheting and piecing quilt blocks which, in spite of her years, she enjoys and for which she is quite skilled. No, it was her age that made her give up although she probably was more aware of her age on that day than she had been for some time. The day was her eighty-ninth birthday and what a day it was!

From morning till night a shower of birthday cards for Mrs. Krueger came from friends and almost before she had time to read the good wishes on them, friends began to drop in.

Twenty members of the Masonic Union of St. Paul church surprised her in the afternoon. Mrs. Hattie H. Hause, 415 Main, German folk songs. Mrs. Mabel read scripture and offered prayers and all the guests joined in great singing. This program was organized by Mrs. Krueger. Several beautiful bouquets, many presents and delightful refreshments
