A Close One

The Methodist-Salem contest was just one of those close-all-the-way games. The score was tied 6 all at the half, 11 all at the third quarter, and 17-17 at the end of the game. In the 20-minute overtime session Eugene Latta put in a free throw for a Methodist victory. Salem had a chance to win in the final minute of the last quarter when Tate was fouled, but he missed the free throw and the game into the extra quarter.

Miller Bros.

Miller Bros. topped the scoring with four baskets and two free throws. All the Baptists broke into the point column.
