No More Diagonal Parking on Hough and Main Streets

New Statute Allows Only Parallel Parking on State Aid Roads

Not yet learn new regulations, materialists not able to park their cars on the curbs on Main and Hough streets after having installed diagonal parking system
since automomobiles can furnish
complete debris.

from the state highway department stating that the new parking automobile on Main and Hough streets are not permitted. At the last meeting of the letter, Mr.
W. W. Olmsted is president of the organization, again this year and Mrs. K. K. Lillie is vice president.

Chandler and the White boys had attended prep school together.

Chandler circled over the White house in a new plane of 200 feet and few seconds south over the field where he attempted to bank around.

The plane suddenly went into a nose dive and crashed with the motor buried in the ground.

Chandler was pinned in the wreckage. The White family witnessed the tragedy from the lawn, rushed to the plane and removed young Chandler from the cabin. He was taken to the Sherman hospital where it was found he had seven compound fractures.

He had suffered a head wound.

At the funeral held Saturday, in Elgin it was learned that Chandler had 25 hours flying experience. The exact cause of the accident was not determined although witnesses thought the mortor was not functioning properly. O. W. Young, departing of

company, had been able to avert a crash.

Thor Roselli, manager of the White estate, and Duane Kingsley of Lake Zurich, were also evident to the accident.

Funeral services were held in Winnetka Monday with burial at Lake Geneva. Young Chandler was the only son. His father is a prominent real estate dealer in Chicago and the North Shore.

Each child of the grades is eligible to submit a floral arrangement and a specimen bloom (the latter must have been grown by himself).

Any container may be used for the arrangement—flat or originally is a desirable quality and will bring a higher rating.

"Call of the Wild" Billed at Catlow Sunday, Monday

"Curly Top" Starring Shirley Temple Here for Three Days Showing

With such outstanding features as "The Irish in Us," "Call of the Wild," "Curly Top," "The Whole Town's Talking," and "Orchids to You," the Catlow theatre is offering a wealth of entertainment value in their current listings.

"The Irish in Us," the James Cagney-Pat O'Brien opus, finishes in three days and can tonight.

It is followed by the Friday night showing of Edward G. Robinson in "The Whole Town's Talking."

The story concerns the hilarious adventures of an inoffensive, frightened little clerk who is mistaken for the country's most sought-after gangster. He is given a "warning" by the authorities to identify him at all times. His gangster counterpart, however, frightens the clerk into hiding nights while he uses the "pass-port" to carry on his criminal activities.

Jones, the clerk, finally decides an under-nourished courage when his dream-like, the lovely Jean Arthur, is kidnapped by the gangster.

Fans will chalk up another great success for Robinson in this picture.

In "Orchids to You," the Saturday night offering, Jean Muir has the part of a woman who is trying to keep her trade secrets which could break a thousand hearts; John H. Bole, popular singing star, is seen in the role of a clever society lawyer; Charlie Butterworth, star "deadpan" comedian, is cast as a wealthy idiot in "Orchids to You."

It is a good show.

Jack London's famous part of the Klondike, "Call of the Wild," is scheduled for presentation Sunday and Monday. Clark Gable heads the cast, with Jack Oakie and Loretta Young earning star ratings.

A stirring story of the Viking awakes across the screen with all the intensity of a gold rush, where men turn savage, and a woman is the prey of the fiercest.

The newest mystery film from the pen of the justly famous "The Man with the Golden Gun" continues the Gauntlet. Friday night, George Raft plays the role of the patient-leather sleuth in this spectacular murder mystery.

The happiest picture of Shirley Temple's career, "Curly Top" will be presented Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights.

In "The Whole Town's Talking," a charming story of a little girl who captures the heart of a lonely bachelor and makes both their dreams come true, Shirley has two new songs to sing and several new and intricate dance routines for audience approval.

John Wayne's comedy-drama, "John Wayne," is cast as a bachelorette who adopts Shirley and her big sister, Rosalind Hudson. His generosity takes them from the drab and dreary atmosphere of an orphanage to the sunny summer surroundings of a palatial home in Southhampton.

A color cartoon, and "Our Gang" in a new comedy are added. Home of Interest for this bill.

Look Pleasant, Please

MARY STAMMICK KERSEY

Mrs. Burns was getting ready to go to the photographer. She wanted to have a good picture, as it probably would go to all of taken, and this would go to all of the relatives. She had many of the important friends she had made in her club and church.

Her hair had been carefully waved, she had laid out her new silk dress to wear, and now she was applying her usual face cream and powder with special care. She had a good time, but there was no one to look after her.

Mrs. Burns did not appreciate Margery's interest, however, and ordered her away. She spoke at first in an ordinary tone of voice, then when Margery repeatedly returned, she spoke impatiently, and finally crossly; she could not send the child out of the room, so there was no one to look after her.

The photograph was turned out beautifully. Unfortunately Mrs. Burns did not realize that another quite different picture had been taken by Margery. Yet this experience, together with those of many other occasions, was painful in Margery's mind, and she was continually longing for the photograph of her real self, just as Robbie's picture of her would be.

Her little Robbie was with her, and little boys are quite as much interested in watching Mother "dress up," as little girls are. Mrs. White, seeing that Robbie was watching her, made a movement which every movement she made, allowed him to share in the wonderful process. She set him to work as her assistant. She let him hand her the comb and brush, the tiny hair pins, the cream and the powder, and finally Robbie had dressed her the dress which she had laid out on the chair.

Mrs. White realized that going to the photographer was not as important as the everyday task of being a mother. If the picture the photographer made came out poorly, it could be destroyed, and then she would have to start all over again.

Robbie was getting older, however, and through her conduct toward him and others, she was a lifetime picture. She would much rather have a poor picture from the photographer, or one having one ink stain than to spoil Robbie's picture of her.

Stanley Musick returned from his Wisconsin trip Sunday night. Marion, Mrs. Musick's daughter, Betty, Wilfred Kelsey of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Norris Iverson and sons, George and Francis of Downers Grove, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelsey.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Klemm and daughter, Betty Jane of Cary, and Mrs. Frank Miller and children, Alice and Eugene of Florida were Friday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lageschulte.

Kelsey school opened Monday with Miss Louis Baseler, Wauconda, as teacher. The school is meeting at 6:30 P.M.

THE WORLD'S HONORS

The world has always honored highly the people who do things the world values. To carry out this thought, the schools publish lists of honor students. Such recognition is useful, since these students are frequently retiring young folks, who are scarcely appreciated outside their own neighborhoods.

The colleges distribute honors in the form of learned degrees. The statesmen who has solved national problems, is made a doctor of laws. The master of social science is made a doctor of philosophy. The world does not pay much attention to these learned degrees. Yet in millions of humble homes, the working hours are shorter and the children better fed, because of the labors of these men of research.

Meanwhile the pitcher who can twist a baseball so the batted ball can't locate it with his swishing stick, may be better known in his home city than the constructive statesman or the patient man of research. The eccentric path of that baseball does not do much to make daily life more lively. But the results thrill the bleachers to frenzies of excitement.

The laborious scholar sits alone in his silent study, and communes with his books. But the football player who can worm his way amid the tackling opponents is carried off the field on the shoulders of his comrades, while the stadiums echo with the thunder of the rosters.

The highest honors ought to go to the people who teach us to think, because it is thought that the world escapes its troubles. We honor the people who can throw a baseball faster than the competing athletes. But we fail to pay equal honors to the men of science and philanthropy, who remove the fetters that hold men down to earth, and thus enable humanity to make use of its wings.—Enterprise, Norwood, Ohio.

leaks hadiy and needs a new roof. It is considered advisable to scrap the old reservoir and build a new one of 300,000 gallon capacity. This will then provide a capacity of 570,000 gallons which the village needs.

In many streets in the village there are dead end water mains which do not connect to the main circulating system. As a result water becomes stale and colored and appears to result from water hammer. In constructing mains from these dead ends to a circulating main, these troubles will be eliminated. The following construction of mains has been proposed:

Franklin street between Hough and Cook streets, Franklin street between Cook and Elie streets, James street between Hough and Cook streets, East Lincoln avenue between Spring and Summit streets, Harrison street between Main and Applebee streets, West Station street between Dundee avenue and Lakeshore street, Lakeshore street between Russell street and Main street, George street between Main street and a point south, Dundee avenue between Hillside avenue and Russell street, Prairie avenue and Russell street intersection to Northwest highway.

The total cost of the above project to the WPA as estimated and proposed, is $23,043, and to the village $2882 or a combination of $25,725. Of this amount, $16,560 is for labor, and $9165 for material. The work is to be done in a period of 4 months and the estimated number of hours of labor is $33,280, at 135 hours per month per man.

Beautiful Scenes Hold Interest of Many at Pageant

Costumes, Setting, Scene Thrill Large Audience at Dedication

A beautiful night provided ideal setting for Barrington most impressive community project in recent years—the pageant and dedication of the scout oak at Southgate park Thursday evening.

Twinkling lanterns enhanced the scene and colorful costumes added beauty to the spectacle.

Tests by which various tribes and civilizations sought to test the fitness of their young men were depicted in quick succession with 200 boys and girls of Barrington taking part.

After the pageant, "Dad" acted as interlocutor, introducing the numbers and reading a brief resume of each scene, in explanation of what was being illustrated by pantomime.

Costumes, scenery and sets had a professional touch, sponsored by council troops, campfire girls and girl scouts having assisted in the preparation of the scenes.

Mr. W. A. Fannin, coach of the production, received an enthusiastic ovation for her excellent work and was presented a basket of flowers on behalf of the organizations sponsoring the pageant.

Ray Wilmeling, "father" of local scout troops, was honored and given a special gift similar to the one presented to President Roosevelt prior to the International scout jamboree.

Seated on bleachers built in the hill, spectators watched the following scenes unfold in excellent artistry and color: Scene 1—The Coming of the Australian Aborigines, with their spear-throwing with black paint, the small boys depicted the terror of aborigines to prove courage on the part of the spectators.

Scene 2, "Bestowing the Greek Knighthood," by sea scouts appearing before a tribunal to display their fitness for adult life.

Six Motorists Are Injured in Auto Crash on Highway

Six motorists were injured; two seriously, Sunday afternoon when three cars collided on Northwest highway two miles west of Barrington. The injured were brought here for first aid and then taken to the Sherman hospital, Elgin.

The machines involved in the accident were driven by Ervin Christiansen, 3315 Elmwood house, Elgin; W. C. Tracy, 2000 N. Madison, Wts.; Harold Levens, 6658 Ravens street, Chicago and John J. Hardy, Chicago police lieutenant, 4518 Clarendon avenue.

According to reports received by William Gallagher, state highway patrolman, who investigated the accident, the collision occurred when Christiansen pulled out to go around Hardy's car and crashed head-on into Levens' machine. Levens was accompanied by his wife, who received a smashed nose and left eye, and other passengers and inmates injured. Christiansen's car was his wife; his sister, Miss Wanda; Edmund Litel of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. A. Rasmussen of Madison.

Other occupants of the three cars escaped with cuts and bruises and were able to leave the hospital Sunday.

WOODROW BRATTON Suffers Hand Injuries Loading Hay on Howell Estate

Woodrow Bratton, employed at the T. M. Howell estate west of town, suffered injuries to both hands Friday when he attempted to straighten a twisted rope on a loading fork while putting hay into a barn. The rope had twisted and as he tried to free it, his hands were drawn into a pulley by the moving rope.

Considerable flesh was taken off both hands and both arms were strained. The rope was lifted into the air by the hay fork. So great was the pull that a one-inch rope snapped before his hands were released.

Bratton was taken to a local physician by Martin Hogan, estate manager, and after the wounds were dressed he was allowed to return home.

To Begin Vacation Paul Purcell, superintendent of streets, water and sewer, will start a two week's vacation Saturday. In his absence E. W. Baade, chief of police, will handle that department.
