"I Live My Life" One of Featured Shows at Catlow

"Unfinished Symphony," "Anna Karenina" Included in Week's Billing

"Smilin' Thru," which will have its final screening tonight at the Catlow theatre, has all the appeal

of a musical, romantic drama, enhanced by the acting of Norma Shearer, Leslie Howard and Freddie March.

The nation's redheads—An-burn, titan, copper and plain carrot-top—ose from every state—
come into their own in "Redheads on Parade," the Friday night feature.

John Boles and Dixie Lee are starring in the farce in which music, dancing, romance and speciale need to tell a brief
comedy story.

The special benefit matinee scheduled for 3:00 p. m. Saturday will be an event of both social and musical significance. The romances and drama in the life of Franz Schubert set against the background of his own music provides plot for "The Story of the Unfinished Symphony," the feature production for the matinee.

Notable organizations, including the Vienna Philharmonic orchestra have supplied the music,
the leading roles are played by Hans Jaray, Martin Eggerth and Helen Chandler.

A return showing of "The Three Little Pigs" will open the program.

The matinee is given in aid of the Victoria hospital, on the island of St. Lucia. Lewis Bernays, British Consul General of Chicago,
heads the list of sponsors. Mrs.

Robert Work will be hostess for the afternoon.

There will be drawn for an entire change of program Saturday night. Zane Grey's "Wanderer of the Westland" will be the feature offering with Pathé News, act, cartoon and comedy as short subjects.

Sunday and Monday brings Joan Crawford in her newest picture,
"I Live My Life."

The story debut with a sophisticated debutante and a serious
-minded, but fair architect, whose love for Joan takes him from one of the isles of Greece to the skyscrapers of New York.

Brian Aherne is cast as the Irishman; Frank Morgan, Aline Mac-Mahon, Eric Blote and Fred Keating have featured roles.

A return showing of Claudette
Colber and Clark Gable in "It Happened One Night" is scheduled for Monday.

Wednesday and Thursday will be given over to the presentation of "Anna Karenina" with the notable stars, Greta Garbo, Frederic March and little Freddie Bartholomew appearing together in the leading roles.

Tolstoi, in writing this story,
probed the bidden recesses of a woman's heart—more deeply,
more pitifully, yet more understandingly than any man had ever done before.

Admirers will renew their enthusiasm for Garbo as this story,
with all its power and deep emotion unfolds on the screen. The production of this classic is as notable and authentic as that of
"David Copperfield."

HEALTHFUL BUT NOT FATENING

IS MILK FATTENING? The term "fattening" has come to be accepted as applicable to all concentrated foods, especially those which have a high fat, sugar or starch content.

Just why milk is popularly considered "fattening" is difficult to understand. The percentage composition of milk—87 per cent water and roughly 4 per cent each of protein, fat and carbohydrate—is concrete evidence of the fallacy of this common belief. Whole milk is a body-building energy producing food without equal but does not cause overweight.

Pure Pasteurized Milk is Essentially
Healthful—Use It As The Main Item
In Your Diet.

Funeral Services Held Sun

for Veteran Newspaper
Publisher

H. C. Paddock, editor of Cook County Herald, died Saturday morning. He was 84, after an illness of 10 months. Death due to heart failure and the infirmities of old age, quietly while he slept.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon in the First Methodist church. Arlington Heights. Rev. H. A. Koenig conducted services. Pall bearers were members of the family and grandsons of the deceased.

H. C. Paddock was born in Western Ontario, Canada, in 1882.

He studied for a teacher's certificate and obtained a certificate.

While acting as principal of schools in Canada, he married Miss Jane Jackson.

From this union six children were born, all of whom are alive.

Mr. and Mrs. Paddock came to the United States in 1908 and settled in Plaistead, where they taught at a private school, later moving to Shamban. Securing a position with Rand McNally, the family came to Chicago.

Mr. Paddock took newspaper work. He owned the Wheaton Illinois Register, Wheaton Herald, and Lake County Independent.

In 1928, he purchased the Palatine Enterprise and following year he acquired Cook County Herald at Arlington Heights.

He died Saturday morning in Palatine at 98 years of age.

There remain six children: Art of Palatine, an architect; Betty Abbott, wife of Fredrick; Marilyn, wife of Fredrick; Betty, wife of John; Beverly, wife of John; Fredrick, wife of Fredrick; and Fredrick, wife of Fredrick.

Mr. and Mrs. Paddock are survived by their son, Art, and his wife, Betty Abbott, and their daughter, Beverly.

Other survivors are his wife, Mrs. H. C. Paddock, and his son, Art, and his wife, Betty Abbott.

CLOSING IN ON AGRICULTURE

Where are those expanded foreign markets and safely protected domestic markets that the New Deal promised the American farmer?

What has become of the promises held out by Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt to American agriculture in his Topeka, Kans., speech, when he was running for the presidency? And again in his Sioux City, Iowa, speech? And again in his Seattle, Wash., speech?

Under the policies of Franklin D. Roosevelt, as carried out by the agricultural adjustment administration, plus the reciprocal tariff agreements, the American farmer has all but lost his foreign markets, and is beginning to lose his domestic markets by virtue of increasing agricultural imports.

The report of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce for the month of September, this year, gives comparative figures (undergeneral headings) for the first nine months of this year and the first nine months of last year. These figures show a decline in the value of exports of animals and edible animal products in the first nine months of this year, as compared to the first nine months of 1934, of $17,691,000.

The decline in the quantity of exports of meat products for the same period amounted to 70,191,000 lbs.; lard, 290,620,000 lbs.; wheat, 16,573,000 bus.; wheat flour, 596,000 bbls.; unmanufactured tobacco, 73,831,000 lbs.; raw cotton, 590,412,000 lbs.

The value of exports of vegetable food products and preparations for the same period declined $11,306,000.

That shows the speed with which American agriculture is losing its foreign markets under the New Deal.

Now for the record of how it is losing its domestic markets. Imports for the first nine months this year, as compared with the first nine months of 1934, show an increase of 41,835,000 lbs. of meat products; 21,304,000 lbs. of butter; and 26,650,000 lbs. of fish.

Did it ever occur to you that the best method of climbing higher on life's ladder of success is to remain ON THE LEVEL?

Advertising is what draws away the trade from the small village. Advertising will also keep it at home.

Petitions Bankruptcy

Paul Eichmann, Ela township, long noted for champion breeding stock in hog class, entered the International Livestock Exposition to be held in Chicago from November 19 to December 1. A group of Berkshire hogs were entered in heavy, medium weight classes.

Unfortunately contest rules did not allow of breeding stock the grand champions owned the Pomeroy Farm cannot be shown. At the Illinois State Fair, the championships were won in the Junior board pig and age sow class. A herd of Berkshire hogs has been developed by A. C. Bushell, owner Pomeroy Farm, for breeding purposes. This herd showed in state fair the title of champion in the Old Age, Senior, Junior, Junior Board and Junior classes. A total of 27 championships, 37 bristles, 46 seconds, third and 29 other places, awarded the herd.

Three other noted Lake farms, Thomas B. Wilson's Wilson Farm, and W. W. and Esther Farms at Libertyville, the property of William Purcell, of Chicago; and Anchorage Farms at Barrington, owned M. H. Karker who made entries for the competitions of the International Livestock Exposition at Chicago.

Anchorage Farms will exhibit parlor shorthairs which have been leading winners at state during the past two months. A collar farm will have entries in the classes for three sheep which in recent years their lambinations have won many of highest awards. At the 1934 national and state fairs and the championships of the Illinois ram classes and reserve champion in every entry; and Anchorage have been listed for the Belgian draft horse tests.

The forthcoming exposition meets on November 19, 1935, and the 30th annual agricultural exhibition of the International Livestock Exposition. Secretary-manager H. H. Heide reports a record entry of the 30 breeds that will be represented on the prize lists.

Growers from nearly every state in the union and provinces of Canada will exhibit entries in the International fair, and it is shown, the 17th to be held in connection with the livestock show.
